Hitting Streaks: 5—twice, July 17 thru 21 and Aug. 19 thru 25, '82.

'83 Season: After the most successful of his 8 minor league seasons, Glenn joined the Orioles on Sep. 1st and started 16 of the Birds' last 33 games at 3rd base (platooning with Todd Cruz) . . . He was not eligible for post-season play.

He started off well for the O's, going 8-for-24 with 4 walks in his 1st 12 games, but slipped to 2-for-23 in his last 11 appearances . . . Handled 45 chances at 3rd without error.

At Rochester, he led the league in walks (117), was 2nd to Charleston's Karl Pagel (brother of Colts' Mike) in on-base pct. (.464 to .477), and set career highs (with 1 club) in walks (he had 80 more bb's than k's), average (.309), hits (127) and rbi (63). His 11 homers were just one shy of his career best in '82 . . . Glenn played 91 games at 3rd and 34 at 2nd and was charged with 23 errors.

On-Base Pct./Walks: Glenn's ability to reach base safely over the past 2 years has been legendary . . . In that span, he has a combined .465 ob pct. (418-for-898) while batting .303 (206-for-679) and drawing 207 walks in 209 games (formula: h + bb + hp divided by ab + h + bb + hp + sf).

In his last 5 seasons his walk totals read like this (strikeouts in paren: '79-104 (38), '90-90 (31), '81-87 (33), '82-127 (53) and '83-126 (42).

'82 Orioles: Came up to majors 1st time when O's purchased his contract July 16 from Rochester (Bob Bonner optioned to Red Wings at same time), and became club's regular 3rd baseman against right-handed pitching.

On July 29th, he was optioned to Rochester to accommodate Mike Boddicker's promotion to Baltimore, but returned to the O's Aug. 8 (Ross Grimsley sent to Rochester).

Singled off Seattle's Gaylord Perry in his 1st big league at bat . . . In his 1st 5 games he went 5-for-13 (.385) with 7 walks . . . Hit his 1st (and only) big league homers run off Milwaukee's Don Sutton in the game that decided the eastern division crown, Oct. 3rd . . . Doubled in tying and winning runs in 7th inning vs. Toronto for his first rbi in majors. Drew 2 walks in a game 6 times . . . Committed 4 errors in 135 chances over 50 games at 3b.

'82-Red Wings: His contract was purchased from the Detroit system on Mar. 26 . . . Thru July 16 when he was 1st called up to Baltimore, Glenn led I.L. with 82 walks in 76 games and a .475 on-base pct. . . . His final AAA totals were 90 walks in 86 games and a .468 (169-for-361) on base average . . . Had an 11 game hitting streak (May 12-25), walked 8 straight times over 2 games (May 5 & 6 at Toledo) and hit 2 homers against Pawtucket May 31 . . . Played 3b (79 g), 2b (11 g) and ss (4 g).

Previous Pro Career: Was originally signed for the Tigers by Bill Lajoie, the former Oriole who is now the Tigers' general manager . . . Led American Association in walks (87) in '81 . . . Played 14 games in the outfield that year at Evansville.

Was Southern League all-star shortstop in '76 dispite playing only half the year at Montgomery .

Amateur Background: Played 4 seasons at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti (graduated '76), earning all-American honors at shortstop in his senior year . . . Was teammate of Bob Owchinko at EMU . . . Played baseball at Allen Park High School (graduated '72).

Personal: He and his wife, the former Natalie Janks, were married Feb. 13, '82.

1983 ATTENDANCE NOTES: The Orioles drew a club record 2,042,071 fans at home in 1983, smashing the precious mark of 1,797,438 (set in '80) by 244,633. The Birds averaged 26, 520 for 77 dates, eclipsing the '79 club mark by 3,173 per date. Both Baltimore's total and average attendance figures were fifth in the American League.

It marks the ninth consecutive season and 17th time in 30 years that the O's have gone over the one million mark in home attendance. The Orioles surpassed the historic two million mark in home attendance in the club's second-to-last game of the season versus New York on October 1. Over the final 35 dates of the year (starting July 14) Baltimore averaged 31,752 per date (1,111,334).

The O's home opener against Kansas City on April 5 attracted 51, 885, the second largest regular season crowd ever at Memorial Stadium topped only by the 51,956 that attended the '82 opener. The Birds had 11 other crowds of more than 40,000 and drew between 30,000 and 40,000 on 19 occasions. A four-game series with Milwaukee, September 16-19 drew 151,317, the third largest total for a series in club history. Overall, the Orioles drew more than 100,000 fans for eight different series, a team record. In 30 years, Baltimore has had 31 100,000 + series, 22 of those coming in the last five seasons (starting '79).

30 HOME RUN CLUB

Six different Orioles have hit 30 or more homers in a season 14 different times. Boog Powell accomplished the feat four times. Frank Robinson and Eddie Murray three times each, Jim Gentile twice and Gus Triandos and Ken Singleton once each. Triandos was the first Oriole to achieve that mark when he hit 30 homers in '58, earning him a share of the A.L. record for a catcher that stood unil '82, when Detroit's Lance Parrish hit 32 to set a new standard.

By Year: 1958-Triandos (30) . . . 1961-Gentile (46) . . . 1962-Gentile (33) . . . 1964-Powell (39) . . . 1966-F. Robinson (49) and Powell (34) . . . 1967- F. Robinson (30) . . . 1969-Powell (37) and F. Robinson (32) . . . 1970-Powell (35) . . . 1979-Singleton (35) . . . 1980- Murray (32) . . . 1982-Murray (32) . . . 1983-Murray (33).

Frank Robinson's club record 49 homers in '66 was the only time an Oriole had led the league in homers until '81, when Murray tied three others for A.L. top honors with 22.

100 RBI MEN

During the O's first seven years ('54 thru '60), nobody drove in 100 runs . . . Then, in '61, Jim Gentile broke the barrier with gusto while accumulating 141 rbi, still a club record.

Since then, seven different players have driven in 100 runs 14 times: Boog Powell and Eddie Murray (3 times each); Brooks and Frank Robinson, and Ken Singleton (twice each); Lee May and Cal Ripken (once each).

By Year: 1961-Gentile (141) . . . 1964-Brooks (118)* . . . 1966-Frank (122), Powell (109) and Brooks (100) . . . 1969-Powell (121) and Frank (100) . . . 1970-Powell (114) . . . 1976-May (109) . . . 1979-Singleton (111) . . . 1980-Murray (116) and Singleton (104) . . . 1982-Murray (110) . . . 1983-Murray (111) and Ripken (102).

Note: Murray became the fourth Oriole to lead the American League in runs batted in with 78 in '81.

LONG HOME RUNS/MEMORIAL STADIUM: The longest "measured" home run ever hit in Memorial Stadium was a 471' drive by Harmon Killebrew on May 24, 1964 off Milt Pappas over the hedge in left-center field . . . This exceeded by two feet the only other blast that has ever cleared the hedge . . . That was one by Boog Powell 469' to the same area off Boston's Don Schwall on June 22, 1962. Aside from these there have been three balls hit into the hedge (approximately 450'), by Mickey Mantle in 1954, by Powell in 1965 and by Frank Robinson in 1967.

Frank Robinson is the only player to have hit a ball completely out of Memorial Stadium. In the second game of a doubleheader with Cleveland on May 8, 1966, Frank hit a Luis Tiant offering over the left field stands and into the parking lot beyond, a drive that measured 451' on the fly and rolled to a stop 541' away from home plate.

GRAND SLAM NOTES

1983: The Orioles hit eight grand slams for the second straight year to tie California for the major league lead. The total also matched the club record accomplished three times previously (see more below). Baltimore topped the majors outright in slams in '82 (8) and '81 (5), and the club's three-year total of 21 is 7 more than any other big league team over that period ('81-'83).

All eight of the slams came in the 2nd half of the season with the O's hitting the final six in a 3½ week span from August 29 thru September 21. Baltimore hit five grand slams on the road: two by John Lowenstein and one each by Gary Roenicke, John Shelby, and Ken Singleton, and three at Memorial Stadium: one each by Eddie Murray, Joe Nolan, and Cal Ripken (see details above). In the two previous seasons, 12 of the club's 13 slams had been hit at home.

Murray's slam was the seventh of his career, tying him with Boog Powell for first on the O's all-time list. Jim Gentile and Brooks Robinson had six each. It was Eddie's fifth at Memorial Stadium, matching Lee May's club record.

Lowenstein, who tied ten other players for the major league lead with two slams, hit Baltimore's only pinch grand slam of the season, September 10th off New York's Goose Gossage. In '82, the O's set an A.L. mark and tied the major league record with three pinch grand slams (Benny Ayala, Terry Crowley, Dan Ford).

The O's yielded three grand slams in '83; George Vukovich off Tippy Martinez on April 9 at Cleveland; Toronto's Buck Martinez off Tim Stoddard on June 5 at Baltimore; and John Wockenfuss off Dan Morogiello on July 3 at Detroit. Vukovich's slam is the only one allowed by Martinez in his nine major league seasons.

There were a total of 78 grand slams hit in '82, 40 in the American League and 38 in the National.

Previous Years: The O's eight slams in '83 tied the club record previously accomplished in '70 (including one each in ALCS and WS), '79, and '82 (all in regular season both years).

The one-season club record is five, established by Jim Gentile in '61. That is an American League record and matches the major league standard set in '55 by Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs.

Gentile is one of seven to have hit two in one game and was the first of three to do so in consecutive plate appearances. That event took place on May 9, '61 at Minnesota (off Pete Ramos and Paul Giel).

Subsequently, the Tigers' Jim Northrup hit back-to-back slams in '68, then two years later, the Orioles' Frank Robinson hit consecutive slams at Washington (RFK Stadium) in the 5th and 6th innings on June 26, '70.

Brooks Robinson blasted bases loaded homers in consecutive games in '62: on May 6 at Dodger Stadium vs. California (Ken McBride) and May 9 at Baltimore vs. K.C. A's (Ed Rakow).

Dave McNally, who hit one in the third game of the '70 WS off Cincinnati's Wayne Granger, remains the only pitcher ever to hit a grand series slam . . . Mike Cuellar was the first player to hit a grand slam in ALCS competition, connecting off Minnesota's Jim Perry in game one of the '70 series at Metropolitan Stadium. That was the only slam in ALCS history until '82 when Don Baylor of California hit a bases loaded homer off the Brewer's Moose Haas in game four at Milwaukee . . . The Dodgers' Ron Cey and Dusty Baker are the only two to hit slams in the NLCS (both in '77).

Opponents: In 30 years, the Orioles have "out-slammed" their opponents 108-63 (including a 60-29 advantage at Memorial Stadium).

Seven opponents have hit two career slams against the O's (nobody has hit more), including three who have hit both at Memorial Stadium: Roy Sievers (Was.), Moose Skowron (N.Y.) and Mike Epstein (Was.) . . . The other "two-timers" are Rico Petrocelli (Bos.), Ray Boone (Det.), Darrell Porter (Mil.), and Cookie Rojas (K.C.).

Grand Slam Gophers: A total of seven opposing pitchers have yielded two grand slams each to the Orioles (no one has allowed more than two) . . . Don Aase of the Angels is the only active on that list (to Lee May on May 5, '79 and to Doug DeCinces on Aug. 27, '81, both in Baltimore).

Among Orioles' pitchers, Milt Pappas was the most generous. He gave up six bases loaded homers during his tenure in Baltimore while Dave McNally was victimized four times. Among the current O's, only Dennis Martinez (to Jeff Burroughs in '81 and Dave Winfield in '82) and Sammy Stewart (to Bump Wills and Tony Armas, both in '80) have yielded more than one career slam. Jim Palmer and Mike Flanagan, have never thrown grand slam "gophers".

The Orioles won more than 100 games in each of three straight seasons—'69 (109), '70 (108) and '71 (101). Only two other clubs have achieved this feat in the history of major league baseball: the '29-'30-'31 Philadelphia A's (104-102-107) and the '42-'43-'44 St. Louis Cardinals (106-105-105).

The Orioles produced at least one 20-game winner for 13 consecutive seasons from '68 thru '80 to establish a new major league record. The O's shared the previous mark with the New York Giants, who had Christy Mathewson to produce twelve straight 20-win seasons from 1903-14. Baltimore has been blanked in that department for the last three seasons.

In 1971 four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau. The only other foursome in the entire history of major league baseball to have achieved the feat were four hurlers from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21 and Ed Cicotte-21. Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland.

The four Orioles all won their 20th games within six days: McNally was the first on 9/21; then in a series in Cleveland, the other three joined him: Cuellar (9/24-1st game-clinched division title), Dobson (9/24-2nd game), and Palmer (9/26).

Steve Stone is the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to team record 25 victories in '80. Three other Orioles' hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: McNally (8/25) and Cuellar (8/27) in '70 and Palmer (8/30) in '75.

S. Stone-T. Martinez vs. Mil., 7/30/79 (A)
Boddicker-Stewart-T. Martinez, vs. N.Y., 10/2/83 (H)

*Orioles lost, 2-1, when Tigers scored twice in top of 9th inning . . . First Detroit run scored on Barber's wild pitch and deciding run scored on error.

§Johnson and Zuverink were beaten by Jack Harshman who also pitched one-hitter . . . Bertaina defeated Bob Meyer who also threw one-hitter . . . Score in both games was 1-0.

NO-HITTERS BY OPPONENTS

Two no-hitters have been pitched against the Orioles in the 29 years they have been back in the American League, both by the Angels. Bo Belinsky was the first, on May 5, '62 at Dodger Stadium, winning 2-0 over Steve Barber . . . In 1975 Nolan Ryan no-hit the Orioles on June 1 at Anaheim Stadium, defeating Ross Grimsley, 1-0.

BIGGEST LIFETIME WINNERS-LOSERS vs. ORIOLES

Winners: Whitey Ford, the Yankee Hall of Famer, still holds the distinction of having beaten the Orioles more often than any other even though he has been retired since '67 . . . Ford was 30-16 lifetime against the Birds.

He is followed by "Catfish" Hunter (26-24), Mickey Lolich (25-19), Billy Pierce (23-11), Early Wynn and Frank Sullivan (both 21-8), Jim Kaat (21-21), Earl Wilson (20-9), Luis Tiant (20-21), Jim Perry (20-22) and Camilo Pascual (20-23).

Losers: Hunter, the second biggest winner against the O's, is also the biggest loser (24) . . . It wasn't always thus . . . At one time, he was 23-16 vs. the O's, then lost eight of his last 11 decisions (from '76 thru '78, and had no record in '79).

Others oft-beaten by the Birds are: Tiant and Jim Perry (22), Fritz Peterson (14-21), Kaat (21), Lolich (19) and Sam McDowell (9-19) . . . Probably the least successful opponent was Jim Colborn, formerly of Milwaukee, K.C., and Seattle, who was 3-17 lifetime . . . Rudy May is 3-15, Len Barker 3-8, Milt Wilcox 3-12, Geoff Zahn 2-10, Matt Keough 1-8, and Mike Caldwell 3-9.

Notes: Eddie Murray won his second consecutive Gold Glove for fielding excellence in '83. The only Baltimore first baseman to ever win the award, Murray becomes the eighth multiple Gold Glove award winner in club history (see below).

With a total of 47 Gold Gloves since the inception of the award in '57, the Orioles lead the majors by a substantial margin over St. Louis, which had two winners in '83 for a total of 39. Other leaders are Cincinnati-37, New York Yankees and Philadelphia-30 each, and Boston and Pittsburgh-29 each.

Baltimore won at least one Gold Glove for 20 consecutive years from '60 thru '79, capturing four in a season five times, three awards twice, and two in six different seasons. Multiple Orioles' individual winners: Brooks Robinson-16 (tied with Jim Kaat for most ever by one player); Paul Blair and Mark Belanger-8 each; Jim Palmer and Bobby Grich-4 each; Dave Johnson-3, and Luis Aparicio and Murray-2 each.

The Gold Glove Awards are presented by The Sporting News in cooperation with the Rawlings Sporting Goods Company to those players considered to be the best at their positions by vote of league managers and coaches. Selection is based not only on consistency (i.e., fielding percentage) but also on range, overall ability, and effectiveness.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLES

This award is presented annually by the Sports Boosters of Maryland to the most valuable Oriole player by vote of sportswriters and broadcasters who cover the club on a regular basis.

In 1983, Eddie Murray and Cal Ripken finished in a tie for the award, only the 3rd time in 30 years that two players have shared the "mvo". Both Murray and Ripken received four first and four second place votes while the other five of the 13 total voters elected to split their first place vote between the two. Thus, each received 52 points on the 5-3-1 scoring system with Scott McGregor third and Tippy Martinez and Mike Boddicker also receiving some support.

It was the third consecutive year that Murray has won the award (he was a unanimous selection in '81 & '82), the first time in club history that has been accomplished. Players had won back-to-back "mvos" on three previous occasions: Frank Robinson ('66-'67), Boog Powell ('69-'70), and Jim Palmer ('72-'73). The complete list:

ORIOLES TO MAKE SECOND JAPAN TOUR IN OCTOBER '84

The Orioles are scheduled to make a 3-week tour of Japan following the '84 season as part of the 50th anniversary observance of the founding of the Yomiuri (Tokyo) Giants.

The Orioles, who were chosen to represent the major leagues by virtue of their 1983 World Series victory, will play 15 games on the tour, sponsored by the Yomiuri Shimbun, Japan's leading newspaper (8 million daily circulation) and owner of the Giants.

They will depart Baltimore on Wednesday, October 24th via Japan Air Lines Charter and will fly to Japan via Anchorage, Alaska, arriving in Tokyo approximately 13 hours later. They will return to Baltimore on Friday, November 16.

Baltimore's visit, which will include 5 games against the winner of the 1984 Japan Series (the country's equivalent of the World Series), will be the 13th by a major league team and the 19th overall by a squad of major leaguers.

It will be the Orioles' 2nd trip. In 1971 after losing a 7-game WS to the Pirates, the Birds spent a month in Japan where they were 12-2 with 4 ties against players and teams representing Japan's Central and Pacific Leagues.

The first Japan venture by American players occurred in 1913 when John McGraw's Giants and Charles Comiskey's White Sox made an around-the-world trip with a stop in Japan. In 1922 Casey Stengel took an all-star team to Japan, but the first officially sanctioned tour took place in 1931 when another all-star team, featuring 7 Hall of Famers including Lou Gehrig and Lefty Grove, went un-defeated in 17 games.

The custom of sending full American teams to Japan began in 1953 when the New York Giants represented the U.S. The most recent club to make the trip was the Kansas City Royals who went 9-7-1 in 1981.

There are only two uniformed Orioles still with the club who made the 1971 trip: Jim Palmer and bullpen coach Ellie Hendricks. However, Ken Singleton, Rick Dempsey, and Dennis Martinez (along with Earl Weaver, trainer Ralph Salvon, and club physician Dr. Leonard Wallenstein) accompanied a group of major league all-stars that went to Japan in 1979.

*The N.L. stars were 4-2-1 against the A.L. Then a combined U.S. team went 1-1 in two games against Japanese competition.

NOTES: The Yomiuri Giants were organized in 1934, but Japan's Central League of which they are a charter member did not begin operating until 1936. The Pacific League was formed in 1950 and that was also the first year of the annual Japan Series. The Giants have won 32 Central League pennants and have appeared in 23 of 34 Japan Series. However, their attempt to win a 17th Japan Series title in 1983 was foiled by the Pacific League titlist, the Seibu (Tokyo) Lions, in seven games.

There are 12 teams in Japan, six in each league, but only six cities are represented. There are four clubs in Tokyo, four in Osaka, and one each in Hiroshima, Yokohama, Nagoya, and Kawasaki (Baltimore's sister city, just south of Tokyo).

Five pennant-winning clubs have gone to Japan (i.e., in the year they won the pennant): '55 Yankees, '56 Dodgers, '66 Dodgers, '68 Cardinals, and '71 Orioles. But, the Japanese have never hosted a World Series winner.

In 1971, Ellie Hendricks led the O's in batting with a .400 average (16-for-40), but Boog Powell was the Birds' most productive hitter with 6 home runs and 14 rbi in 18 games. Mike Cuellar and Pat Dobson led the pitchers with 3-0 records, and Dobson pitched the only no-hitter in the history of American baseball tours to Japan. Palmer was 2-1. Despite five shutouts by the Orioles, Manager Earl Weaver had to go to his bullpen often and in one game used infielder Jerry DaVanon on the mound, much to the consternation of the Japanese.

In their 1981 tour, the Kansas City Royals were under .500 at 5-7-1 before winning their last four games. No American team has had a losing record, but the '66 Dodgers came closest. They were 9-8-1 after losing a four-game World Series to the Orioles.

Several former Orioles players have gone to Japan after completing their major league careers, including: Dave Johnson, now the manager of the Mets, who was the 2nd American ever to play for the Yomiuri Giants ('75-'76); Don Buford; Bob Nieman; Billy Klaus; Jim Gentile; Jerry Adair; Fred Valentine; Mike Reinbach; and Bob Reynolds.

Among former major leaguers now playing in Japan (there is a limit of two foreign players per club), the best known in the U.S. are: Reggie Smith, Bump Wills, and Hector Cruz.

TRIPLE PLAYS

The Orioles have been shutout in that department the last four years.

The Birds' last two triple plays ('78 & '79) were of the "around the horn" variety involving Doug DeCinces, Rich Dauer, and Eddie Murray. Brooks Robinson started the other three Orioles' "around the horn" triple plays.

Jun. 10, '79—at Bal.—Buddy Bell "gitp" . . . 5-4-3 (DeCinces, Dauer, Murray).

Sep. 9, '78—at Tor.—Rick Cerone "gitp" . . . 5-4-3 (DeCinces, Dauer, Murray).

Jun. 3, '77—at K.C.—John Wathan hit a sac fly to Pat Kelly in right. Fred Patek was caught off 1st and was out, Kelly to Mark Belanger to Billy Smith back to Belanger. Belanger then noticed Dave Nelson standing off 3rd base. He ran at him and tagged him out, completing the game-ending triple play and giving the O's a 7-6 win—9-6-4-6-6.

Sep. 29, '73—at Det.—Frank Howard "gitp" . . . 5-4-3 (B. Robinson, B. Grich, T. Crowley).

Jul. 7, '73—vs. Oak. at Bal.—Gene Tenace "gitp" . . . 5-4-3 (B. Robinson, B. Grich, E. Cabell).

Aug. 6, '69—vs. K.C. at Bal.—Eilseo Rodriguez "gitp" . . . 5-4-3 (B. Robinson, D. Johnson, B. Powell).

Apr. 9, '59—at Was.—Ed Fitzgerald line drive . . . 3-6-3 (Boyd, Carrasquel, Boyd).

Aug. 3, '55—vs. K.C. at Bal.—Art Ceccarelli "gitp" then runner was thrown out at home . . . 3-6-2 (G. Triandos, W. Miranda, H. Smith).

The Orioles have hit into 13 triple plays in 30 seasons, the last victim being Gary Roenicke against Oakland at Baltimore on May 7, '79. He grounded to third baseman Wayne Gross, who started an "around the horn" 5-4-3 triple play, the first executed against the Orioles since 1972. On four of the 13 occasions that Birds' opponents have completed triple plays, Brooks Robinson has been the batter. Brooks grounded into one, lined into another, and two were "gidp's", with a runner then being thrown out between third and home.

DETAILED SUMMARY
ORIOLES 1983 SEASON

Final Record: 98-64 (.605)—First in A.L. Eastern Division, six games ahead of Detroit.

Home: 50-31 Road: 48-33 vs. East: 43-35 vs. West: 55-29

ARTIFICIAL TURF: In '83, the Orioles were 16-8 in the 4 A.L. ballparks with artificial turf (K.C., 4-2; Min., 5-1; Sea., 5-1; Tor., 2-4), tying them with Chicago for the league's best winning percentage on the turf (.667). In addition, the Birds won all 3 games played on Veterans Stadium's artificial turf in the world series (games 3, 4, 5) for a 19-8 composite record.

Baltimore's lifetime mark on the carpet is 114-102. The O's are 107-98 in A.L. stadiums (Chi., 27-24 ('68-'75); K.C., 23-38; Min., 8-4; Sea., 23-14; Tor., 26-18) and 7-4 in 4 world series ('70 Cin., 2-0; '71 Pit., 0-3; '79 Pit., 2-1; '83 Phi., 3-0).

The Birds were 12-13 on the carpet in '82, 5-3 in '81, 9-10 in '80, and 14-7 in '79 (including world series).

BATTING/HOME RUNS: The Orioles' team batting average of .269 (1492-for-5546) was 7th in the A.L. but marked the second highest club figure ever, topped only in '80 (.273). Baltimore led the major leagues with 168 home runs, topped the A.L. with a .343 on-base percentage, and tied California for the major league lead with 8 grand slams (see page 11).

In addition, the club finished one between league leader Chicago in runs (799) and rbi (761) while also placing second in walks (601) and doubles (283, tie). The Birds were 3rd in slugging (.421), extra base hits (478), and intentional walks (48). Club records were established in doubles, extra base hits, total bases (2333), and slugging. In other categories, the O's were tied for 3rd in men left on base (1165), 4th in GIDPs (144), 5th in total bases, and 7th in total hits (1492, 2nd highest figure in club history).

Baltimore batted .263 (683-for-2600) with 83 home runs and 362 runs scored in 76 first half games and .275 (809-for-2946) with 85 homers and 437 runs scored in 86 contests after the all-star break.

CLOSE GAMES/LATE-INNING WINS: The Orioles' combined record of 41-30 (.577) in one and two run games was the 2nd best among American League clubs to Chicago (48-31, .608). For the 2nd consecutive year, the Birds had the league's top mark in two-run games at 21-11 (.656), and the club was 6th in performance in one-run contests at 20-19 (.513).

The O's came from behind to win on 36 occasions and were 34-13 in games decided in the 7th inning or later. Baltimore was 70-7 in contests in which it led entering the 7th inning.

The O's won 8 games in "sudden death" at Memorial Stadium, the last 6 coming in a period from August 5 thru September 19. The final 2 "sudden death" wins came against Milwaukee in back-to-back games (September 18 & 19) with rookie catcher John Stefero driving in the winning run both times. Baltimore was also beaten in "sudden death" 6 times on the road.

The Orioles finished with a 9-7 (.563) record in extra-inning games, 6th in the circuit.

DAY/NIGHT: Baltimore had the league's 2nd best record in night games at 69-46 (.600), topped only by Detroit, 69-43 (.616). In day games, the O's were 29-18 (.617), 4th best in the A.L.

DAYS IN EACH POSITION: 1st (117), 2nd (48), 3rd (11), 4th (3), 5th (0), 6th (0), 7th (1). After the 1st 5 days of the season, the Orioles were lower than third only once as they fell to 4th for one day on Aug. 12. The club led the A.L. for the final 39 days, starting Aug. 26 and overall for 65 of the final 75 days, beginning July 20. The O's largest lead was an 8½ game advantage for one day on Sep. 21, while the team's biggest deficit was only 3 games, which occurred 5 times in a week-long period between July 9 & 16. Other than that, the Birds did not trail by more than 2 games all season.

DESIGNATED HITTERS: Orioles' designated hitters combined for a .269 (154-for-573) average with 21 homers and 90 rbi and league highs of 109 walks and a .387 on-base percentage. The club was 5th in batting and home runs by designated hitters. For the 2nd consecutive year, most of the dh chores were performed by Ken Singleton, who batted .275 (139-for-506) with 18 homers, 83 rbi, and 99 walks in 150 games. He led all A.L. dhs in walks, was 2nd in on-base percentage (.394), and 3rd in at bats (506). Singleton also set a club record for dh walks and tied the team mark for rbi by a dh, previously accomplished by Tommy Davis ('73 & '74).

Other Orioles to see some action in the dh role were Benny Ayala, .192 (5-for-26), 1 hr, 1 rbi; Jim Dwyer, .294 (5-for-17), 1 hr, 4 rbi; Eddie Murray, .333 (2-for-6), 1 hr, 2 rbi; Al Bumbry, .167 (1-for-6); John Lowenstein, .250 (1-for-4); Gary Roenicke (0-for-4); Mike Young (0-for-3); and John Shelby (1-for-1).

DOUBLEHEADERS: The O's participated in 8 doubleheaders, winning 5, losing 1, and splitting 2. The club's .750 (12-4) winning percentage in doubleheader games was 2nd in the A.L. to Milwaukee at .800 (8-2). The sweeps came in twinbills vs. Chicago on May 17; vs. Kansas City on Aug. 19; at New York on Sep. 10; at Boston on Sep. 13; and at Detroit on Sep. 21. The Birds split with Cleveland on Apr. 16 and New York on Sep. 30, both at Baltimore, and dropped a pair at Cleveland on Aug. 2. Baltimore was 1-0-1 in day doubleheaders and 4-1-1 in twi-nighters.

FIELDING: The Orioles finished 5th in the American League with a .981 fielding percentage, committing 121 errors in 6262 total chances. It was the club's lowest finish since '65 (also 5th), although the O's, at .980677, were just behind Toronto (.981110) and Chicago (.980980). Baltimore had finished 1st or 2nd in fielding percentage 18 times in the previous 23 seasons ('60-'82). The club's catching corps had just 5 passed balls, 2nd lowest in the A.L. and tying the team record for fewest in a season, previously accomplished in '56 and '75. The Birds also matched another club mark with 6 errors in a game, June 9 vs. Milwaukee.

INDIVIDUALS: Rick Dempsey led all A.L. catchers with a .997 (2 errors/658 total chances) fielding percentage while committing a league low one passed ball. The O's all-time leader in games caught (862), Dempsey finished 3rd in the league in assists (65) and threw out 30 of 82 runners attempting to steal.

Cal Ripken, who tied an A.L. mark by playing in all 162 games at shortstop, topped the circuit in assists (534), total chances (831), and double plays (113), and was 2nd in assists (272). Ripken's .970 fielding percentage (25 errors) was 4th among shortstops.

Eddie Murray, the A.L.'s Gold Glove recipient at first base for the 2nd straight year, was 2nd to Milwaukee's Cecil Cooper in putouts (1393), total chances (1517), and double plays (136). He was 4th in assists (114) and percentage (.993, 10 errors). Murray has a career fielding percentage of .99513 (44 errors/9037 total chances) in 906 games, which is better than the existing A.L. record for highest percentage, 1,000 or more games, held by Jim Spencer (.99489).

Rich Dauer, 4th among league 2nd basemen with a .988 percentage (7 errors/602 total chances), is also within reach of a career fielding record. His lifetime figure of .988 (43 e/3650 tc) in 770 games is higher than Nellie Fox's current A.L. mark (.984) for 1,000 or more career games.

John Shelby led the O's outfield with 9 assists, 3 of those coming against New York on September 11.

HOME AND AWAY: Baltimore was 4th in the league with a 50-31 (.617) home record, the 7th straight time and 13th overall that the club has had a .600 winning percentage or better at Memorial Stadium. The O's have had a winning record at home for 11 straight years and 25 of their 30 seasons in Baltimore. On the road, the Orioles had the best record in the league at 48-33 (.593), the A.L.'s best performance since Baltimore and New York were both 50-31 (.617) in '80. It marked the 15th time in the last 16 seasons (starting '68) that the Birds have been above .500 in road games.

INJURIES: The O's were hit by several major injuries, especially among the pitchers. Jim Palmer was bothered by stiffness and soreness in the muscles of his neck and lower back during spring training and disabled with that problem on April 30 after making just 3 starts. He was reactivated on June 14 but made only 3 appearances before going back on the d.l. with tendinitis in his right arm on June 30. After several weeks of therapy, including 2 starts for Hagerstown (Class A) on rehabilitation assignment, Palmer was reactivated on August 21. He pitched fewer innings (76.2) than in any of his 17 years in the majors.

Mike Flanagan sustained serious ligament damage in his left knee while fielding a ground ball on May 17 and was sidelined until August 7. Tippy Martinez was sidelined for 3 weeks after undergoing an emergency appendectomy on July 9. Storm Davis missed one start in mid-August, then was hampered again in September with a neck problem.

Among the regulars, Dan Ford strained his left knee in early June and was disabled from June 22 until July 20 with that problem. Joe Nolan sustained a fractured big toe on his left foot when he was hit by a pitch on June 19 and was sidelined until July 14. From July 9 (when Tippy went on the d.l.) until July 14 (Nolan coming off d.l.), Baltimore had 5 players on the disabled list (Flanagan, Ford, and Palmer were the others), the most of any team in the majors. In addition, Eddie Murray missed a total of 6 games with a strained right knee and a bruised left foot and Rich Dauer, Gary Roenicke, John Shelby, and Ken Singleton also missed short periods of time with assorted problems. See individual biographies for more details on injuries.

MONTH-BY-MONTH: April: 11-9 (.550), May: 15-13 (.536), June: 14-11 (.560), July: 19-7 (.731), August: 18-12 (.600), September: 20-11 (.645), October: 1-1 (.500), Total: 98-64 (.605).

PINCH-HITTING: The Orioles' pinch-hit corps was the 2nd busiest in the American League, but Baltimore's .225 team average was last among the 14 A.L. clubs. The Birds finished 2nd to Toronto in pinch appearances (225), at bats (191, most since '61, 196), and runs batted in (36) and were 3rd in runs (23), hits (43), total bases (64), and walks (27). The O's hit 4 pinch homers, 7 fewer than their A.L. record total of '82, but matching California for the 2nd highest total in the league, one behind the Blue Jays. Baltimore's 5 pinch game-winning rbi topped the circuit.

INDIVIDUALS: Gary Roenicke finished 2nd in the league with 38 pinch at bats, the most by an Oriole other than Terry Crowley since Bob Johnson in '64 (46). Roenicke batted .211 (8 hits) with a homer and 6 rbi. Jim Dwyer placed 2nd among A.L. sub swingers with 40 appearances and 4 doubles and tied for 3rd with 9 rbi while batting .242 (8-for-33) with a home run.

Other notable pinch-hit performances: Benny Ayala, .286 (4-14), 1 rbi . . . John Lowenstein, .260 (4-16), 1 hr (grand slam), 8 rbi . . . John Shelby, .259 (7-27), 2 rbi . . . Ken Singleton, .667 (4-6), 1 hr, 3 rbi, 1.167 slugging percentage.

PLATOONING: The Orioles were the 1st first world series team in major league history to platoon at all 3 outfield positions. In fact, according to research done with the help of The Sporting News, the only other club in big league history that platooned extensively at each outfield spot was the 1961 Kansas City A's, who used Jay Hankins and Deron Johnson in left, Gene Stephens and Bobby Del Greco in center, and Norn Siebern and Leo Posada in right. That A's squad finished 9th in the A.L. at 61-100.

Baltimore's left field position was once again among the most productive in the majors, producing a .292 (179-for-612) average with 35 homers and 131 rbi, that being mostly the work of John Lowenstein and Gary Roenicke. Over the last 2 seasons, that position has combined for a .288 (351-for-1220) batting mark with 76 home runs and 254 rbi.

In addition, the center field duo of Al Bumbry and John Shelby teamed to score over 100 runs and steal 25 bases. The right field duties were shared by Dan Ford, Jim Dwyer, and others.

PITCHING: The Orioles were 2nd in the league with a 3.63 earned run average, the club's lowest since '79 (3.26) and the 18th time in the last 27 seasons (starting '57) that the Birds have finished among the top 3 in era. Baltimore also led the A.L. with 15 shutouts (most since '78-16) and allowed the 2nd fewest bases on balls at 452, the 4th lowest total in club history and fewest since '72 (395). The O's staff walked one or fewer batters 46 times.

The Orioles had a 3.95 era in 76 games before the all-star break and a 3.34 mark in 86 2nd half contests. O's starters were 74-51 with a 3.68 era (415 er/1014.1 ip) while the bullpen went 24-13 with a 3.49 era (170 er/438 ip) and 38 saves.

STREAKS: The '83 season was a series of up and down streaks for Baltimore. After opening the year 9-8, the O's were 14-5 from Apr. 27 thru May 19 to take a 2-game division lead. The club then lost 7 straight to drop to 3rd before winning 14 of the next 18 from May 27 thru June 15 to open a 3½ game advantage. Another slide followed as the club lost 12 of 17 from June 16 thru July 9, but Baltimore rebounded to go 17-4 thru July 31 and recapture the lead.

The Orioles lost 9 of their next 12 (August 2-12) to drop all the way to 4th before taking charge, winning 30 of 37 games between August 13 and September 19 to take an 8½ game lead. The club was 6-8 the rest of the way and clinched the division title at Milwaukee on September 25.

Baltimore's longest winning streak of the year was 8, accomplished from August 24 thru 31, and the O's won 6 straight on 3 occasions. The Birds lost 7 in a row twice, May 20 thru 26 and August 6 thru 12.

WINS: With their 7th A.L. Eastern Division crown, the Orioles have now finished 1st or 2nd in 15 of the last 18 seasons (starting '66). Baltimore has won more games than any other major league club in the past 28 years (starting '56) with a 2499-1914 (.566) record. The Yankees are 2nd (2477-1948, .560) and the Dodgers 3rd (2459-1974, .555).

The O's also own the majors' best record in the last 3 seasons ('81-'83) at 251-178 (.585), the last 4 years ('80-'83) at 351-240 (.594), the last 5 campaigns ('79-'83) at 453-297 (.604), and the last 10 seasons ('74-'83) at 909-646 (.585). The Birds have had the 2nd best record in the majors in each of the last 4 years.

The O's have had 16 consecutive winning seasons (starting '68). That is now the longest current streak in the majors as Boston had their 16-year skein snapped this year ('67-'82). Baltimore has won 90 or more games in 13 of the last 16 years (starting '68), 16 of the last 20 (starting '64), and 17 of the last 23 (starting '61). In each case, it's a major league best.

1983—THE MOST REWARDING YEAR

Thirty years have passed since the St. Louis Browns came to Baltimore, and in that time the Orioles have played nearly 4,800 games in regular and post-season.

Those 3 decades have produced an abundance of victories, thrills, and memories, but it is unlikely that any season has provided as many of all three as did 1983. It was quite probably, the most rewarding year in Orioles' history.

Playing in the toughest division in baseball, the Orioles fought off 4 other legitimate contenders to win the American League East with a patented late-season rush; took on the hottest team in baseball, the Chicago White Sox, in the ALCS and defeated them in 4 games; then achieved the ultimate goal, the world championship, in a 5-game World Series against the veteran, battle-hardened Phillies.

They won it all with their 1st new manager in 14½ years, Joe Altobelli, who returned "home" from a 6-year sabbatical to replace the legendary Earl Weaver. And, they did it with considerable help from their friends . . . at Rochester.

It was a year of redemption when FINALLY the frustrations and disappointments of past near misses ('71, '79, '80, '82) could be laid to rest.

It was the year that the Orioles' favorite son, Brooks Robinson, would take his rightful place in the most prestigious institution in sport, the National Baseball Hall of Fame, before an overflow crowd, dominated by Baltimore fans, at Cooperstown, N.Y.

Speaking of fans, it was also the year that, for the 1st time, more than 2,000,000 of them came to Memorial Stadium to support the Orioles' quest for an 8th 1st place finish, a 6th American League pennant, and a 3rd world title (all in the last 18 years).

Along the way, there was more magic than any mere mortal could possibly digest. Come-from-behind wins, grand slams, remarkable pitching, and so much more.

It was a year in which 2 Orioles, Cal Ripken and Eddie Murray, would finish 1-2 in the A.L. "MVP" voting, and yet, as both Rip and Eddie would strongly attest, the successes of the 1983 Orioles will be remembered best as a triumph of teamwork, of egos harnessed for the sake of winning, and of uncomplaining "role players."

As Dodgers' Manager Tom Lasorda observed in USA TODAY after the final game, "I can't remember a World Series where a team got so much help from so many places."

And, Henry Hecht of the New York Post summed it up eloquently when he wrote, "They won with an effort that defines the word Team. They are the Baltimore Orioles, the champions of the world."

THE CHRONOLOGY OF 1983

Spring Training, Business as Usual

Spring training was essentially the same as always despite the change in managers. There was no deviation from previous training routine or procedures. The only discernible differences were in the personalities of the skippers, past and present, and the ever present question, "How does it feel to replace a legend?"

A Forgettable Opening

The A.L. opener in Baltimore on Monday, April 4, was, in short, a disaster. Aside from the sellout crowd (51,855) and the warm fan response for Altobelli, nothing much went right.

The Royals romped, 7-2 (it was the O's 1st home opening day loss in 6 years); the parachutist, gliding in with the ceremonial 1st ball, missed the stadium and landed in the parking lot; the anthem singer took sick at the last minute and had to be replaced; and the fans booed when John Denver's 7th-inning stretch standard, Country Boy, was not played in its accustomed spot.

Two days later, however, in game #2, buoyed by "Brother Low's" hitting (3 runs & 3 rbi) and Mike Flanagan's pitching, the Orioles eliminated the prospect of an 0-162 season by hammering KC's Dennis Leonard, 11-1.

A Winning April

Despite the opening day debacle, the 1st month of the season was kind to the Orioles. They went 11-9 to record their 1st winning April since '79, and only their 3rd in 9 years; and, went over .500 for good, in mid-month (4/17), with a record of 5-4.

Flanagan and fellow lefty Scott McGregor were off to 3-0 starts, the leftfield combine (essentially Lowenstein & Gary Roenicke) was leading the club in rbi (22), and rookie John Shelby topped the club in hitting at .395.

If the Orioles were unusually "warm" (for them) in April, they were alternately "hot" and "cold" from the 10th of May until late September. There was seemingly no middle ground, few long periods of "win one, lose one."

Offensively, the Birds were slightly schizophrenic. Though they eventually led the majors in home runs (168) and were 2nd by a hair in runs scored to the White Sox (799 to 800), there were extended stretches when runs, hits, and homers were as scarce as PM newspapers. Fortunately, the O's were an opportunistic lot, a quality that reduced the severity of several dry spells (for example, they were held to 3 or fewer hits 7 different times, yet won 4 of those games).

Despite their streakiness, the Orioles never trailed the division leader by more than 3 games.

HOT STREAK #1 . . . MAY 10-19 (8-1): The O's improved their record to 23-13 (1st place, 2 games ahead on May 19). Two days earlier (5/17), after a sweep of a doubleheader against the White Sox at Baltimore, they had led the majors with a .290 team average and had scored at the rate of nearly 6 runs per game (thru 1st 34 games).

From a pitching standpoint, May 17 was also a significant date. There was bad news and good news. In the opener, Flanagan (6-0) tore a tendon in his left knee and would be sidelined for 11½ weeks. In the nightcap, Mike Boddicker, just back from Rochester for the 4th time in 4 years (replacing the ailing Jim Palmer), made the 1st of his many contributions to this world championship season, a 5-hit shutout.

However, the last 2 wins in the 8-1 string were indicative of discouraging days ahead. The Birds, on May 18, beat the White Sox, 1-0, despite Richard Dotson's 1-hitter on an 8th-inning homer by Dan Ford then won again the following evening at Toronto, 2-1, when Ford hit a 2-run shot in the 8th after the Birds had been held scoreless thru 7.

What all of this prophesied was the start of a team-wide batting slump, and, worse, a 7-game losing streak.

SLUMP #1 . . . MAY 20-26 (0-7): The Orioles lost their next 3 in Toronto, came home to host a 3-game sweep by the Twins (their 1st ever in Baltimore), and moved on to K.C. where they lost another. Meanwhile, the O's average had dipped sharply to .271 and so had their standing in the division (from 2 games up to 2 games back).

Eddie Murray's struggles in that period typified those of his teammates. He would set a personal high in '83 with 33 homers, but, after the O's dropped their 7th in a row on May 26, he had gone 31 straight games without a home run and had hit only 2 all season (43 games).

BACK ON COURSE . . . MAY 27-JUNE 15 (14-4): On May 27 in K.C., 3 agonizing streaks were terminated. Behind the pitching of young Storm Davis, the O's snapped the 7-game loss string, won for the 1st time since '81 on the K.C. carpet (they'd dropped 8 straight there), and Eddie hit a home run. He also hit one the next night in a 1-0 win for McGregor and had 4 in his next 5 games.

During the next 2½ weeks, the Birds picked up more significant pitching help form Rochester (Allan Ramirez who replaced Don Welchel), regained 1st place and lengthened their lead to 4 games (longest until September) for one day (June 11), and took five straight from the defending champion Brewers.

In one of those victories against Milwaukee (June 15), the O's rebounded from an 0-7 deficit in the 6th inning to win 11-7 (see "Game Highlights" following this section). After that triumph, the Orioles were 37-24.

ANOTHER COLD SPELL . . . JUNE 16-JULY 9 (5-12): The day after that (June 16) dramatic come-from-behind win, the O's led the Brewers, 1-0, with 2 down and none on in the bottom of the 9th, with McGregor on the mound, only to lose in 11 on a Rick Manning home run off Tim Stoddard. With that heartbreaking loss, the Birds began a 5-12 slide that would last two games beyond the All-Star break.

One of the low points during that period was a trip to the "Big Apple" where they lost 3 in a row, 2 of them on extra-inning contributions (single and homer) by Butch Wynegar (from July 12 to 30, the O's lost 5 games on the road, 4 of them in "sudden death").

There were some other negative developments. Ford, who led the club in rbi as late as May 29 (28, including 6 game-winners) and who was batting .314, injured his left knee on June 1 at Minnesota and was effectively lost to the club for the next 7 weeks (though he did play sparingly after the injury until officially disabled on June 22).

On June 19, Joe Nolan broke a toe and was out of action for 3 weeks while joining Ford and Flanagan on the DL. Palmer, who had been restored to active duty June 14, was disabled again on June 30 to make it a foursome.

By this time, it was apparent that the Leo Hernandez 3rd base experiment was not working. He was dispatched to Rochester after the O's acquired Todd Cruz from the Mariners. Cruz, who made his Orioles debut on July 1 by driving in 6 runs in a 9-5 win at Detroit, was a shortstop, but took over at 3rd, and, though erratic at times, ultimately shored up the hole and on many occasions played the position brilliantly.

Despite 3 weeks of inefficiency, the Birds were in surprisingly good shape at the All-Star break, with a 42-34 record and only one game back of the front-running Blue Jays. The Tigers and Yankees were 2 behind and both the Brewers and Red Sox trailed by only 4½.

Immediately after intermission, however, the situation worsened considerably. The O's opened a home stand against the Mariners and lost the first 2 games, but that wasn't the half of it. They also lost their bullpen leader, Tippy Martinez, who went to the hospital for an emergency appendectomy July 8. He would be out of action for 3 weeks, and the O's casualty rate was now up to 20% with 5 on the DL.

SHIFTING INTO GEAR

Having lost Tippy and 12 of their last 17 games, the O's now trailed by 3 and were only 6 games over .500 (42-36). Going into the game of July 10, they needed a win . . . badly.

The man on the spot was Boddicker who responded again with another shutout (July 10) while the O's made the best of their 2 hits off Seattle rookie Matt Young, winning 2-0 on a pair of unearned runs.

From that point on, the O's were 54-23 (.701) over an 11-week period until they clinched the division title on Sep. 25. BUT, on July 10, it was far too early to catch "that magic feeling." There was still adversity ahead. The TURNING POINT was still a month away.

REMARKABLE PITCHING: What was really encouraging during the next 3 weeks was that a staff without Tippy, Flanagan, and Palmer could engineer a 17-4 record (including streaks of 6-0 and 10-1) while forging a highly respectable 3.24 era.

McGregor, who went 11-2 during Flanagan's long absence, won 4 games in this stretch, and six others earned at least 2 wins and/or saves including Dennis Martinez, who was suffering thru his worst season. The bullpen (Sammy Stewart and Stoddard) chipped in with 5 saves.

The day the 17-4 stretch ended (Sunday, July 31) was a big day for Orioles baseball. While Brooks Robinson was being inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, Boddicker was pitching another shutout in Baltimore to complete a 3-game sweep of the Texas Rangers.

HELP! But, you can't win it all by yourself. The other clubs have to lose once in awhile, too. However, the east was playing the west at the time, and no one was cooperating. For example, on July 25, the O's were in 1st place. Fine. But, so were the Blue Jays, Tigers, and Yankees, and the Brewers were only 2½ back.

THE FINAL COLD SNAP (AUG. 6-11): On Friday, August 5 in Baltimore, the O's trailed the White Sox by 2 with 2 out and none on in the 9th. What happened next was "magic." Five straight hits and a 5-4 win with Rich Dauer driving in the winning run (see "Game Highlights"). That dramatic victory gave the O's a 2-game lead.

Unfortunately, it was NOT the start of something big. The next night the O's plunged into their 2nd 7-game losing streak.

When the slide bottomed out a week later, following 2 straight losses in Chicago (4 of the 7 straight defeats were administered by the White Sox), the Birds were, miraculously, only one game from the top.

PENNANT FEVER

TURNING POINT, AUGUST 13: It was fitting that on the day the Orioles' race to the division title turned serious a pitcher just called up from Rochester would play a key role. Bill Swaggerty, like Boddicker and Ramirez before him, did the job. He started, in his big league debut, at Chicago, and he didn't get the win. But, he held the Sox to 2 runs thru 6 innings, Roenicke tied the game at 2-2 with a home run in the 7th, and Ripken won it with a 2-run smash in the 8th.

FROM THAT MOMENT ON the O's were 34-10 (.773) over the next 7 weeks until reducing the magic number to 0 on Sep. 25 and within that period, from Aug. 13 thru Sep. 20, they ran off 30 wins in 37 games (.811 pct.)

It was a time of exceptional pitching. Tippy and Flanagan were back (Palmer returned on Aug. 21), and the staff compiled a lustrous 2.91 era over the 44 games that would settle the issue. Boddicker was 7-1, Flanagan 6-1, Stewart 5-1 with 3 saves, Tippy 4-0 with 8 saves, McGregor 4-1, Davis 3-1, Stoddard 1-0 with 5 saves, and Swaggerty 1-0.

Offensively, during that period, the O's averaged 5½ runs and hit 47 homers, 6 of them grand slams. Murray had 10 homers and 33 rbi. Ripken batted .391 with 14 doubles, 9 homers, 30 rbi, and 40 runs scored. Ken Singleton chipped in with 28 rbi and a .408 on-base percentage; and Rich Dauer, over the last 5 weeks of that prosperous span batted .303.

But, the biggest run production figures in that 7-week, 44-game span belonged to the leftfield combine, which, in addition to Lowenstein and Roenicke, sometimes included Jim Dwyer, Tito Landrum, Benny Ayala, or Al Bumbry: 41 rbi, 13 hr, and a .308 average.

AUG. 24 VS. TORONTO: There were many magic moments during the drive to the division title, but, perhaps, the one that stood above the rest was the game of Aug. 24 against Toronto in Baltimore. No one who was there or who listened to that game on the radio will ever forget it. It was one of the most remarkable games the Orioles have ever played.

Down 3-1 with 2 out in the 9th, the O's came back to tie, fell behind in the 10th, then won on "late inning" Lenn Sakata's 3-run home run. It was the game in which Tippy picked off 3 runners in one inning and in which Lowenstein, Roenicke, and Sakata played the final inning on foreign soil. (See "Game Highlights.")

If the Aug. 13 victory in Chicago represented the "turning point," then the thrilling triumph on the 24th was the one that convinced even the most hardened skeptics that there was something to this "Orioles Magic," that anything was possible, even a world championship.

MILESTONES: Two days later, on the 26th, the O's moved into 1st place to stay and replaced Atlanta as the team with the best record in the majors, a distinction they would cling to until the final weekend of the season when the White Sox overtook them by one game.

On Friday, Sep. 9, the O's hopped on a train to New York where they had bombed so badly in June (lost 3 straight). Realistically, with a 5-game lead by this time, they needed a split. Instead, they won 3 of 4 in a series that featured a 9th-inning, game-winning single by Nolan and a follow-up grand-slam by Lowenstein, both off Goose Gossage in one game, and John Shelby throwing out 2 Yankees at the plate in another.

The Orioles' dominance over the Brewers (they were 11-2) continued into September, when the O's eliminated Milwaukee by sweeping a 4-game series in Baltimore (Sep. 16-19). In one of those wins, the Birds came back from an 0-7 deficit for the 2nd time in '83 to beat the Brewers. (See "Game Highlights.")

BIG SWEEP IN DETROIT, SEP. 21: It is no secret that the Orioles had more trouble with the Tigers than with any other club in '83. You can look it up (Detroit was 8-5). Fresh from the sweep of the Brewers which reduced the magic number to 7, a 30-7 record since August 12 and a 7½-game lead, the Birds went to Tiger Stadium and were blown out, 14-1, in a game mercifully shortened to 5 innings by rain (Tigers scored 11 in the 1st). (See "Game Highlights.")

However, whatever uneasiness that lopsided defeat engendered, the Birds took care of the following evening, with a 6-0 and 7-3 doubleheader sweep of the 2nd place Bengals. Boddicker, naturally, pitched the shutout; Murray hit 2 gigantic home runs; and Lowenstein highlighted a come-from-behind, 6-run, 9th-inning rally in the nightcap with his 2nd grand slam. It was the 4th straight doubleheader the O's had won. (See "Game Highlights.")

In a sense that was the night the division race ended. It is now just a matter of time.

CLINCHER, SEP. 25 AT MILWAUKEE: That time came at 3:50 P.M., CDT, Sep. 25, when the Orioles, on home runs by Dwyer and Nolan and the pitching of Davis and Tippy, clinched the division crown with a 5-1 win over the Brewers. (See "Game Highlights.")

It was exactly 51 weeks to the day that the Orioles had watched in Baltimore while the Brewers celebrated their 1st divisional championship after beating the Birds in the final game of the season. Now, the Brewers looked on as the Orioles toasted their 7th eastern crown. THE REDEMPTION PROCESS HAD BEGUN.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS—1983

CHISOX' HOME OPENER . . . Tue., Apr. 12 . . . Bal-10, Chi-8 (A) . . . The O's blew a 7-0 lead in the 3rd, fell behind 8-7 in the 6th, but won with a 3-run rally in the 7th, featuring Rick Dempsey's 2-run double.

THE LONGEST DAY . . . Thu., Apr. 14 . . . Chi-12, Bal-11 (A) . . . This was the longest 9-inning game in Orioles' history and possibly the most uncomfortable. While 27-mph Arctic winds were swirling around Comiskey Park, the O's bounced back from a 9-2 deficit to tie in the 8th (it was the 2nd straight game in which the ultimate winner blew a 7-run lead), but it was a case of too much Ron Kittle who had 6 rbi.

41 HITS . . . Sat., May 14 . . . Bal-14, Tex-11 (14) (A) . . . The two clubs combined for 41 hits (most ever in an Orioles' game), and the Rangers had 22 of them. Texas lost an early 5-0 lead, and the O's later coughed up a 10-5 advantage. Lenn Sakata, who specialized in big late-inning hits, drove in 2 runs in the decisive 14th and so did Dempsey.

TROUBLE IN TEXAS . . . Sun., May 15 . . . Tex-2, Bal-1 (A) . . . Joe Altobelli and fellow Rochester resident Ken Kaiser entered into an unneighborly squabble after Kaiser, posted at 1st base, thumbed Eddie Murray for "mimicking me," following an unfriendly checked swing call with Larry Parrish batting in the 1st.

An inning later, Kaiser, covering the plate on the play, ruled Pete O'Brien safe at home precipitating a vigorous argument climaxed by Kaiser stalking Altobelli back to the dugout before issuing Joe his 1st ejection . . . The Rangers scored both their runs in that inning.

GOOD NEWS & BAD . . . Tue., May 17 . . . Bal-7 & 5, Chi-2 & 0 . . . The O's swept a doubleheader from the White Sox but paid a heavy price when Mike Flanagan (6-0) tore a ligament in his left knee (fielding a Tony Bernazard grounder in the 1st) and had to leave with an injury that would sideline him for 11½ weeks.

The Birds won the opener, however, when Dan Ford broke a 2-2 tie in the 7th, and Gary Roenicke hit a 3-run pinch-homer off Lamarr Hoyt who was only 2-6 after that loss (he went 22-4 the rest of the way, plus 1-0 in the ALCS).

In the nightcap, Mike Boddicker, making his 1st start since coming up to replace an ailing Jim Palmer, pitched the 1st of his 5 shutouts, and both Leo Hernandez and Dempsey homered off loser Dennis Lamp.

DOTSON 1-HITTER . . . Wed., May 18 . . . Bal-1, Chi-0 (H) . . . Orioles-White Sox games had a special quality all year, and this was no exception. Richard Dotson had a no-hitter going with 1 out in the home 8th when Ford homered, and that lone hit was enough to pin the loss on the Chicago righthander . . . Storm Davis and Tippy combined to 4-hit the Sox who hadn't scored in 24 innings.

"DISCO" DOES IT AGAIN . . . Thu., May 19 . . . Bal-2, Tor-1 (A) . . . Ford hit another 8th-inning homer at Toronto to give Scott McGregor the win. It was Dan's 3rd gwrbi in his last 3 games, and the O's 8th win in their last 9.

RAMIREZ TO THE RESCUE . . . Wed., Jun. 8 . . . Bal-7, Mil-3 (H) . . . Allan Ramirez, just up from Rochester, pitched 7 strong innings in his big league debut and left with a 2-2 tie, thanks to Ken Singleton's 2-run homer in the 7th off Don Sutton. The Birds put it away for Tim Stoddard with a 5-run 8th featuring 2-run homers by Cal Ripken and John Lowenstein.

COMEDY OF ERRORS . . . Fri., Jun. 9 . . . Bal-10, Mil-7 (H) . . . The O's jumped out to a 7-0 lead in the 1st then committed a club record-tying 6 errors and held on to win, thanks to Tippy's fine relief effort over the last 2.1 innings.

RIP & TIPPY SHOW . . . Mon., Jun. 13 . . . Bal-3, Mil-2 (A) . . . At Milwaukee, Ripken's 3-run homer off Sutton in the 3rd provided all the Orioles' runs, and Tippy got Ted Simmons on a game-ending double play in the 9th with the tying and winning runs aboard.

MIRACLE IN MILWAUKEE . . . Wed., Jun. 15 . . . Bal-11, Mil-8 (10) (A) . . . Down by 0-7 after 6 innings, the Birds came back to tie in the 8th with 5 runs, the last 3 scoring on Ripken's homer off Tom Tellman. The O's won it with a 4-run 10th. Ripken contributed a 2-run double in the winning inning.

BREWERS' REVENGE . . . Thu., Jun. 16 . . . Mil-2, Bal-1 (11) (A) . . . The O's led 1-0 behind Scott McGregor with 2 out and none on in the 9th when suddenly Cecil Cooper doubled and Simmons followed with a game-tying single . . . Two innings later, Rick Manning homered off Stoddard to win it for the Brewers . . . It was their 1st win of the year vs. the O's after 5 straight losses.

STORM'S NEAR MISS . . . Sun., Jun. 26 . . . Bal-3, Det-1 (H) . . . Storm Davis pitched 8 hitless innings before Rick Leach, leading off the 9th as a pinch-hitter, hit his 1st home run of the year (he was in a 3-for-35 slump coming in). Storm then walked John Grubb, and Tippy came on to preserve the 3-1 win.

BAD TIME IN BIG APPLE . . . Mon., Jun. 27 . . . NY-4, Bal-3 (11) (A) . . . O's led 3-2 into the 9th, but Steve Kemp's 1-out single tied it, then in the 11th Baylor singled off Stoddard and came all the way around on Butch Wynegar's 2-out "sudden death" safety into the right field corner.

MORE BAD TIMES IN BIG APPLE . . . Thu., Jun. 30 . . . NY-4, Bal-3 (12) (A) . . . After Dave Righetti blanked the O's 7-0 the night before, the Yankees swept the 3-game series on Wynegar's 2-out solo homer again off Stoddard in the bottom of the 12th . . . The Birds would have lost in regulation were it not for young John Stefero who tied it at 3-3 in the 9th with a 2-run double off Goose Gossage.

CRUZ DEBUTS . . . Fri., Jul. 1 . . . Bal-9, Det-5 (A) . . . Todd Cruz, acquired the previous day from Seattle, started at 3rd base and drove in a career high 6 runs with a 3-run double and 3-run homer, both off Milt Wilcox.

RETURN OF DISCO DAN . . . Wed., Jul. 20 . . . Bal-4, Sea-2 (A) . . . Ford, just off the DL, hit 3 solo homers in the Kingdome and beat out a bunt to pace the O's.

DENNIS WINS IN RELIEF . . . Tue., Jul. 26 . . . Bal-5, Cal-4 (A). . . Ten days after he'd been removed from the starting rotation, Dennis Martinez relieved starter Paul Mirabella in the 4th and pitched 6 strong innings, allowing just one run and earning the victory . . . Murray hit a 2-run homer in the 5th to break a 3-3 tie.

LATE RALLY BEATS TEXAS . . . Fri., Jul. 29 . . . Bal-8, Tex-6 (H) . . . O's trailed, 6-5, in the 8th before Murray singled home 2 runs with 2 out off Victor Cruz, and Lowenstein followed with a sac fly . . . The following night, the Birds rallied with 4 in the 7th to beat the Rangers 7-4.

5 HITS IN THE 9TH . . . Fri., Aug. 5 . . . Bal-5, Chi-4 (H) . . . CLASSIC . . . Some 39,544 turned out on a rainy night to welcome Brooks back from Cooperstown, and those who remained saw one of the most exciting finishes in the O's history.

With 2 down and none on in the 9th and the O's behind 4-2, Dennis Lamp was pitching (he had replaced Salome Barojas after Al Bumbry led off with a hit, but "Bee" was erased when Ford hit into a dp) . . . Ripken then singled and so did Murray . . . Lowenstein followed with another safety, scoring Ripken, then Singleton drilled a hit to left to tie the game.

At this point, Dick Tidrow came on, and Dauer greeted him with a game-ending single. The O's had strung together 5 straight hits with 2 out to score 3 runs and win the game.

SOX WIN 4TH STRAIGHT VS. O'S . . . Fri., Aug. 12 . . . Chi-6, Bal-4 (A) . . . After the exciting 9th-inning win over the Sox on Aug. 5, the O's dropped 4 straight to Chicago, concluding with Hoyt's 2nd win in a week over Flanagan (in Mike's first 2 starts since coming off the DL). It was the O's 7th straight loss.

TURNING POINT . . . Sat., Aug. 13 . . . Bal-5, Chi-2 (A) . . . 26-year-old Bill Swaggerty made his big league debut at Comiskey Park and held the White Sox to 2 runs thru the 6 innings he worked. He left trailing 2-0, but Gary Roenicke tied it with a 2-run homer in the 7th, and Ripken hit a 2-run shot in the 8th to beat Jerry Koosman. Meanwhile, Sammy Stewart (win) and Tippy (save) held the Sox scoreless over the last 3 innings.

CLASSIC IN CHICAGO . . . Sun., Aug. 14 . . . Bal-2, Chi-1 (A) . . . The Sox led 1-0 in the home half of the 5th when, with one man aboard, Carlton Fisk hit a line drive deep to left that disappeared into the left field stands and 3rd base umpire Greg Kosc ruled it a home run.

However, the O's rushed out to argue that a fan had reached down below the top of the wall and caught it, i.e. that it would not have gone into the seats without human help.

Ultimately, after a conference with the other umpires (crew chief Jim Evans, Ted Hendry, and John Hirschbeck), the ruling was changed and Fisk was limited to a double. Rudy Law, who had scored on the "home run," returned to 3rd and the Sox lead was still only 1-0.

Tony LaRussa expressed his considerable anger by pulling the 3rd base bag out of the ground and giving it a heave. He was subsequently dismissed from the grounds, but, curiously, did not leave the dugout until well after play had resumed.

Given a new lease, McGregor, who had allowed an unearned run in the 2nd, got out of the inning (after walking Tom Paciorek intentionally to load the bases) by retiring Greg Luzinski on a foul pop and fanning Kittle. In the 6th, the O's tied it with an unearned run that scored on a Murray sac fly, and that's how it stayed until the top of the 9th when Joe Nolan singled in what proved to be the game-winning run off Dotson who lost despite a route-going 3-hitter (he lost a 1-hitter to the O's on May 18).

In the home 9th, the Sox loaded the bases with nobody out. Then, Stoddard relieved McGregor and pitched brilliantly. He fanned Fisk, caught Paciorek looking and got Luzinski on a game-ending force out . . . The four games at Chicago drew a massive 151,567.

FLANAGAN WINS 1ST SINCE MAY 11 . . . Wed., Aug. 17 . . . Bal-4, Tex-2 (10) (A) . . . Mike Flanagan (7-2) won his first game in 14 weeks, and Stoddard earned his 3rd save in 4 days . . . Ford and Ripken each doubled home a run in the decisive 10th.

O'S TRUMP ROYALS TWICE . . . Fri., Aug. 19 . . . Bal-5 & 3, KC-4 & 1 (H) . . . Two weeks to the day that they had collected 5 straight hits in the 9th to beat White Sox, the O's, who had dropped 5 games in a row at home since then, lashed out 4 straight singles with one on and 2 out in the opener, tying it on Singleton's single and winning on "Late-Inning Lenn's" basehit.

What made it even more notable was beating Dan Quisenberry, the world's best relief pitcher, who had not lost a game since Apr. 23.

A 3-1 win in the nightcap featured Ripken's 2-out, tie-breaking single in the 8th and solid pitching by Davis and Tippy (winner) . . . It was the 1st time the O's had ever swept a doubleheader from the Royals.

LOSIN' UGLY . . . Tue., Aug. 23 . . . Tor-9, Bal-3 (H) . . . After winning 3 of 4 from K.C., the O's hosted the Blue Jays in the 1st of 3 games and couldn't have looked worse . . . Eleven Toronto singles and 4 Orioles' errors did the Birds in before a massive weeknight turnout of 47,387 for the benefit of Police Youth Clubs in Baltimore . . . Luis Leal won (11-10) over Flanagan (7-3).

THAT'S INCREDIBLE . . . Wed., Aug. 24 . . . Bal-7, Tor-4 (10) (H) . . . Trailing 3-1 with 2 on and 2 down in the 9th, the O's suddenly tied the score on consecutive singles by Benny Ayala and Bumbry. But, Cliff Johnson (who led all O's opponents with 5 homers against them in '83) led off the 10th with a home run off Stoddard to put Toronto back on top (McGregor left after 9).

After Barry Bonnell followed with a single, Tippy came on and, without retiring a batter, put down the side with no further damage, by PICKING OFF Bonnell, Jesse Barfield (after walking him), and Willie Upshaw (after a single). Defensively in that inning, because of extensive offensive shuffling in the 9th, Lowenstein was at 2nd base (for the first time since '75). Roenicke was at 3rd (for the first time in the majors), and Sakata caught (for the first time since Little League). Afterward, Lowenstein said, "The reason Tippy threw over to 1st base so often in that inning was because Eddie (Murray) was the only guy on the infield he recognized."

In the bottom of the 10th, Ripken led off with a game-tying homer, then after 2 walks and 2 outs, "Late-Inning Lenn" did it again, this time with a 3-run home run off Joey McLaughlin. The extra-inning defeat was the first for the Blue Jays in exactly one year to the day, also in Baltimore (McLaughlin was the loser in that one, too). During the interim, the Jays had won 12 straight extra-inning games including 9 in '83.

MORE OF THE SAME . . . Thu., Aug. 25 . . . Bal-2, Tor-1 (10) (H) . . . Thru 9 innings it was 0-0, but Bonnell, with 2 out in the top of the 10th, hit a home run for a 1-0 Toronto lead. It was a bad omen for the Jays . . . In the bottom of the 10th Nolan singled with one out, and Bumbry followed suit. Then, Ford lined a drive into right center that Lloyd Moseby just missed catching with a desperation lunge. The ball caromed away for a double as the runners scored the tying and winning runs.

It was the 11th time in their last 15 victories the O's had won in the 7th inning or later, as Tippy won in relief for the 2nd night in a row . . . The 3-game set was only the 3rd mid-week series in club history to attract more than 100,000 fans.

7 IN THE 1ST . . . Wed., Aug. 31 . . . Bal-10, Tor-2 (A) . . . The O's scored 7 in the 1st off Jim Gott and went on to record their 8th win in a row, their longest streak of the year (they were also 15-3 in last 18).

HISTORIC WIN AT THE "HUMP" . . . Fri., Sep. 2 . . . Bal-1, Min-0 (A) . . . Mike Flanagan (9-3, and 3-3 since his return) had the distinction of winning the 1st 1-0 game ever played at the Metrodome with late help from Tim Stoddard . . . It was Mike's 14th straight win over the Twins, and it was made possible by Ken Singleton's 9th-inning home run.

MORE HISTORY AT THE "HUMP" . . . Sat., Sep. 3 . . . Bal-13, Min-0 (A) . . . The O's bombarded 3 Twins pitchers for 18 hits in an all-out assault on the club record book. Cal Ripken had 5 hits (to tie a club mark), hit his 22nd & 23rd homers (to break Ron Hansen's record for an O's shortstop), hit his 37th and 38th doubles (to tie Brooks' 1-season record), and accumulated 13 total bases (to tie Boog and Eddie for most tb in one game). The O's team total of 39 bases tied still another team standard, and the 6 O's homers were the most ever hit in a game against the Twins since they moved to the Upper Midwest in '61. One of those long balls was a grand slam by Singleton.

The beneficiary of all that support was Scott McGregor (17-5) who pitched a patented 8-hit shutout.

11-1 & 18-4 . . . Sun., Sep. 4 . . . Bal-9, Min-6 (A) . . . The O's blew an early 5-0 lead, then broke a 5-5 tie with 3 in the 8th on a Lowenstein sac fly and John Shelby's 2-run single. The O's thus swept the 3-game series in Minnesota and were now 18-4, since the 7-game losing streak ended on Aug. 12, and had won 11 of their last 12.

NETTLED . . . Fri., Sep. 9 . . . NY-5, Bal-3 (A) . . . In the 1st of 4 at New York, Graig Nettles' 8th-inning, 2-run homer erased a 3-2 Orioles' lead and sent McGregor (17-6) down to his 1st road defeat after 13 straight wins away from home. Ron Guidry (18-8) went the route for the win.

JOE, BROTHER LOW, & MIKE . . . Sat., Sep. 10 . . . O's-8 & 3, NY-4 & 1 (A) . . . In game #1, the O's, with the score tied at 2 in the 9th, erupted for 6 runs to win going away . . . Nolan produced the game-winner with a single, and later in the inning Lowenstein hit a grand slam (both off Gossage).

In the nightcap Boddicker (13-7) allowed 1 unearned run in 7 innings and Tippy saved (#16).

SHOTGUN SHELBY . . . Sun., Sep. 11 . . . Bal-5, NY-3 (A) . . . John Shelby threw out Willie Randolph and Ken Griffey at the plate, and the O's jumped on Dave Righetti for 5 in 1.2 innings to win 3 of 4 at Yankee Stadium

ANOTHER MIRACLE AGAINST MILWAUKEE . . . Sun., Sep. 18 . . . Bal-10, Mil-9 (H) . . . For the 2nd time in '83, the O's spotted the Brewers a 7-0 lead, then battled back to win. A 6-run, 8th-inning rally gave the O's a 9-7 edge, but Mark Brouhard's 2-out homer in the 9th off Tippy tied it. In the bottom of the 9th, Stefero produced a game-winning "sudden death" single.

"SUDDEN DEATH" STEFERO . . . Mon., Sep. 19 . . . Bal-8, Mil-7 (11) (H) . . . The Brewers bounced back from an early 4-0 deficit to tie in the 8th, then went ahead, 7-6, on Ted Simmons 2-out single in the 11th. In the home half of the 11th, Singleton tied it with a base hit, then Stefero repeated his heroics of the night before with another game-ending single.

It was the Brewers 10th straight loss and eliminated them from the division race. It was also the O's 6th straight extra-inning win.

MASSACRE IN THE MOTOR CITY . . . Tue., Sep. 20 . . . Det-14, Bal-1 (A) . . . It took only one inning for the Tigers to annihilate the O's in a game shortened to 5 innings by rain. The Tigers scored 11 runs on 11 hits (including 10 straight safeties to tie an A.L. record) in the 1st off Dennis Martinez and Palmer.

BIRDS BEAT BENGALS TWICE . . . Wed., Sep. 21 . . . Bal-6 & 7, Det 0 & 3 (A) . . . Boddicker won the opener by pitching his 5th shutout and fanning a career high 12 batters (exceeded 2 weeks later in the ALCS).

In the 2nd game the O's were down, 3-0, until Murray hit his 30th homer in the 8th (his 2nd in the doubleheader), then in the 9th the O's scored 6 to win in dramatic fashion . . . Still behind by 3-2, with 2 down, Lowenstein picked out an Aurelio Lopez pitch to his liking and hit it out of the park for a grand-slam home run (his 2nd in September) . . . Nolan followed with an insurance solo . . . The slam was the O's 8th of the year and their 6th since Aug. 29.

CLINCHING . . . Sun., Sep. 25 . . . Bal-5, Mil-1 (A) . . . The O's clinched their 7th divisional title in Milwaukee. Jim Dwyer started the celebration with a 3-run homer in the 3rd, and Nolan hit one with one on (both off Porter) in the 4th . . . Meanwhile, Storm Davis (winner, 13-6) and Tippy (19th save) held the Brewers to one unearned run.

2,000,000 TIME . . . Sat., Oct. 1 . . . NY-5, Bal-4 (12) (H) . . . The O's lost in the next to last game of the season, but it was a big day nonetheless. A crowd of 38,038 pushed the club's home attendance over 2,000,000 for the first time in history.

ORIOLES VS. OPPONENTS—1983

vs. BOSTON ('83: 8-5 . . . Lifetime: 261-266) . . . The Red Sox are the only franchise with a lifetime winning record against Baltimore (5 over) though the Indians (only 2 under .500) are close . . . The O's won 5 of their last 6 games vs. Boston in '83.

Red Sox Batting: Carl Yastrzemski completed his 23 year career with a .294 (363-for-1233) average and 33 home runs vs. the O's. Jim Rice hit .309 (17-for-55) with 3 homers and 7 rbi (13 games) against Baltimore in '83, and now has a .333 (151-for-454) career mark plus 29 homers and 88 rbi in 115 games.

Against Jim Palmer, Rice has had an "all-or-nothing" kind of experience. His career average is only .218 (19-for-87) with 3 walks and 25 k's, but 9 of his 19 hits have been homers (all but one a solo) . . . Reid Nichols was the Carmines top hitter in the season series at .435 (10-for-23).

Tony Armas went 3-for-33 (.091) vs. the Birds in '83 and now has a .196 career mark (47-for-240). However, he's made the most of his few hits over the past 4 seasons, having slammed 16 home runs and driven in 36 over a 44 game span. Against Palmer, Armas has a .194 average (7-for-36) with 2 home runs.

Red Sox Pitching: Dennis Eckersley was 0-1 having yielded 6 runs in 4 innings, and is 9-8 lifetime vs. Baltimore . . . He won his first 4 lifetime decisions against the O's but is only 5-8 since then . . . Bobby Ojeda was the Sox' only multiple winner vs. the Orioles last year (2-1) in 3 starts.

John Tudor, traded to the Pirates during the off-season, leaves the A.L. with a 5-1 career mark against the Birds.

Orioles Batting: Eddie Murray batted .392 (20-for-51) last year (4 hr, 9 rbi) and has maintained a .386 mark (39-for-101) over the last 2 seasons . . . He has hit 20 career homers vs. Boston. His high is 22 against the Tigers and he has also hit 20 vs. the A's.

Ken Singleton batted .500 (16-for-32) vs. the Sox in '83 with a club leading 10 rbi (0 hr) and is now up to .326 (132-for-405) lifetime. However, Ken has hit only 6 home runs against Boston. He is in double figures against every other opponent. Tito Landrum also batted .500 (5-for-10) vs. the Sox.

Orioles Pitching: Palmer was 2-0 (the O's only multiple winner in '83) while yielding only 1 earned run in 12.2 innings (0.71 era). Lifetime he is 22-16 and 2.98 (429 ip, 142 er) . . . He has made 59 appearances including 57 starts vs. Boston (both career highs) and has pitched 25 complete games. Jim has worked 8 or more innings 34 times (including extra innings 6 times). His 2 wins vs. the Sox in '83 (Jun. 19 and Sep. 6) were his first since Sep. 16, '79.

Tippy Martinez was the only multiple loser (0-2) though he did earn one save. Dennis M. who was 1-1 in '83 is now 10-13 lifetime vs. Boston . . . His totals in games (28), innings (181), Losses (13) and home run balls (18) against the Red Sox are all career highs vs. one opponent.

vs. CALIFORNIA ('83: 7-5 . . . Lifetime: 178-144) . . . Over the last 5 seasons (starting '79), the O's are 42-22 (.656) against the Angels, including 3-1 in the '79 ALCS . . . In that period, they are 21-11 at Anaheim and 21-11 vs. the Haloes in Baltimore. The Birds are 4-0-1 in season series in that period.

On the West Coast: See "vs. Seattle" for details on O's winning record on the west coast over last 6 seasons.

A Hitters Series: The O's averaged 6 runs and the Angels 5 in this season series and the combined era of the 2 staffs was a lofty 5.07 (4.44 for O's and 5.69 for Cal.). The Orioles hit .317 and the Angels .281.

Game Highlights: The 63,073 that watched Scott McGregor outpoint Tommy John, 3-1, at Anaheim on April 23 was the largest crowd ever to watch the Orioles play anywhere or any time until the 3 World Series crowds in Philadelphia . . . That assemblage in California, however, is still the largest for a regular season game in O's history.

The Angels set a season high for runs scored by an opponent against Baltimore on May 4 when they beat the O's 16-8 . . . McGregor, the O's most effective pitcher vs. California over the years was the loser (see "Orioles Pitching" below).

Angels Batting: Rod Carew batted .455 (15-for-33), the highest average among all opponents (25 or more at bats) . . . He started with a 15-for-25 (.600) in the first 5 games, then appeared in only 3 of the remaining 7 and went 0-for-8 . . . Lifetime, Carew is batting .331 (2832-for-8543) in the A.L. and .317 (213-for-672) against the O's.

Carew has 87 career homers, but only 4 against the O's in 174 games (3 at Memorial Stadium) . . . Since hitting a home run off Dave McNally in Baltimore on Aug. 22, '71, Rod has found the range only once vs. the O's (May 20, '81 off Tim Stoddard at Bal.).

Reggie batted only .069 (2-for-29) . . . It was the 3rd time in the last 4 years he has hit under .200 vs. Baltimore . . . Over that period his average is .184 (28-for-152).

Lifetime, Reggie has a .255 average (166-for-652, including 9-for-45 in ALCS) and has hit 40 home runs (including 2 in ALCS) . . . He is tied for 3rd with Al Kaline among all opponents in homers vs. Baltimore behind Harmon Killebrew-70 and Mickey Mantle-44.

Doug DeCinces played only 4 games against his former teammates in '83 but went 7-for-18 (.389) and hit 2 homers (in same game at Baltimore May 4) . . . Doug, in 2 years at California, has batted .351 (20-for-57) with 3 homers and 9 rbi in 16 games vs. the O's.

The leading Angels' hitter against the Birds in '83 was Juan Beniquez (.529, 9-for-17). In the last 2 years, Beniquez has hit Baltimore pitching at a .486 clip (17-for-35).

Angels Pitching: Luis Sanchez was the only effective California pitcher in the season series (except for Jack Curtis who worked only 2 innings). He was 2-0 with a save in 3 appearances . . . Tommy John was 1-2 and is 15-14 lifetime which ranks him as the biggest winner vs. Baltimore among actives and the 2nd biggest loser behind Rudy May (15 losses). Geoff Zahn was also 1-2 and now has a career mark of 2-10 . . .

Orioles Batting: The Orioles hit .317 as a club vs. the Angels (136-for-429). Ten of the 18 Orioles who batted vs. California hit over .300. The 2 most productive hitters were Cal Ripken (.340, 17-for-50 . . . 2 hr & 10 rbi) and Eddie Murray (.326, 15-for-46 . . . 3 hr & 10 rbi). The leading regular hitter, however, was Rich Dauer (.405, 17-for-42). Jim Dwyer batted .429 (6-for-14) and John Shelby .400 (6-for-15).

Dauer at .310 (86-for-277) is one of 6 current O's with career averages over .300 against the Angels: Dan Ford-.301 (88-for-292), Murray-.316 (97-for-307), Gary Roenicke-.301 (41-for-136), Ripken-.314 (32-for-102) and Shelby-.400 (6-for-15).

Orioles Pitching: Scott McGregor was 2-1 with 2 complete games in 3 starts . . . Scott, since losing to the Angels on Aug. 18, '78, is 14-2 against them (including 1-0 in ALCS of '79) while completing 9 of 16 starts and compiling a 2.46 era (128 ip, 35 er). In that period, he has held the Angels to a team average of .231 (103-for-446). Lifetime, Scott is 14-4 (incl. '79 ALCS).

Allan Ramirez (2-0) picked up 2 of his 4 '83 victories at the Angels' expense . . . The only multiple loser was Dennis Martinez (1-2). Tippy Martinez who was 0-0 with 0 saves has never beaten the Angels (he's 0-2 with 9 saves), the only club against which he does not have at least one victory. Jim Palmer did not face California in '83. Lifetime, he is 25-10.

vs. CHICAGO ('83: 7-5 . . . Lifetime Regular Season: 246-222) . . . The O's-White Sox rivalry which culminated in the 4 game ALCS was one of the most exciting and intense in memory . . . Including ALCS the O's were 10-6 vs. Chicago in '83.

Game Highlights: See pages 44-48 for details of following games: "Chisox Home Opener, Apr. 12"; "The Longest Day, Apr. 14"; "Good News & Bad, May 17"; "Dotson 1-Hitter, May 18"; "5 Hits in the 9th, Aug. 5"; "Sox win 4th Straight vs. O's, Aug. 12"; "Turning Point, Aug. 13"; "Classic in Chicago, Aug. 14." See also ALCS Review" on pages 68-70.

Season Series Notes: The O's had lost 10 straight at Comiskey before beating Sox in home opener (Apr. 12), and wound up with a 5-3 record (incl. 2-0 in ALCS) and won their last 4 games in Chicago.

The Sox snapped a 9 game losing streak at Baltimore when they beat the Birds on Aug. 6 . . . Chicago had won 2 straight season series and were 13-8 vs. the O's in '81 & '82 . . . However, over the last 3 seasons (incl. ALCS) their edge is only 19-18.

White Sox Batting: The 2 Chicago catchers Carlton Fisk (.378, 14-for-37) and Marc Hill (.455, 5-for-11) batted a combined .396 (19-for-48) against the O's in regular season.

Tom Paciorek was a .400 hitter (14-for-35) and Greg Luzinski led the Sox with 3 homers . . . Paciorek and Kittle each had 9 rbi vs. the Birds . . . The Sox hit 9 homers vs. Baltimore in 12 regular season games, but none in ALCS.

Kittle drove in 6 runs in the Sox victory of Apr. 14 . . . Rudy Law batted only .056 (2-for-36) against the O's in regular season, but led his club in ALCS with a .389 average (7-for-18) . . . Vance (not Vern) Law batted .182 vs. Baltimore in both regular season and ALCS (6-for-33 and 2-for-11).

Julio Cruz stole 5 bases in 6 regular season attempts for both Seattle & Chicago and was 2-for-2 in ALCS . . . lifetime vs. Baltimore he is 18-for-25 (incl. ALCS) for a percentage of .720.

White Sox Pitching: LaMarr Hoyt was 3-1 including 1-0 in ALCS, and has now won 5 of his last 6 decisions vs. Baltimore over the past 2 years . . . When he lost to the O's on May 17th, he was only 2-6, then went 23-4 the rest of the way (incl. ALCS).

Floyd Bannister was 2-0 vs. the Birds despite 7.80 era (15 ip, 13 er) during regular season (he was charged with 7 runs in 1.2 inning in Sox' home opener Apr. 12, but was not a pitcher of record) . . . He lost game #2 of the ALCS to Mike Boddicker, 5-0 . . . Overall, his era vs. Baltimore in '83 was 6.86 (21 ip, 16 er including post-season) . . . Gary Roenicke who had a double and homer off Bannister in the ALCS is 6-for-16 lifetime against the Chicago lefthander with 2 doubles and 4 homers.

Richard Dotson pitched 2 masterpieces in 4 '83 starts vs. the O's: a 1-hitter on May 18 and a 3-hitter on Aug. 14 and lost both, by 1-0 and 2-1 scores. In those 2 games he yielded 4 hits and 3 runs in 18 innings . . . These were the 2nd and 3rd low-hit games the Sox had lost to Baltimore over the last 2 seasons . . . Steve Trout dropped a 3-hitter to the O's in '82 (Apr. 25) by 2-1 on a 2-run homer by Rick Dempsey.

Dotson didn't pitch as well in his other '83 starts . . . He was ko'd Apr. 14th in the 6th after a 4-run yield in a game ultimately won by Chicago, then lost ALCS #3 (11-1) after giving up 6 earned runs in 5 innings plus (see ALCS Review for details).

Dennis Lamp was 0-3 in 5 appearances (including 1 start), but did have a save . . . Jerry Koosman was 0-1 to run his losing streak to 6 straight vs. Baltimore since he beat the O's twice for the Mets in the '69 World Series (including the decisive 5th game).

Orioles Batting: Roenicke who reached safely 9 times in 10 trips vs. the Sox in the ALCS (3-for-4, 5 walks, 1 hp) has hit 8 homers and driven in 25 runs against Chicago in his last 22 games comprising the '82 & '83 seasons plus ALCS . . . See Roenicke vs. Bannister above under "White Sox Pitching."

Chicago held Eddie Murray homerless thru 12 games until ALCS #3 (Eddie played in only 10 of the 12 regular season games) when he connected off Dotson for a 3-run blast in the 1st inning . . . Murray batted .511 (23-for-45) in '82 vs. ChiSox, but was held to .250 in '83 (10-for-40 regular season & 2-for-8 in ALCS).

The O's leading hitter in regular season series was John Lowenstein at .458 (11-for-24) . . . Dan Ford-.389 (14-for-36), Ken Singleton-.342 (13-for-38), Jim Dwyer-.333 (5-for-15) and Cal Ripken-.300 (15-for-50) also hit over .300.

Lenn Sakata was 0-for-66 lifetime vs. Chicago before collecting his 1st safety on Aug. 11 (off Bannister). He is now 2-for-79 (.025).

Orioles Pitching: Mike Boddicker pitched 3 complete games in as many tries against the Sox (incl. ALCS) and was 3-0 with a 1.33 era (4 er, 27 ip) . . . He yielded only 7 hits and 5 walks and fanned 30, including an LCS record tying 14 strikeouts, (a career high) . . . Sammy Stewart was 2-0 in 6 regular season appearances and earned a save in 2 ALCS outings.

Mike Flanagan was 0-2 in 4 starts, but picked up a victory in #3 ALCS . . . Jim Palmer did not appear vs. Chicago in '83 except as a pinch-runner in #3 ALCS . . . He is 13-3 vs. the Sox since June 16, '74 and 24-10 lifetime . . . Tippy Martinez was 2-0 with a save in 7 appearances including ALCS and had the distinction of earning the pennant winning victory with 4 hairy but scoreless innings in game #4.

vs. CLEVELAND ('83: 6-7 . . . Lifetime: 265-263) . . . The Indians won the season series for the 3rd time in the last 4 years (each time by a 7-6 margin) . . . Over that 4 season span, however, their edge in wins is only 23-22 . . . The O's won 4 of 6 games in '81.

30 Year Rivalry: The Orioles hold a slim 2-game advantage over the Indians, but that's something of a miracle considering they were 11-55 vs. Cleveland after their first 3 years in the league ('54: 3-19, '55: 3-19, '56: 5-17) and were down 40-90 after 6 seasons (thru '59). The Birds finally went ahead of Cleveland for the first time ever in June '79 and have remained above .500 since then. The O's are 139-93 (.599) over the last 15 years (starting '69) . . . Boston is the only club in the A.L. with a lifetime winning record against Baltimore.

Indians Sweep: The Indians won all 3 games in Baltimore Aug. 8-9-10. It was their 2nd 3-game sweep in Memorial Stadium in the last 2 years.

Indians Batting: The Indians were last in the A.L. in homers (86 . . . only St. Louis had fewer in the majors-83), and managed only 4 in 13 games against Baltimore which hit 9 against them. However, 2 of the homers were successive, by former Phillies George Vukovich and Julio Franco on Apr. 9 at Cleveland off Tippy. The blast by Vukovich was a grand slam, the first ever thrown by Tippy. It was also the first time the O's lefty had ever given up back-to-back homers. Vukovich batted only .231 (6-for-26), but led the Tribe in rbi vs. Baltimore (10) . . .

The leading hitter for Cleveland in the season series was Pat Tabler (.433, 13-for-30) . . . Tony Bernazard hit .488 (17-for-36) vs. the Birds for Chicago as a rookie in '81 . . . In 2 years since then, he is 12-for-83 (.145).

Over the last 2 seasons, Baltimore has held both Mike Hargrove (.182, 12-for-66) and Toby Harrah (.213, 19-for-89) pretty much at bay. Harrah's 476 consecutive games played streak came to an unfortunate end on Apr. 17th, the day after he was hit by a Dennis Martinez pitch and sustained a broken bone on the back of his right hand.

Orioles Batting: Eddie Murray hit .457 (16-for-35) against Cleveland in '83 and had a .568 on-base percentage (25-for-44) . . . As a club, the O's hit only .245 (106-for-432). Over the past 3 seasons Eddie has driven in 31 runs in 30 games (+6 hr), batted .423 (44-for-104) and has been on base 65 times in 126 plate appearances (.516) vs. the Indians.

John Lowenstein, a former Indian, had a difficult time against his former club . . . He was 2-for-29 (.069).

O's Pitching: Scott McGregor was the only multiple winner (2-1) and Dennis Martinez (1-2) the only multiple loser. Jim Palmer was 1-0 and has now beaten the Indians 7 times without a loss in 9 starts since dropping a decision to Stan Thomas at Cleveland on Sep. 18, '76 . . . Lifetime, Jim is 29-10 and his victory total against Cleveland is 2nd only to his 30 wins vs. the Yankees.

vs. DETROIT ('83: 5-8 . . . Lifetime: 282-252) . . . The O's were 4-3 at Detroit, but only 1-5 vs. the Tigers in Baltimore . . . Their only win at Memorial Stadium was Storm Davis' near no-hitter on June 26. (See "Game Highlights" on page 45).

Season Series: The Tigers out-scored the O's 85-52 (46-17 at Baltimore) in the 13 games while batting .297 as a team (135-for-455) with 19 home runs (most by one club vs. Baltimore) . . . Ironically, though the O's batted only .245 (104-for-425) against the Tigers, they hit 20 homers in the season series, a club high vs. a single opponent. A total of 39 home runs spiced the 13 games.

Detroit scored exactly 9 runs in each of their 5 victories at Baltimore and tallied 9 or more in 7 of their 8 wins. The O's team era was 6.31 (112 ip, 135 h, 79 er).

In fairness to the O's, it must be said that the last 3 Tiger victories at Baltimore on Sep. 27-28-29 by scores of 9-2, 9-5, 9-4 occurred after the divisional title had been clinched .

For details of Tigers' 14-1 rout of O's on Sep. 20 and the Birds' critical doubleheader sweep at Detroit on Sep. 21st, see "Game Highlights" on page 48.

Big Innings: The Tigers enjoyed their biggest inning of the year at the expense of the O's at Detroit on Sep. 20 when they checked in with 11 runs (on 11 hits) in the first off Dennis Martinez and Jim Palmer, and tied an A.L. record with 10 straight hits in that inning (accomplished only once before, by the Red Sox vs. Milwaukee on June 2, 1901). Their 8-run 2nd inning at Baltimore on Sep. 28 was their 2nd biggest of the campaign.

Tigers Batting: Larry Herndon hit .438 (21-for-48) which was 2nd only to Rod Carew's .455 among O's opponents, and he led all O's rivals in hits (21), runs (12), and on-base percentage (.518, 29-for-56) . . . He was runner up to Toronto's Cliff Johnson in home runs (4 to 5) and slugging percentage (.770 to .923). Herndon has the distinction of being the only player ever to hit 2 career homers off Tippy Martinez at Memorial Stadium.

Ex-Oriole Enos Cabell batted .405 (17-for-42) and Lou Whitaker .352 (19-for-54). In all, 7 Tigers batted over .300 vs. the O's . . . Rick Leach, whose 9th inning homer spoiled Davis' aforementioned near no-hitter on June 26, hit 3 homers in '83, all of them against the Orioles.

Chet Lemon also hit 3 homers and Larry Parrish hit 2 . . . John Wockenfuss has hit 80 home runs in the majors, 14 of them against Baltimore, including one in '83 (a grand slam off Dan Morogiello July 3).

Tigers Pitching: Dan Petry (3-1) and Goose Gossage (3-0) were the only A.L. hurlers with 3 wins against the O's in regular season '83 (LaMarr Hoyt was 3-1 including ALCS) . . . This despite Petry's 4.56 ERA (23.2 ip, 12 er, 27 h, 12 bb) . . . Doug Bair picked up 2 wins and a save in his 3 appearances.

Jack Morris was only 1-2, but his lone victory (Sep. 27th) made him a 20-game winner for the first time . . . Morris led all O's opponents in strikeouts (24 in 25 ip) and home runs allowed (6) . . . Both Petry and Milt Wilcox threw 5 "gophers" . . . Morris is 6-6 lifetime.

Wilcox was 1-1 with a 6.97 era (20.2 ip, 25 h, 16 er) and, with 16 walks and 1 hb in his 3 starts, allowed more than 2 base-runners per inning (42 in 20.2 ip) . . . He is 3-11 lifetime (not including 0-1 for Cin. in '70 WS) after once having been 0-9.

Orioles Batting: Eddie Murray was the O's most productive hitter . . . He hit 6 home runs and drove in 12 in 13 games on a .354 average (17-for-48) . . . His 22 homers and 72 rbi (in 95 games vs. Detroit) represent career highs vs. a single opponent.

Cal Ripken hit 4 home runs and John Lowenstein 3 . . . Todd Cruz had only 2 hits in 21 at bats vs. the Tigers in 10 games for the O's, both in his first game in a Baltimore uniform (July 1st), but he drove in a career high 6 runs (3-run homer and 3-run double, both off Wilcox) . . . After that he went 0-for-18 against the Bengals.

Orioles Pitching: Davis (2-0) was the only multiple winner vs. Detroit while both Dennis Martinez (0-2) and Mike Boddicker (1-2) lost twice to the Tigers who were the only club to beat Boddicker more than once.

Scott McGregor (1-1 in '83) won 10 of his first 11 decisions (thru May 22, '81), but has since lost 5 of 6 . . . Lifetime he is 11-6 . . . Jim Palmer was 0-1 and is now 21-12 lifetime . . . Jim's career 3.29 era vs. the Tigers (328.2 ip, 120 er) is his highest against one opponent except for his 5.32 vs. Seattle . . . He has a lifetime era of under 3.00 vs. 9 different clubs . . . Tippy Martinez has yielded only 34 home runs in his A.L. career, 9 of them by the Tigers.

vs. KANSAS CITY ('83: 8-4 . . . Lifetime: 99-73) . . . The O's won the season series for the 2nd time in the last 3 years, but also for only the 2nd time in 8 seasons . . . From '76 thru '83, the O's are 2-3-3 in season series against K.C.

Game Highlights. See pages 44-48 for details of following games: "O's Trump Royals Twice, Aug. 19" . . . It was the first doubleheader sweep ever for the O's vs. Royals (Royals have also swept one and they've split 4. . .) See page 41 for details on Apr. 4th & 6th at Baltimore.

At Royals Stadium: The O's had lost 8 straight games on the KC carpet until winning there on May 27 (it was there first win in KC since Apr. 17, '81) . . . They wound up with a 4-2 record at Royals Stadium, only their 2nd winning season there in 11 years (they're 2-6-3) and their first since '74.

Overall, the Birds are 23-38 (.377) on KC turf after having gone 17-7 (.708) in 4 years at old Municipal Stadium.

O's Lead Series: In 15 years, however, the O's have a .576 percentage (99-73) against K.C. and are 59-28 (.678) vs. the Royals in Baltimore.

Most of the Orioles advantage was constructed in '69 & '70 when they beat the Royals 23 times in 24 outings, including 23 straight after Dick Drago beat Dick Hall on May 9, '69 at Baltimore in the first game ever between the 2 clubs. Since that streak ended (Apr. 30, '71), the Birds edge is only 76-72.

Opening Days: The O's hosted the Royals in 4 straight home openers from '80 thru '83 and were 3-1 (having lost last year, 7-2) . . . Those 4 openers drew a total of 204,359, an average of 51,090 (all 4 crowds were over 50,000).

Royals Batting: Don Slaught led KC vs. the O's with a .529 average (9-for-17) and Hal McRae batted .364 (16-for-44) . . . Over the last 3 years, McRae has hit .378 (45-for-119) vs. Baltimore.

George Brett had a .377 career average (110-for-292) against the O's after his first 7 years in the league, but over the past 3 campaigns has batted only .195 (24-for-123) . . . Nonetheless, his lifetime average is .324 (134-for-413), 8 points above his A.L. career mark (.316, 1676-for-5307).

The Royals stole 11 bases in 15 tries against Baltimore . . . John Wathan was 4-for-4, U.L. Washington 3-for-3, and Willie Wilson 3-for-4 . . . Lifetime, Wilson is 22-for-26 vs. the O's.

Royals Pitching: When Dan Quisenberry lost to the O's in the 1st game of the Aug. 19th doubleheader at Baltimore, it was his first loss to anybody in nearly 4 months (since Apr. 23) . . . He started the 9th inning with a 4-2 lead, but the O's collected 5 hits and with 2 out Lenn Sakata drove in the winning run.

Nevertheless, Quisenberry has a lifetime 1.39 era (5 er, 32.1 ip) vs. Baltimore and is 1-2 with 8 saves in 22 appearances . . . He has thrown 2 home run balls, to Ken Singleton ('82) and Eddie Murray ('83).

Larry Gura was 1-2 in 3 starts but holds an 11-7 lifetime advantage.

O's Batting: John Lowenstein had a banner year vs. the Royals with a .625 average (15-for-24) and a club leading 9 rbi . . . Over the past 2 seasons, "Brother Low" has batted .553 vs. KC pitching (21-for-38) and has a .308 lifetime figure (64-for-208), his highest against one team.

Lowenstein's left field partner, Gary Roenicke, hit 3 home runs vs. the Royals and now has 13 against them, also a high vs. one club (he hit 7 vs. KC in '79 alone).

O's Pitching: Both Scott McGregor and Storm Davis were 2-0 vs. the Royals . . . Jim Palmer was 0-1 and is now 21-12 lifetime against them. McGregor completed 2 of 3 starts including a 1-0 2-hitter on May 28 at K.C.

vs. MINNESOTA ('83: 8-4 . . . Lifetime: 265-203) . . . The O's lost the first 3 games in the season series when the Twins came to Baltimore May 23-24-25 and swept a series at Memorial Stadium for the first time since that club moved to the Upper Midwest in '61 (it was their 51st trip to Balmer in that 15 year period) . . . It was also the first series the Twins had won in Crabtown in 5 years (since May '78) . . . Before the sweep the O's had won 13 of their last 14 games at home against Minnesota (that record is now 16-4 in last 20).

Game Highlights: See "Game Highlights" on pages 44-48 for details of the following games—"Historic Win at the 'Hump', Sep. 2"; "More History at the 'Hump', Sep. 3", and "11-1 & 18-4, Sep. 4".

The Twins hit 5 homers and the O's 2 on May 23rd to tie a record for most hrs. both clubs, in an Orioles game . . .Tom Brunansky & Gary Ward each hit 2 . . . Brunansky had 5 rbi in the game.

More on Season Series: The O's are 40-14 (.741) in the last 5 years against the Twins and 28-8 (.778) starting July 21, '80.

Twins' Batting: Brunansky led the Twins in hr (3) and rbi (8) though he batted only .227 (10-for-44) vs. the O's . . . The leading hitter among regulars was Ron Washington (.382, 13-for-34) . . . In 2 seasons, Washington has a career mark of .353 (24-for-68) against Baltimore.

Twins' Pitching: Ken Schrom was 2-2 . . . He won his first 2 starts, one of them a complete game (over Storm Davis, 10-3, on May 31), then yielded 10 runs in 5.2 innings in his last 2 outings against the O's while losing both . . . The only other multiple loser was Bobby Castillo (1-2).

John Butcher and Mike Smithson, acquired from Texas over the winter, accounted for 2 of the Rangers' 3 wins vs. the O's in '83 . . . Butcher's win was a 1-hit 2-0 masterpiece at Texas Aug. 16 over Allan Ramirez (Al Bumbry had the only hit, in the 3rd inning). Smithson was 1-2.

O's Batting: Cal Ripken who enjoyed perhaps his biggest career day on Sep. 3 at the Metrodome (see "Game Highlights" page 47), batted .367 (18-for-49) with 5 homers and 13 rbi in 12 games . . . Gary Roenicke went 11-for-20 (.550) with 2 homers & 6 rbi.

Seven Orioles have career averages over .300 vs. Minnesota: Rich Dauer-.303 (66-for-218); Rick Dempsey-.309 (63-for-204); Eddie Murray-.313 (91-for-288); Ripken-.347 (33-for-95); Roenicke-.359 (55-for-153);Lenn Sakata-.356 (21-for-59); and Ken Singleton-.317 (99-for-312).

O's Pitching: Mike Flanagan was 2-0 and has now won 14 straight against the Twins since losing his first 2 career decisions, the latter on May 29, '77 to Dave Goltz (i.e. he's 14-2 lifetime).

Mike Boddicker was also 2-0 and Scott McGregor was 2-1 . . . Scott is now 10-4 lifetime vs. Minny . . . Jim Palmer (1-0) is 21-11 lifetime, not including his 2 pennant clinching victories in the '69 & '70 ALCS . . . Tippy Martinez has never thrown a home run ball to a Twins batter.

vs. MILWAUKEE ('83: 11-2 . . . Lifetime: 138-73). . . '83 was the Orioles most successful year ever against the Brewers. The Birds were 7-0 at Baltimore and 4-2 in Milwaukee. Despite the O's dominance, 10 of the 13 games were decided by 3 or fewer runs, and the O's twice had to come from 0-7 deficits to win (June 15 & Sep. 18).

Game Highlights: See pages 44-48 for details of following O's-Brewer games—"Ramirez to the Rescue, June 8"; "Comedy of Errors, June 9"; "Rip & Tippy Show, June 13"; "Miracle in Milwaukee, June 15"; "Brewers Revenge, June 16"; "Another Miracle against Milwaukee, Sep. 18"; "Sudden Death Stefero, Sep. 19"; "Clinching, Sep. 25".

The O's swept a 4 game series at Baltimore Sep. 16-19 despite grounding into 10 double plays, including 5 in one game (Sep. 16) won by the O's 8-1 . . . Robin Yount tied a record by participating in all 5 dp's.

More on Season Series: The O's who are now 20-6 vs. the Brewers over the last 2 years, including 10-1 at home starting Oct. 1,'82. The only loss at Memorial Stadium in that stretch, of course, clinched a division title for the Brewers (Oct. 3, '82).

The O's are 12-3 in 15 season series since the franchise began operating in Seattle ('69), and their .654 lifetime percentage (138-73) is a high against a single club, EXCEPT for the two newest expansion teams (vs. Toronto-.697 & vs. Seattle-.689).

The Orioles hit .310 (144-for-464) in the season series compared to the Brewers' .257 (120-for-467), out-scored them 80 to 57 and out-pitched them 3.44 to 5.66. Over the last 2 years the Birds have compiled a .316 team average against Milwaukee pitching (308-for-974).

At Milwaukee: Lifetime at County Stadium vs. the Brewers, the O's are 68-39 (.636), exceeded only by their winning percentage at Texas (.687, 46-21).

Brewers' Batting: Robin Yount hit .340 (18-for-53) . . . He has 21 rbi and 8 home runs in 26 games vs. the O's over the last 2 years to go with a .333 average (36-for-108).

Cecil Cooper was held to a .185 average (10-for-54) with no home runs . . . In his last 2 A.L. seasons Cooper has batted .310 (408-for-1315) with 64 hr & 247 rbi overall. Against Baltimore in that period, he is hitting only .183 (19-for-104) with 1 hr and 7 rbi in 25 games. Paul Molitor stole 2 bases in as many attempts and is now 15-for-17 on the basepaths lifetime against the Birds. For Texas in '83, Jim Sundberg hit .405 (15-for-37).

Brewers' Pitching: The only winners in the season series were Jamie Cocanower and Jim Slaton (both 1-0) . . . Bob Gibson was 0-3 and Tom Tellmann 0-2.

Mike Caldwell (0-1) is now 3-8 lifetime vs. Baltimore with a 5.81 era (54 er, 83.2 ip) and has yielded 20 home runs in 14 games. The Orioles' career batting average against the veteran lefthander is .318 (108-for-340).

Orioles Batting: Eight of the 21 batters who faced the Brewers in '83 hit over .300, led by Al Bumbry at .486 (18-for-37) and Cal Ripken at .466 (27-for-58, 3 hr, 15 rbi in 13 games) . . . Rip was 14-for-his last-21 vs. Milwaukee . . . John Shelby hit .400 (8-for-20).

Jim Dwyer and Joe Nolan both hit homers in the Sep. 25th division title clincher.

Rookie John Stefero became the "New Dave Criscione" vs. the Brewers . . . On both Sep. 18 & 19 he drove in the winning run against the Brewers in "sudden death" (see "Game Highlights" on page 48). In '77 Criscione, a catcher up from Rochester, appeared in only 7 games for the O's, but contributed significantly to 2 Baltimore wins against Milwaukee . . . In one of those, he hit an 11th inning game-winning homer (Jul. 25, '77). Ask Bud Selig for details.

Lenn Sakata, who, ironically, hit his 1st major league homer for the Brewers vs. the O's in the "Dave Criscione" game to give the Brewers a 3-2 lead in the 9th, has hit well against his original club since joining the Orioles . . . He has a .296 average (21-for-71) and has hit 5 of his 17 career homers off Milwaukee pitching.

Over the last 3 years, Eddie Murray has hit 9 homers and driven in 31 runs in 33 games against the Brewers.

Orioles Pitching: Tippy Martinez was the O's most productive pitcher in the season series . . . He was 2-0 with 5 saves in 9 appearances . . . Overall, the bullpen played a big role in 10 of the O's 11 wins (4-1 with 6 saves) . . . Among starters, Mike Boddicker was 2-0 in 2 starts and Tim Stoddard was 2-1 . . . The only losses were sustained by Stoddard and Dennis Martinez (1-1) . . . . Dennis, however, still sports a 10-5 lifetime record.

vs. NEW YORK ('83: 6-7. . . Lifetime: 277-253) . . . The Yankees won the season series for only the 4th time in the last 20 years . . . The last 2 times New York has captured the season set, the O's have gone on to win the A.L. pennant ('79 & '83) . . . Nine of the 13 games between the 2 clubs were decided by 1 or 2 runs in '83.

Over the last 2 decades, the O's are 15-4-1 in season series, and are 17-6-1 since losing the first 5 ('54 thru '58) to New York.

Game Highlights: See pages 44-48 for details of following O's-Yankee games— "Bad Time in Big Apple, June 27"; "More Bad Times in Big Apple, June 29"; "Nettled, Sep. 9"; "Joe, Brother Low & O's Take 2, Sep. 10".

On Sep. 11 at Yankee Stadium John Shelby threw out Willie Randolph and Ken Griffey at the plate and picked up a 3rd assist with a throw to Rick Dempsey who relayed to Ripken to nail Rick Cerone at 2nd base.

O's vs. Yankees Lifetime: The O's are the only A.L. club with a lifetime winning record vs. N.Y. (.523, 277-253, +24). During their first 5 seasons the O's were 32-76 against the Bombers, but from '59 thru '83 Baltimore compiled a 245-177 (.581) mark and over the last 20 campaigns (starting '64) have gone 194-127 (.605).

Detroit ranks 2nd against the Yankees with a .473 (775-862) lifetime percentage followed by the Milwaukee Brewers (excluding Sea. Pilots) at .465 (94-108).

At Baltimore: The O's had beaten the Yankees 10 straight times in Baltimore after winning the first game of the year June 21st before Ron Guidry beat the Birds the following night (June 22) . . . They have now downed the Yankees 12 times in the last 15 games at Memorial Stadium. Lifetime, the O's have a 146-118 edge in Baltimore.

At New York: Baltimore was 3-4 at Yankee Stadium in '83 after losing the first 4 games (2 of them in "sudden death"). Overall the Birds are 122-126 (.492) in the "House that Ruth Built", the best lifetime record in the league among Yankee rivals. Oakland (excluding KC & Pha. A's) is 2nd at 35-48 (.422) and Minnesota (excluding Washington) 3rd at 60-84 (.417).

Since the New Yankee Stadium opened in '76, the O's are 31-26 there.

Over the last 3 years, the Birds are 9-11 in the Bronx and 6 of those 11 defeats have come in "sudden death": In '81 homers by Graig Nettles, Dave Revering and Bobby Murcer produced instant victories . . . In '82 Willie Randolph's 16th inning single on June 19 gave the Yankees a win, and in '83 Butch Wynegar delivered two-game winning blows in extra innings in a 3 game span: an 11th inning single on June 27th and a 12th inning homer on June 30th, both off Tim Stoddard.

In one 4-year stretch ('65-'68), the O's were 30-8 at Yankee Stadium and they won 12 straight there between May 1, '65 and June 21, '66.

Sweeps: In 30 years, the O's hold a 31-30 edge in sweeps (3 game series minimum). They are 19-11 at home and 12-19 at New York in sweeps . . .

The O's have twice swept 5 game series vs. New York (both in Baltimore): '62 (8/22-24) and '82 (9/13-16) . . . The only other sweep of a 5-game set in O's history was against the Twins, also at Baltimore July 1-3, '66.

Yankees Batting: Don Baylor was the Yankees leading hitter vs. Baltimore in '83 at .381 (16-for-42) with 1 homer and 3 rbi in 11 games . . . Baylor, over the past 3 seasons, has hit Baltimore pitching at a .351 clip (47-for-134) with 9 hr, 26 rbi in 35 games.

Nettles hit .351 (13-for-37) with 3 hr and 10 rbi in 10 games. One of the homers was an 8th inning game winner (Sep. 9) and another tied a game in the 8th (June 21) at Baltimore . . . Nettles ranks 8th on the all-time list of home run hitters against Baltimore (30) . . . Harmon Killebrew leads with 70 and 2nd is Mickey Mantle-44. Among actives Reggie Jackson is tops with 40.

Dave Winfield batted only .184 (9-for-49) in 12 games with no homers and only 2 rbi . . . In 3 A.L. seasons, Winfield has a .268 average (38-for-142) in 38 games with 8 hr and 19 rbi.

Yankees Pitching: Goose Gossage was 3-0 in 5 appearances (tied Detroit's Dan Petry for most regular season wins vs. O's . . . LaMarr Hoyt won 3 also including ALCS). However, the hard throwing righthander yielded 6 runs in 10.1 innings (5.23 era) including 5 in the same frame (9th inning, Sep. 10, 1st of 2) during which he permitted a total of 6 runs to cross (the 1st charged to loser Shane Rawley). Joe Nolan singled home the winning run off Goose, then John Lowenstein followed 4 batters later with a grand slam.

Guidry was 2-0 with 2 complete games and snapped a 5-game losing streak against the O's . . . Though he's lost 5 of his last 7 decisions, Guidry is 7-6 lifetime vs. Baltimore . . .

Rawley (0-3), who pitched more innings vs. Baltimore than any other pitcher while throwing 5 "gophers", is 0-6 vs. Baltimore since his lone career win, for Seattle June 22, '80 at Baltimore . . . He's 1-6 lifetime . . . Rudy May pitched to only 3 O's batters in '83 (Sep. 10th-2nd game), but that was enough to pick up a loss. At 3-15 lifetime, he holds the distinction of having lost more games to Baltimore than any other active pitcher (since the retirement of Gaylord Perry who was 12-19) . . . Tommy John is 15-14.

Orioles Batting: Gary Roenicke hit 3 home runs (2 off Rawley and 1 off Guidry) and drove in 11 in 13 games to lead the O's in both categories vs. New York . . . Cal Ripken has 5 home runs and 23 rbi in 26 games vs. the Yankees the last 2 years (including 17 rbi in '82).

The O's top lifetime hitter against the Yankees is Benny Ayala at .299 (29-for-97) despite a 4-for-21 (.190) in '83 . . . Ken Singleton boasts a .287 (126-for-439) lifetime figure.

Orioles Pitching: Tippy Martinez was 1-0 with 4 saves in 9 appearances, including 4 in a row (Sep. 9-10-11) and gave up just 1 unearned run in 16 innings . . . Over the past 2 campaigns, he has an 0.00 era in 18 appearances spanning 30.1 innings. He was scored on in his final '81 effort against the Yankees. Tippy has contributed either a win or a save (3-0-9) to 12 of the O's 17 victories in that 2 year span (including 5 of 6 O's wins in '83).

Lifetime, Tippy is 9-5 with 11 saves and a 1.92 era (75 ip, 16 er) in 52 appearances (a personal high vs. one opponent).

Mike Boddicker (2-1) was the lone multiple winner (he's 3-1 lifetime) vs. New York . . . Scott McGregor (0-2) is now 6-7 lifetime . . .Five of his 6 wins have been shutouts.

Mike Flanagan (1-0 in '83) has been streaky throughout most of his career against the Yankees. He started with one win in his first 3 decisions, then won 5 in a row, lost 5 straight, and has now won his last 3 decisions.

Jim Palmer (1-0 in '83) is 30-16 lifetime and 7-1 in his last 8 decisions vs. New York (including 4-0 vs. Guidry) . . . He is 16-7 at Yankee Stadium (7-3 since it reopened in '76) and leads all active pitchers in Yankee taming. He is tied for 8th on the all-time list with Bob Feller, Chief Bender, George Mullin and Hooks Dauss . . . Walter Johnson heads the list with 60 wins vs. the Yankees.

vs. OAKLAND ('83: 8-4 . . . Lifetime-Oak. only: 112-82). . . The O's won the season series for the 7th straight time (starting '77) . . . In that period, the Birds are 56-25 (.691) against the A's (including 11-0 in '78).

Starting July 8, '76, the O's are 29-13 (.690) at Oakland and are 60-45 there lifetime (inc. 3-3 in '71, '73, & '74 ALCS).

Eight of the 12 games in the '83 season series were decided by 1 or 2 runs.

5 Hours, 1 Run: On Sunday, May 8 in Baltimore, a game scheduled to begin at 2:05 was not completed until 7:47 thanks to 4 rain delays . . . The only run in the game was a homer by new Oriole Wayne Gross, then with the A's, off Tippy Martinez in the 8th inning and it made a winner of Bill Krueger.

Oakland Batting: Rickey Henderson enjoyed a typical year against the O's . . . He hit .409 (18-for-44) and stole 8 bases in 11 tries . . . Henderson is the leading lifetime hitter among active players vs. the O's (.350, 69-for-197), has a career on-base percentage of .458 (108-for-236), has drawn 39 walks and stole 34 bases in 45 tries, all in 53 games.

Dwayne Murphy led the A's in homers vs. Baltimore with 3 and Carney Lansford was tops in rbi (8).

Oakland Pitching: Tim Conroy was the only multiple loser at 0-2, and no A's pitcher beat the Birds more than once. The veteran Tom Burgmeier (age 40) was 1-0 with 2 saves and allowed only one run in 16.1 innings . . . Rookie Chris Codiroli was 1-1 with a yield of 7 earned runs in 9.1 innings over 2 starts.

Bill Caudill, in 2 A.L. seasons at Seattle, was 3-0 with 2 saves in 7 appearances vs. the O's . . . He's allowed ony 2 runs in 8.2 innings and has struck out 17 of the 35 Baltimore batters he's faced.

O's Batting: Jim Dwyer (5-for-10) and Lenn Sakata (4-for-8) both hit .500 in limited action against Oakland in '83, but among regulars, the leading batter was John Lowenstein (.394, 13-for-33). John Shelby batted .370 (10-for-27).

Eddie Murray and Cal Ripken each hit 4 homers and Rip led the club with 11 rbi in 12 games . . . Eddie batted .341 (14-for-41) and with 13 walks forged a .500 on-base pct. (27-for-54) . . . The only veteran with a .300 career average vs. the A's is Benny Ayala (.308, 8-for-26).

Orioles Pitching: Mike Flanagan, Storm Davis and Dennis Martinez were all 2-0 . . . Flanagan is now 14-4 lifetime vs. the A's and 9-0 at Oakland . . . Dennis is 10-1 overall and 5-0 at Baltimore and Davis is 3-0 in 2 seasons.

vs. SEATTLE ('83: 8-4 . . . Lifetime: 51-23) . . . The O's are 6-0-1 in 7 season series vs. the Mariners . . .

O's on the West Coast: Over the past 6 seasons the O's have fared generally well on the west Coast. In that period (starting '78) they have gone 66-37 (.641) in the 3 ballparks (Cal 22-13, Oak 23-13, Sea 21-11) . . . In '83, they were 11-7 on the coast.

At Baltimore: The O's are 28-9 (.757) lifetime against the M's at Memorial Stadium. They won the first 14 games they ever played against the M's at Baltimore until Mike Parrott beat Sammy Stewart July 25, '79. Since then the O's are 14-9 in at home vs. the Mariners who have won 2 of 14 series played here.

M's Batting: Richie Zisk batted .320 (8-for-25) . . . In 3 years with the Mariners, Zisk has hit .385 (30-for-78) vs. Baltimore with 5 hr, 9 rbi in 19 games . . . Todd Cruz led the Mariners in rbi vs. the O's with 5 in 6 games despite a 3-for-20 (.150) average and despite the fact he spent more than half the season with the Orioles.

M's Pitching: Jim Beattie (2-2) was the only multiple winner and he joined Matt Young & Gaylord Perry, both 0-2, as 2-time losers . . . Perry actually lost 3 games to the O's in '83 including one while with K.C. . . . One of Young's losing efforts was particularly distinguished . . . On July 10, he combined with Mike Stanton on a 2-hitter at Baltimore, only to lose on Mike Boddicker's 5-hit shutout . . . Both runs charged to Young were unearned.

O's Batting: Ken Singleton, to no one's surprise, batted .390 (16-for-41) against the M's (with 2 hr & 11 rbi in 12 games) . . . In 7 seasons against them, Ken has a .343 lifetime average (84-for-245) with 22 homers and 70 rbi in 69 games.

At the Kingdome last year he hit .500 (12-for-24) with a home run and 10 rbi in 6 games . . . Lifetime, he has driven in 35 runs and hit 12 homers in 34 indoor games in the Pacific Northwest.

Eddie Murray, on the other hand, has struggled against the M's over the last 2 years during which he is 15-for-82 (.183) with no homers and 6 rbi in 23 games. He hasn't hit a home run against the M's in 27 games since connecting off Larry Andersen on Aug. 24, '81 at the Kingdome.

Al Bumbry is a .312 lifetime hitter (73-for-234) against the M's and Joe Nolan has a .333 average (10-for-30).

O's Pitching: Storm Davis and Scott McGregor were both 2-1 . . . Mike Flanagan (1-0) is 8-3 lifetime and Dennis Martinez (1-1 in '83) is 11-4 . . . Tippy Martinez has pitched against the M's 19 times and is 2-0 with 5 saves plus a 1.20 era (4 er, 30 ip).

Jim Palmer did not pitch against the Mariners in '83 . . . As a matter of fact, he's made only 8 appearances in 7 years and is 2-3 vs. the M's. At the Kingdome he is 0-2, having lost his first 2 lifetime starts there, both to Glenn Abbott in '77.

In the last 6 seasons (starting '78) Jim has worked only twice in the dome. One was a no-decision start on Aug. 25, '81 and the other, a hitless 4-inning relief appearance on May 14,'82 during which he earned a save . . . In 4 games at Seattle, he has allowed 11 earned runs and 13 hits in 13 innings.

Palmer's 2 wins were against Dick Pole on May 8, '77 and Jim Beattie on Sep. 2, '80, both in Baltimore, as was his other loss, on June 20, '80 to Floyd Bannister.

vs. TEXAS ('83: 9-3 . . . Lifetime-Tex. only: 78-54) . . . The O's are 20-7 (.741) vs. the Rangers over the past 3 years.

Game Highlights: See pages 44-48 for details of following games—"41 Hits, May 14", "Trouble in Texas (with Ken Kaiser), May 15", and "Late Rally Beats Texas, July 29".

In a rare mid-week afternoon game last April 21st in Baltimore, the O's beat the Rangers in 14 innings on an unusual play. With 1 out, John Shelby (winning run) on 3rd and Dan Ford on 1st, Cal Ripken hit a bouncer to Bucky Dent who fumbled briefly, then recovered and threw to Mike Richardt covering at 2nd for the force. However, a hard, clean slide by Ford prevented any chance for an inning ending double play as Shelby checked in with the game-winning tally. Unfortunately, Richardt sustained a serious knee injury on the play and was sidelined until after the all-star break.

At Texas: The Orioles were 4-2 in '83 and are now 46-21 (.687) at Arlington, their best record anywhere on the road (in 2nd place is HHH at Minny, 8-4, .667 and 3rd best is County Stadium in Milwaukee where they are 64-37, .634 vs. the Brewers).

Home vs. Rangers: Despite the O's 5-1 '83 record vs. Texas in Baltimore last year, the Rangers remain the only A.L. opponent with a lifetime winning record at Memorial Stadium. They are 33-32 in Baltimore since the franchise moved to Texas from D.C. in '72.

Texas Batting: The Rangers' top 3 hitters vs. the O's in '83 were the now departed Jim Sundberg (.405, 15-for-37), George Wright (.360, 18-for-50) and Bucky Dent (.355, 11-for-31) . . .Billy Sample led the club with 8 rbi vs. Baltimore and had 5 extra base hits including 2 homers on a .300 average (15-for-50).

Dave Hostetler also hit 2 home runs vs. the O's (both on July 30 in Baltimore), but also fanned 13 times in 26 official trips.

Texas Pitching: Charlie Hough and Odell Jones were both 0-2 though Jones had a save and Mike Smithson was 1-2 . . . There were no multiple winners . . . John Butcher and Danny Darwin, along with Smithson, were the only Rangers to post a victory in the season series . . . Butcher's was a 1-hit 2-0 masterpiece on Aug. 16 (Al Bumbry had the only hit, in the 3rd inning). Darwin worked 10.1 innings vs. the O's (2 app.) and allowed no earned runs.

Rick Honeycutt, the A.L. era leader (2.42), was 0-0 in one start and gave up 5 earned runs in 2.1 innings (era 19.29) . . . The Rangers led the A.L. with a 3.31 team era, but had a 4.67 vs. Baltimore.

O's Batting: Ripken led the O's with a .373 average (19-for-51), and though he hit no homers, scored 11 runs . . . Lifetime, he is batting .340 (34-for-100) against the Rangers.

John Lowenstein (.348, 8-for-23) hit 4 homers in the season series and tied Eddie Murray in rbi with 11.

O's Pitching: Mike Boddicker and Sammy Stewart were both 2-0 while Dennis Martinez (0-2) was charged with 2 of the club's 3 losses in the season series. The only other loser was Allan Ramirez who was the victim of Butcher's 1-hitter Aug. 16.

Tippy Martinez (1-0 with no saves in 4 '83 appearances) is 6-0 with 6 saves lifetime vs. the Rangers in 23 games with a 2.15 era (50.1 ip, 12 er) . . . Scott McGregor (1-0 in '83) is also undefeated lifetime against Texas (5-0) . . . Jim Palmer was 0-0 in '83 but has a 22-16 career record.

vs. TORONTO ('83: 7-6 . . . Lifetime 62-27) . . . Though the O's have had plenty of trouble over the past 7 years with the Blue Jays, they have, nevertheless, won all 7 season series since Toronto came into the league in '77, and the O's .697 winning percentage (62-27) is a club high vs. a single opponent.

At Baltimore the O's are 36-9 (.800) lifetime vs. the Blue Jays, and are 34-6 (.850) since losing on Sep. 19, '77 . . . That stretch includes a 19-game winning streak which ended on May 3, '81. In 12 series at Memorial Stadium, the O's are 10-1-1. The only set they lost (2 games to 1) was in '82 (May 21-22-23).

Game Highlights: See pages 44-48 for details of following games —"Disco Does it Again, May 19"; "That's Incredible (the 3 pickoff game), Aug. 24"; "More of the Same, Aug. 25", and "7 in the 1st, Aug. 31".

Before losing 2 straight in extra innings to the O's Aug. 24 & 25, the Jays had won 12 straight overtime games (including 9 in '83) since dropping a 10 inning decision exactly one year earlier in Baltimore (8/24/82) . . . Joey McLaughlin was the loser in both Aug. 24th defeats (i.e. '82 & '83).

The 2 consecutive extra inning losses marked the start of a disastrous streak for the Jays. In 8 games from Aug. 24 thru 30, they were 2-6 and in all 6 defeats, the "losing run" scored in the 9th or later.

Both O's-Jays series in Baltimore drew more than 100,000 people, and the August series was only the 3rd weeknight set to reach 6 figures in the Orioles 30 year history.

Dave Stieb and Jim Clancy pitched back to back shutouts against the O's at Toronto on May 21 & 22, a 4-hitter and 3-hitter respectively, that precipitated the Birds' first 7 game losing streak.

Toronto Batting: Cliff Johnson hit 5 home runs, an'83 high by one batter vs. Baltimore . . . All 5 shots were solos and accounted for all 5 of his rbi against the Birds. Buck Martinez hit his 1st career grand slam on June 5th in Baltimore off Tim Stoddard.

Jesse Barfield was the Jays leading hitter in the season series at .400 (12-for-30) and hit 3 homers, while Lloyd Moseby batted .349 (15-for-43) and drove in 10 runs in 13 games.

Toronto Pitching: Clancy was 2-0 and is now up to 5-8 lifetime while Stieb was 1-1 . . . His career record stands at 2-7 . . . McLaughlin was 0-2 but also picked up 2 saves.

O's Batting: Eddie Murray had 3 hrs & 10 rbi to lead the O's against Toronto despite a .239 average (11-for-46) . . . Lifetime in 87 games, Eddie has 18 hr, 61 rbi and a .325 average (102-for-314).

Jim Dwyer, who batted .333 (7-for-21) vs. the Blue Jays with one home run, has hit 7 of his 28 career A.L. homers off Toronto pitching.

O's Pitching: Tippy in 7 appearances was 3-0 with one save, and is now 5-0 with 6 saves lifetime in 30 games against Toronto, despite a 5.05 era (35.2 ip, 20 er), the highest he has registered against any one club.

Mike Flanagan (0-1) lost to the Jays on Aug. 23 in Baltimore, snapping a perfect 10-0 lifetime mark against them at Memorial Stadium . . . Overall, he is 15-5 vs. Toronto.

Scott McGregor was 2-0 and is 9-2 lifetime and Mike Boddicker was 2-0 . . .Dennis Martinez was 0-1 but is 8-3 and Jim Palmer is 9-7 despite an 0-1 in '83.

O'S HAVE BEST RECORD IN MAJORS FOR LAST 28 YEARS

During the 28 years that have elapsed from 1956 thru 1983, the Orioles have won more games than any other big league club and have compiled the best won-lost percentage. In that period, they are 585 games over .500.

The O's had a 111-197 (.360) record in their 1st 2 Baltimore seasons ('54-'55). The club improved to 69-85 in '56 and really began to jell in '57, when the Birds finished at .500 (76-76) for the 1st time. The Orioles have had the majors' best record starting '57 for many years but did not gain that distinction beginning '56 until '82, when they passed the Yankees.

Listed below are the standings of the 16 clubs that have played during the entire 28-year span.

1. Orioles	2499-1914 (.566)	10. White Sox	2265-2158 (.512)
2. Yankees	2477-1948 (.560)	11. Braves	2249-2172 (.509)
3. Dodgers	2459-1974 (.555)	12. Phillies	2180-2243 (.493)
4. Reds	2424-1998 (.548)	13. Twins, nee
5. Pirates	2351-2067 (.532)	Senators	2160-2265 (.488)
6. Tigers	2303-2128 (.520)	14. Indians	2129-2284 (.482)
7. Cardinals	2294-2124 (.519)	15. A's	2063-2366 (.466)
8. Giants	2292-2138 (.5174)	16. Cubs	2033-2386 (.460)
9. Red Sox	2288-2138 (.5169)

Since the franchise came to Baltimore from St. Louis prior to the 1954 season (30 seasons thru '83), the O's have compiled the 3rd best record in the majors-.553 (2610-2111) behind: Yankees-.566 (2676 -2055) and Dodgers-.559 (2649-2091). In those 30 seasons, the Orioles have won 100 or more games 5 times ('69, '70, '71, '79, '80), an achievement bettered only by the Yankees (6 times) in that period. Baltimore's 5 100-victory seasons in the last 15 years is unsurpassed.

In addition, the Orioles own the best record in the major leagues over the last 10 seasons ('74-'83) at .585 (909-646); the last 5 years ('79-'83) at .604 (453-297), the last 4 campaigns ('80-'83) at .594 (351-240), and the last 3 seasons ('81-'83) at .585 (251-178). Baltimore had the majors' best record in '79 and has compiled the 2nd best mark in each of the last 4 years.

The Orioles have had 16 consecutive winning seasons (starting '68), the longest active streak in the big leagues. Boston had been over the .500 mark for 16 straight years ('67-'82) before falling to 78-84 in '83.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streaks: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his Club's games.

Save Rule (10-20): Credit a pitcher with a save when he is the finishing,

but not the winning pitcher, and when he qualifies under one of the following conditions:

(1) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or

(2) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck, or

(3) he pitches effectively for at least three innings regardless of his club's lead.

The current rule was adopted in 1975. Saves became official for the first time in '69 . . . The original rule was amended in '73 then revised again in '75.

ORIOLES "HALL OF FAME"

The Orioles' "Hall of Fame" was founded in 1977 by the Oriole Advocates in cooperation with the ballclub to honor the outstanding players, managers and coaches to have represented the Orioles during the modern major league era which began in 1954.

Since that time, 9 men have been inducted by vote of selected writers, announcers, and veteran members of the Oriole Advocates.

Brooks and Frank Robinson ('77) were charter inductees, followed by: Dave McNally ('78), Boog Powell ('79), Gus Triandos ('81), Luis Aparicio and Mike Cuellar ('82), and Mark Belanger and Earl Weaver ('83).

The 1984 selections will be announced sometime in late April.

To become a member, a candidate must be mentioned on 75% of the ballots cast. To qualify for nomination, he must have spent at least 3 seasons with the Orioles and can no longer be working for the club in the same capacity in which he is being considered.

Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both past presidents of the Oriole Advocates, were instrumental in making the Orioles "Hall of Fame" a reality. The chairman of the Oriole Advocate's Hall of Fame Committee this year is Bill Tabak.

APARACIO ELECTED TO BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

Luis Aparicio, the former Oriole ('63-'67) whom many call the greatest all-around shortstop of all time, was accorded Baseball's ultimate honor on January 11th when he was elected to the prestigious National Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown. He was joined by two other most deserving gentlemen—Harmon Killebrew (573 home runs, 5th all-time) and Don Drysdale (209-166).

The trio will be inducted in special ceremonies at Cooperstown on Sun., August 12th.

Though he spent 10 of his 18 American League seasons with the White Sox, Luis spent 5 years with the Orioles from 1963 thru 1967, was a vital cog, along with Brooks, Frank and Boog, in 1966 when the Birds captured their first world championship by beating the Dodgers in 4 straight, and was elected to the Orioles "Hall of Fame" in 1982.

The 5'9" native of Maracaibo, Venezuela who will turn 50 on April 29th becomes the fourth ex-Oriole to join the Hall in the past 3 years. Frank and Brooks were both 1st ballot winners in '82 and '83 respectively. The other modern Oriole members are Robin Roberts, elected in 1976, and George Kell, elected in '83.

Aparicio was the leading vote-getter in the '83 balloting (341, 85%) . . . He was followed by Killebrew (335, 83%) and Drysdale (316, 78%). They are among only 187 to have achieved this distinction (not including those who may be chosen by special committees in March).

In his 18 seasons, from 1956 thru 1973, Luis led the league a record 9 straight times (his 1st 9 years) in stolen bases (506 career total), tied another record by topping A.L. shortstops in fielding 8 consecutive years, and appeared in 2,581 games at his position, more than anyone in history. His lifetime batting average was .261 (2677-for-10,230).

Luis is one of 13 shortstops elected to the Hall of Fame, but the first (except for veterans committee selections Dave Bancroft and Travis Jackson) since Lou Boudreau in 1970.

After his first 7 years in Chicago, Luis was traded to the Orioles in 1963 along with outfielder Al Smith for Hoyt Wilhelm, Pete Ward, Ron Hansen and Dave Nicholson. In 1968 he returned to Chicago, along with Russ Snyder and minor league 1st baseman John Matias in the deal that brought Don Buford, Bruce Howard and Roger Nelson to Baltimore. In 1971 he was traded to the Red Sox for infielders Mike Andrews and Luis Alvarado. He played his last 3 years in Boston.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES, INC.

The Oriole Advocates, Inc. is a unique non-profit corporation dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both amateur and professional levels. The organization, founded officially in July, 1960, comprises some 75 men and women drawn from a wide cross-section in the Baltimore area.

Thru the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial contributions primarily to youth organizations, and have played a major role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace on Emory Street. Recently, the Advocates provided the leadership in establishing the Baltimore Orioles "Hall of Fame".

They have also become an essential right arm of the Orioles' public relations and promotions program. On "souvenir giveaway" days at the stadium, it is the Advocates who see to it that every eligible person coming to the park receives the treasured item.

Probably the biggest contribution of all, however, has been the formation and administration of the Junior Orioles program which began in '63 with 750 youngsters and reached an all-time high of 20,000 members (in '77). It is a massive undertaking, a quality "knothole" program that requires a great deal of care, time and effort.

The Oriole Advocates 1984 officers are: President—Chuck Lippy . . . 1st Vice-President—Bill Schofield . . . 2nd Vice President—Peck Minder . . . Treasurer—Charlie Pecot . . . Secretary—Burke Barrett, and Immediate Past President—Ray Weinstein.

The board of directors comprises Doug Canham, Mike Pintzuk and Scott Warrington, and committee chairman include: Special Events—Dan March . . . Junior Orioles—Jack Gray and Orioles Hall of Fame—Bill Tabak.

ORIOLES "DESIGNATED HITTERS"

The Orioles' "Designated Hitters" have been selling season tickets for the ballclub for 5 seasons (starting 1980) and, in that period, the Orioles' season sale has leaped from 1623 in 1979 to a projected all-time high of between 10,500 to 12,000 for 1984 (figures estimated because the sales campaign will continue to opening day.

Mayor William Donald Schaefer and a select group of Baltimoreans working closely with the Orioles' front office, created the organization in September 1979. Its purpose was to enlist the talents of successful men and women from the area business community to serve as the principal sales force for the annual season ticket campaign.

In the first year of operation (for '80 season) 28 of 45 candidates qualified for membership after meeting stringent sales requirements. That number has grown rapidly, and this year it is anticipated that between 65 and 70 will surpass the required sales minimums. The qualifying formula is based on a blend of new sales and renewals, and everyone must re-qualify for membership each year.

To this point, Glenn Babcock and Bob Hawkins are leading the veterans while 3 newcomers (John Pettigrew, Terry Cooper and Howard Weinberg) are at the top among the 18 or so expected to become members this year for the first time. That list of qualifying "rookies" will include 5 from the Washington, D.C. area.

Incentives for members include a trip for 2 to the Orioles' Miami spring training home, a special custom "DH" blazer, use of a special "sky box" on the mezzanine level, and other valuable rewards for top sellers. Among those prizes this year will be trips to New York and Toronto for Orioles weekends, to San Francisco for the All-Star game and to the World Series.

The "Designated Hitters" have their own officers and board of directors (Hal Hackerman is president for 1984), by-laws, newsletter and softball team (they are fortunate they do not have to sell tickets to their own games). They conduct their own meetings and pursue what can only be called an aggressive social program.

Mayor Schaefer, the 3 charter members of the organization (Owen Daly, Bill Beasman and Chris Hartman), Orioles Director for Business Affairs Bob Aylward, Lou Michaelson who was the top qualifier in each of the organization's first 4 years before joining the Orioles last spring as executive director of sales and former club vice-president Al Harazin (now with the Mets) have all been instrumental in directing the program thru its highly successful first 5 years as have former sales director Jon Richardson and the O's current DH coordinator, Dan O'Dowd.

The Orioles escalating season ticket sales figures by year since '79 (1,623): '80 (4,018), '81 (5,215), '82 (5,430), '83 (6,051).

ALL-STAR GAME NOTES

1983: Eddie Murray, Cal Ripken, and Tippy Martinez were selected as reserves by A.L. and Milwaukee manager Harvey Kuenn for the July 6 contest at Chicago's Comiskey Park. Murray, selected for the 3rd straight year and 4th time overall, played the final 4 innings at 1st and was 0-for-2, giving him an 0-for-5 lifetime mark in all-star game competition. Ripken, making his 1st all-star appearance, was at shortstop for the final 4 innings of the American League's 13-3 win and walked in his only plate appearance. Martinez, also selected for the 1st time, did not pitch. Orioles manager Joe Altobelli served as third base coach for the American League, which defeated the National League all-stars for the 1st time since '71.

Elected Starters: In '81, Ken Singleton became Baltimore's 1st elected starter since '76 when he finished 2nd to Reggie Jackson in the A.L. outfield balloting. He became the 3rd Orioles' player to homer in an all-star game (see below).

Other O's who have been elected to starting positions are Boog Powell ('70, '71), Brooks Robinson ('71, '72, '73, '74), Frank Robinson ('71), and Bobby Grich ('76).

Selection of the starting team was returned to the fans in '70 under the sponsorship of the Gillette Company in cooperation with Major League Baseball. Following the ballot box "stuffing" incident in Cincinnati in '57, responsibility for choosing the starting teams was entrusted to major league players for 12 years ('58 thru '69).

Orioles All-Star MVPs: Three Orioles have won "mvp" honors in all-star competition: Billy O'Dell ('58), Brooks Robinson ('66) and Frank Robinson ('71).

O'Dell, the former Orioles lefthander who also pitched for the Giants, Braves and Pirates, hurled the last three innings of the only all-star game ever played in Baltimore and retired all nine batters he faced to protect a one run lead, thus giving the A.L. a 4-3 win.

Brooks won the '66 Arch Ward Memorial Trophy on the strength of a 3-for-4 effort at bat (including a triple) and an 8-for-8 performance afield. He was the first player from a losing team to be so honored.

Frank's fourth inning home run at Detroit in '71 put the A.L. on top to stay and earned him "mvp" honors. It was the first all-star victory since '62 for the A.L. which did not win another all-star game until '83.

1983 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES REVIEW

STATISTICAL SIMILARITIES: The Orioles and White Sox were remarkably even in terms of their regular season statistical achievements.

For example, the Sox led the majors in wins (99), runs (800) and runs differential (150); but the Orioles were a very close 2nd in all 3 categories: 98 wins, 799 runs and 147 differential.

Chicago allowed 650 regular season runs and the Orioles 652. Baltimore led the majors with 168 home runs and the White Sox were a competitive 3rd (157, behind 2nd place Toronto's 167).

The Orioles run for the pennant began, arguably, on Aug. 13th in Chicago (after losing the first two games of a four game series). They were 34-10 from that point (including victories in the last two games of that set) thru Sep. 25th, the day they clinched the eastern division.

The White Sox, who moved into 1st place permanently on July 18 (when they were only three games over .500), already led the west by 5½ games when that Oriole series ended; but, on the next day (Aug. 15) they began a 37-10 spree to the end of the season, a pace that enabled them to win the west by a record 20 games.

At the All-Star Break, Chicago was 40-37 in 3rd place, 3½ games back. The Orioles were 42-34, 2nd and one game behind Toronto. After that they were 1-2 in the majors: Chi (59-26), Bal (56-33).

SOX PITCHING TRIO 42-5 IN 2ND HALF: The White Sox' three top starters combined for an incredible 42-5 record after the All Star game. Lamarr Hoyt (24-10) won his last 13 decisions (and was 22-4 after a 2-6 start); Floyd Bannister (16-10) was 13-1 (after a 3-9 start), and Richard Dotson (22-7), who with any luck could have been 24-5 (he lost a 1-hitter 1-0 and a 3-hitter 2-1 to the Orioles), had a 10 game winning streak at the end of the regular season.

O'S IN RECORD 7TH ALCS: For the Orioles this was a (major league) record 7th LCS in the 15 seasons since the inception of divisional play in '69 (see page 77 for details). The LCS victory, their 5th, was also a major league record.

Game No. 1 . . . Wed., Oct. 5 at Baltimore

HR: None GWRBI: Paciorek LOB: Chi-10, Bal-3
Time: 2:28 1st Pitch: 3:09 Attendance: 51,289

Lamarr Hoyt, the A.L. Cy Young winner to be, controlled the game, holding the Orioles to 5 hits on 98 pitches, including 26 first-pitch strikes to the O's 31 batters. He didn't walk anyone and thus allowed only 31 bases on balls (29 un-intentional) in 269.2, 1983 innings (average of just over 1 per 9 innings). In defeat, Scott McGregor allowed only one earned run in his 6.2 innings.

The Birds had two runners on only once in the 9th, when Dan Ford doubled with 2 out and scored the O's only run on Cal Ripken's single to left. However, Hoyt squelched that last ditch rally by getting Eddie Murray on a force out grounder.

The White Sox capitalized on 2 fielding lapses to score both their runs. In the 3rd, Todd Cruz couldn't quite handle Tom Paciorek's hard shot thru his legs (a hit) that scored Rudy Law from 2nd with the 1st run, and in the 6th Greg Luzinski's ground ball snaked under Murray's glove for an error that sent Paciorek (who had walked) to 3rd. He then scored as Ron Kittle bounced into a double play.

For Hoyt this was his 14th consecutive victory since his last loss on July 23. For the Orioles it was the 1st time in 13 post-season events (7 ALCS, 6 WS) that they had lost the opener.

Rudy Law who had gone 2-for-36 in the regular season vs. the O's was 3-for-5 in game one .

Notes: Rain has often marred post-season games in Baltimore and this was no exception (neither was the first game of the upcoming World Series) . . . Play was held up for 42 minutes with the O's coming to bat in the 4th . . . (Game #1 of the '71 ALCS, #2 of the '71 WS, and #1 of the '79 WS were all postponed because of rain in Baltimore).

The "Lettermen" sang the National Anthem and Mayor William Donald Schaefer threw out the first ball.

Game No. 2 . . . Thu., Oct. 6 at Baltimore

BANNISTER (L), Barojas (7), Lamp (8) . . . BODDICKER (W)
HR: Roenicke (1, on 6th, Bannister) GWRBI: none LOB: Chi-9, Bal-5

Rookie Mike Boddicker who had led the A.L. with 5 regular season shutouts blanked the Sox while striking out a career high and LCS record tying 14 batters (Detroit's Joe Coleman in '72 and Pittsburgh's John Candelaria in '75 also recorded 14 strikeouts in LCS). For his key role in turning the O's around after the opening game defeat on their home ground, Boddicker was ultimately awarded the "MVP" trophy from Chevrolet (he chose an S-10 Blazer pickup truck over a sporty Z-28 Camaro).

Offensively, Gary Roenicke who called this the "best day of my career" doubled, and scored the 1st run when Vance Law threw Ken Singleton's grounder away for a 2-base error, then hit a 2-run homer off Floyd Bannister in the 6th (Roenicke is 6-for-16 lifetime vs. Bannister—.375 average—with 4 homers and 2 doubles). In addition to his 2 hits and 2 rbi, Roenicke walked twice and scored 3 times.

Boddicker, the first rookie ever to pitch an LCS shutout, struck out at least one batter in each inning including the side in order in the 4th (Baines, Luzinski, & Paciorek), and threw a total of 142 pitches.

Chicago mounted its most serious threat in the 9th when, after Boddicker hit Luzinski leading off, Paciorek singled. The next 2 batters went out, then Jerry Hairston walked to load the bases. However, the 26-year old from Norway, Iowa (population 633) fanned Julio Cruz, the potential tying run, to preserve the shutout.

Notes: White Sox batting coach Charlie Lau called Boddicker's breaking stuff "the best I've seen this year" . . . The Evening Sun in a page one streamer headline the next day spelled Mike's name, "BODICKKKKKKKK-KKKKKKER" . . . His shutout was the 10th in ALCS history and the fourth by an Oriole (McNally-'69, Palmer-'73 & McGregor-'79) . . . Governor Harry Hughes threw out the first ball and Chuck Mangione played the Star Spangled Banner.

Game No. 3 . . . Fri., Oct. 7 at Chicago

HR: Murray (2, on 1st, Dotson) GWRBI: Murray LOB: Bal-5, Chi-6

In Chicago, Eddie Murray, who was 0-for-29 over his last 7 post-season games including 0-for-8 in the '83 ALCS, ended the slump decisively with a 3-run homer in the opening inning following Jim Dwyer's double and a Ripken single. As winning pitcher Mike Flanagan said afterward, "Eddie took the fans right out of the game."

Al Bumbry doubled home another run in the 2nd and in the 6th John Lowenstein put it out of reach with 2-run 2-base hit that put the O's up 6-1. The O's added 5 more insurance tallies over the last 2 innings on a total of only 2 hits.

Tempers warmed up in the 4th when Flanagan hit Ron Kittle in the left knee on a 3-2 pitch leading off the inning. Kittle, injured and angry because he was the 3rd Chicagoan hit in the last 2 games (Boddicker had nicked Luzinski and Paciorek the night before) made some menacing gestures toward Flanagan, but home plate umpire Nick Bremigan grabbed Kittle, and, though both benches emptied, nothing much happened.

In the top of the 5th, Dotson retaliated by hitting Ripken on the hip with 2 down and nobody on, then threw his first pitch to Murray up and in. Eddie, by this time, was more than a little suspicious and said so to Dotson and Bremigan. The benches emptied again and Bremigan warned both clubs.

When play resumed, Dotson lost his control, threw 3 more balls to Murray to put him on, then Lowenstein lined his double over Harold Baines' head in right, scoring Ripken and Murray.

Kittle left the game in the 6th to nurse his ailing knee and did not play the following afternoon. The next day, Britt Burns nailed Roenicke with a pitch running the total for the series to a record five hit batsmen .

Flanagan who gave up the only Sox run in the 2nd on a leadoff double by Kittle, a Baines ground out and an infield single by Vance Law, nonetheless struggled with his location (though he walked none) and was relieved by Sammy Stewart at the start of the 6th. Stewart who did not allow a run in five post-season appearances yielded only one hit in 4 innings.

Notes: The Orioles aren't famous for hitting batters . . . They registered only 10 HB's in 162 regular season games, easily the lowest total in the majors . . . This was Chicago's first post-season baseball game in exactly 24 years, since Oct. 8, '59 when the Dodgers won the World Series, beating the Sox in the decisive 6th game.

Murray's four runs scored tied an LCS record . . . He also walked three times . . . Jim Palmer made a cameo appearance in his 7th ALCS when he ran for Singleton. Only Reggie Jackson has played in more (10). Joe Morgan, Pete Rose and Richie Hebner have all participated in seven NLCS.

An interesting scene in the Orioles 5th when everybody was on the field—Sox Manager Tony LaRussa jawing with Murray at the plate . . . No quotes surfaced from that exchange.

Game No. 4 . . . Sat., Oct. 8 at Chicago

HR: Landrum (0, on 10th, Burns) GWRBI: Landrum LOB: Bal-10, Chi-11

Tito Landrum, an Oriole for only 5 weeks, homered into the 1st row of Comiskey Park's left field upper deck in the 10th inning on Britt Burns' 150th pitch to snap an 0-0 tie. The O's then scored twice more on relievers Salome Barojas and Juan Agosto (consecutive singles by Ripken, Murray and Roenicke plus a sac fly by Benny Ayala) to win the American League pennant, 3-0.

Burns had pitched brilliantly until then, stranding 9 Orioles thru 8 innings (including 3 in the 8th). He retired the Birds in order in the 9th, then fanned John Shelby to open the 10th before Landrum stepped to the plate.

The Sox threatened often off Storm Davis and Tippy and had at least one baserunner in each of the 10 innings. However, the O's turned two double plays, Gary Roenicke made a fine diving catch of Baines' drive in the 4th to nip a rally in the bud, and a baserunning blunder by Jerry Dybzinski in the 7th thwarted still another threat. Good pitching did the rest.

Tippy who worked the final four innings earned the victory as well as the distinction of winning the pennant clincher, joining Palmer (4 times) and McGregor in that select circle. He was in deep trouble twice when any mistake could have been fatal, but the man who is rapidly developing into the best Orioles reliever of all time was up to the challenge.

He inherited a runner on first when he entered the game in the 7th (Greg Walker had singled off Davis to lead off) with none out, then gave up a single to Vance Law. Dybzinski failed to execute the sacrifice and forced Squires, running for Walker at 3rd. Then, Julio Druz singled to left. Law was held up at 3rd, but Dybzinski didn't notice and ran well past 2nd where he was trapped in a rundown. When Law broke for the plate, Dauer nailed him with a throw to Rick Dempsey as Dybzinski retreated to 2nd. After a walk moved the runners to 3rd and 2nd, Tippy got Rudy Law on a fly ball to Roenicke and the O's were out of the inning.

In the bottom of the 9th, the Sox threatened again. With two out, Dybzinski singled and so did Julio Cruz, but Tippy got Rudy Law again, this time on a called 3rd strike, to escape another jam.

In the home 10th, with the O's up by 3, Baines singled with one out, but Martinez slipped a 3rd strike past Luzinski (2-for-15) and fanned Paciorek to bring the pennant back to Baltimore. The Sox stranded 13 runners.

Notes: Chicago scored only 3 runs in 4 games (two earned), only one in the last 31 innings, and none in the last 17 . . . The Sox didn't hit a home run in the 4 games . . . The O's hit only .217 compared to Chicago's .211, but the O's had a big advantage in team era, 0.49 to 4.00.

In addition, to his clutch diving catch, Roenicke had an rbi single, 2 walks and was hit with a pitch in 5 trips. For the series, he reached 9 times in 10 plate appearances.

Carlton Fisk on the Orioles pitching in the ALCS: "Everyone we faced had excellent control of their breaking balls. They threw it for strikes in crucial situations, and everyone in baseball knows that a good breaking ball is the toughest pitch to hit."

1983 WORLD SERIES REVIEW

KOPPETT'S LAW KAPUT: Whatever happened to (Leonard) "Koppett's Law" which states that anything that will create the greatest inconvenience for most people WILL happen. The 1983 WS provided a rare exception.

The Series went only 5 games, eliminating the need to move bag and baggage back to Baltimore and "freeing the press box 500;" the distance between the two franchises (86 miles) was the shortest in 27 years (since the Brooklyn Dodgers' and Yankees' last confrontation in '56; and, the weather, after a soggy start in Baltimore, turned beautiful for the 3 weekend games in Philadelphia.

A.L.'S 1ST VICTORY SINCE '78: The Orioles' 5-game victory snapped a string of 4 straight N.L. successes since the Yankees downed the Dodgers for the 2nd year in a row in '78. The 2 leagues are tied at 9 wins apiece over the past 18 years, starting with the O's 1st WS triumph in '66 vs. L.A.

DIVISIONS: The Orioles were the 11th A.L. East club to play in the WS since the inception of divisional play 15 years ago in '69 . . . The Phillies were the 4th Eastern team to represent the N.L. in the last 5 years though the N.L. West still holds an overall 8-7 advantage.

HOLDOVERS: There were 15 Orioles holdovers from the '79 WS team, but only 7 Phillies from the '80 World Championship Club were eligible in '83.

PHILLIES: Were 47-30 (.610) after Paul Owens took over for Pat Corrales on July 18 . . . Took over 1st place permanently Sep. 14th (O's moved into 1st for good on Aug. 26th) . . . Went 52-36 after the All Star break, 3rd best record in the majors after the White Sox (59-26) and Orioles (56-33).

Were 5 games back as late as June 24th (O's were a maximum of 3 games behind several times, the latest on July 16th) . . . Set a club record with a 22-7 September (23-8 including October), won 21 of their last 26 and 14 of their last 16.

Were 60-30 vs. East, but only 30-42 against the West, yet beat Dodgers 3-1 despite a 1-11 mark vs. L.A. in regular season.

With all the talk about the "Wheeze Kids," the average age of the WS eligible Phillies (31 years, 2 months) was only 5 months older than the Orioles' (30 years, 9 months).

ON THE ROAD: The road was good to Baltimore in '83 . . . The Birds had the majors' best regular season record away from home (48-33), went 5-0 on the road in post-season and celebrated each of their 3 major milestones on alien soil (clinched division title in Milwaukee).

Making the WS victory even more impressive was the fact that the O's won 3 straight in Philadelphia where the Phillies owned the best major league home record (50-31, plus 2-0 in the NLCS).

The Orioles also enjoyed a highly successful season on ersatz grass (19-8, .701, including the WS).

PITCHING: The Orioles' 1.60 era (8 er, 45 ip) was the lowest in a 5-game WS since the Yankees' 1.40 in '43 vs. the Cardinals . . . The all-time record for any length is the O's 0.50 vs. the Dodgers in '66.

For the 9 games in both the ALCS & WS, O's pitching fashioned a 1.10 era (10 er in 82 ip), while holding the opposition to a .202 average (59-for-292) . . . The combined opponents era was 3.71 (33 er, 80 ip).

The Birds 3-man post-season relief corps (Tippy Martinez, Sammy Stewart & Jim Palmer) worked 18.1 innings and yielded only one run (0.49 era) . . . Tippy earned 2 saves in the WS (the 6th to do so since the save became official in '69) and won the pennant clincher in the ALCS . . .

Palmer who appeared in the ALCS as a pinch-runner only worked 2 innings in game #3 of the WS, earned the win over Steve Carlton, and became the first ever to win a WS game in each of 3 decades . . . Stewart worked a combined total of 9.1 innings in 5 post-season games and allowed no runs & only 4 hits . . . O's relievers inherited 7 runners in the ALCS & WS and none of them scored.

Mike Boddicker worked 18 innings and allowed only one un-earned run (8 hits) in 2 post-season starts . . . Despite 2 losses in 3 decisions, Scott McGregor allowed only 2 runs in 23.2 innings (1.14 era) . . . His shut-out in WS game #5 was the 1st in the decisive game since Dave McNally blanked the Dodgers for the O's, 1-0, in game #4 '66.

DEMPSEY "MVP": Rick Dempsey was the unanimous choice of the 7 voters for WS "MVP." Rick set a 5 game series record with 5 long hits (2bh-4, hr-1), played a key role in 3 of the O's 4 wins and threw out Joe Morgan twice in 3 stolen base attempts (nobody else tried). His prize was a Pontiac Trans-Am, courtesy of Sport Magazine.

He is the 3rd Oriole to have been so honored ('66-Frank Robby . . . '70-Brooks Robby).

There were several striking similarities between WS game #1 and the ALCS opener. It rained, the O's lost 2-1, Scott McGregor was the loser in both, and the winner in each case was a soon-to-be-named Cy Young Award winner (Lamarr Hoyt & John Denny).

The O's drew 1st blood in the opening inning when the 2nd batter, Jim Dwyer, homers off a Denny fastball. Dwyer thus became the 18th player to hit a home run on his 1st WS plate appearance and the 4th Oriole (Brooks Robinson-'66, Don Buford-'69 and Doug DeCinces-'79). After that, Denny closed the door, allowing the Birds only 4 more baserunners, only one of whom got to 2nd (Al Bumbry after doubling with 2 out in the 8th).

Al Holland came on at that point and retired all 4 batters he faced to record his 27th save (including one in NLCS).

Only two Phillies reached 2nd as well, but neither of them stopped there. Joe Morgan tied the game with a 2-out homer in the 6th, then Garry Maddox, who hit only 4 in regular season, led off the 8th by hitting a game-winner to left. Bo Diaz, who followed Maddox, nearly hit another, but John Lowenstein jumped up, reached over the fence and caught it to hold the Phillies' margin to one.

Notes: President Ronald Reagan arrived in the 2nd inning, and sat in owner Edward Bennett Williams' press level box until his departure in the 8th . . . His was the 12th WS presidential visit, and the first since Jimmy Carter attended the 7th game of the '79 WS, also in Baltimore.

None of the 5 pitchers walked a batter. It was the 1st walkless game since '67. The Orioles were 5-7 favorites to win the WS prior to game #1.

Commissioner Bowie Kuhn threw out the 1st ball and the anthem was sung by John Denver. Denver, whose "Country Boy" has been a 7th inning stretch staple at Memorial Stadium since '74, sang that song live from the top of the 3rd base dugout despite a steady downpour.

For the 2nd time in 6 days, Mike Boddicker was called on to pitch the Orioles out of an 0-1 hole, and again he came through impressively. He became only the 3rd rookie to pitch a WS 3-hitter, allowed only one (unearned) run while striking out 6 and walking none. Though his strikeouts were down from his career high (14) effort in the ALCS, so was his pitch count, from 142 vs. Chicago to a more efficient 108.

"Against Chicago," he said afterward, "I had a better breaking ball but tonight I had much better location with my fastball, and I used more changeups." He gave up only one unearned run in 18 post-season innings, and his era, including LCS & WS, was a spiffy 2.51.

The Phillies scored their lone run first, in the 4th inning. Morgan reached on an infield hit, stole 2nd and went to 3rd when Mike Schmidt reached after Murray dropped Ripken's throw for an error. Morgan scored on Joe Lefebvre's sac fly.

The irrepressible "Brother Low," who had doubled 1st time up, homered off rookie Charlie Hudson in the 5th (and added a 3rd hit, a single in the 8th) to tie the game, then the "Three Stooges" took over.

That label was applied good naturedly to Rich Dauer (Larry), Todd Cruz (Curly), and Rick Dempsey (Moe) by teammate Ken Singleton as the result of that trio's combined .221 regular season average.

To this point, the threesome was 0-for-11 in the WS and 4-for-52 overall in post-season. But, things changed in a hurry. Dauer followed Lowenstein's home run with a single, and Cruz beat out a would-be sacrifice. Then Dempsey doubled home the lead run, and Boddicker stepped up and delivered a sac fly to give the O's a 3-1 lead.

Later, Boddicker asked Singleton if he could be "Shemp," the Stooge who replaced Curly, but Singleton responded, "No, you make too much contact." In his only previous professional plate appearance, Boddicker hit a game-winning double at Rochester in '82.

The 3-run 5th snapped a string of 12 scoreless innings for the O's. In that same inning Willie Hernandez, who replaced Hudson after Boddicker's sac fly, beaned Dan Ford. The blow broke Ford's glasses, but he stayed in the game, and, next time up in the 7th, he singled with 2 out, sending John Shelby to 3rd from whence he scored the O's 4th run on Cal Ripken's single.

In the 9th, Boddicker who finished the year with a 13-3 record at Memorial Stadium (18-8 overall) retired the Phillies 1-2-3, striking out Schmidt for the final out.

Notes: Brooks and Frank, the 2 Baltimore baseball immortals and Hall of Fame members, threw out the ceremonial 1st balls. Melvin Lowery, a member of the Glimmerglass Society of Cooperstown, N.Y. and a former Baltimorean, sang the anthem. He had also done the honors at Brooks' induction in Cooperstown.

Hudson and Boddicker were the 49th and 50th rookies to start a WS game . . . It was the 5th time that rookies had started against each other, the first since Yankees' Dave Righetti opposed the Dodgers' Fernando Valenzuela in '81.

Steve Carlton was the 1st 300-game winner to pitch in a WS game in 55 years (since Grover Cleveland Alexander for the Cardinals in '28), but 42-year old Pete Rose did not start, in favor of 41-year old Tony Perez, at 1st base.

Mike Flanagan was the O's starter, but Jim Palmer who would celebrate his 38th birthday the following day was to be the winner in relief. After the game, Jim said, "It was my biggest thrill since (winning 2 games at) Hagerstown" where he'd worked on rehabilitation assignment in mid-season. The real pitching heroes on this night, however, were Sammy Stewart and Tippy Martinez who combined to face the minimum 9 batters over the last 3 innings while protecting a 3-2 lead.

The Phillies took an early 2-0 lead on solo homers by Gary Matthews in the 2nd and Morgan in the 3rd while Carlton faced only 9 Orioles thru the 1st 3 innings.

The Birds had the bases loaded with none out in the 4th (Shelby singled and walks to Ford and Ripken), but Carlton got Murray on a popup and Roenicke on a ground ball double play.

In the top of the 5th, Schmidt made 2 fine plays on bad hop grounders to retire Dauer and Cruz before Dempsey doubled, but Singleton, batting for Flanagan, was called out on strikes. By this time Joe Altobelli was apparently suspicious (though he never admitted it) that Carlton was using a foreign substance, but nothing came of it except a couple of conversations with plate umpire Al Clark.

Finally, in the 6th, Ford broke the ice on a home run to left to slice the Phillies lead in half. However, Carlton remained in control thru the first 2 batters in the 7th, until Dempsey picked on a 3-2 slider and doubled to left-center. Carlton wild-pitched him to 3rd and Rick then scored the tying run on Benny Ayala's lined shot to left past the diving Schmidt.

Al Holland came on in relief and Shelby singled on his 1st pitch thru the hole. Then, with runners on 1st and 2nd, Ford hit a hard ground ball that skipped away from Ivan DeJesus at short (for an error) and rolled into short left field as Ayala came around with what would stand as the winning run . . . thanks to the sterling efforts of the O's 3 relievers who held the Phillies scoreless over the last 5 innings.

Notes: There were 3 "Cy Youngs" in the game—Flanagan, Carlton & Palmer . . . Gary Roenicke short circuited a potential Phillies rally in the 4th when he threw out Bo Diaz trying to stretch a single into a double . . . 92-year old Joe Oeschger, the lone living member of the Phillies 1st pennant winning club in '15, threw out the first ball and James Darren, co-star of the "TJ Hooker" tv series sang the anthem.

Rich Dauer, 1-for-25 in post-season going in, was the Orioles offensive hero with 3 hits (to left, right and center) and 3 key rbi, and he scored the winning run to boot. Manager Altobelli also had a big day for himself, sending up a WS record-tying 4 straight pinch-hitters in the decisive 2-run 6th that put the O's up 4-3. The 8 pinch-hitters used in the game (4 by each club) set a WS record.

The Birds jumped on top (a bad omen considering the club scoring first had lost the first 3 games) in the 4th inning 2-0. The first 3 batters (Dwyer, Ripken & Murray) singled to load the bases, then one out later, Dauer punched a single to right to score Dwyer and Rip.

However, the Phillies got one back in the bottom of the 4th on Joe Lefebvre's rbi double, then scored 2 more in the 5th to go ahead, 3-2. Diaz doubled, went to 3rd on a wild pitch, and scored on Denny's single (the 1st hit by a WS pitcher since Stoddard in game #4, '79). Denny moved to 2nd on an error charged to Lowenstein, advanced to 3rd on Morgan's ground out and scored on a double by Rose.

In the 6th, however, the O's went ahead again, this time to stay. With one out, Lowenstein singled and went to 3rd on Dauer's double. With Cruz scheduled to hit, Altobelli sent Joe Nolan up instead and he was walked intentionally to load the bases. Then, Ken Singleton batted for Dempsey and walked on 4 straight pitches (see game #3, ALCS, Dotson vs. Murray) to force in the tying run.

Next up was the switch-hitting Shelby, batting for Storm Davis, as Willie Hernandez replaced Denny on the mound. Shelby hit a shot to deep left that looked like a 2-or-3-run double, but Gary Matthews made a sensational leaping catch against the fence. Nevertheless, it went down as a sac fly and Dauer checked in with the go-ahead run. Ron Reed then came in to face Ford, the 4th pinch-hitter (batting for Bumbry), and retired on a called 3rd strike.

In the 7th, Dauer produced an all important insurance tally with a 2-out single scoring Dwyer who had doubled to lead off the inning.

Davis left after 5 and the rest of the game was left up to the O's matchless bullpen combination, Sammy Stewart (2.1 ip) and Tippy Martinez (1.2 ip) who held the Phillies to one run over the last 4 innings.

In the home 9th, the Phillies made it a 1-run game when pinch-hitter Ozzie Virgil's 2-out single scored Bob Dernier from 2nd. But, Tippy got Morgan on a soft liner to Dauer for the game-ending out.

Notes: The crowd (66,947) was the biggest in Veterans' Stadium (and Pennsylvania) baseball history, and the largest for a WS game since St. Louis at New York on 10/10/64 (67,101) . . . However, the house was even larger at the Vet the following day for game #5 (67,064).

Davis fanned the side in order in the 1st inning (Morgan, Rose & Schmidt) . . . Denny also struck out 3 in the 4th, but also gave up 4 hits and 2 runs in that inning.

Jim Dwyer who had one hit in 3 trips off Denny is 6-for-13 (.462) lifetime against the Phillies righthander who is now 4-2 vs. the O's including 1-1 in the WS.

The player pool was a whopping record $5,232,390 . . . Davis was the youngest WS winner since Bruce Kison beat the O's for Pittsburgh in game #4 '71 . . . Richie Ashburn, representing the Phillies' 2nd WS team ('50), threw out the 1st ball and Patti LaBelle belted the national anthem.

GWRBI: Murray LOB: Bal-2, Pha-6 Time: 2:21 1st Pitch: 5:03 Attendance: 67,064

Murray, who snapped out of his 2-for-16, no rbi WS slump with a vengeance, hit 2 long home runs in the 2nd & 4th innings sandwiched around a solo shot by Dempsey in the 3rd, all off Hudson, and McGregor pitched a masterful 5-hit shutout as the Orioles won their 3rd world championship and 1st since '70.

McGregor, whose father was rushed to Philadelphia's Jefferson Medical Center for emergency abdominal surgery the previous morning, became the 3rd lefthander to clinch a world title for the O's (Dave McNally in '66 and Mike Cuellar in '70).

Murray's 2nd home run following a leadoff walk to Ripken hit the scoreboard in right field 425' away and built the O's lead to 4-0. The Birds scored their final run in the 5th on Al Bumbry's sac fly. Dempsey had opened that inning with his 4th double of the series (which ko'd Hudson in favor of Marty Bystrom), held 2nd while Diaz was fumbling McGregor's bunt, then advanced on a wild pitch before scoring on Bumbry's drive to left.

Perhaps, the key to McGregor's success in game #5, and, indeed, to the Orioles success in the WS, was the ability to neutralize future Hall of Famer Schmidt. The major league leader in home runs, walks and on-base percentage, Schmidt was 0-for-8 in 2 games against McGregor and 1-for-20 (a broken bat single in game #4) overall with no rbi and no walks.

"We never gave in to him," Dempsey said after the game, "We didn't give him a chance to hit an outside fastball. We knew he was the core of their power, and our pitchers threw the ball exactly where I put the glove."

Down by 5 runs in the bottom of the 5th, the Phillies mounted a threat when Maddox led off with a single and Diaz walked. But, Todd Cruz handled DeJesus' hard shot to his left on a tough half hop and started a double play, then Juan Samuel flied out.

Philadelphia's only other serious scoring bid occurred in the 8th when Morgan tripled to right with one out. Rose followed with a fly ball to left deep enough to score Morgan, but Joe, after tagging up, fell down two steps later and had to return to 3rd. McGregor then retired Schmidt on a grounder to Cruz to end the inning.

In the 9th, Tito Landrum made a good catch in right to retire Matthews, Perez flied to centerfielder Shelby and Maddox ended it with a line drive to Ripken.

Notes: Murray's 2-run homer was the only one of 10 WS hr's hit with a runner aboard . . . Murray (3) and Dempsey (2) were the only O's to hit safely in game #5 .

The 304,139 attendance set a 5 game record as did the net receipts of $7,652,103.89. The receipts for game #5 alone ($1,722,515.46) were the largest ever for one WS game.

Andrea McCardle, the original "Annie" sang the anthem and the 1st ball throwers, representing the '80 World Champion Phillies, were Larry Christenson and Tug McGraw, neither of whom was eligible for the '83 WS).

This was only the 4th time a club had lost the 1st game of the WS, then swept the next 4 ('15 Red Sox vs. Phillies, '42 Cardinals vs. Yankees and '69 Mets vs. O's).

A record total of 46 players (for a 5 game WS) appeared. Only Dennis Martinez & Tim Stoddard for the Orioles and Kiko Garcia and Kevin Gross (rhp) did not see action. None of those 4 appeared in the LCS either.

ORIOLES GENERAL POST-SEASON NOTES

ALCS: The O's hold many ALCS/LCS records including: Most LCS (7, in 15 year history of divisional play), Most LCS won (5), Most LCS games (26), Most LCS games won (18), and Most LCS games hosted (13) . . . Their w-l percentage (.692, 18-8) is surpassed only by the Red Sox (.1000, 3-0), Mets (.750, 6-2) and Dodgers (.706, 12-5).

The O's won the 1st 10 ALCS games they played (including the 1st 9 ever played) . . . They swept the Twins twice ('69-'70) and A's ('71) in the 1st 3 ALCS, then won game #1 in '73 against Oakland in '73 before losing the 2nd game that year . . . The Orioles are 9-4 at home and on the road.

WORLD SERIES: Baltimore has gone 3-3 in 6 WS, but has a .576 2-1 pct. in games (19-14) . . . The Birds are 10-7 at home and 9-7 on the road.

POST-SEASON TOTAL: In 59 post-season games, the O's are 37-22 (.627). They are 19-11 at home and 18-11 away.

ATTENDANCE: In 26 ALCS games, the O's have played to 1,020,384, an average of 39,246. They've played 13 of those at home and have drawn 548,443 (average 42,188).

In 33 WS games attendance has totaled 1,769, 179 (average 53,611). At home for 17 WS dates the Birds have pulled 877,518 (average 51,619).

The Orioles 59 total post-season games have attracted 2,789,563 (average 47,281). At Memorials Stadium there have been 30 post-season events which have drawn a total of 1,425,961 (average 47,514).

The 3 biggest crowds to watch the O's in a WS were games 5, 4 & 3 (67,064; 66, 947 and 65,792) of '83, all at Philadelphia. The largest attendance for a WS game in Baltimore was 54,458 for game #4 (final game) vs. Dodgers in '66.

The biggest house for an Orioles LCS game was 52,787 for game #1 at Baltimore vs. the Angels in '79 (the "Tonight, Let it be Lowenstein" game).

ORIOLES WORLD SERIES SHARES BY YEAR

Since 1960 (the 1st year they qualified for a share), the O's have finished in the 1st division 21 times in 24 seasons, thereby qualifying in all but 3 years ('62, '67, '78) for a share of the WS pool (combined since '69 with the LCS).

Here are the individual shares that Baltimore players have received over the years:

1963-	740.85	(4th place)
1965-	1,187.07	(3rd place)
1966-	11,683.04	(World Champions)
1968-	1,904.04	(2nd place)
1969-	14,904.21	(A.L. Champions)
1971-	13,906.46	(A.L. Champions)
1972-$	330.88	(3rd place East)
1973-	7,469.77	(1st place East)
1975-	1,245.15	(2nd place East)
1977-	1,173.30	(2nd place East tie)
1979-	22,113.94	(A.L. Champions)

$113,753.79—Total

* Though the O's had 2nd best full season record in A.L. East, they received only 3rd place money because New York and Milwaukee each won half-season championships.

The O's voted 29 full shares in '83 . . . The Phillies' (losers') share in '83 was $44,473.31. They, too, voted 29 full shares.

FARM SYSTEM—1983

Baltimore's 5 farm teams finished with a cumulative record of 299-268 (.527), the 3rd highest winning percentage among the 26 minor league organizations behind the New York Mets (396-294, .574) and New York Yankees (353-284, .554). That performance improves the O's minor league organization mark over the past 21 seasons to 7272-6583 (.525). In that period, the Birds have been selected as the Topps' "Baseball Organization of the Year" 3 times ('66, '71, '72).

The Orioles' AAA club at Rochester failed to qualify for the International League playoffs for the 1st time in 4 seasons, finishing 6th at 65-75. Third baseman Glenn Gulliver topped the league in walks (117) while lefthander Craig Minetto made an I.L. high 52 pitching appearances. Class AA Charlotte was 6th overall in the Southern League at 69-77, and Larry Sheets, who led the loop in doubles (37) and tied for home run lead (25), was selected as the designated hitter on the S.L. all-star team.

Hagerstown (class A) had the 2nd best overall record in the Carolina League at 84-52, but finished behind the Lynchburg Mets in both halves of the Northern Division race and did not make the playoffs. League home run leader (31) Ken Gerhart and doubles champion (39) Ron Salcedo were both named as all-star outfielders. Gerhart also topped the circuit in total bases (275) and slugging (.549).

In their 1st year of existence, Newark won the New York-Penn League's Yawkey Division title by 10 games at 48-26 but lost to Utica, 2 games to 1, for the league championship. Catcher Carl Nichols and 2nd baseman Rich Lockwood were selected as all-stars. Bluefield placed 5th in the Appalachian rookie League at 33-38, but the Orioles led the league in attendance, attracting a total of 25,767 fans.

CLYDE KLUTTZ MEMORIAL AWARD

Named in honor of the Orioles' director of player development who died in May 1979, the CLYDE KLUTTZ MEMORIAL AWARD is presented annually to the Baltimore organization player "who best exemplified Clyde's integrity, desire, dedication, and loyalty to the game of baseball and the Baltimore Orioles." Clyde had spent 41 years in baseball when he passed away at the age of 61.

The winners of the Kluttz Award to date: 1979—Tom Eaton (2b); 1980—Cal Ripken, Jr. (3b); 1981—Victor Rodriguez (2b); 1982—John Shelby (of). The 1983 winner will be announced in April.

Announcers

WMAR Television (Ch. 2)
Chuck Thompson and Brooks Robinson

WFBR Radio (1300)
Jon Miller and Tom Marr

Home Team Sports (Cable)

WMAR is in its 6th year of carrying Oriole baseball. WMAR and the O's signed a 4-year agreement after the '78 season and extended that for 2 more years in '82. The station will televise 2 spring exhibitions (Mar. 15 and Mar. 31) and 50 regular season (3 home, 47 road) games in '84.

In addition, an Orioles' television network comprising the following stations will carry major portions of the WMAR television schedule: WPMT (Ch. 43), York-Lancaster-Harrisburg, PA . . . WDCA (Ch. 20), Washington, D.C. . . . WTVZ (Ch. 33), Norfolk, VA . . . WRLH (Ch. 35), Richmond, VA . . . WBOC (Ch. 16), Salisbury, Md. . . . WJTM (Ch. 45), Greensboro, N.C. . . . WDZL (Ch. 39), Hollywood, Fl.

Full Season Sponsors: Anheuser-Busch Inc.; Datsun & Datsun Dealers; AAMCO Transmission; Provident Savings Bank; The Savings Bank of Baltimore; Jerry's Chevrolet; Mid-Atlantic Milk Marketing Area; Equitable Bank; General Tire; Roy Rogers; Utz Potato Chip; Wendy's; Perdue.

CHUCK THOMPSON

A veteran of 42 years in broadcasting, Chuck Thompson is in his 25th season as a play-by-play announcer for the Orioles. At the end of the '82 season, Chuck decided to curtail his broadcast schedule and in '84 he'll team once again with Brooks Robinson to do 00 games on television only. He has continued his announcing duties for the Baltimore Colts.

Chuck began his announcing career in 1939 at WEEU in Reading. Three years later he became a staff announcer for WIBG in Philadelphia, where he covered Temple University football.

After seeing combat in three major European campaigns for the U.S. Army in World War II, he returned to Philadelphia to describe the action of the Phillies and A's, Warriors, Eagles, and Rockets (ice hockey).

He came to Baltimore in 1949 to do play-by-play for the International League Orioles, the Baltimore Bullets, U.S. Naval Academy football, and the Colts in the All-America Conference.

In 1955 Chuck joined the National Brewing Company's team of announcers and during the 24 years of that association did American League Orioles baseball for 19 years ('55-'56 and '62 thru '78), Colts football, Washington Senators baseball (1957-61), and the NBC-TV "Game-of-the-Week" (1959-60).

He has been named the outstanding sportscaster in Maryland by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association on numerous occasions. A golfing and fishing enthusiast, Chuck and his wife Rose, have 3 children and 5 grandchildren. They reside in Timonium.

BROOKS ROBINSON

WFBR is in the 2nd year of a 4-year contract to broadcast the Orioles thru '86. This is the 6th season that WFBR has carried the O's as the original 4-year agreement was signed after the '78 campaign. In addition to 12 spring training games (see exhibition schedule), WFBR will carry all 162 regular season games.

WFBR is the flagship station of a network comprising approximately 65 stations including WTOP (News Radio 15) in Washington, WOYK in York, PA, plus others in Maryland, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, and Florida.

Full-Season Sponsors: Miller Beer, Chevrolet, Gulf Oil, Mash's Meats/Briggs Meats, Maryland National Bank, Hillen Tire & Auto Services/Kelly Tires, RCM&D Insurance, Jiffy Lube, Real Sangria.

JON MILLER

Jon Miller starts his 2nd season on the Orioles' radio network after 3 seasons as a radio play-by-play announcer for the Boston Red Sox. His major league baseball experience also includes radio and television with the Texas Rangers in '78 & '79 and with the Oakland A's in '74. He broadcast his 1st major league game at age 22 with the A's.

Jon also has an extensive background in basketball, soccer, and hockey during his 14 years in broadcasting. He did 10-15 games a season for the NBA's Golden State Warriors from 1979-82 and prior to that, was the voice of University of San Francisco basketball for 5 years. He has also announced MISL games for the San Jose Earthquakes and did both television and radio for the Washington Diplomats in '77. He's broadcast soccer for the CBS, TVS, and Satelcast networks.

A reknowned mimic, Jon can be heard to imitate such outstanding baseball announcers as Al Michaels, Vin Scully, and Chuck Thompson during breaks in the action (rain delays, etc.).

A native of the San Francisco Bay area, Jon lives in Cockeysville.

TOM MARR

Tom Marr begins his 6th season on the Orioles' radio broadcast team. A veteran of 24 years in broadcasting, he has been with WFBR radio for the last 18 years. He made his debut as a major league play-by-play announcer in '79.

He began his broadcasting career doing a high school sports show at WWDC in Washington, and later worked at stations in Rhode Island, Connecticut, and Virginia before coming to WFBR. He covered Baltimore's pro sports teams for the CBS Radio Network from '69 to '75 and was the weekend sports anchor at WMAR-TV for 3 years prior to joining the O's broadcasts.

Possessing an extensive background in both news and sports, Tom participated in WFBR's award-winning discussion program, "Conference Call" as a regular panel member for many years.

Born and raised in Montgomery County, Maryland, Tom is a graduate of Montgomery Blair High School in Silver Spring and a veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps. He is married and the father of 5 children. His wife, Sharon, is a Baltimore City Police detective.

HOME TEAM SPORTS, the new regional pay cable sports network, a service owned and operated by Group W Satellite Communications, will televise 80 Orioles' games (56 home, 24 road) in '84. The launch date for HTS is set for Wednesday, April 4, when the Orioles play Chicago at Memorial Stadium (3:05 p.m.)

Home Team Sports, which operates out of Washington, D.C., will also televise Washington Bullets and Washington Capitals games, plus professional, collegiate, high school and other exceptional events of regional interest. HTS will be distributed by satellite to cable systems in Maryland, Virginia, and parts of Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Delaware, and North Carolina.

MEMORIAL STADIUM—A BRIEF HISTORY

Construction of Baltimore Memorial Stadium began on the site of old Municipal Stadium in 1949. However, when the original Baltimore NFL franchise left town after the '50 football season, work on the new facility was suspended until '52.

Despite the construction the International League Orioles continued to play their home games here on 33rd Street (thru '53) as did the current Baltimore Colts franchise when it re-located from Dallas (Texans) prior to the '53 football season.

The new stadium was completed essentially in October, '53, but refinements continued on thru the early stages of the '54 baseball season, the A.L. Orioles first in Baltimore.

The original Municipal Stadium was built for football and completed in 1924. However, when old Oriole Park (29th Street and Greenmount Avenue) burned down on the night and early morning of July 3-4, 1944, the Orioles moved into the big ballpark (in those days home plate was in what is now dead center field).

HALL OF FAME

On January 12, '83, Brooks was officially elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in a landslide. He received 92% of the votes cast (344 of 374) which was the 9th highest percentage in the history of the BBWAA Hall of Fame elections (surpassed only by Cobb, Aaron, Wagner, Ruth, Mays, Feller, Williams, and Musial).

He became only the 14th player elected to the Hall in his 1st year of eligibility (excluding the 5 who were picked in the Hall's 1st election) and was the 3rd modern Oriole so honored, joining Frank Robinson and Robin Roberts. George Kell became the 4th when he was selected by the Veterans Committee in March '83 and Luis Aparicio the 5th upon his election this past January.

In all, there are now 14 all-time major league Orioles and 27 players with Maryland ties who are members of the Hall.

Brooks was inducted with Kell, Juan Marichal, and Walter Alston into the Hall of Fame on Sunday, July 31, 1983 as an estimated record crowd of some 12,000 people (most of those from Baltimore) looked on.

PERSONAL

Brooks is doing color commentary on the Orioles' television network with Chuck Thompson for the 7th straight year (and 6th on WMAR, Channel 2, the Orioles' flagship station).

He is also active as a vice-president of Personal Management Associates (PMA)* and as a special assistant with the Crown Central Petroleum Company.

Brooks and his wife, Connie, a former United Air Lines flight attendant whom Brooks met on an Orioles' charter flight (K.C. to Boston) in 1959, have been married for 23 years. They live in Lutherville, Md. (north of Baltimore) with their four children: Brooks David (7/24/61), Chris (2/22/63), Michael (3/11/64), and Dianna (2/22/68).

Brooks' uniform #5 was officially retired on opening day, 1978, the year after he retired. Frank Robinson's #20 and Earl Weaver's #4 are the only other numbers that have been retired by the Orioles.

*PMA is a company which provides athletes comprehensive counseling and support in their professional, financial, and personal lives.

BIG LEAGUE CAREER

Brooks officially spent 20 years and 72 days as a player in the American League, spanning 23 seasons.

He played in 2,896 major league games, all of them with the Orioles, 7th on the all-time list (Carl Yastrzemski leads at 3,308).

Only Yastrzemski (3,308) and Ty Cobb (3,033) have played more American League games, and only 3 others in history have played more with one franchise: Yastrzemski (3,308), Hank Aaron (3,076), and Stan Musial (3,026).

Durability: Played in 97% of all Orioles' games from July 9, '59 (when he returned from minors for the last time) thru May 16, '76, a period of more than 16½ years . . . Played at least 153 games in 14 of 15 years from '60 thru '75.

In Orioles' 30-year history, only one other third baseman has played as many as 200 games at third base (Doug DeCinces—792).

Opening Days: Started 20 consecutive opening day games for the Orioles from '57 thru '76, and batted .316 (25-for-79) with six home runs 17 rbi.

Home Runs/RBI: Led A.L. in rbi (118) in '64 and also achieved career high of 28 homers that year . . . Hit 17 or more homers nine times, 11 or more 11 times . . . His last year in "double figures" was 71 when he hit 20 . . . Holds record for most lifetime homers in Memorial Stadium (139). Had six career grand slams, four of them in Baltimore.

Hitting: Had lifetime averages of .293 (267-for-911) vs. Texas Rangers (nee Washington Senators) and .287 (90-for-324) vs. K.C. Royals . . . Hit most home runs (37) and drove in most runs (167) against the Red Sox . . . Twice put together strings of eight straight hits: July 10 thru 15, '60, and Aug. 21 thru 23, '63.

Ranks 28th on the all-time major league hit list . . . Holds A.L. record for most sacrifice flies, career (114).

Holds club career records for games, at bats, runs, hits, doubles, triples, total bases, rbi and extra base hits . . . Has one-season mark for games (163, '61 & '64) and at bats (668, '61).

Fielding: Committed only 263 errors in 9,165 chances at third base for a lifetime percentage of .971 . . . Appeared in a total of 29 games at second base (24) and shortstop (5) and committed only one boot in 31 tries . . . Did not play anywhere defensively but at third base after '63.

Major League Lifetime Records, 3B: Highest fielding percentage, 100 or more games (.971) . . . Most seasons (23) . . . Most games (2,871) . . . Most chances accepted, excluding errors (8,902) . . . Most putouts (2,697) . . . Most assists (6,205) . . . Most double plays (618) . . . Most seasons leading league in games (8) . . . Most seasons leading league in assists (8).

American League Lifetime Records, 3B: Most seasons leading league in fielding (11) . . . Most seasons leading league in chances accepted, excluding errors (8 tie) . . . Most games season (163, '61 and '64) . . . Most home runs (266) 2nd to Graig Nettles (320).

Triple Plays: Has started three of the eight triple plays executed by the Orioles in their 30-year history . . . All three were of "around the horn" ground ball variety . . . Was the batter in four of the 13 triple plays hit into by the Orioles. Only one of those was "around the horn."

Gold Gloves: Won 16 straight "gold gloves" (Rawlings Sporting Goods/The Sporting News) from '60 thru '75 as the top defensive third baseman in the A.L. . . . The string was snapped by Detroit's Aurelio Rodriguez in '76 . . . Rodriguez, former Red Sox third baseman Frank Malzone ('57-'59) and the Yankees' Nettles ('77) were the only others in the A.L. to have won a "gold glove" at that position while Brooks was active.

Believe-It-Or-Not: Committed three errors in one inning against the A's in Baltimore on July 28, '71 (6th inning) . . . O's won the game, however, when Frank Robinson hit a three-run homer in the 9th inning to erase an 0-2 deficit.

All-Star Play: Played in 18 consecutive all-star games from '60 thru '74 (including two per year in '60, '61, '62) . . . Had lifetime average of .289 (13-for-45).

Selected "mvp" in 1966 at St. Louis when he had three hits, including a home run, while handling eight chances in the field . . . Also homered in '67 game at Anaheim . . . Was also a serious contender for the award in '64 (at Shea Stadium) and '70 (at Cincinnati), when he went 2-for-3, hit a triple, scored a run, and drove in two others.

Hit three triples in all-star play and didn't make an error in 43 fielding chances.

Was elected to starting lineup in Gillette-sponsored fan vote four times ('71, '72, '73, '74) after selection was returned to fans in '70 . . . Led A.L. players in votes in '71 (1,110,469) . . . Started a total of 11 games . . . Had last hit in '71 game at Detroit.

World Series/A.L. Championship Series: Played in 1st 39 post-season games in which the Orioles have been involved and batted a composite .303 (44-for-145)—.348 in 18 ALCS games and .263 in 21 WS games.

WS: Homered in first WS at bat in first inning against Dodgers (at Dodger Stadium) in '66 immediately following Frank Robinson's two-run homer (both were off Don Drysdale).

Was landslide "mvp" in '70 vs. Reds . . . Hit .429 (9-for-21), and was brilliant on defense . . . His nine hits tied record for most hits in five-game series . . . He also contributed six rbi, two doubles, and two homers . . . Erred on first fielding chance then handled 23 more flawlessly, many of them brilliantly . . . Stole at least two hits each from Johnny Bench and Lee May . . . It was during the series that Lee gave him the nickname "Hoover" (as in vacuum cleaners) . . . Made three errors in '76 world series chances.

CS: Had .486 average (18-for-37) after first three championship series (O's swept them all in three straight games) . . . His lone hit in last CS in '74 was a first game homer off Oakland's "Catfish" Hunter.

MAJOR AWARDS/HONORS

Most Valuable Player, American League—1964 . . . Finished 2nd in "mvp" voting by BBWAA in '66 and 3rd in both '60 and '65.

Most Valuable Player, All-Star Game—1966; World Series—1970.

Most Valuable Oriole—4 times . . . 1960, 1962, 1964, 1971 (shared with Frank Robinson).

Gold Gloves—16 straight from 1960 thru 1974.

Commissioner's Trophy (now known as Roberto Clemente Memorial Award)—1972 as player best exemplifying the game of baseball.

Orioles' Hall of Fame—1977 . . . He and Frank were the first to be named to the new Orioles' Hall of Fame originated in '77 by the Oriole Advocates, Inc. to honor outstanding players, managers and coaches from the Birds' modern era, '54 to present.

Joe Cronin Award (presented annually by the American League to an A.L. player for significant achievement)—1977.

The Sporting News' American League All-Star Team—nine times—1961, '62, '64, '65, '66, '67, '68, '71, '72.

Hickok Belt, January, 1971 . . . "Man of the Decade" Award by Baltimore Advertising Club, January, 1972 . . . "Most Memorable Personality" in Orioles' history by vote of the fans in 1975.

Winding Down, '76: Brooks started the '76 season as the Orioles' regular 3rd baseman. He started 27 of the first 28 games before being replaced by Doug DeCinces. From then on, he drew only 29 more starts in the O's final 103 games.

Nothing Is Forever, '77: His 268th and last home run provided one of the most emotional experiences in Orioles' history. It was April 19 at Memorial Stadium, the O's trailed the Indians, 5-2, in the 10th. With one out and runners on 1st and 2nd, Lee May singled in a run. The O's now trailed by 2 as Brooks came to the plate as a pinch-hitter for Larry Harlow. He ran the count to "3&2," fouled off a number of pitches, then hit a home run into the left field stands off southpaw Dave LaRoche to win the game 6-5. There were only 4,826 fans at the ballpark that night, but none of them will ever forget the moment.

Signed for 1977 as player-coach, but became a coach exclusively on Sunday, Aug. 21, when he went on the voluntarily retired list (in Minnesota) to make room on the roster for catcher Rick Dempsey who was returning to duty after six weeks on the disabled list.

An Orioles' record regular season crowd of 51,798 attended "Thanks, Brooks" Day on Sunday, Sep. 18, against the Red Sox to pay tribute to the most important and beloved Oriole of modern times.

Edward Bennett Williams
Chairman of the Board and President

Henry J. Peters
Executive Vice-President General Manager

EDWARD BENNETT WILLIAMS, the owner, Chairman of the Board, and President of the Baltimore Orioles, Inc., purchased the ballclub on Nov. 1, '79. A distinguished trial lawyer, he is also the founder and senior partner of the Washington law firm of Williams & Connolly. In addition, he has been associated with the Washington Redskins since 1962 and their President since 1965.

He is a native of Hartford, Connecticut, and a graduate of Holy Cross College where he earned his A.B. (summa cum laude) in 1941. After serving in the United States Army Air Force during World War II, he was graduated from Georgetown University Law School and was admitted to the Bar of the District of Columbia.

Mr. Williams taught Criminal Law and Evidence at Georgetown Law School from 1946 to 1958; was guest professor of American Criminal Law at the University of Frankfurt in West Germany in 1954; and in 1971 was visiting lecturer at Yale Law School where he taught Constitutional Litigation. He holds honorary degrees from 12 universities.

He was chairman of the American Bar Association Special Committee on Crime Prevention and Control from 1970 to 1972. In 1966 the District of Columbia Bar Association presented him with its "Lawyer of the Year" award. He is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and was a member of its board of regents from 1968 to 1972.

By appointment of the Chief Justice of the United States in March of 1965, he served on the United States Judicial Conference Advisory Committee on Federal Rules of Evidence until 1974 and, from 1971 to 1974, on the Chief Justice's Committee on Court Facilities and Design. From 1971 to 1978 he served as chairman of the Judicial Nominating Commission for the Sixth Judicial Circuit of Maryland.

By appointment of President Ford Mr. Williams served on the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board in 1976 and 1977. In 1977 President Carter appointed him as a consultant to the National Security Agency. In November, 1980, President-elect Reagan appointed Mr. Williams, as one of three prominent Democrats, to serve on the Foreign Policy Advisory Board to assist the presidential transition, and he is now serving on the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board.

Mr. Williams served as treasurer of the Democratic National Committee from 1974 to 1977; has served as general counsel of Georgetown University since 1949; is Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the College of Holy Cross, is general counsel of the Motion Picture Association of America and of Twentieth Century Fox Film Corporation.

He is the father of seven children and is married to the former Agnes Anne Neill, who is also a graduate of Georgetown University Law School. The Williams family lives in Potomac, Maryland.

HENRY J. PETERS has been the Orioles' executive vice-president and general manager since he signed a five-year contract in November, 1975. At that time he replaced Frank Cashen who had resigned to join the Carling-National Brewing Company.

Hank was selected as the major league "executive of the year" by the Sporting News for the second time in the last five years in 1983. He also earned that honor, as well as UPI's major league executive award, in 1979.

Following the 1979 season, Hank agreed to an extension of his contract through 1984. The contract was extended through 1989 this past winter.

A veteran of 37 years in professional baseball, he has shown an amazing ability to adjust to the abrupt and rapid changes that have affected player-management relationships during the past several years.

Now 59, Hank came to Baltimore after four years as president of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues (the governing body of minor league baseball).

Before accepting the National Association presidency in December, 1971, he had spent five years with the Cleveland Indians as vice-president and director of player personnel, and prior to that he had been with the Kansas City A's for 10 years. While with the A's, in 1965, he had the distinction of being the last general manager appointed by former club owner Charles O. Finley. He has also worked with the St. Louis Browns and Cincinnati Reds.

A St. Louis native, Hank broke into baseball in 1946, following three years with the U.S. Army in World War II during which he served in England, Germany, and Czechoslovakia.

He started with the hometown Browns in the minor league department under then farm director Jim McLaughlin, the Orioles' former coordinator of scouting and player development, and general manager Bill DeWitt.

When that franchise was moved to Baltimore in October, 1953, Hank took a job as general manager of the independent Burlington, Iowa club in the Class B Three-I League.

After the 1954 season, he joined the new Kansas City A's organization as farm director and remained in that position through 1960. In early 1961, he left the A's, following disagreement with Finley, and spent the balance of the season working, again for DeWitt, as farm director of the Cincinnati Reds who won the N.L. pennant that season.

However, he returned to the A's in December, 1961, as assistant general manager and farm director and was appointed general manager in 1965. During his tenure in K.C. such future stars as Jim "Catfish" Hunter, Bert Campaneris, Reggie Jackson, Sal Bando, Joe Rudi, Rick Monday, Gene Tenace, and Rollie Fingers were signed and developed in the A's farm system.

Hank moved to Cleveland in 1966 and remained there until he was elected to succeed the retiring National Association President Phil Piton. At the time, the National Association was headquartered in Columbus, Ohio, but in September, 1973, Hank moved the office to its present site in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Hank and his wife, Dottie, whom he met while both were working for the Browns, have been married for 33 years. They have two children: Sharon and Steve, and two grandchildren: Shannon Nicole Torrez, born December, 1981, and Christopher Henry Peters, born on Sunday, Oct. 16, 1983, the day the Orioles clinched the 1983 World Championship.

BIRDS' BIGGEST DEAL

In November-December 1954 the Orioles and Yankees engineered a 17 player deal, one of the biggest in baseball history. General Manager Paul Richards sent the following players to New York: pitchers Mike Blyska, Don Larsen and Bob Turley; catcher Darrell Johnson, first baseman Dick Krykoski, shortstop Billy Hunter, and outfielders Ted del Guerico and Jim Fridley . . . The Birds in turn acquired the contracts of: pitchers Harry Byrd, Jim McDonald and Bill Miller; catchers Hal Smith and Gus Triandos; second baseman Don Leppert, third baseman Kal Segrist, shortstop Willie Miranda and outfielder Gene Wooding.

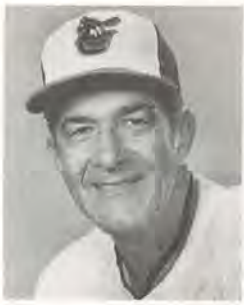
MANAGER AND COACHES

JOSEPH (JOE) SALVATORE ALTOBELLI

Born: May 26, '32; 6'0"; 180; Batted, L; Threw, L; Position: 1B.



Birthplace/Residence: Born and raised in Detroit, Michigan . . . Now lives in Rochester, N.Y.

Contract Status: Signed a two-year contract thru the '84 season on November 12, '82 . . . That contract was extended thru '85 (with an option for '86) after the '83 season.

Tenure: He has been in professional baseball for 33 years (starting '51) and previously was with the Baltimore organization for 14 seasons ('63 thru '76).

Signed Originally with: Cleveland.

1983: In his 1st year as manager, Joe guided the Orioles to the world championship, the club's 1st since '70. He was named as the American League "manager of the year" by United Press International.

Joe became just the 9th manager in major league history to win the world series in his 1st year as manager of that club. The others: Jake Stahl (Boston, A.L., 1912), Ed Barrow (Boston, A.L., 1918), Pat Moran (Cincinnati, N.L., 1919), Bucky Harris (Washington, A.L., 1924 and New York, A.L., 1947), Eddie Dyer (St. Louis, N.L., 1946), Casey Stengel (New York, A.L., 1949), Ralph Houk (New York, A.L., 1961), and Alvin Dark (Oakland, A.L. 1974).

In addition, he is ony the 7th man to ever manage teams that won both the major league World Series and the Junior World Series, which is staged annually between the champions from the triple-A leagues. Joe won the Junior World Series at Rochester in '71 (see below). The others to accomplish that feat are Joe McCarthy (Yankees and Louisville), Stengel (Yankees and Toledo), Walter Alston (Dodgers and Montreal), Billy Southworth (Cardinals and Rochester), Dyer (Cardinals and Columbus), and Houk (Yankees and Denver).

He was the American League's 3rd base coach at the major league all-star game on July 6 at Chicago.

Orioles' Manager: Joe was appointed as the 7th manager in Baltimore's history on November 12, '82 . . . He succeeded Earl Weaver, who had guided the club for 14½ seasons since July 11, '68.

Yankee Organization: He served as third base coach for the New York Yankees in '81 and '82 . . . In '80, his first year in the New York organization, he guided the Yankees' top farm club, the Columbus Clippers to the International League title. The Clippers finished first in the regular season with an 83-57 record, then defeated Richmond and Toledo in the playoffs to capture the crown. For his effort, he was selected as the I.L.'s "manager of the year," the third time he had been selected for the honor (see below).

San Francisco Skipper: Joe was named as manager of the San Francisco Giants on October 7, '76, replacing Bill Rigney, and finished fourth in the National League's western division with a 75-87 mark in '77.

The following year, the Giants improved to 89-73, the club's most victories since '71. San Francisco led the N.L. West for all but three days in a three-month period from May 12 thru August 15 before going 20-23 over the final month and a half to finish third. For his efforts, Joe was chosen as the N.L.'s "manager of the year" by the Associated Press. Jim Dwyer played under Joe for part of the '78 season.

In '79, the Giants won seven of their first nine games but were in fourth place with a 61-79 record when Joe was replaced by third base coach Dave Bristol on September 6.

Baltimore Organization: He spent 14 years in the Orioles' system from '63-'76, the final 11 as a very successful manager at all levels. His record in that span was 787-613 (.562) with his 11-year tenure matching Earl Weaver for the second longest in O's history behind Cal Ripken, who logged 13 plus seasons as a minor league skipper. Joe guided his clubs to five first place finishes and was named his league's "manager of the year" three times.

Rochester: In his six seasons as manager of Baltimore's triple-A farm club ('71-'76), Joe led the Red Wings to a 502-351 record (.589), including four regular season first place finishes and two league championships. In his first season at Rochester, the Wings won the league crown and defeated American Association champ Denver to capture the Junior World Series, earning Joe "manager of the year" honors in the International League. That club included league "mvp" Bobby Grich, Don Baylor, and 12 others who played in the majors.

The Wings also won the league championship in '74 when he was selected both as the I.L.'s top skipper and as "Minor League Manager of the Year" by the Sporting News.

Six current Orioles played under Joe in the minor leagues, all at Rochester: Al Bumbry ('72, won I.L. batting title); Rich Dauer ('75 & '76, was I.L. "mvp" and batting champ in '76); Mike Flanagan ('75 & '76, was I.L. top lhp in '75); Dennis Martinez ('75 & '76, was I.L. top rhp in '76); Scott McGregor (was top lhp in '76); Eddie Murray ('76) . . . In addition O's pitching coach Ray Miller played for Joe from '71-'73.

Other Levels: After serving as a player-coach at Rochester in '65 and the first part of '66, Joe was named manager at Bluefield in June '66 . . . He guided the O's to the Appalachian League pennant in '67 and was named the loop's top manager. He played briefly at Elmira prior to the start of the Appalachian League season in '67 and also saw action in 11 games (two as a pitcher) for Dallas-Fort Worth in '70.

Previous Playing Career: Joe played 15 full professional seasons as a first baseman with the Cleveland Indians, Los Angeles Dodgers, Minnesota Twins, and Orioles' organizations . . . He signed originally with the Indians and in his first pro season in '51 he finished fourth in the Florida State League in batting (.341) and second in hits (204). That year he also hit in 36 consecutive games, an F.S.L. record that still stands.

He spent all or parts of 12 seasons at the triple-A level and led the International League with 31 homers and 105 rbi at Montreal in '60.

Majors: He made his major league debut with Cleveland in '55 and also played most of the '57 campaign with the Tribe as a reserve first baseman-outfielder . . . He also saw action in 41 games for the Minnesota Twins in '61, the Twins' first season in Minnesota after moving from Washington.

Personal: He was an all-city selection in baseball, football, and basketball at Detroit's Eastern High School (graduated '50) . . . Joe also played American Legion baseball in Detroit.

He has lived in Rochester for many years and spent several off-seasons working for the Rochester recreation department . . . Is very involved in a number of charities in the Rochester area . . . Hobbies: hunting and woodworking . . . Joe and his wife, the former Pat Wooten, were married on May 3, '52, and are the parents of four boys: Mike (7/8/53), Mark (5/23/55), Jerry (5/7/63), and Joe (7/13/69) and two girls: Jody (10/26/56) and Jackie (4/9/60).

ELROD (ELLIE) JEROME HENDRICKS

Born: Dec. 22, '40; 6'1"; 185; Batted, L; Threw, R; Position: C.

Birthplace/Residence: Born and raised in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands ... Has lived in Baltimore area (Randallstown) since '70.

Tenure: This is his 25th season in professional baseball ... He has spent 14½ years in Baltimore organization ... Has 10 years, 89 days service as a major league player.

Signed Originally with: Milwaukee (Atlanta) Braves.

Major League Career: When he first joined the O's in '68,, Ellie had spent 9 seasons in the minors ... During the 16 years that have elapsed since then, he has been with Baltimore for nearly 14½.

He played for the Cubs during the last 6 weeks of '72 (Tommy Davis deal) before returning to the O's that winter, then logged 1½ years in the Yankees organization from June '76 thru the '77 season, before rejoining the Birds.

Coach: Ellie was appointed bullpen coach in Nov. '77 ... He also served as a player-coach for parts of the '78 and '79 seasons ... He has also supervised off-season workouts the last 5 winters for players living in the Baltimore area.

He was the American League's batting practice catcher and bullpen coach for the 1982 all-star game in Montreal.

'79 Season: He coached exclusively all year until Sep. 1 when the roster expanded to 40 men ... He made only one appearance, in a game at Detroit on Sep. 19, and went 0-for-1 with a throwing error from behind the plate ... He was not eligible for post-season play.

'78 Season: He started the season as a coach, but was activated six weeks later (on May 18) replacing Gary Roenicke who was optioned to Rochester. Ellie remained on the player list for the remainder of the year while also continuing as a coach.

Last Home Run: Ellie hit his last big league home run on Aug. 23, a blast off Oakland's Dave Heaverlo.

'78 Batting/ERA Leader: In 13 games Ellie batted .333 (6-for-18), and in his one career pitching stint he compiled a 0.00 era, thus leading the club in both categories (actually he tied Dave Ford in era ... Ford pitched 15 scoreless innings in Sep.).

His pitching career took place in Toronto on June 26 where the O's were absorbing a 24-10 pasting by the Blue Jays ... Ellie worked 2.1 innings, allowing no runs, one hit and one walk while putting an end to the carnage that had been inflicted on four predecessors (Mike Flanagan, Joe Kerrigan, Tippy Martinez and Larry Harlow) . . . Don Stanhouse then pitched the final inning and, inspired by Ellie's effort, he, too, held the Jays scoreless.

Yankees, '76-'77: In '76 Ellie played in 26 games for the Yankees after the June 15 trade from Baltimore and batted .210 (12-for-57).

Ellie spent '77 shuttling between New York and Syracuse. He played in only 10 games for the Yankees and was not eligible for post-season play.

Orioles ('68-'76): Ellie had been with the O's for nearly 9 full years when he was traded to the Cubs for Tommy Davis in Aug. '72 . . . However, when the season ended, he was reacquired by Baltimore.

100 Games/Year: Ellie played in more than 100 games in each of the O's 3 pennant-winning seasons of '69-'70-'71 . . . He and Andy Etchebarren more or less split the regular catching job from '68 thru '71.

Weaver/Lane: Earl Weaver and Frank Lane were instrumental in convincing the O's to draft him from the Angels' AAA Seattle affiliate in Nov. '67 . . . Ellie had played for Weaver in Puerto Rico previously and Lane had scouted him in Mexico.

Odds and Ends: Ellie hit 2 grand slams for the Birds, both in Memorial Stadium: July 20, '70 off Chicago's Barry Moore, and Aug. 18, '75 off the Twins Dave Goltz . . . He nearly always caught when Mike Cuellar was pitching . . . He led the O's in batting on the '71 Japan tour with a .400 average (16-for-40).

ALCS/WS: He compiled a .273 average (18-for-66) in 23 post-season games for the O's and Yankees (comprising five championship and four world series).

'70 WS: Ellie hit .364 (4-for-11) against the Reds with a home run and double and contributed significantly to the O's wins at Cincinnati in games 1 and 2.

In the opener, the Reds jumped out 3-0, but Ellie tied it in the 5th with a home run off Gary Nolan and the O's went on to win on Brooks' homer in the 7th . . . There was a play in the Cincinnati 6th in which Ellie was involved and that was as important as the home run . . . See "Carbo-Burkhart Incident" below.

"Carbo-Burkhart" Incident: One inning after Ellie had tied the game with his home run, the Reds had Bernie Carbo on 3rd, representing the lead run, and only one out (Brooks had retired Lee May leading off the inning on a sensational play).

Pinch-hitter Ty Cline then chopped a high bouncer in front of the plate . . . As Ellie went out and grabbed it, Carbo headed home. Ellie dove and tagged Carbo a few feet up the line and Umpire Ken Burkhart, who had been spun around by the runners as they converged so that his back was to the play, called Carbo out.

Films later revealed that Ellie had tagged Carbo with one hand while holding the ball in the other, and that Carbo had missed the plate.

Puerto Rico: Ellie played for Santurce in the Puerto Rico Winter League each year from '60-'77, except in '71 when the O's went to Japan . . . His 112 homers in that loop rank him second on the all-time list to former St. Louis Browns outfielder Willard Brown (120).

Minors: He enjoyed his best minor league seasons in Jalisco in the Mexican League (AAA) where he hit 109 homers in 4 years and was known as the "Babe Ruth of Mexico" . . . In his last season there ('67), he led the league in homers (41) and was second in rbi (112).

He started his career in the Milwaukee Braves' organization ('59-'60), then spent 2 years at Winnipeg in the Cardinals system ('62-'63) before going to Mexico.

Personal: Ellie is one of the most popular personalities ever to wear an Orioles uniform . . . He is an accomplished after-dinner speaker and is very active in community projects in the Baltimore area . . . Speaks fluent Spanish . . . Plays the flute.

Ellie was selected as the first "man of the year" by the Baltimore chapter of the National Conference of Christians and Jews in Feb. '83 in recognition of his outstanding service to the community.

He has operated a two-week baseball camp for youngsters the past 3 summers.

He and his wife, Merle, were married Jan. 14, '70 and are the parents of two sons: Ryan (8/3/72) and Ian Christopher (11/28/76). They have lived in the Randallstown area, near Baltimore, since the early '70's.

Ellie has 4 children by a previous marriage: Abegail (7/13/62), Elrod, Jr., (4/7/64), Elroy (10/17/65), and Berecia (8/25/67) . . . Elrod, Jr., a 1st baseman, signed with the Boston Red Sox organization in December.

RAYMOND (RAY) ROGER MILLER

Born: Apr. 30, '45; 6'3"; 215; Batted, R; Threw, R; Position: P.

Birthplace/Residence: Born in Takoma Park, Md. . . . Grew up in nearby Forestville, MD (Prince Georges County) . . . Now lives in New Athens, Ohio.

Tenure: Has been in Baltimore organization since '71 . . . In his 21st season in organized baseball ('64 thru '83).

Signed Originally with: San Francisco.

Coaching: Ray was named the Orioles' pitching coach in Jan. '78 and in his 6 years in Baltimore, the Birds have produced 4 different 20-game winners (Palmer-'78, Flanagan-'79, Stone & McGregor-'80) and 2 Cy Young Award recipients (Flanagan-'79, Stone-'80).

After 4 years as O's minor league pitching instructor, was appointed major league pitching coach at Texas following the '77 season . . . However, rejoined the Orioles in that capacity on Jan. 23, '78, when George Bamberger left Baltimore to manage Milwaukee.

Is only the 3rd pitching coach in Baltimore history following Harry Brecheen ('54-'67) and Bamberger ('68-'77).

Managing Winter Ball: Ray has managed in the Puerto Rican Winter League for 3 of the past 4 years. This year, he guided Santurce to a 3rd place finish, then lost to Ponce, 4 games to 3, in the playoff semi-finals.

Previously, he managed at Caguas from 1980-82 and enjoyed much success . . . In his 1st year, '80-'81, Caguas finished 4th in the regular season but defeated Bayamon and Mayaguez in the playoffs to win the championship . . . In '81-'82, the Criollos had the best overall record during the regular season (37-23) but were eliminated by Bayamon in the 1st round of the playoffs.

Minor League Pitching Instructor: First joined the O's organization as a relief pitcher at Rochester in '71 . . . Became pitcher-coach for Wings under manager Joe Altobelli 2 years later . . . Named minor league pitching instructor in '74 and helped develop a number of future major leaguers including Mike Flanagan, Wayne Garland, Dennis Martinez, Scott McGregor, Mike Parrott, Randy Miller, Dyar Miller, Paul Mitchell, Dave Ford, John Flinn, and Sammy Stewart.

Playing Career: Never pitched in the majors but spent the last 5 years of his pitching career at the AAA level . . . Was 11-8 with 18 saves in 105 games with Rochester from '71-'73.

Pitched professionally for 10 years, starting in '64 after signing with San Francisco . . . Allowed only 848 hits in 1003 career innings and until last part of the '73 season had averaged a strikeout per inning (finished with 992 k's) . . . Was drafted by Cleveland after the '64 season and remained with the Indians' organization until joining Rochester in '71 . . . Pitched a no-hitter in '64 in the Western Carolinas League.

Personal: Nicknamed "Rabbitt" . . . Played baseball, soccer, and basketball at Suitland, Md. High School (graduated '63) . . . Was all-Maryland in baseball in senior year . . . Served in the U.S. Army (1st Armored Division).

He and his wife, the former Judith Ann Graham, were married in '65 . . . The Millers have a son, Raymond "Scott" (7/6/66).

CALVIN (CAL) EDWIN RIPKEN

Born: Dec. 17, '35; 5'11"; 170; Batted, R; Threw, R; Position: C.

Birthplace/Residence: Born, grew up, and still lives in Aberdeen, Md.

Tenure: This is his 28th season in professional baseball (all with Baltimore organization).

Signed Originally with: Baltimore.

Coach: Cal joined the Orioles' coaching staff in '76, replacing George Staller, who had retired after the '75 season . . . Served as the O's bullpen coach until June 27, '77, when he took over at 3rd base following Billy Hunter's appointment as manager of the Texas Rangers.

Father and Son: Cal's son, Cal, Jr. joined the Orioles in '81, giving the Birds one of the few father-son combinations on the same team in major league history. Among the others are Connie (manager) and Earle (player) Mack of the Philadelphia A's (1910-11, 1914) and Jim (coach) and Mike (player) Hegan of the New York Yankees (1964, '66-'67, '73.) For biography on Cal, Jr., see page 165.

In addition, Cal's youngest son, Billy was selected by Baltimore in the June '82 free agent draft (11th round, regular phase). Billy, an 18-year-old shortstop, has played at Bluefield (Appalachian League) the last 2 summers.

Scout: In '75, he turned to scouting, primarily at the professional level . . . In addition, did some free agent scouting and also served as a "trouble shooter" in the farm system.

Managing: Cal managed in the Orioles' farm system from '61 thru '74, a span of 13 plus seasons that is the longest tenure of any minor league skipper in O's history. Earl Weaver is 2nd with 11 years ('57 thru '67) . . . During that period, Cal managed at all levels except "rookie" league.

As a player-manager had a losing record in 2 seasons, then retired from active status following the '62 campaign . . . In 12 years as a non-playing skipper finished below .500 only once.

Won the 1st of 2 pennants at Aberdeen (Northern League) by 12 games with a club that included Jim Palmer, Andy Etchebarren, Eddie Watt, and Mark Belanger . . . Was chosen "manager of the year" in that loop . . . Finished 1st again in '72 at Asheville in the AA Southern League.

Was the Rochester manager in '69 and '70 (preceding Joe Altobelli), then moved to Dallas-Ft. Worth (AA-Texas) in '71 . . . Last 3 seasons as a manager were at Asheville, '72 thru '74.

Earlier had managed clubs in Leesburg, Fla. (his 1st managerial assignment in '61); Appleton, Wis. ('62); Aberdeen, S.D. ('63, '64, '66); Kennewick-Richland-Pasco, Wash. (Tri-City) ('65); Miami, Fla. ('67); and Elmira, N.Y. ('68).

Playing Career: Was a catcher in the O's organization although also played 3rd base and the outfield and even pitched . . . Enjoyed best year under Earl Weaver at Fox Cities (I.I.I. League) in '60 . . . Became a player-manager for 1st time midway thru the '61 season.

Personal: Conducts a number of clinics and works for the O's speaker's bureau during the off-season . . . His brother, Bill, played the outfield in the Brooklyn Dodgers' organization.

Cal and his wife, Vi, were married on Nov. 30, '57 . . . They have 4 children: Ellen Leigh (3/22/59), Calvin, Jr. (8/24/60), Fred (11/25/61), and Billy (12/16/64).

JAMES (JIMMY) B. WILLIAMS

Born: May 15, '26; 5'10"; 180; Batted, R; Threw, R; Position: OF.

Birthplace/Residence: Born, and raised in Toronto, Ontario, but has lived in Pueblo, Colorado, for many years.

Tenure: This is his 38th season in professional baseball and his 7th with the Baltimore organization.

Signed Originally with: Brooklyn (Los Angeles) Dodgers.

Coach: Jimmy was appointed to the coaching staff in January '81 to replace Frank Robinson, who resigned to become manager of the San Francisco Giants. He serves as 1st base coach and works with the outfielders and baserunners.

Baltimore Organization: Jimmy became a manager in the O's farm system in '78 and guided clubs to the playoffs in each of his three seasons, including a pair of league championships.

In '80 he led the O's class AA team at Charlotte to the Southern League crown . . . The O's won the Eastern Division first half title but slipped to fourth in the second half before rebounding in the playoffs to beat Savannah, three games to none, and Memphis, three games to one, for the title . . . In '79 Charlotte also won the first half title but was eliminated by Columbus, Ga. in the first round of the playoffs.

The previous year, his first with the Orioles, Jimmy directed class A Miami of the Florida State League to the second half title, knocked off Ft. Myers in a one-game divisional playoff, then erased the Lakeland Tigers in a best of three final to win the pennant.

Managing/Coaching Background: Jimmy has logged 17 years as a minor league manager in the farm systems of the Dodgers ('63, '64, '76-'77), A's ('65 thru '69), Astros ('70 thru '74) and Orioles and owns over 1100 wins . . . He also spent the '75 season as the third base coach for the Houston Astros on the major league level.

His first of four pennants came in the Florida State League, when he managed for the A's at Leesburg in '66 . . . That year his club was 50-14 in the first half, fell to fifth in the second half, but came back to beat St. Petersburg in the FSL playoffs . . . That club led organized baseball with 232 stolen bases in 132 games, a FSL record that still stands, while Allen Lewis, who went on to become Charlie Finley's "designated runner" stole 116, also a league mark . . . Jimmy also managed at Leesburg in '67 and put in another FSL campaign with the Astros at Cocoa in '72.

Jimmy joined the Houston organization in '70 and won a pennant at Columbus in the Southern League (he also managed at Columbus in '74) . . . He has managed at every level but "rookie" including four years at AAA: '69 (Des Moines), '71 (Oklahoma City), '73 (Denver), all in the American Association, and '77 (Albuquerque) of the Pacific Coast League.

He has also managed in: Santa Barbara ('63, California), Grand Forks ('64, Northern), Shelby ('65, Western Carolinas), Newport News ('68, Carolina), and Lodi ('76, California) . . . Served as a player-coach at Omaha (American Association) in '62.

Playing Career: He played for 18 years ('47 thru '64) as an outfielder in the Dodgers' system including occasional appearances in his first two years as a manager . . . He was outstanding in his first professional season in '47, earning "rookie of the year" honors in the Wisconsin State League and batting a composite .367 with three different clubs . . . That year he amassed 163 hits, 27 doubles, 15 triples, 12 homers, 121 rbi and 24 stolen bases in 117 games.

In '49 at Pueblo, he broke a Western league record with 42 stolen bases (in 43 attempts) . . . That mark was later broken by current Orioles' scout and field coordinator Len Johnson, who swiped 64 at Colorado Springs in '53.

Jimmy never played in the majors but put in five seasons at the AAA level ('55 thru '57 at Montreal in the International League) and '59 and '62 in the American Association . . . He hit over .300 in five different seasons.

Personal: Jimmy graduated from DeLaSalle High School in Toronto where he lettered in baseball, hockey, football, and lacrosse . . . He played minor league hockey (right wing) for the old Boston Olympics in the early 1950's and still performs as a defenseman for Pueblo's top semi-pro team in the off-season . . . His other hobbies include golf, tennis, and remodeling homes.

Jimmy and his wife, the former Lorraine Elliott, were married Sep. 21, '50 . . . They have two sons, Chris (6/10/52) and Kirk (11/11/56) and one daughter, Julie (2/19/61). He was honored as Pueblo's "Sportsman of the Year" for 1983.

1983 SEASON SUMMARY

Appeared in 47 games, 30 as a starter (15 as dh, and 15 in of) . . . Started 13 times in left and twice in rightfield . . . Had only 2 plate appearances in post-season, but made them both count (see below).

Hit .286 (4-for-14) as a pinch-hitter and now has an A.L. career mark in that capacity of .274 (26-for-95) . . . As a dh in '83, he hit .192 (5-for-26), lowering his career dh average to .259 (67-for-259).

Batted .306 (19-for-62) at home, but only .095 (4-for-42) on the road . . . Played in only 2 games from Aug. 25 thru Sep. 27, both as pinch-hitter, then started 3 of the O's last 4 games.

As a leftfielder he appeared in 19 games (5 in right) and contributed a .259 average (14-for-54), 3 hr & 10 rbi to the O's massive collective totals at that position—.292 average, 35 hr, 131 rbi . . . Started one game as the leadoff hitter (July 16).

Went 2-for-3 with a double and homer off Jon Matlack (Texas) on April 21 . . . His lifetime average vs. the Rangers' lefthander is .429 (9-for-21) with 3 hr (including his only 2 hr game in majors, June 10, '79).

Had big hit on Aug. 24 vs. Toronto (Tippy's 3 pick off game), a 2-out 9th inning single that pulled O's within one run. Al Bumbry followed with a game-tying single, and O's won in 10 on Lenn Sakata's hr (see "That's Incredible" on page 47).

1983 AND PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

ALCS/WS: His lone appearance in '83 ALCS was as a pinch-hitter in the 10th inning of the 4th and final game . . . He drove in the O's 3rd run of the inning with a sac fly in the 3-0 clincher.

In game 3 of the WS, he pinch-hit for Jim Palmer in the 7th against Steve Carlton (O's trailed 2-1), and singled in the hole past Mike Schmidt to drive in Rick Dempsey with the tying run, then later scored the go-ahead (and winning) tally from 2nd when Ivan DeJesus erred on Dan Ford's grounder . . . Benny is 3-for-13 lifetime vs. Carlton.

In '79, he did not play in ALCS, but started games 3, 5 & 6 of the WS . . . In his first he went 2-for-2 off John Candelaria with a single & hr (at Pit.).

Vs. Opponents: Has a .353 (12-for-34) career average vs. the Tigers . . . Has hit 5 of his 29 A.L. homers against the Brewers . . . Benny, who hit only .190 (4-for-21) against the Yankees in '83, owns, nevertheless, the club's highest career average against the Bombers (.299, 29-for-97) . . . His 14 lifetime rbi vs. NY are a high against one opponent.

In addition to the the Tigers, he has .300+ bat marks against California (.324, 11-for-34), Oakland (.308, 8-for-26) and Milwaukee (.305, 18-for-59).

1982 Season: Was 3rd in A.L. in pinch-hitting average (.375, 9-for-24), and tied teammate Terry Crowley for 2nd place in rbi (10) . . . Hit 2 of the O's A.L. record 11 pinch-homers . . . Batted over .300 for the first time, and contributed to the O's prodigious combined leftfield stats (.283 avg., 41 hr & 123 rbi) . . . Batted .339 (19-for-56) over the last 2 months (i.e. during the pennant race).

'79-'80 Seasons: Set career highs in hr (10) and rbi (33) in '80 . . . Joined O's May 1st, '79 as a roster replacement for Doug DeCinces (disabled list) . . . Was leading Rochester in hitting (.355) at the time of his promotion . . . Was acquired by O's organization on recommendation of Doc Edwards, then manager at Rochester . . . Edwards had managed Benny in Puerto Rico.

National League: Made big league debut with Mets and homered in 1st big league at bat, Aug. 27, '74 off Houston's Tom Griffin . . . Is one of 47 to have done so in major league history . . . Started '76 with Mets, but was optioned to Tidewater June 1 . . . Returned to majors via St. Louis in Sep. '77.

Minors: Signed originally by Nino Escalera for Mets in '71 . . . Batted .281 (460-for-1638) in 5 plus years at AAA level . . . Named to '77 American Association all-star team after leading New Orleans with a .298 average . . . His manager that year was Lance Nichols.

Winter Ball: Since '71 Benny has played in Puerto Rico every winter but one ('79) . . . Was league "mvp" in '73 while playing at Arecibo.

Amateur Background: Starred in baseball, track, basketball and volleyball at Agustin Stahl High School in Bayamon (graduated '69) . . . Was never defeated in track events . . . Also played baseball in Little League and Babe Ruth programs . . .

Personal: Attended Puerto Rico J.C. (Rio Piedras) for one year before signing pro contract . . . His father is a real estate broker in Bayamon.

Benny and his wife, the former Esperanza (Eppie) Martinez, were married on Apr. 21, '74 and have 3 sons: Benny, Luis and Melvin.

THE BIRDS AND THE BROWNS

The Baltimore Orioles were charter members of the American League when it began operation in 1901. However, after two seasons the club was moved to New York where it ultimately became known as the New York Yankees.

The franchise from which the current Orioles descend came into the A.L. in 1901 representing Milwaukee, but in 1902 was transferred to St. Louis and named the Browns. In 52 seasons (1902 thru 1953) the Browns were, perhaps, the most unsuccessful team in major league history. They were 3,416-4,465 (.433) and finished in the second division 40 times. They won their only pennant in 1944 then lost the world series in six games to their home town rivals, the Cardinals.

In June, 1951, Bill and Charles DeWitt sold their controlling interest to Bill Veeck who operated the club for the next 2½ seasons. On September 29, 1953, he sold his shares to a group of Baltimore businessmen who brought major league baseball back to this city after a 51-year lapse.

MICHAEL (MIKE) JAMES BODDICKER

THE 1983 SEASON

After beginning the season in Rochester, Mike joined the Orioles in May and became a starter when injuries hit the pitching staff. He made the most of that opportunity, topping all major league rookies with 16 wins, leading the American League with 5 shutouts, and compiling the lowest earned run average of any pitcher who finished the season in the A.L. at 2.77.

He saved his best for the post-season as he tossed a 5-hit shutout with a career high 14 strikeouts against Chicago in game 2 of the ALCS and allowed only 3 hits while defeating Philadelphia, 4-1 in the 2nd game of the World Series. His performance versus the White Sox earned Mike the "most valuable player" award for the American League Championship Series.

He was selected as the A.L.'s "rookie pitcher of the year" by The Sporting News, was named as the righthanded pitcher on the Topps Major League All-Rookie Team, and finished 3rd in the BBWAA's A.L. rookie award balloting.

Mike, who went 12-4 in his final 17 regular season starts, also was 2nd on the O's staff in victories, complete games (10), and strikeouts (120).

Recall: He joined the Orioles from Rochester on May 5 to replace the disabled Jim Palmer . . . Made one relief appearance (1.2 scoreless innings vs. Oakland on May 8), then was given a spot start in the 2nd game of a doubleheader vs. Chicago on May 17 . . . Blanked the White Sox on 5 hits, 5-0, for his 1st major league complete game and shutout (was 2nd big league start).

Became a regular starter at that point as Mike Flanagan was sidelined for 3 months with a knee injury in the opener of that Chicago twinbill.

Lost his next 2 starts, then won 3 in a row before dropping 2 more . . . Thru July 3 (1st half of season), was 4-4 with a 4.02 era (24 er/53.2 ip) in 10 games (9 starts).

Second Half: Starting July 10, Mike was 12-4 over his final 17 starts with a 2.23 era (125.1 ip, 92 h, 31 er) . . . Had lowered his era all the way to 2.58 before allowing 6 earned runs in 3 innings against Detroit on Sep. 28 (next to last start of the year) . . . Won 9 of his 11 starts beginning July 31, including 7 of 8 with a 1.14 era (8 er/63 ip) in a span from Aug. 15 thru Sep. 21' . . . His longest winning streak was 4, from Aug. 15 thru 31.

Rookie Leader: He led all big league rookies with 16 victories, one more than Atlanta's Craig McMurtry. The A.L. runnerup was Oakland's Chris Codiroli (12) . . . It was the 3rd highest victory total of any rookie in Orioles' history behind Wally Bunker (19-5 in '64) and Chuck Estrada (18-11 in '60).

Also paced 1st year hurlers in shutouts, tied Texas' Mike Smithson for the lead in complete games, and had the lowest era of any rookie qualifier. Was 3rd among A.L. rookies in strikeouts and 4th in innings pitched (179).

Shutouts: Mike was the 1st A.L. rookie to lead the league outright in shutouts since Horace (Hod) Lisenbee accomplished that feat with the 1927 Washington Senators (4) . . . The only other A.L. rookie to do it was Addie Joss, who had 5 shutouts with Cleveland in 1905. Fernando Valenzuela was the last N.L. rookie to do it, tossing 8 shutouts in his rookie season of '81.

The last Oriole to lead the A.L. outright in shutouts was Jim Palmer with 10 in '75. Mike Flanagan tied 2 others for the league lead with 5 in '79.

In addition to the White Sox, shut out Seattle on July 10 (5 hits, 2-0); Texas on July 31 (4 hits, 6-0); Minnesota on Aug. 26 (3 hits, 9-0); and Detroit on Sep. 21' (5 hits, 6-0) . . . Also hurled the 1st 5 innings of a combined (with Sammy Stewart and Tippy Martinez) 2-0, 7-hit shutout against New York on Oct. 2 . . . Lost a shutout to Milwaukee in the 9th (Robin Yount homer) on Sep. 16 and pitched 7 shutout innings (Sammy Stewart allowed one run in final 2 innings) in 6-1 win at Minnesota on May 30.

Earned Run Average: Mike's 2.77 (179 ip, 141 h, 55 er) earned run average was the 2nd lowest in the A.L. to Rick Honeycutt's figure of 2.42 (174.2 ip, 168 h, 47 er). Although he was traded by the Texas Rangers to the Los Angeles Dodgers on Aug. 19, Honeycutt pitched more than the minimum qualifying standard of 162 innings and thus won the era title.

Was the lowest era by a regular O's starter since Jim Palmer's 2.46 mark in '78 . . . Was the 2nd Oriole pitcher to finish 2nd in the era race in the last 3 years as Sammy Stewart was the A.L. runnerup in '81 at 2.33.

Allowed 3 or fewer runs in 18 of his 26 starts . . . In addition to his 5 complete game shutouts, failed to allow an earned run in 4 other starts.

Tough at Home: He was 11-3 with a 2.11 era (27 er/115 ip) in 16 appearances (15 starts at Memorial Stadium) . . . Won his 1st 7 decisions at home (over 8 starts) before losing to Cleveland on Aug. 10 . . . Was 5-5 with a 3.94 era (28 er/64 ip) in 11 starts on the road.

Strikeouts: He fanned 12 batters in his 6-0 shutout at Detroit on Sep. 21', which matched the highest regular season total by an A.L. pitcher in '83 and was his career best at that time (see below for ALCS performance) . . . Also struck out 8 batters twice and 7 hitters in a game 3 times.

Opponents: He was 2-0 against Chicago, Milwaukee, Minnesota, and Texas and defeated every club except Boston and Cleveland at least once . . . Allowed no runs and just 8 hits in 16 innings of work versus the Twins.

Incuding the ALCS, was 3-0 with a 1.33 era (4 er/27 ip) in 3 starts against Chicago . . . See "Post-Season" below.

Miscellaneous: He had the league's 2nd lowest men on base/innings pitched ratio at "+14" (179 ip/141 h, 52 bb, 0 hb) behind Chicago's Lamarr Hoyt at "+7.1" (260.2 ip/236 h, 31 bb, 1 hb) . . . Was 7th in the A.L. in winning percentage (.667), tied for 9th in wins, and tied for 11th in complete games.

Allowed just 3 home runs in his last 11 starts (80 ip).

Post-Season: Mike was 2-0 and did not allow an earned run in his 2 complete game post-season victories (18 ip, 8 h, 1 r, 0 er, 3 bb, 20 so).

ALCS: Became the 1st rookie in LCS history to pitch a shutout as he blanked Chicago on 5 hits, 4-0, in game 2 on Oct. 6 at Baltimore . . . Fanned a career high 14 batters, tying the LCS record, previously accomplished by Detroit's Joe Coleman in '72 and Pittsburgh's John Candelaria in '75 . . . Struck out at least one batter in every inning while walking 3 and throwing 142 pitches.

For his key role in turning the Orioles around after losing the ALCS opener, was awarded the '83 ALCS "most valuable player" award from the league and Chevrolet (he chose an S-10 Blazer pickup truck over the sporty Z-28 Camaro) . . . Was the 1st pitcher to be so honored in the 4-year history of the award.

World Series: Once again brought the O's back from a 0-1 deficit with a 3-hit, 4-1 triumph over Philadelphia in game 2 on Oct. 12 at Baltimore. Allowed only one unearned run, fanned 6 and walked no one in becoming just the 3rd rookie to ever pitch a world series 3-hitter. Threw 108 pitches in the win while retiring 15 of the last 17 batters faced. At the plate, was 0-for-3, but delivered a key sacrifice fly in the 5th inning to give the Birds a 3-1 lead .

Awards: He became the 3rd Oriole to win the TSN rookie award, joining Bunker ('64) and Tom Phoebus ('67) . . . In the BBWAA's rookie voting, received 5 1st place votes and 70 points to finish behind Chicago's Ron Kittle (15 1st place votes and 104 points) and Cleveland's Julio Franco (8 and 78) . . . Those three were the only ones to receive any votes in the balloting.

Was also the recipient of the "world series hero" award at the Kansas City Baseball Writers Banquet in January and was honored at Baltimore's Tops in Sports Banquet.

Rochester: At the time of his recall, Mike was 3-1 with a 1.90 era in 4 starts with the Red Wings and was leading that club in wins, innings pitched (23.2), and strikeouts (18) . . . Was one of Baltimore's final cuts in spring training after being hampered by a sprained ankle.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1982: Mike was recalled from Rochester on July 29 and pitched 7 times in relief over the last 2 months . . . Earned his 1st major league victory against New York on Sep. 13, allowing one run in 3 innings . . . Matched the longest relief appearance by an Oriole all season with an 8-inning effort at Minnesota on Aug. 19 . . . Worked 5 times in August but pitched just twice after Aug. 27.

After a slow start at Rochester, was 8-1 in his last 12 starts . . . Was leading the Wings in most pitching categories at the time of his recall . . . Pitched one hit shutout vs. Columbus on May 25.

Drove in game-winning runs with 2-run pinch double to beat Toledo on June 26 in 1st professional at bat . . . Mike was forced to hit when Rochester manager Lance Nichols had to put his designated hitter Tim Derryberry into the game defensively. The Wings had no position players remaining so Mike batted for pitcher Nate Snell with 2 out in the bottom of the 9th and Rochester trailing, 4-3.

1981: Mike led the Rochester staff in starts (29), shutouts (3), and strikeouts (109) . . . Was recalled by Baltimore on Sep. 10 and pitched twice in relief over the final 6 days of the season: Sep. 29 at Det. and Oct. 2 vs. New York.

1980: Finished 2nd in the I.L. with a 2.18 era and tied for 2nd with 13 complete games . . . Was the circuit's top control pitcher with lowest ratio of walks per 9 innings pitched (1.66) and best figure of innings pitched (190) to base runners (hits-149, walks-35, hit by pitch-4) with a "minus 2" . . . Was 9-2 starting June 13, including 8 straight wins from June 13 thru Aug. 13.

Major League Debut: Was recalled by the Orioles on Sep. 5 but did not pitch until Oct. 4 . . . Started the 2nd game of a doubleheader against Cleveland and lost to the Indians, 6-4 (7.1 ip, 6 h, 6 r, 5 er).

Winter Ball: Pitched for Ray Miller's Caguas club in Puerto Rican League . . . Best effort came in league championship series against Mayaguez when he threw 3-hit shutout to give Caguas 3-1 lead en route to league crown.

1979: Finished with a combined record of 13-9 at Charlotte and Rochester . . . Was leading the Southern League in wins (9) when promoted to Rochester on June 25 . . . Set a S.L. record with 18 strikeouts against Knoxville on June 7.

Pro Career: Signed by Joe Bowman and made rapid progress in 1st pro season in '78 . . . Started with Bluefield in June, was promoted to Charlotte on July 15 and then to Rochester on Sep. 1, moving from college ball to AAA level in just 15 weeks (May 21 to Sep. 1).

Amateur Background: Played 3 seasons at the University of Iowa (Iowa City), earning 3rd team all-Big 10 honors as a 3rd baseman in freshman year and as a pitcher in his junior season ('78) . . . Fanned 189 batters in 166 career innings and led nation in strikeouts per 9 innings in '77 (11.5).

Was a two-time all-state selection in baseball at Norway Community High School (graduated '75) . . . Also earned all-conference honors in basketball . . . Was drafted by Montreal in the June '75 free agent draft but chose to go to Iowa.

Played semi-pro baseball in Fairbanks, Alaska, in the summer of '77, and his team finished 2nd in the National Baseball Congress Tournament in Wichita . . . Participated in Little League and American Legion baseball with his team going to the Legion world series 3 times ('74, '75, '76).

Personal: Mike spent most of the off-season in his hometown of Norway, Iowa (population 633), before coming to Baltimore for the final month . . . Was honored by Norway at "Mike Boddicker Day" in early November . . . Has worked at a grain elevator operation in Norway for past several winters.

Norway has produced 2 other major leaguers: Hal Trosky, Sr., a 1st baseman with Cleveland and Chicago White Sox from 1933-1946 and Bruce Kimm, who caught for 3 teams from 1976-80 and is now bullpen coach at Cincinnati.

Hobbies: fishing, hunting and trapping . . . Mike and his wife, the former Lisa Mary Charipar, were married Feb. 2, '80, and have a son, Corey Michael (4/5/83) . . . Lisa's brother, Jim Van Scoyoc, was Mike's high school baseball coach.

Fully recovered from the leg injuries that hampered him so severely in '82, "Bee" split centerfield duties with rookie John Shelby, as a starter vs. righthanded pitching. He opened in center 94 times and once in left (also played parts of 16 other games in leftfield).

He reached a season high (after April) of .279 on Sep. 19, and during the O's 34-10 streak (Aug. 13 to Sep. 25) that earned them their 7th divisional title, Al batted a solid .291 (32-for-110).

By Month: April-.280 (14-for-50), 15 g . . . May-.239 (17-for-71), 22 g . . . June-.300 (15-for-50), 18 g . . . July-.288 (17-for-59), 21 g . . . August-.266 (21-for-79), 24 g . . . Sep.-Oct.-.290 (20-for-69), 24 g.

Miscellaneous: Picked up 2 rbi on a sacrifice fly Aug. 26 at Baltimore vs. Twins when both Rich Dauer (from 3rd) and Todd Cruz (from 2nd) scored on Bee's drive to Tom Brunansky in right field . . . Rick Dempsey also advanced from 1st to 3rd after the catch . . .

Reached base 7 straight times (5 hits & 2 walks) Sep. 16 & 17 . . . Batted .316 (60-for-190) at home and .232 (42-for-181) on the road . . . Hit 4 triples and now has 59 lifetime (tied for 2nd with Paul Blair behind Brooks-68).

1983 AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Stolen Bases: Did not lead the O's in steals for the first time in 5 years (finished 2nd to Shelby 15 to 12) but did hit double figures for the 10th straight time. He holds the club career record with 243 (Paul Blair is 2nd at 167).

Has 28 steals in 34 career attempts (.824) vs. Cleveland and is 15-for-18 (.833) against the Blue Jays.

Vs. RHP/LHP: Is batting .290 (1098-for-3780) lifetime vs. righthanders and a highly respectable .254 (212-for-834) against lefthanders.

Fielding: Came to majors as a leftfielder in '73 . . . He first started in center on July 4, '76, and shared that position for the next 2½ years before becoming the O's full-time centerfielder, '79 thru '82.

Vs. Opponents: Al feasted on Milwaukee pitching in '83. He batted .486 (18-for-37) and now has a lifetime mark of .318 (131-for-412) against the Brewers . . . He also hit well last year vs. the Twins (.357, 10-for-28) . . .

Has hit 8 homers against the Yankees, (5 of them off Catfish Hunter) and has driven in 43 runs against the Tigers, both highs vs. a single opponent.

CS/WS: Started twice in the 4-game ALCS and 4 of the 5 '83 WS games. In '79 ALCS he was the leading scorer (5) vs. Angels . . . Started all 4 ALCS games in '79 and 4 of the 7 WS games vs. Pittsburgh (but played in all 7).

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS BY YEAR

1982: Was plagued virtually all season by muscle pulls, first in the right calf and later the left hamstring . . . Managed to play in 150 games but his .262 average was his lowest since '76.

1981: Led O's in runs (61) and steals (22) and was 2nd in games, hits and walks during the abbreviated season . . . Batted .283 (28-for-99) lefthanded, the 2nd time in last 3 years he had hit for a higher average from the left side.

Drew his first career ejection June 2nd at New York by umpire Larry Barnett for arguing from the bench.

As Baltimore's leadoff man in the 1st inning of a game, Al batted .361 (30-for-83) in 97 games with an on-base percentage of .454 (44-for-97).

1980: His best year . . . Was "most valuable Oriole", leading the club with a .318 batting average and becoming the first Oriole ever to amass 200 hits in a season (205) . . . Also topped the Birds with career highs in games (160) and at bats (645), stolen bases (44) and runs (118, 4 shy of club record).

Was named to A.L. all-star squad and played last 4 innings in Los Angeles . . . Was selected as the centerfielder on the The Sporting News A.L. all-star team (by vote of fellow players).

1979: Rebounded completely from his injury in '78 (see below) to finish 3rd among O's regulars in batting at .285 and led the club with 37 steals.

MINIMUM SALARY

The minimum major league player salary is $40,000 in 1984.

1978: Broke his left fibula and dislocated his left ankle in a game at Texas on May 12 while sliding back into 2nd base (from 3rd base side) and was sidelined until Sep. 4 . . . During September, he pinch hit 5 times . . . Played his way back into shape at LaGuaira in the Venezuelan League that winter.

Was the only Oriole eligible for re-entry in Nov. '78 and was selected by 7 clubs in addition to the O's . . . Was the first Oriole eligible to re-sign with Baltimore (the O's had lost all 7 re-entry players in the first 2 years of the system, '76 & '77).

1977: Hit over .300 for 2nd time in big league career despite a slow start (was batting .196 on Apr. 27) and a leg injury that slowed him down in late June, and took him out of the regular lineup for a month from July 11 to Aug. 12.

1976: Set career high with 9 home runs . . . Stole 42 bases in 52 tries.

"Rookie of the Year": Selected A.L. "rookie of the year" in '73 by both BBWAA and The Sporting News after batting .327 . . . Teammate Rich Coggins was 2nd in the TSN poll . . . Is one of 5 O's to have won a "rookie" award along with Ron Hansen-'60, Curt Blefary-'65, Eddie Murray-'77 and Cal Ripken-'82.

Odds and Ends: Set club record and tied the A.L. mark with 3 triples against Milwaukee on Sep. 23, '73 in the game that clinched the Eastern Division title for the O's . . . Had 3 doubles in a game twice in '75 (vs. K.C. May 23 and vs. Det. July 2) . . . Beat out 3 bunts for hits vs. California July 10, '75.

Minors: Led the International League in batting (.345) and triples (15) in '72 when he was named Topps/National Association "player of the year" in that league . . . Started that season in Asheville, ended it in Baltimore, and hit .300 for 3 different ball clubs.

After returning from 2 years of active duty in the U.S. Army, he played at Aberdeen, S.D. in '71 and finished 2nd in the Northern League batting race to teammate Bob Bailor.

Amateur Background: Went to Virginia State College in Petersburg (graduated '68) on a basketball scholarship after averaging 32 points a game as a senior at Ralph Bunche High School in King George, Va . . . Played 4 years of basketball at Virginia State, but didn't play baseball until senior year . . . Won the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Assoc. batting title (.378) that year and was all-CIAA in both basketball and baseball.

Started playing baseball at Virginia State at the urging of the late Dick Bowie, who later signed him for the Orioles in June '68.

Personal: Was called to duty as a 2nd lieutenant (R.O.T.C.) in June '69, just 2 months after starting his pro career . . . Served 11 months in Vietnam as a platoon leader, earned a Bronze Star, and was discharged as a 1st lieutenant in May '71.

Is extremely active in the community and finished tied for 2nd in the '81 balloting for the Roberto Clemente Award, presented annually by Major League Baseball to the player who "best exemplifies the game, both on and off the field."

In recent years has been involved with numerous charities including the Maryland League for the Handicapped, the Santa Claus Anonymous Fund, Maryland Special Olympics, and the Muscular Dystrophy Foundation.

During the off-season, he makes numerous appearances for the Orioles and plays for the club's basketball team . . . Competed in the '80 Superstars competition in the Bahamas and advanced to the finals . . . Single.

YEAR	CLUB	AVG.	G	AB	R	H	2B	3B	HR	RBI	BB	SO	SB	CS	HP

Baltimore: Played 1st game for O's on July 1st and set career high with 6 rbi in Tiger Stadium (only a few blocks from where he grew up) . . . Hit a 3-run double in 3rd and 3-run homer in 5th, both off Milt Wilcox, in O's 9-5 win.

Enjoyed 2 other productive days in late August: 26th—went 3-for-4 with 3 rbi vs. Twins and scored from 2nd on Al Bumbry's sac fly in 9-0 win at Baltimore . . . 31st—hit a 3-run homer off Mike Morgan at Toronto to climax a 7-run 1st inning in a 10-2 victory.

His 2 club totals in games (146) and strikeouts (108) were career highs . . . Led O's in sac hits (8) . . . Started 53 of 1st 61 games with O's, then alternated with Glenn Gulliver thru much of September . . . Hit all 3 of his hrs for O's on the road (only career homer in Baltimore was off Dennis Martinez on Aug. 16, '79 for K.C.).

Spent 2 weeks working on his hitting with Ralph Rowe in Florida Instructional League after the World Series.

Seattle: Played in 65 of Mariners' 1st 73 games thru June 24th . . . Was designated for assignment the next day (6/25) . . . Hit 6 of his 7 homers for Mariners at the Kingdome . . . Hit 2 homers vs. Yankees at Seattle April 6th while driving in 4 runs.

Ironically, though he played less than half the season for M's, he led that club in rbi vs. Baltimore in '83 with 5 despite a .150 average (3-for-20) in 6 games . . . Homered with 2 on off Sammy Stewart at Seattle and drove in 4 runs on Apr. 30.

Fielding: Equipped with one of the strongest, if not the strongest, infield arms in baseball . . . Played exclusively at shortstop for Seattle (63 g, 97 po, 224 a, 12 e, 333 tc, .964 pct.) and was 3rd in league in chances when he left M's . . . Played only 3rd base for O's (79 g, 49 po, 162 a, 13 e, 224 tc, .942 pct.) . . . Had combined total of 25 errors.

Had played only 13 games at 3rd previous to joining Orioles (9 with KC in '79 and 4 with Cal. in '80) . . . Was brilliant at times and reasonably steady except for one erratic period . . . Committed only 2 errors in his 1st 24 games for O's, then made 9 miscues in next 21 games (Aug. 2 thru 26) . . . After that he was charged with only 2 more boots in last 36 games (regular season).

By Month: Hit .298 (25-for-84) in April (11 games), then batted .176 (62-for-353) the rest of the way . . . May-.120 (10-for-83), 25 g . . . June-.122 (6-for-49), 16 gms . . . July-.244 (19-for-78), 24 gms . . . Aug.-.218 (17-for-78), 25 gms . . . Sep.-Oct.-.154 (10-for-65), 32 gms.

ALCS/WS: Started all 9 post season games at 3rd for O's, went 4-for-31 (.129) and was charged with 2 errors in 37 chances afield.

Had 18 chances without a miscue in ALCS . . . Erred on 1st play of WS when he dropped Joe Morgan's popup near the mound . . . With 2 on & none out in 5th inning of final game, he made a fine play on Ivan DeJesus's grounder to his left and started a critical double play that silenced the Phillies threat.

He ("Curly") Rick Dempsey ("Moe") and Rich Dauer ("Larry") were named the "THREE STOOGES" in jest by Ken Singleton as a result of the trio's combined .221 regular season average . . . The nickname received a lot of attention during the WS, particularly after the threesome contributed 3 straight hits in the decisive 3-run 5th inning of game #2 (Todd beat out an intended sac bunt), Dauer's big game #4, and Dempsey's "mvp" award.

Todd had an rbi single in the O's 11-1 win at Chicago in ALCS #3.

1983 AND PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Vs. Opponents: Hit .327 (16-for-49) against Oakland in '83 . . . Career highs-.272 (34-for-125) vs. California; 18 rbi vs. Minnesota, and 4 homers vs. Detroit, Minnesota and New York.

Seattle ('82): Set career highs in most categories including games (136), hits (113), doubles (20), homers (16) and rbi (57) . . . The hr & rbi totals were a record for a Mariners' shortstop . . . Led league's shortstops in dp (98) and posted a .963 pct. (25 e, 679 tc).

Tied Bruce Bochte for club lead in gwrbi (9, including 4 in 7th or later) and was A.L. "player of week) when he batted .458 with 3 gwrbi from Apr. 19-25.

Chicago ('80-'81), Calif. ('80): After playing only 18 games for the Angels in '80 thru June 12 when he was dealt to White Sox, Todd became a regular for 1st time and appeared in 90 of the Sox' last 105 games, mostly as a starter at short.

In '81 he figured to be Chicago's regular at that position, but didn't play an inning . . . A lower back strain in spring training sidelined him during the 1st half and he sustained a broken bone in his left hand while working out during the strike. The latter injury sidelined him for the remainder of the year. He did get into 8 games at Edmondton (PCL) that season, however,

K.C. ('79): Played 48 games at short and 9 at 3b for the Royals after coming up from Omaha where he hit 7 home runs in only 22 games.

Phillies Organization ('73-'78): Was Phillies 2nd round pick in June '73 draft . . . Signed by Tony Lucadello . . . Voted best shortstop in American Association by league managers in '76 while playing at Oklahoma City, then the Phillies AAA farm club.

Made his big league debut late in '78, and went 2-for-4 in his 1st start, Oct. 2 vs. Pirates.

Personal: Graduated from Western High School in Detroit ('73) . . . He is of Mexican (father) and Hungarian (mother) descent . . . His father, Robert, played for several years in the Tigers' system . . .

Todd and his wife, the former Isabel Gonzales, have 2 sons: Thaddeus & Dario.

ORIOLES CONSECUTIVE GAME STREAKS

BROOKS ROBINSON holds the Oriole record for most consecutive games played. The great third baseman appeared in 463 straight games from Sep. 7, '60 thru Sep. 2, '63. EDDIE MURRAY is next in line with a 444 game streak from Aug. 21, '77 thru July 13, '80 and current Minnesota Twins manager BILLY GARDNER is third with a 361 game streak from June 9, '56 thru Aug. 4, '58.

1983 SEASON AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

After splitting the '82 season between 2nd and 3rd base, Rich moved back almost exclusively to 2nd in '83 and was again one of the league's top fielders . . . He struggled at the plate for most of the year, and despite a hot finish, he hit for the lowest average of his 7-year major league career (.235).

He finished 4th on the club in games (140) and at bats (459) and was once among the league's most difficult players to strike out (see below).

Batting: Rich batted just .205 (46-for-224) in 64 games before the all-star break before improving to .264 (62-for-235 in 76 2nd half games.

Hit safely in his 1st 7 games of the season (longest streak of the year) at a .310 (9-for-29) clip but then went into a long slump and was hitting just .199 through July 12 . . . Batted .368 (21-for-57) over his next 16 games, lifting his average to .230. . . Went just 5-for-52 (.096) over his next 19 contests through Aug. 19 and dropped back to .211.

Fast Finish: Closed strongly for the 2nd straight year, hitting .312 (34-for-109) in his last 37 games, including a .400 (24-for-60) performance in a 19-game stretch from Aug. 20 thru Sep. 16 . . . In '82, batted .407 (22-for-54) over his last 14 games.

By Month: April-.234 (18-for-77), 20 g . . . May-.171 (12-for-70), 22 g . . . June-.206 (13-for-63), 19 g . . . July-.286 (26-for-91), 24 g . . . August-.185 (15-for-81), 28 g . . . September-.297 (22-for-74), 26 g . . . October-.667 (2-for-3), 1 g.

Aprils: After starting strong for the previous two seasons, Rich hit only .234 in April '83, giving him a .251 (94-for-375) career average in the season's 1st month . . . Prior to '81, slow starts were the rule for Rich as he batted just .197 (35-for-178) in his 1st 4 Aprils ('77 thru '80) . . . Improved to .298 in '81 and a career best .375 in '82.

Strikeouts: Rich fanned just 29 times in 520 plate appearances, an average of once 17.93 times up . . . That ranked 3rd in the American League (minimum 400 p.a.) behind Boston Red Sox teammates Wade Boggs (1/19.03) and Jerry Remy (1/18.49) . . . Pittsburgh's Johnny Ray led the majors at 23.96, followed by Chicago's Bill Buckner (1/22.20), who had led the previous 3 seasons, and St. Louis' Ken Oberkfell (1/20.63).

Rich led the A.L. in strikeout "in-frequency" in '80 (1/32.5), was 3rd in '81 (1/22.44) and 2nd in '82 (1/18.41) . . . Lifetime, has fanned once every 18.82 plate appearances (189 strikeouts, 3557 p.a.), the best ratio in the league . . . Buckner's career figure (1/23.99) tops the majors with Ray second (1/20.78).

Vs. Opponents: He hit .405 (17-for-42) vs. California, .316 (12-for-38) against Milwaukee, and .208 (79-for-379) vs. the rest of the A.L. . . . Hit .500 (11-for-22) in his last 6 games vs. the Angels.

Lifetime, has a .310 (86-for-277) average versus California and a .297 (79-for-266) mark against Milwaukee . . . Has career bests of 5 homers vs. Toronto and 35 rbi against Milwaukee and Blue Jays . . . See pages 34-37 for complete statistics against opponents.

Miscellaneous: Hit .252 (57-for-226) at home but just .219 (51-for-233) on the road . . . Had season high of 4 hits vs. Minnesota on September 13 . . . Grounded into 20 double plays . . . Stole 1st base since June 15, '80 on Aug. 12 at Chicago.

Sustained 2 severe lacerations on his left ankle while pivoting on a double play (Jim Rice slid into his ankle) on June 11 at Boston and missed 2 games . . . Is 9th on the club's all-time list in at bats (3,224) and 10th in games (928), hits (841), and doubles (160).

Post-Season: After going 1-for-25 in his 1st 7 post-season games (0-for-14 in 4 ALCS games, 1-for-11 in 1st 3 world series contests), Rich exploded with a 3-for-4, 3 rbi performance in game 4 on Oct. 14 at Philadelphia . . . Put the Orioles on top with 2-run bases-loaded single in the 4th inning, doubled to keep a rally alive in the 6th, and drove in what proved to be the winning run with a single in the 7th . . . Also started a key doubleplay that killed a Phillies rally in the 4th.

Started all 9 games in post-season with a composite average of .121 (4-for-33) and did not commit an error in 32 chances (12 ALCS; 20 WS).

FIELDING

Second Base: Rich was 4th among A.L. 2nd basemen in fielding with a .988 percentage (7 errors in 602 total chances), trailing K.C.'s Frank White, Minnesota's John Castino, and Boston's Remy (all at .990) . . . Longest errorless game streak was a 27-game span from May 3 thru June 8.

His career fielding percentage of .988 (43 errors in 3650 total chances) in 770 games is well above the existing A.L. mark for "highest percentage, 10 or more years, or 1000 or more games," both currently held by late Nellie Fox (.984).

Led A.L. with a .989 percentage in '81 and was 2nd at .987 in '82 . . . Played 76 consecutive errorless games at 2nd (400 chances) from July 12, '80, until booting a ground ball on Apr. 25, '81 . . . It was the 2nd longest streak of his career, 10 games shy of the previous one in '77-'78 (see below).

Third Base: He fielded .947 (1 error in 19 total chances) in 17 games at 3rd (5 starts) . . . His career percentage at 3rd is .964 (17 e in 466 tc) in 222 games . . . Played a career high 61 games at the hot corner in '82 and fielded .991, the highest percentage among all A.L. 3rd basemen who appeared in 10 or more games.

Fielding Records, '78: He set 2 one season major league records for 2nd basemen in '78: (1) 86 consecutive errorless games, and (2) 424 consecutive chances without an error. Both records were eclipsed as major league marks by Philadelphia's Manny Trillo, when he handled 479 consecutive chances without an error over 89 games from Apr. 7 to July 31, '82 . . . However, Rich's performance is still the A.L. record in both categories.

Until he threw a ball away in the final game of '78, he hadn't made an error at 2nd all season. His efforts broke the previous marks of the Mets Ken Boswell (85 straight errorless games in '70) and of the late Ken Hubbs of the Cubs (418 errorless chances in '62). Ironically, Hubbs, killed in the crash of a plane he was piloting in Feb. '64, was from Rich's hometown (Colton, CA).

Rich set the A.L. records in those departments, formerly held by Bobby Doerr, Red Sox (73 games and 414 chances, both in '48).

Strangely, Dauer, who fielded .998 that year didn't qualify for the percentage title because he played too few games at 2nd (87 played, 108 required).

He had played one errorless game at the end of '77, but his "more than one season" streaks of 87 games and 433 chances fell short of the existing major league records held respectively by Cincinnati's Joe Morgan-91 ('77-'78) and Baltimore's Jerry Adair-458 ('64-'65) . . . Trillo also broke Adair's mark for chances but fell 2 games shy of Morgan's record.

1982: Set career highs for games (158), at bats (558), runs (75), triples (2), and walks (50) while leading O's with 11 sacrifice hits . . . Played almost exclusively at 2nd base until early July, then alternated between 2nd (vs. righthanders) and 3rd (vs. lefthanders) the rest of the season . . . That change was a result of Cal Ripken's moving from 3rd to shortstop.

1981: Led the Orioles in doubles and topped A.L. 2nd basemen in fielding . . . Was batting .284 thru Aug. 28 but hit just .226 the rest of the way.

1980: Had best overall season . . . Set personal highs in 7 offensive categories, including average (.284) and rbi (63), led A.L. in strikeout "in-frequency", and was 2nd among league's 2nd basemen in fielding percentage.

1979: Tied Eddie Murray for the club lead with 14 game-winning rbi and set a career high with 9 homers . . . Drew 4 of his 36 walks in one game, vs. Oakland on May 8 at Baltimore.

1978: Became a full-time regular on June 12, 1st as a 3rd base substitute for the injured Doug DeCinces, then when Doug returned, as starting 2nd baseman.

1976-77: Came up to O's 1st time in Sep. '76 and went 4-for-39 in 11 games. Then in '77, started as regular at 2nd, but went 0-for-26 until May 13 and was only 1-for-41 thru May 31 . . . At that point his major league career average was .063 (5-for-80). Also had 0-for-25 string at Memorial Stadium (including 0-for-5 in '76) before getting his 1st hit at home on June 11, '77 (off Chicago's Ken Brett).

After 1-for-41 start, Rich batted .278 (73-for-263) the rest of '77 . . . Recorded his 1st big league hit in his 1st at bat, on Sep. 11², '76, a single off Brewers' Jim Colborn at Milwaukee.

Minor League Career: Spent only 3 seasons in the minors after jumping directly from Univ. of Southern California campus to the "AA" Southern league in '74 after being signed by Ray Poitevint . . . Had been selected 3 times previously in free agent draft by Oakland (twice) and Cleveland before chosen 1st by Baltimore in June '74.

Won International League batting title at Rochester in '76 (.336) . . . Was also selected as league's "co-mvp" with Mickey Klutts of Syracuse and Toledo's Joe Lis, named to I.L. all-star team, and topped loop in hits (176).

AMATEUR BACKGROUND

He played two years at San Bernardino Valley College then transferred to Southern Cal.

U.S.C.: Rich played on two national championship teams ('73 & '74) at U.S.C. (they were fourth and fifth straight for Coach Rod Dedeaux' Trojans) . . . While he was there, Rich played with Roy Smalley, Fred Lynn, Steve Kemp and Pete Redfern . . . Senior year, he was a first team all-American and set NCAA one-season records in hits (108), rbi (92) and total bases (181). He also established U.S.C. standards for homers (15), doubles (24) and runs (70), and his rbi total shattered the old school record of 67 set by Ron Fairly. Rich was selected to the '74 College World Series all-tournament team.

Colton High: He played baseball and football at Colton . . . He also participated in American Legion and Little, Pony and Colt League programs.

PERSONAL

Rich and his wife, the former Chris King of San Bernardino, were married Feb. 1, '75, and are the parents of a daughter, Casey Lynn (3/24/81) . . . During the off-season, Rich plays a lot of racquetball, represents the ballclub as an after-dinner speaker, and is a key member of the Orioles basketball team.

THE 1983 SEASON

In his 1st season as a full-time starter, Storm led the Orioles with 125 strikeouts, was 2nd on the club in innings pitched (200.1) and starts (29), and 3rd in wins (13) and complete games (6) . . . Despite experiencing some arm and neck problems late in the season, won the game that clinched the A.L. Division title for the O's, then pitched well in the postseason (see below).

Season Summary: As a starter, Storm was 13-7 with a 3.62 era in 29 starts (186.2 ip, 164 h, 83 r, 75 er, 58 bb, 115 so, 12 hr).

Was 6-3 with a 3.23 era (37 er/103 ip) in 19 games (14 starts) before the all-star break and 7-4 with a 3.98 era (43 er/97.1 ip) in 15 starts thereafter.

Early Season: He began the year as a long reliefer and just one of his 1st 6 appearances was a start, Apr. 19 vs. Texas (no decision) . . . Had no record and a 3.29 era (5 er/13.2 ip) in his 5 relief efforts.

Full-Time Starter: Storm joined the regular rotation on May 1, replacing the disabled Jim Palmer . . . Was 2-0 in his 1st 4 starts (May 1 thru 18) with a 1.05 era (3 er/25.2 ip) . . . Dropped 3 of his next 4 outings, allowing 15 earned runs in 20 innings.

Went 7-1 over his next 11 starts from June 10 thru Aug. 3, compiling a 2.96 era (27 er/82 ip) and hurling 5 of his 6 complete games in that span . . . Four of these cgs came over 5 starts, July 1 thru 23 . . . Had winning streaks of 3 and 4 games in that period.

Finished the season 3-3 in his last 9 games starting Aug. 8 with a 4.89 era (29 er/53.1 ip) as he was bothered by injuries . . . Missed one turn on Aug. 13 with stiffness in his forearm and was bothered by a stiff neck the final 3 weeks of the regular season.

Shutout at Fenway: Storm hurled his 1st major league shutout against Boston on June 10 at Fenway Park, stopping the Red Sox on 3 singles, 3-0 . . . Was the 1st shutout by an Oriole pitcher against the Red Sox since Sep. 24, '76 (Wayne Garland at Baltimore), and the 1st by a Baltimore hurler at Fenway Park since Aug. 5, '75 (Jim Palmer).

Near No-Hitter: He became the 7th pitcher in Orioles' history to lose a no-hitter in the 9th inning on June 26 against Detroit at Baltimore

. . . Held the Tigers hitless (one walk) for 8 full innings before pinch-hitter Rick Leach opened the top of the 9th inning with a home run. Leach's 2nd career homer vs. Storm . . . Until that point, Detroit's greatest threat came in the 6th, when Eddie Murray made an outstanding stop on Marty Castillo's hard grounder and retired him, unassisted.

Following Leach's homer, Storm walked John Grubb and was replaced by Tippy Martinez . . . Tippy allowed a single to Enos Cabell but got out of further trouble to preserve the 2-hit, 3-1 victory.

The last Oriole to carry a no-hitter into the 9th was Mike Flanagan, who stopped Cleveland for 8.2 innings on Sep. 26, '78 before a homer by Gary Alexander . . . Flanny's was the closest of the "near no-no's".

Clincher: He had been sidelined for 10 days because of a stiff neck when he beat Milwaukee, 5-1, on Sep. 25 at County Stadium to give the O's their 7th Eastern Division title . . . Allowed just 3 hits and one unearned run over the 1st 6 innings before Tippy came on to earn the save . . . Jim Dwyer and Joe Nolan homered for Baltimore.

Strikeouts: He fanned 93 batters in his 1st 22 appearances thru July 18 but just 32 over his final 12 starts . . . Had a season high 9 strikeouts vs. Seattle on June 18 and fanned 8 batters each in 3 consecutive starts, June 21 thru July 1.

Miscellaneous: He won immediately following an Oriole loss 7 times and ended 5 losing streaks of 2 or more games . . . Was 2-0 vs. Detroit, Kansas City, and Oakland . . . Tippy Martinez saved 5 of his wins.

Was 11-2 with a 3.81 era (46 er/108.2 ip) in 18 games (15 starts on the road . . . Finished just 2-5 in 16 appearances (14 starts) at home but had a lower era at 3.34 (34 er/91.2 ip) . . . Has a 14-4 lifetime mark in enemy ballparks.

Post-Season: Storm started game 4 of the ALCS at Comiskey Park and blanked the White Sox on 5 hits thru the 1st 6 innings, walking 2 and fanning 2 . . . With the score 0-0, Tippy Martinez came on in the 7th and shutout Chicago the rest of the way, as the Orioles scored 3 runs in the 10th to capture the A.L. pennant for the 6th time.

Was also the Baltimore starter in game 4 of the world series . . . Allowed 6 hits and 3 runs in 5 innings but received credit for the win as the O's scored twice in the top of the 6th to turn a 2-3 deficit into a 3-2 lead . . . Tippy saved the 5-4 victory.

Youngest: For the 2nd straight year, he was the youngest player in the American League until the rosters expanded in September . . . Made his major league debut in Apr. '82 at 20 years, 4 months of age, the youngest Oriole to appear in a major league game since Mike Adamson (19 yrs., 9 mos.) in July '67.

1982: Was used as a long reliefer and spot starter in rookie season after being recalled from Rochester for good on May 15 (had made one appearance earlier) . . . Was 5-2 in 8 starts with his best effort being a 6-hit, 7-1 triumph over Milwaukee on Oct. 1[2], his 1st major league complete game . . . Won 5 of last 6 decisions after Aug. 25.

Pro Career: Pitched only 4 games at triple-A level, those coming at Rochester in '82 . . . Finished 2nd in the Southern League in wins (14) and tied for 3rd in starts (28) at Charlotte in '80 . . . Also topped O's in innings (187) and strikeouts (119).

In '80 paced Miami (51-85) in wins (9) and strikeouts (90) . . . In '79, led Bluefield in strikeouts (54 in 58 innings) and starts (10).

Amateur Career: Was 42-3 in 3 seasons at University Christian High School (graduated'79) . . . Struck out 496 batters in 278 innings and had a 0.45 era . . . Earned all-conference, all-region, and team "mvp" honors in all 3 seasons and was all-state as junior and senior . . . Played 1st base when not pitching . . . Also starred in football and basketball. Played Little League baseball.

Nickname: George's nickname, "Storm" originated before he was born . . . While Mrs. Davis was pregnant with George, she was reading a book about a character named Dr. Storm . . . She wanted her son to have the same qualities as the character possessed, thus the nickname.

Personal: His father, George, Sr., now head football and baseball coach at Temple Christian Academy, coached Storm from age 6 thru high school . . . His mother is a radio talk show hostess in Jacksonville.

Is actively involved with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes . . . Competed in the Superstars competition at Key Biscayne in late January . . . He and his wife, Angie (Angeline Leonara Gay) were married Sep. 6, '80.

Rick set a club record for games caught lifetime (862), surpassing Gus Triandos' old standard of 784; led major league catchers in fielding percentage (.997) for the 2nd time in 3 years while committing only 2 errors in 658 chances, and was charged with only one passed ball all year. It was the 6th straight year that he done the majority of the catching for the Orioles.

However, Rick's crowning achievement was his performance during the World Series, an effort which earned him the WS "MVP" Award (a Pontiac Trans Am from SPORT Magazine) by unanimous vote after batting .385 (5-for-13) with a record 5 extra base hits (4 2bh + 1 hr) for a 5-game series and throwing out Joe Morgan twice in 3 stolen base attempts (Morgan was the only Phillie to test Rick's arm).

Post-Season Details: Had a combined .280 (7-for-25) average in 9 post-season games in '83, (he started all of them) but his lifetime post-season average for 19 games (7 ALCS, 12 WS) is .304 (17-for-56) . . . See his career stats above for details.

In game #1 he threw out Morgan stealing in the 1st inning but was 0-for-2 before leaving for a pinch-hitter . . . In game #2 he picked up the gwrbi in the O's 3-run 5th inning rally with an rbi double off Charlie Hudson (after Lowenstein had tied it at 1-1 with a lead off homer).

In game #3 he contributed a pair of doubles and scored the tying run in the 7th (in a 3-2 victory, Palmer over Carlton), and nailed Morgan again, in the bottom of the 7th. In game #4, Rick was 0-for-1 with an intentional walk before Ken Singleton batted for him in the decisive 6th . . . And, in game #5, he homered off Hudson in the 3rd (after Murray had broken the ice an inning earlier), then doubled and scored the O's 5th and final run in the 5th.

During the ALCS, both Rudy Law and Julio Cruz stole 2 bases . . . Law stole twice in the 2nd game and Cruz swiped a pair in game #4, in both of which the Sox were blanked . . . Rick threw out Tom Paciorek in game #2.

In '79 WS he was credited with 2 caught stealings in 2 attempts, both in game #2 (Bill Madlock and Matt Alexander) . . . After that, only one Pirate tried to run (Madlock in game #4) and Dave Skaggs threw him out . . . In '79 ALCS Rod Carew was the only Angel to run on Rick and Rod didn't make it (game #1).

By Month: April-.143 (6-for-42), 15 g . . . May-.246 (15-for-61), 21 g . . . June-.306 (19-for-62), 22 g . . . July-.217 (13-for-60), 22 g . . . August-.222 (14-for-63), 22 g . . . Sep.-Oct.-.220 (13-for-59), 26 g.

Miscellaneous: Reached an average high of .246 on July 1st . . . Ejected by Vic Voltaggio on July 3rd at Detroit on a called 3rd strike dispute . . .

1983 AND CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Fielding: Has led majors in fielding twice ('81-.998 with only 1 error in abbreviated season, and '83-.997) . . . Has made only 8 errors in last 3 seasons . . . Played 97 consecutive games without error in '83 over a period of nearly 4½ months (from May 18 thru Sep. 29). Went 57 straight games without error in '81. Was 3rd in A.L. last year in assists (65) behind Bob Boone (83) and Lance Parrish (73). Led A.L. in assists in '79 with 81.

His lifetime fielding percentage is .986 (62 e, 4869 tc, 490 a) in 961 games. With the Orioles in 862 games it is .989 (49 e, 4422 tc, 445 a) . . . His one passed ball in '83 was easily the lowest total among all big league qualifiers (Bruce Benedict, Atlanta, was next lowest with 4).

Eraser Rate: Had a .366 success rate against the stolen base in '83 (30 cs, 52 sb) compared to the league average of .326 (744 cs, 1540 sb).

Has thrown out 249 base-stealers in 581 attempts (see chart below) since joining O's (.429) and has picked off 16 other base-runners in the last 6 years.

Nailed the first 9 base-stealers to run against him in '81 and in spring training that year threw out 10 in a row at one stretch . . . Is only catcher ever to nip Julio Cruz stealing twice in a game Sep. 1, '81 (with Steve Stone pitching).

Threw out 4 Angels in one game May 12, '77 at Anaheim (Bobby Grich, Gil Flores, Jerry Remy and Don Baylor) and has gunned down 3 in a game on 7 occasions (most recently July 8, '83 vs. Seattle, Spike Owen twice, and Dave Henderson) . . . Also threw out 2 base-stealers in a game 4 times in '83.

Year-by-Year Record for O's:

	SB	CS	TC	Pct.		SB	CS	TC	Pct.
1976	23	21	44	.477	1980	47	34	81	.420

					Totals	332	249	581	.429

Vs. Opponents: Batted over .300 against 3 clubs in '83: .353 (6-for-17) vs. Twins; .306 (11-for-36) vs. Yankees and .304 (7-for-23) vs. Tigers . . . Has .309 (63-for-204) career average against Minnesota, the club that signed him originally . . . His home run high vs. a single adversary is 7 (of 42) vs. Boston.

PREVIOUS ORIOLES CAREER HIGHLIGHTS BY YEAR

1982: Hit .304 (48-for-158) after the all-star break and .323 (21-for-65) during the O's stretch run in September-October. Went 2-for-3 in the climactic Oct. 3 tussle. Experimented with switch-hitting in the Fla. Instructional League, spring training and early in the regular season, but gave it up in early May after going 2-for-13 (hits off Dennis Leonard on opening day and Angel Moreno).

1981: Led A.L. catchers in fielding pct. at .998 but compiled his lowest full season average with the O's (.215).

1980: Batted .293 (56-for-192) from July 1 thru end of year (66 games) to wind up at .262, matching his best previous average ('75 with Yankees) . . . Set career highs in hr (9), 2bh (26) and rbi (51).

O's catching combo of Dempsey and Graham contributed 93 rbi (while catching only). It was 2nd highest combined total in club history, behind '73-103 (Earl Williams-65, Andy Etchebarren-23 and Ellie Hendricks-15).

Rick, Graham and Dave Skaggs amassed 90 assists to tie Texas catchers for league lead . . . Played 6 games in outfield and 2 at 1b.

1979: Led A.L. catchers in assists (81) . . . Was batting .278 in mid-June, then tailed off to a final .239.

Rick, Dennis Martinez, Ken Singleton and Earl Weaver accompanied a selected group of major league all-stars on a post-season playing tour of Japan.

1978: Batted .293 from June 23rd to end of year . . . Was hitting only .209 thru June 22, but finished at .259 . . . Had 2 4-hit days at Kingdome . . . Had a 3-for-4 day with a home run on Aug. 30 off Ron Guidry who was 25-3 with a 1.74 era that year.

1977: Became a major league regular for 1st time and caught in 79 of O's 1st 83 games thru July 8 . . . That night he was hit by a Don Gullett pitch which broke a bone in his left index finger . . . Came off the disabled list Aug. 21 (Brooks Robinson went on voluntarily retired list to accomodate his return), but caught in only 12 more games the rest of the way.

1976: After joining O's in mid-June, he shared catching duties with Dave Duncan . . . Played 3 games in outfield . . . Batted .213 (37-for-174) for the O's and .119 (5-for-42) for the Yankees.

YANKEES AND TWINS

Yankees: Spent 1st year in Yankees organization ('73) at Syracuse, but was called up to N.Y. in Sep. . . . In '76, he played 21 games for Yankees including first 4 of season as starting catcher while Thurman Munson recovered from hand injury (but was in lineup as dh).

Twins: Recalled by Twins in Sep. for 3 straight years ('69 thru '71) then started '72 in Minnesota before being assigned to Tacoma (PCL).

Was chosen by Twins in 14th round of June '67 draft and was signed by former Phila. A's pitcher Jesse Flores . . . Was 2 time all-star selection in Southern League while playing for Charlotte, then a Minnesota farm club ('70-'71) . . . Was "mvp" in N.Y.-Penn League in '68.

PERSONAL

Rick's 27-year old brother, Pat, also a catcher, spent 6 years in the A's organization ('77-'82) before signing as a free agent with O's for '83. Pat played at Charlotte & Rochester last year and is on Rochester's '84 roster . . . He was A's #2 pick in January '77 draft . . . Rick's sister, Cherie is a professional golfer.

Rick attended Crespi High School in Encino, CA . . . His father, George T. Dempsey, played in the Broadway production of SONG OF NORWAY after World War II.

Rick is something of a thespian himself . . . Has given his famous "Baseball Soliloquy in Pantomime" twice in Fenway Park during rain delays, and last year did his skit with a Robin Yount theme in Milwaukee.

He and his wife, the former Johanna (Joanni) DeMatteo, were married Feb. 1, '69 . . . They have 2 sons: John (8/18/71) and Christian Matthew (3/1/78) . . . The Dempseys own homes in Agoura, CA and Timonium, MD and split the off-season between the two locales.

Rick competed in the Superstars competition in Florida in Jan. '82.

Jim saw his most action in 3 years with the Orioles, starting 36 games in right field, one in left field, and 3 at 1st base . . . Also batted .294 (5-for-17) with a homer and 4 rbi as a designated hitter and was the club's busiest pinch-hitter, hitting .242 (8-for-33) with a home run and 9 rbi in 41 appearances.

Set career highs for doubles (17) and walks (31) while matching his best for rbi (38) . . . His 8 homers was the 2nd best total to his 9 in '80.

Batting: He hit .257 (18-for-70) with 4 homers and 7 rbi in 43 games before the all-star break and .302 (38-for-126) with 4 homers and 31 rbi in 57 2nd half contests.

Hit safely in his 1st 6 games of the season, extending his batting streak over 2 seasons (inc. last 7 games of '82) to a career high 13 games . . . Batted .439 (18-for-41) in that period.

Struggled at the plate over the next 2½ months (Apr. 21 thru July 1), hitting .205 (9-for-44) in 32 games to drop his average from .333 to .246.

Batting Surge: At that point, went on one of the hottest hitting tears by an Oriole all season . . . In a 19-game span from July 2 thru Aug. 5, batted .488 (21-for-43) with 9 doubles, 1 triple, 3 homers and 19 rbi to improve his average to .343 . . . Had his 1st major league 4-hit game vs. California on July 17, going 4-for-5 with 3 doubles ('83 team high) and 4rbi . . . Drove in 9 runs over 3 games, July 17 thru 19.

Went into another slump, hitting just .147 (10-for-68) in 31 games between Aug. 6 and Sep. 22 to drop from .343 to .273 . . . Batted .400 (8-for-20) with 7 rbi in last 9 games of season.

At Memorial Stadium: Hit .330 (34-for-103) with 3 homers and 21 rbi at home but just .237 (22-fo-93) with 5 homers and 17 rbi on the road . . . In the last 2 seasons, has a .333 (54-for-162) batting mark at Memorial Stadium.

Pinch-Hitting: Placed among the A.L. pinch-hit leaders in appearances (2nd, 41), doubles (2nd, 4), and rbi (tied for 3rd, 9) . . . Hit pinch homer on May 20 off Toronto's Randy Moffitt.

Odds and Ends: Hit .370 (17-for-46) with 29 rbi with runners in scoring position, the 2nd best average on the club . . . Stroked game-winning 3-run homer at Milwaukee on Sep. 25 to clinch A.L. Eastern Division title for the O's . . . Made an outstanding catch to rob Boston's Chico Walker of an 8th inning home run on Sep. 6.

Has a .347 (35-for-101) career average with 7 of his 28 A.L. homers against Toronto.

Post-Season: In the ALCS, was 0-for-1 as a pinch-hitter in game 1 and 1-for-3 with a double as a starter in right in game 3 . . . Scored the O's 1st run in that 11-1 win.

Started in right in games 1 and 4 of the world series . . . Became the 18th player in world series history to homer in his 1st WS plate appearance when he took John Denny deep in the 1st inning of game one . . . Was 2-for-5 with a double and 2 runs scored in game 4.

1982: Hit .300 for the 1st time in his career (.304) while compiling a .411 on-base percentage . . . Hit .383 (18-for-47) in his last 15 games of the year, including .550 (11-for-20) in the last 7.

Reached base safely a club record 13 consecutive times on 8 hits (7 singles & a double) and 5 walks from final at bat on Sep. 29 thru final at bat on Oct. 2 . . . Fell 3 shy of Ted Williams' major league mark of 16 in Sep. '57 (2 singles, 4 hr, 9 bb, 1 hp).

1981: Batted .271 (23-for-85) in the 1st half but just .143 (7-for-49) after play resumed in August . . . Gave Dennis Martinez a 1-0 win with "sudden death" homer in bottom of 9th off Detroit's Dan Petry, Sep. 23.

Red Sox: Set career highs in '80 in at bats (260), runs (41), hits (74), homers (9), and rbi (38) despite missing 27 games with injuries . . . Batted .538 (21-for-38) as a dh that year.

In '79 joined Boston in spring training and went on to be Red Sox' top pinch-hitter at .318 (7-for-12) with 5 rbi.

National League: Logged all or parts of 6 seasons in N.L. from '73 thru '78 with St. Louis, Montreal, New York, and San Francisco . . . Also did time in Cubs' organization but did not appear in a big league game for them.

'78, St.L.-S.F.: Started season with Cardinals but was traded to Giants June 15 after batting .215 in 34 games . . . Hit .225 with Giants in 73 games with 5 gwrbi, 7 steals in 7 tries and 7 outfield assists.

'77, Chi.-St.L.: Acquired by Cubs in Dec. '76 and went to spring training as non-roster player . . . Spent entire season at Wichita (American Assoc.), won batting title (.332) and led circuit in runs (113), hits 154 and doubles (38) . . .

Despite that effort, Cubs released him in Sep. and he signed with St. Louis where he appeared in 13 games in the final month of the year.

'76, Mtl.-N.Y. Mets: Began year with Expos, but hit only .185 in 50 games and was traded to Mets July 21 . . . He was optioned to Tidewater Aug. 27, but recalled Sep. 6.

'75, St.L.-Mtl.: Hit .194 in 31 games for Cardinals before being optioned to Tulsa (American Assoc.) in mid-June . . . Was traded to Montreal July 25 and played in 60 of Expos' final 69 games, batting .286 with 3 homers and 20 rbi . . . Batted .478 for Expos during week of July 28 thru Aug. 3 to earn N.L. "player of the week" honors.

'73-'74, St.L.: Made major league debut with Cardinals June 10, '73 at Atlanta . . . His 1st hit was off Jack Billingham on June 13 . . . Returned to minors in late July.

Started '74 with Cards, was optioned to Tulsa in late April and called up again June 21 . . . Had 3 game winning hits as pinch-hitter that year.

Minors: Was signed for Cardinals by Fred McAlister . . . Had a career minor league average of .335 (597-for-1784) in 488 games including a .354 (378-for-1067) mark in 294 games at AAA level . . . Twice won batting crown in American Association: '73-.387, '77-.332 . . . Led California League in triples (13) in '72.

Amateur Background: Played 3 seasons at Southern Illinois University in Carbondale . . . Earned all-American and NCAA District-4 all-star honors in '70 and was SIU's "mvp" in '71 when he set school records for hits, doubles and triples . . . He and Duane Kuiper were teammates on the '71 club that went to College World Series finals.

Lettered in baseball at St. Lawrence of Tolentine High in Oaklawn, Ill. (graduated '68) . . . Selected as all-star in baseball '67 & '68 and basketball in '68.

Personal: Received degree in accounting from SIU in '73 . . . Is nephew of former Giants' minor league player Don Dwyer . . . Hobbies: golf and listening to music.

He and his wife, the former Carol Ann Norton, were married Feb. 18, '72, and are parents of 2 sons: Ryan (10/19/75) and Everett (4/24/80).

Fast Start: Mike jumped off to his best start ever, going 6-0 in his first 8 starts with a 2.73 era (16 er, 52.2 ip) . . . It was the fastest beginning by an Oriole since Dave McNally went 15-0 to open the '69 season.

Included in that stretch were 3 complete games including a 1-0, shutout vs. Gaylord Perry (Seattle) for win #6 on May 11.

Injury: On May 17 (1st gm) vs. Chicago Mike sustained ligament damage to his left knee in the 1st inning while trying to field a ground ball by Tony Bernazard. He apparently twisted the knee after catching his spikes on the mound.

Though he did not require surgery, the knee was placed in an immobilizer for several weeks before he began a strenuous therapy and rehabilitation program. When he returned to action 11½ weeks later, Mike wore a flexible, but cumbersome brace for the rest of the season.

Return: Re-activated on Aug. 7, Mike lost his first 2 starts, both to the White Sox' Lamarr Hoyt (Aug. 7 & 12), before beating Texas on Aug. 17 . . . That was his 1st victory in 14 weeks (since May 11).

From Aug. 28 thru Sep. 17, he reeled off 5 straight wins in 5 starts and was 6-1 during the O's stretch run from Aug. 13 thru Sep. 25 during which the Birds were 34-10.

By Month: April: 3-0, 5 gs, 3.41 . . . May: 3-0, 4 gs, 1.88 . . . June & July: did not pitch . . . August: 2-3, 5 gs, 4.76 . . . Sep.-Oct.: 4-1, 6 gs, 3.07.

1-0 Games: Had never been involved in a 1-0 game until '83 when he picked up 2 1-0 victories: vs. Seattle at Baltimore (Perry) on May 11 and Sep. 2 at Minnesota (Viola) with 9th inning help from Tim Stoddard . . . That was the 1st 1-0 game in HHH Metrodome's 2-year history.

Vs. Chicago: Mike had a tough year against the Sox until the ALCS . . . He was 0-2 in 4 starts vs. Chicago with a 7.11 era and, of course, suffered his knee injury while pitching against them. However, he did earn a measure of revenge with his 11-1 win in game #3 of the ALCS at Chicago though he went only 5 innings (see "ALCS Review", page 68).

Miscellaneous: Was 8-3 at home (3.50 era) and 4-1 on the road (3.02 era) . . . Over a 5 game stretch between Aug. 17 & Sep. 7, Mike faced able success against base-stealers . . . Fifty-nine (59) have been nailed

1983 & CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Winning: During his 7 years as a regular in the O's rotation, Mike has gone 141-77 (.638), compared to the O's 640-432 (.597) record in that period.

Last 6 Years: Over the past 6 years Mike has started more games than any other in the A.L. (190), followed by Tommy John (189, incl. '78 with Dodgers), Larry Gura (186), Dennis Eckersley (182) and Ron Guidry (179).

He ranks tied for 2nd with Tommy John in wins (94) in that period behind Guidry (106), one ahead of Scott McGregor . . . In innings over that span, Mike is 4th (1275) behind Gura (1359.1), Guidry (1329.1) and McGregor (1306) and ahead of Dennis Eckersley (1267).

Last 7 Years: Over the past 7 campaigns, starting '77, Mike leads in starts (223) ahead of Eckersley (215) and Guidry and Dennis Leonard (204 each) . . . In innings he's 3rd with 1510 behind Guidry (1540) and Eckersley (1514) and ahead of Gura (1466).

In victories with 109, Mike trails only Guidry (122) and John (114, incl. '77 & '78 in N.L.) . . . Next in the ranking is Dennis Leonard (104).

Pick Offs/Caught Stealing: He picked off 3 runners in '83 and now has a career total of 47 pick offs (including those scored as "caught stealing") . . . Since becoming a regular in '77, Mike has had considerable success against base-stealers . . . Fifty-nine (59) have been nailed and only 52 have made it, an efficiency pct. of .532.

O's All-Time List: Ranks 4th on the O's list in wins (112) behind Jim Palmer (268), Dave McNally (181) and Mike Cuellar (143) . . . Is 5th in strikeouts (922), innings (1605) and losses (74) . . . See page 7 for more details.

'83 CS/WS: Made 2 post-season starts and was 1-0 . . . He worked a total of 9 innings, allowing 11 hits and 3 earned runs (2.70). Went 5 innings vs. Richard Dotson in ALCS #3 and earned an 11-1 win (see "ALCS Review" page 68).

Also started against Steve Carlton in WS #3, but left after 4 innings, trailing 2-0. Palmer ultimately picked up the 3-2 win in a game featuring 3 Cy Young winners.

'79 ALCS/WS: Started ALCS #2 and, after yielding a 1st inning homer to Don Ford, became beneficiary of 9-1 lead after 3 innings . . . Came out in the 8th in favor of Don Stanhouse after failing to retire 1st 3 batters and got the win, 9-8, though Angels had bases loaded when game ended.

In the WS vs. Pirates, Mike won the opener, 5-4, after being staked to a 5-0 lead in the 1st . . . Lost game #5 at Pittsburgh. He was down only by 2-1 when he left in 6th for pinch-hitter, but Bucs went on to win 7-1 . . . Was one of 5 reliefers to work in the 9th inning of game #7.

Cy Young/Other Awards: After his 23-9 season in '79, he was landslide winner of BBWAA award, capturing 26 1sts and 2 2nds among 28 ballots cast for a total of 136 points (5-3-1) . . . He was only one named on all ballots and was well ahead of Yankee lefties Tommy John (1 1st, 51 points) and Ron Guidry (1 1st, 26 points).

That was one of 6 Cy Youngs won by O's in 12 year period from '69 thru '80 . . . See list under "Awards" on page 19.

Mike was also named A.L. "pitcher of the year" by TSN and was named the top southpaw on TSN, AP & UPI All-Star Teams . . . Was 6th (highest ranking pitcher) in MVP vote, and was named "graduate of the year" by both Junior American Legion and Babe Ruth programs. He also received the Clark Griffith Memorial Award for outstanding achievement by the Washington Touchdown Club.

Vs. Opponents: Mike was 2-0 against Minnesota and has now won 14 straight from the Twins since losing his first 2 career decisions to them, the latter on May 29, '77 . . . Has won his last 3 decisions vs. New York . . . Prior to the current string, he lost 5 in a row and before that won 5 straight . . . Lifetime, he's 9-7 . . .

He was 2-0 against Oakland and preserved his perfect record at the Coliseum where he is 9-0 lifetime (1-0 in '83) . . . Overall, he's 14-4 lifetime against the A's.

His 15 career wins vs. Toronto (vs. 5 losses) is a personal high against one opponent, and also represents the most wins by any pitcher against the 7-year old Jays . . . Mike was 0-1 against them in '83 and that defeat snapped a spotless record at Memorial Stadium where he is now 10-1 lifetime vs. Toronto.

Previous Injuries: His string of 157 straight starts without missing a turn ended late in '81 when he tore a muscle in his left forearm Aug. 23 . . . He didn't pitch again for 26 days . . . Prior to that he hadn't missed an assignment since June '77—more than 4 years, but had begun feeling stiffness as early as May 14 that year.

In '80 though he missed no time, Mike's effectiveness was diminished by a pain that developed in his shoulder June 27th.

After the '80 season his trouble was diagnosed as "tired arm" by both Dr. B. Stanley Cohen of Baltimore and Dr. Arthur Pappas, the Red Sox physician. They prescribed a continuing physical therapy and weight program.

In '78, Mike was plagued throughout the 2nd half with a persistent case of tendinitis in the left ankle, a malady that severely hampered his efficiency.

Near No-Hitter-'78: Mike is one of 7 Baltimore pitchers over the past 30 years deprived of a no-hitter in the 9th inning (Storm Davis became the 7th in '83). On Sep. 26, '78 in Baltimore he had two down in the 9th when Cleveland's Gary Alexander homered into the low rows of the right field seats to spoil the no-hitter . . . He then gave up singles to Alfredo Griffin and Duane Kuiper, and Don Stanhouse came on to preserve the win.

The other victims: Bob Turley-'54, Don Ferrarese-'56, Dave McNally and Mike Cuellar-both '69, Jim Palmer-'73, and Storm Davis-'83.

ORIOLES CAREER HIGHLIGHTS BY YEAR

1982: Was only 8-10 on Aug. 13, but won 7 of his last 8 decisions, including 7 in a row (from Aug. 17 thru Sep. 19) . . . His final win of the year, on Sep. 19 vs. Cleveland, was his 100th career victory.

1981-82: Both seasons were marred by arm trouble (see "Injuries" above). His combined figures for those 2 seasons which followed his Cy Young year were 25-19 and a 4.14 era . . . Despite his problems in '80 he was 12-8 as late as Aug. 6, and he tied for 2nd with Steve Stone in starts (37) behind Dennis Leonard (38).

1979: Won the Cy Young award after leading majors with 23 wins and tying for most shutouts (5) with 5 others. Was 10-6 with a 4.05 era on July 7, then went 13-3 in his last 18 starts with a 2.22 era and 10 complete games . . . From Aug. 8 thru Sep. 13 he won 8 in a row in 8 starts. Credited much of his success to the development of a change-up taught to him by Scott McGregor.

1978: Was 11-4 thru June 22 and had gone 24-6 since the previous June 27, but was hampered by tendinitis in left ankle during the 2nd half and went just 8-11 the rest of the way. Lost his bid for a 20 win season on the last day of the campaign when he lost to the Tigers.

Had distinction of being one of only 3 pitchers to beat Yankees' Guidry (25-3) along with fellow lefties and "Mikes" Willis (Tor.) and Caldwell (Mil.). Was on A.L. All-Star staff but did not pitch in the game at San Diego.

1977: Started the season 2-8, but from June 27 to the end, he won 13 of 15, including his last 6 in a row.

1975-76: Made big league debut on Sep. 5, '75 at home vs. Yankees with no decision, then started for the first time on Sep. 28 at Yankee Stadium, losing that final game of the season 3-2 to Gura.

Started '76 with O's but was 0-3 in 10 appearances when he returned to Rochester July 2 . . . Came back to Baltimore Aug. 11 after going 6-1 for Red Wings, but dropped his 1st decision . . . Was 0-5 lifetime when he broke into win column with 6-hit 7-1 victory over Royals Sep. 1, '76.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER/AMATEUR BACKGROUND

Minors: Was 35-16 in 3+ minor league seasons and 19-5 in a year and a half at Rochester . . . Was selected as International League's top lefty in '75.

Signing: Was Baltimore's 7th pick in June '73 draft . . . Would undoubtedly have been chosen earlier except for elbow problems that developed originally in high school. Was signed by John Stokoe who was convinced his arm was sound again.

Was drafted earlier by Houston ('71) but opted to go to the U. of Massachusetts (at Amherst).

College: Was 12-1 in 2 years at U. of Mass., and led Yankee Conference in wins (9), strikeouts (89) and era (1.72) as a sophomore . . . That year ('73) in one game he hit 3 homers, fanned 15 and pitched a 1-hitter against U. of Maine in a regional tournament . . . Played the outfield when not pitching.

Was a starting guard on U. of Mass. freshman basketball team that went 18-1. Once played against Julius Erving in a frosh-varsity scrimmage.

High School/Other: Played 4 years of baseball and basketball at Memorial High in Manchester (graduated '71) . . . The school won 2 state titles in each sport while he was there . . . Once struck out 31 batters in an extra inning game . . . Holds New Hampshire schoolboy record for most points in a state tournament championship game (44) and was picked as one of New Hampshire's 5 best high school basketball players in the 70s.

His prospects took a downward turn in summer of '70 when he came out of an American Legion Junior World Series game at Klamath Falls, Oregon with a sore elbow . . . Didn't pitch his senior year, but resumed mound career in Cape Cod (summer) League and at U. of Mass.

Once pitched in Fairbanks, Alaska during a Babe Ruth League tournament.

Personal: Mike's father, Edward, was a pitcher (late 40s, early 50s) in the Red Sox system, and his grandfather, Edward, Sr., signed a pro contract in 1913 . . . Hobbies: hunting and fishing.

He and his wife, the former Kathy Walsh, were married Jan. 14, '77 . . . Kelly is also from Manchester, but didn't know Mike when they were growing up . . . They own homes in Cockeysville (Baltimore County), and Amherst, N.H. (near Manchester).

On July 9th, '82, Kathy gave birth to their 1st child—8 lb., 8 oz. Kerry Ellen—who became the first "in vitro fertilization" baby born in America thru normal delivery.

Before and during her in vitro pregnancy, Kathy was attended by Drs. Howard and Georgeanna Jones of the Eastern Virginia Medical School in Norfolk. The Joneses have developed an international reputation over more than 40 years of practicing, teaching and conducting gynecological research. Much of that time they spent at The Johns Hopkins Hospital.

1983 SEASON SUMMARY

Dan rebounded from a disappointing '82 to hit .280, his 2nd highest average in the big leagues . . . He led the O's in batting with runners in scoring position-.386 (32-for-83), was 2nd with Eddie Murray in doubles (30) behind Cal Ripken (47), ranked 3rd in steals (9) and with 10 gwrbi trailed only Murray and Ripken who had 17 apiece.

He started 100 games (in rf), but missed a total of 32 out of 39 O's games in June and July because of a knee injury.

Fast Start: Went 13-for-29 (.448) in his first 7 games and was batting .350 (49-for-140) in 33 games thru May 19 . . . During the longer stretch, he hit safely in 27 games and had multiple hits in 19.

At that point, Dan led all O's regulars in average as well as in rbi (23), doubles (13) and gwrbi (5) . . . He hit home runs in 3 consecutive games (May 18-19-20), and drove in the game-winning run in 3 straight starts (May 17'-7th inning single vs. Chi.; May 18-8th inning hr vs. Chi. and May 19-8th inning hr vs. Toronto).

Knee Injury: Though he cooled off late in May (6-for-39 after May 19), Dan was still batting .304 (56-for-184) on the 31st. However, on June 1st he strained his left knee on the artificial turf at Minnesota, returned to action June 9th and aggravated it, then played 6 more games (June 13 thru 21) before going on the disabled list. At that point his average had dipped to .281 (61-for-217) for 52 games.

He underwent arthoscopic surgery June 28th on the ailing knee.

Dramatic Return: He was activated July 20th and promptly hit 3 home runs, beat out a bunt and walked in 5 trips to lead the O's to a 9-5 win . . . He hit 2 homers off Matt Young and the other off Mike Stanton. After returning to action he batted .279 (53-for-190).

Dramatic Game-Winners: Richard Dotson (Chicago) had a no-hitter going for 8.1 innings in Baltimore on May 18 until Dan hit a solo home run that gave the O's a 1-0 victory despite Dotson's 1-hitter.

The next night in Toronto, the O's were involved in another 0-0 tie until Dan hit a 2-run shot off Mike Morgan and the Birds ultimately won 2-1.

Then, on August 25th at Baltimore vs. the Blue Jays, the O's were down 1-0 with one out and 2 on in the 10th when Dan doubled home the tying and winning runs . . . See "Game Highlights" on page 47.

By Month: April-.321 (25-for-78), 18 g . . . May-.292 (31-for-106) 26 g . . . June-.152 (5-for-33), 8 g . . . July-.344 (11-for-32), 8 g . . . August-.271 (26-for-96), 24 g . . . Sep.-Oct.-.258 (16-for-62), 19 g.

Miscellaneous: Batted .300 (54-for-180) at home and .264 (60-for-227) on the road . . . Committed 3 errors in 232 chances (.987), but none in his last 68 games (153 tc) starting May 21 . . . Stole 2 bases in a game twice (Apr. 29 vs. Sea. & Sep. 17 vs. Mil.).

Made the O's first error of the season in the 1st inning opening day (Apr. 4) vs. K.C. and was also credited with the first hit (a double in the home half of the 1st) and the first run scored.

'83 ALCS/WS: Played in 7 of the O's 9 post-season games (2 in ALCS & 5 in WS), and started 4 times . . . Went 3-for-17 collectively (.176).

Started ALCS #1 but aggravated a sprained right foot (sustained on last day of regular season), and appeared only once more, as a pinch-hitter in game #4.

Was a starter in WS #2, 3 & 5 . . . In game #2, he was hit on the helmet by a Willie Hernandez pitch in the 5th inning. The force of the blow broke his glasses, but he stayed in, and came back to get a single off Larry Andersen in the 7th.

His home run in #3 off Steve Carlton put the O's on the board in the 6th. The Birds still trailed 2-1, but scored twice in the 7th to go up 3-2 (the final score).

In the 4th game, Dan was the last of the Orioles record tying 4 straight pinch-hitters in the decisive 6th inning.

'79 ALCS: He homered in the 1st inning of both games #1 & 2 at Baltimore (off Jim Palmer and Mike Flanagan) and led the Angels in average (.294, 5-for-17), homers (2) and rbi (4) in the 4 game ALCS.

Vs. Opponents: Hit .389 (14-for-36) against the White Sox in '83 (regular season) . . . Also hit well against Seattle-.433 (13-for-30) with 4 hr; California-.333 (10-for-30), and Cleveland-.324 (12-for-37).

Lifetime his highest average is against California-.301 (88-for-292) . . . His 16 home runs against the A's are a personal high as are his 59 rbi vs. Kansas City (he has 57 rbi against Oakland).

Defense: Has played outfield exclusively on defense in the majors . . . In 1050 games, he has a .974 percentage (60 e, 2287 tc) with 48 assists . . . Played mostly in center as a rookie with the Twins in '75, but has been stationed in rightfield most of the time since.

1982: Started the season on a high note with a 3-run homer on opening day, his 1st game in an O's uniform, but the rest of the year was well below his normal standard. Was batting .250 (67-for-268) thru the All-Star break, but hit only .209 (32-for-153) the rest of the way and played in only 53 of the O's last 80 games.

Angels ('79-'81): Enjoyed 2 productive seasons in 3 years with the Angels—'79, his best, and '81 . . . The '80 campaign was largely a lost cause, primarily because of surgery performed the previous November for removal of torn cartilage in his right knee.

1981: Two on-field fights; a 3 day suspension in Sep. for using a corked bat, and a Dan Ford centerfold in the July issue of Playgirl Magazine highlighted an often turbulent season.

One of the tussles occurred at Anaheim Aug. 23 vs Cleveland after Dan was hit in the ribs by a John Denny pitch . . . He had gone 7-for-9 vs. the Indians the 2 previous nights.

The other such incident, on Apr. 29, featured a tug-of-war between Dan and Oakland catcher Mike Heath with Dan's bat serving as the rope. Heath apparently was inspecting it for cork.

1980: He didn't play in any spring exhibitions following his Nov. surgery, but started in right on opening day and contributed a double and a homer . . . However, his average dipped sharply by late May and he spent 2 months on the disabled list (June 3 thru Aug. 4) resting the still healing knee.

After returning, he hit .343 (37-for-108) to the end of the season and, during that stretch, assembled a 16-game hitting streak, the longest of his career.

1979: Set career highs in avg. (.290), runs (100), hits (165), hr (21) and rbi (101) while helping Cal win its 1st division title. He was one of 3 Angels' 100 rbi men along with Don Baylor-139 and Bobby Grich-101.

Had 4 rbi in the game vs. KC that clinched the division title Sep. 25, and batted .340 (16-for-47) as a starter with 14 rbi that month to help the Angels fight off the Royals.

In one hot stretch in August, he tied an Angels record with 8 consecutive hits in a 14 inning game (Aug. 8 & 10) and hit for the cycle on Aug. 10 vs. Seattle (at Cal.) while enjoying his only 5 hit game in the majors (5-for-7, 1-1bh, 2-2bh, 1-3bh, 1-hr).

On Aug. 11, after going 13-for-18 in a 4 game span, he raised his average to .301, his highest ever late in the season.

Twins ('75-'78): Became a regular at Minnesota (primarily in centerfield) in June '75 and ultimately earned Twins' "rookie of year" award (by vote of Twin Cities BBWAA). Was named to the Topps' major league rookie team outfield along with Fred Lynn and Jim Rice.

Led the Twins in homers in both '75 (15) and '76 (20) . . . In '76 he moved to rightfield, had a career high 6 rbi against the Angels at Anaheim May 15 . . . In '77, he was batting only .221 on June 27 (48-for-217) after 70 games, then hit .309 (73-for-236) the rest of the way in 74 games.

In '78 he ranked 2nd in A.L. in triples (13) to Rod Carew (16) . . . He had 57 extra base hits that year but was no better than 3rd on his own club (Carew had 68 and the late Lyman Bostock 62).

Oakland: Was signed by Oakland scout Phil Pote after the A's had picked him in the 1st round of June '70 draft . . . Batted .290 and averaged 14.5 homers in his 4 minor league seasons in the A's system . . . Trained with the "big club" in spring of '74.

Led PCL in outfield assists (16) in '72 and was picked to the Midwest League all-star team in '71.

Personal: Served in U.S. Army . . . Graduated from John C. Fremont H.S. in L.A. ('70) . . . Has attended Southwestern C.C. in Chula Vista, CA as well as Mesa C.C. in Arizona . . . Hobbies: fishing, hunting, golf and camping . . . Nickname: "Disco Dan."

He and his wife, the former Patricia Sneed, were married Nov. 5, '71 . . . The Fords have 2 children: Danny, Jr. (11/20/70) and Kimberly (11/2/77).

THE 1983 SEASON AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

For the 1st time in his 7 seasons with Oakland, Wayne saw more action at first (74 games) than at third base (67 games). He finished 3rd on the A's in homers (12) and was 4th in doubles (18). Also batted .375 (3-for-8) as a pinch-hitter and made his major league debut on the mound.

Batting: Wayne hit .250 (51-for-204) with 9 homers and 30 rbi in 72 games before the all-star break but just .207 (28-for-135) with 3 homers and 14 rbi in 65 contests thereafter.

Had a good start, batting .368 (14-for-38) in his 1st 18 games . . . Was still hitting .287 with 9 homers and 24 rbi in 56 contests thru June 18 . . . Then experienced a bad slump, batting just .143 (20-for-140) over his next 62 games thru Sep. 2 to drop to .219 . . . Had just one homer in that span . . . Rebounded with a .333 (14-for-42) performance in his last 19 games.

Hit .305 (40-for-131) in day games but just .188 (39-for-208) at night . . . Batted .217 (34-for-157) with 4 homers at Oakland.

By Month: April-.364 (12-for-33), 1 hr, 6 rbi, 17 g . . . May-.235 (16-for-68), 3 hr, 10 rbi, 23 g . . . June-.231 (21-for-91), 5 hr, 11 rbi, 28 g . . . July-.150 (9-for-60), 1 hr, 8 rbi, 27 g . . . Home Runs: Wayne finished in double figures in homers for the 5th time . . . Is 6th on the Oakland A's all-time home run list (86) . . . Hit five of his circuit clouts in an 11 game span, June 5[2] thru 16 . . . Had the 5th 2-homer game of his career when he connected twice off Chicago's Lamarr Hoyt on Sep. 6 at Chicago.

Hit game-winning homer off Tippy Martinez in 8th inning on May 8 at Baltimore to give Oakland a 1-0 win . . . Because of several rain delays, it took 5:09 to play that 9-inning contest.

Fielding: With the acquisition of Carney Lansford from Boston in Dec. '82, Wayne was supposed to see most of his action at first base but was forced to play much of the time at third because of injuries and personal problems that limited Lansford's playing time to just 80 games.

Had a .952 (7 errors in 146 total chances) percentage in 67 games at 3rd and a .996 (2 errors in 449 tc) in 74 contests at 1st . . . His career figures are .943 (105 e/1851 tc) in 718 games at 3rd and .989 (9 e/838 tc) in 139 contests at 1st . . . Had played in just 65 major league games at 1st prior to '83.

His best year at 3rd was '82, when he fielded .970 (9 e/304 tc), the 3rd best percentage among A.L. 3rd basemen behind Buddy Bell and Toby Harrah . . . Has also played 4 games in the outfield in his big league career.

Participated in a triple play at 1st on July 18 vs. Detroit, the 4th of his major league career . . . Set a major league record when he started 3 triple plays at 3rd base in '79 (May 7 at Baltimore, June 19 vs. Kansas City, June 23 vs. Texas) . . . The triple play against Baltimore was the last committed vs. the O's, the victim being Gary Roenicke.

Pitching Debut: Wayne made his professional pitching debut on May 18 at Minnesota, hurling the final 2.1 innings in the A's 16-5 loss when the club was short of pitchers . . . Blanked the Twins on 2 hits with one walk and one hit batsman.

Vs. Opponents: Wayne batted .375 (6-for-16) vs. California and .368 (14-for-38) against Chicago with a .207 (59-for-285) mark vs. the rest of the league . . . Had season highs of 4 homers and 7 rbi against the White Sox and is hitting .354 (23-for-65) vs. Chicago in the last 2 seasons.

Has career highs of 10 homers vs. Chicago and 32 rbi against Texas . . . See pages 34-37 for full statistics vs. opponents.

Miscellaneous: He is 6th on Oakland's all-time list in games (996), at bats (2564), and doubles (109) . . . Has not tripled since Aug. 10, '81 vs. Minnesota. . . Of his 22 career stolen bases, 3 have been of home, 2 in '80.

Baltimore: Tito will always be remembered as the man whose 10th inning homer off Britt Burns in the 10th inning of '83 ALCS game #4 broke a 0-0 tie and brought the Orioles their 6th A.L. pennant (O's scored 2 more insurance runs in the inning and won 3-0).

He spent only the last 33 days of the regular season with the O's and appeared in 26 games as a reserve outfielder, pinch-hitter and pinch-runner . . . Started 4 games in left, one in center and also played right . . . Hit safely in the 1st 7 games in which he batted officially. Hit his 1st A.L. home run off Twins' Pete Filson on Sep. 4 at Metrodome.

ALCS/WS: Played in all 4 ALCS games, and started #2 and #4 in right . . . Had both his hits in game 4, starting with an infield single in the 6th inning.

Appeared in 3 WS games (2, 4 & 5), as a pinch-runner and defensive replacement, but did not bat . . . Made a fine play to catch Garry Matthews' drive into the right field corner at the Vet leading off the bottom of the 9th of the final game . . . Has played for each of the last 2 world championship clubs.

St. Louis/Louisville: Started '83 in St. Louis, but was sent to Louisville Apr. 29th . . . He led the American Association with a career high 12 triples, paced the Red Birds in slugging (.527) and also established lifetime milestones in runs (79), hr (18) and rbi (77).

Odds and Ends: Has made only one error in 172 outfield chances in the majors (.994 pct.) . . . Played for a month in Venezuela this winter.

Cardinals ('80-'82): Spent the equivalent of more than 2 full years in St. Louis from the time he was first called up (July 22, '80) until he was assigned to Louisville (to accommodate the return of David Green from that club) on Aug. 5, '82. He was recalled less than a month later (Sep. 1, '82), but was not eligible for post-season play. With the Cardinals he filled the same role as with the O's last year, a versatile utility player.

Went 4-for-5 in his first major league start, at San Diego July 25th, '80 . . . His first hit was a double off the Padres' Randy Jones.

Minors: Spent 7 plus years in minors before his major league debut in '80 . . . Trained with Cardinals in spring of '77 . . . Once had 9 straight hits during his first pro-season at Orangeburg in Western Carolinas League . . . Played winter ball in Venezuela after '81 & '82 seasons.

Personal: Attended Eastern Oklahoma State J.C. (Wilburton) for 2 years . . . Has worked as a model during off-seasons . . . He and his wife, Theresa, have 2 children: Melissa (2/17/81) and Julie (2/24/83).

SUMMARY

"Brother Lo" had another banner year with the Orioles. In his 5 Baltimore seasons, the O's have won 2 pennants (one world championship) and finished 2nd on 3 other occasions, and he's had a lot to do with that success.

As an Oriole, he has batted .286 (348-for-1215) with 60 home runs and 207 rbi in 528 games over 5 years (regular season only) . . . In 8 previous big league campaigns, he hit .238 (467-for-1966) with 48 homers and 204 rbi in 723 games (i.e. 12 more hrs and 3 more rbi in 195 fewer games).

John and his Orioles' left field colleagues, particularly Gary Roenicke, have also enjoyed collective as well as individual successes . . . The left field coalition has produced massive numbers over the past 2 years.

In '83, their combined average (while playing left field only) was .292 (179-for-612) with 35 homers and 131 rbi . . . The year before they hit .283 (172-for-608) with 41 homers and 123 rbi.

John's 15 home runs and 60 rbi were both 2nd to the career highs he set in '82 . . . He was batting over .300 (.302) as late as June 11 and he reached a 2nd half high of .289 on Sep. 25.

Stretch Run: During the O's 34-10 surge to the division title (Aug. 13 thru Sep. 25), John batted .305 (29-for-95) with 6 homers and 22 rbi in 37 games . . . Two of those homers were clutch grand slams: (1) Sep. 10, 1st gm, off Goose Gossage at Yankee Stadium in the 9th to highlight a 6-run rally that produced an 8-4 come-from-behind victory . . . (2) Sep. 21, 2nd gm, off Aurelio Lopez. O's trailed by 2 in the 9th, scored once, then John hit his 2nd slam in 11 days and the O's won 7-3 to sweep a critical doubleheader.

During the stretch run, the left field combine led the club with 13 hr & 41 rbi in the 44 games while batting at a .308 (53-for-172) clip.

By Month: April-.356 (16-for-45), 2 hr, 14 rbi, 18 g . . . May-.262 (17-for-65), 3 hr, 9 rbi, 24 g . . . June-.220 (9-for-41), 3 hr, 9 rbi, 15 g . . . July-.200 (6-for-30), 0 hr, 3 rbi, 15 g . . . August-.333 (23-for-69), 2 hr, 9 rbi, 23 g . . . Sep.-Oct.-.262 (16-for-61), 5 hr, 16 rbi, 27 g.

Fielding: He started 100 games in leftfield (played in 107 total there) . . . His error on May 21 was his 1st since Sep. 29, '81, a span of 142 games . . . In 5 Baltimore seasons he has committed only 5 miscues in 747 chances (.993).

On Aug. 24 in the 10th inning against Toronto, John played 2nd base for the 1st time in 8 years (Roenicke played 3rd and Lenn Sakata caught in that inning) . . . He played a total of 70 games at the keystone for Cleveland, most recently in '75.

1983 AND ORIOLES CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Vs. Opponents: In '83 he was virtually un-stoppable vs. K.C. (.625, 15-for-24) and also led the O's in hitting against the western division champion White Sox (.458, 11-for-24).

Lifetime, his .308 average (64-for-208) vs. the Royals is a career high as are his 12 homers and 58 rbi against the Brewers.

Has hit .377 (26-for-69) vs. Oakland over the last 3 seasons with 7 hr & 20 rbi in 27 games . . . Went 8-for-23 (.348) vs. the Rangers in '83 and 4 of his 8 hits were homers. He drove in 11 runs in 11 games against Texas.

'83 LCS/WS: John had only one hit in the '83 ALCS, but, as usual, it was a big one. He delivered a knockout punch in the form of a 2-run double in the 5th inning of game #3 at Chicago right after Richard Dotson had hit Cal Ripken, then just missed Eddie Murray before walking him. The Lowenstein shot over Harold Baines' head in right, padded the O's lead to a comfortable 6-1, and, according to Tony LaRussa, "was the biggest hit of the game" (final score 11-1).

He started games #1 & 2 of the ALCS and #1, 2, 4 & 5 of the WS, and batted a combined .316 (6-for-19).

His biggest WS contribution was the gwrbi in game #2, a home run off Charlie Hudson that staked the O's to a 1-0 lead in the 5th . . . He had doubled first time up against Hudson.

Made a sensational leaping over the fence catch in game #1 to rob Bo Diaz of a home run (right after Garry Maddox hit his, in the 8th, to give Phils 2-1 lead).

'79 LCS/WS: In '79 "Brother Lo" also had only one hit, but it was a beauty; a 3-run pinch-hit home run in the 10th inning of game #1 off John Montague that produced a "sudden death" victory against the Angels. It was the 1st pinch-hit home run in ALCS history.

In the World Series (he started 3 and played in 6) vs. the Pirates, his most significant effort was again as a pinch-hitter. In game #4, the O's trailed 6-3 in the 8th inning at Three Rivers, but John initiated a 6-run rally with a double that drove in the first 2 tallies off Kent Tekulve and the Birds went on to win, 9-6.

Miscellaneous: Batted .311 (23-for-74) with runners in scoring position in '83, and has a .303 average (76-for-251) in those situations over the past 4 years. As a pinch-hitter, he has a .295 average (23-for-78) in 5 years with the O's.

Fence Bustin': Since joining O's, John has made frequent contact with outfield fences and on 3 occasions has been sidelined with injuries as a result, once in '79 and twice in '80 . . . Two of the collisions required time on the disabled list.

PREVIOUS O'S CAREER HIGHLIGHTS BY YEAR

1982: Set career highs in homers (24), rbi (66), average (.320), runs (69), walks (54) and batting streaks (14) . . . It was 2nd time in 3 years he had hit over .300. Hit .318 with runners in scoring position.

Though he did not have qualifying plate appearances, he nevertheless, led the A.L. in: (1) on-base pct.-.421 (158-for-377) . . . (2) slugging pct.-.602 (194 tb, 322 ab), and (3) home run frequency (1 every 13.42 at bats).

Over the last 60 games, starting July 21, he batted at a .340 clip (55-for-162) and was one of 5 O's who hit over .300 during the last 44 games of which they won 33 and nearly captured the A.L. East.

1981: Was batting a respectable .270 on Sep. 8, then went 6-for-37 (.162) the rest of the way to finish at .249.

1980: Despite 3 injuries that sidelined him for a total of 6 weeks, John had a very good year . . . He hit over .300 for the 1st time; led O's in batting with men on 2nd and/or 3rd at .349 (16-for-46); had a .403 on-base pct. (93-for-228), best on the club; batted .407 (5-for-12) as a pinch-hitter; drove in the winning run, one way or another, 4 times in the late innings, and provided one of the funniest moments on record with his famed "stretcher/Rocky salute" caper . . . Ask him or anybody on the club about it.

1979: Stole 16 bases in 20 tries and excelled in post-season . . . See LCS/WS above.

EARLY CAREER

Cleveland: He was signed originally for Cleveland by former Oriole Bob Nieman . . . Had never played a regular season game outside the Indians' organization until after he was traded to Texas in '78 (was traded to Toronto Dec. '76, then traded back to the Tribe in March '77).

His best year in Cleveland average-wise (.292) was '73 but his most productive campaign was '74 (48 rbi) and 36 steals (3rd in A.L.) . . . His best year for home runs (12) was '75. That year he hit one in each of 3 consecutive games (May 25, 27, 28).

Batted exactly .242 3 times in 4 years ('74, '75, '77) . . . Once scored from 2nd on a long fly ball (by Buddy Bell), on May 21, '77. Played the outfield, 1st, 2nd & 3rd for Cleveland.

Texas-'78: Though listed as an outfielder, played more games at 3rd (25) than in the outfield (16).

Minors: Missed most of his 2nd pro season because of a 6 month stint of active duty with the U.S. Marine Corps . . . Was all-star 3rd baseman in American Association in '70.

Amateur Background: Was 2nd team NCAA (college division) all-American in '68 as a shortstop at U. of California, Riverside . . . Also played ss at Norte Vista High in Riverside . . . Played basketball and football as well.

Played in Little League and Babe Ruth programs . . . Once had 16 rbi and 4 home runs (2 with bases loaded) in a Little League game.

Personal: Hobbies: golf, camping, hunting, wilderness hiking, fishing, skiing, racquetball and tennis . . . Has been active in Nevada state programs for teenage alcohol and drug abuse . . . Holds a B.A. degree with a major in anthropology from Cal-Riverside.

John and his wife, the former Barbara Schlotfelt, were married Feb. 11, '71.

Dennis struggled all season, compiling the highest earned run average of his career (5.53) while matching his high for losses (16, 3rd most in A.L.) . . . Won only one game over the final 2 months of the season.

Season Summary: Dennis was 6-16 with a 6.08 era (86 er/127.1 ip) in 25 starts and 1-0 with a 2.81 era (8 er/25.2 ip) in 7 relief appearances . . . Was 4-11 with a 5.55 era (60 er/97.1 ip) in 18 games before the all-star break and 3-5, 5.50 (34 er/55.2 ip) thereafter.

Starter: He lost to Kansas City on opening day but came back to defeat Cleveland in his next start . . . After 4 consecutive defeats, put together back-to-back complete game victories over Oakland on May 6 and Seattle on May 10, the only time he won 2 straight games all season.

Over his next 14 starts (May 15 thru July 16) was 2-9 with a 6.59 era (53 er/72.1 ip) and was sent to the bullpen after an 8-5 loss to California on July 16 . . . After that time, made only 5 more starts all season, going 1-4 with an 8.38 era (18 er/19.1 ip) . . . His best effort in that stretch was on Sep. 14 at Boston, when he pitched 6 shutout innings (Sammy Stewart finished up) to pick up a 5-0 victory.

Relief: He pitched more in relief than in any season except '77 (29 games) and '80 (13 games) . . . Picked up 1st relief win since '77 with 6-inning, 3-hit performance at California on July 26 . . . Also hurled 5 shutout innings at Toronto on Aug. 23 and 4 scoreless frames against Detroit on Sep. 28 . . . In last 5 relief outings starting Aug. 8, allowed just 3 earned runs in 16.2 innings.

Has pitched in relief 56 times in major league career, compiling a 10-5 record with 5 saves and a 3.61 era (152 ip, 136 h, 61 er).

Miscellaneous: Missed 2 days in mid-September when he went to Miami, where his mother was undergoing surgery . . . Had season high 7 strikeouts vs. Toronto on June 3.

1983 AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Vs. Opponents: Dennis has recorded 11 career victories against Seattle and 10 each versus Boston and Milwaukee.

Boston: Has pitched far more against the Red Sox than vs. any other club in his major league career with 28 games, 23 decisions (10-13), and 181 ip.

Milwaukee: Had a 6-game winning streak against the Brewers snapped when he lost at County Stadium on Sep. 24 . . . Is 6-0 lifetime vs. Milwaukee at Memorial Stadium over 11 games (8 starts).

Seattle: Won his 1st 7 career decisions against the M's but has gone 1-1 vs. them in each of the last 4 seasons.

Toronto: Was 0-1 vs. the Blue Jays but his 2.01 career era is his best vs. any club. . . Has allowed just 2 homers in 103 career innings, both of those coming in the same game on Sep. 19, '81.

Oakland: Was 2-0 vs. the A's, the only team he defeated twice in '83 . . . Is 8-1 lifetime against Oakland, including a 6-0 mark in 6 starts at Memorial Stadium . . . His era there is 2.19 (12 er/49.1 ip).

Long Outings: He has pitched 10 or more innings in a game 9 times in the majors, compiling a 3-1 record with 5 no decisions . . . Threw 11 shutout innings at California on Aug. 20, '78 and 10 scoreless frames at New York on June 3, '81 but was not the pitcher of record in either game.

Fielding: Dennis committed one error in 59 total chances for a .983 percentage in '83 . . . Has led A.L. pitchers in chances 3 times ('78, '79, '81) and also topped major league hurlers in putouts, assists, and chances in '81.

1st Nicaraguan: In '76, Dennis became the 1st Nicaraguan ever to play in the major leagues . . . Tony Chevez, who pitched briefly for the O's in '77 was the 2nd and in '80 Twins hurler Al Williams became the 3rd from Nicaragua to make it to the majors.

Post-Season: He did not pitch in either the ALCS or world series in '83.

Was O's starter in game 3 of the '79 ALCS at Anaheim, pitched well thru 8 innings, and carried a 3-2 lead into the 9th before Angels rallied to win, 4-3 (loss went to Don Stanhouse).

Started game 4 of the world series at Pittsburgh but gave up 6 hits and 4 runs in 1.1 innings before Sammy Stewart came on . . . Baltimore rebounded from that 4-0 deficit to win behind Tim Stoddard, 9-6.

1982: He matched his previous career high with 16 wins and was among the A.L. leaders in starts (2nd, 39), innings pitched (5th, 252) and wins (tied for 8th) . . . Won 5 of his last 6 decisions, including key victories over Milwaukee in each of his last 2 starts . . . Was 10-4 at Memorial Stadium and won 14 straight at home between losses on Aug. 16, '80 and July 1, '82.

1981: He tied 4 others for the major league lead with 14 wins while leading the O's in won-lost percentage (.737, 14-5), starts (24), innings (179), strikeouts (88), and complete games (9) . . . Was 4-1 in September when he shared A.L. "pitcher of the month" honors with K.C.'s Larry Gura . . . Was 8-0 with 2.27 era at home.

Sustained a 4-inch cut on his head when hit by a bottle in Chicago on Apr. 22 . . . Pitched in relief the following day.

1980: From June 24, '79 thru the '80 season, he was 11-18 with a 3.98 era (74 er/167.1 ip).

Was hampered by shoulder problems in 1st half of '80, pitching just 7 times before the all-star break . . . Came off the disabled list in mid-July and split time between starting and relieving the rest of the season.

Pitched that winter for Ray Miller at Caguas, compiling a 6-1 record with a 1.39 era and winning the final playoff game that gave Caguas the Puerto Rican championship.

1979: He led the American League in starts (39), innings (292), and complete games (18) . . . Was 10-2 thru June 20, including a career high 10 game winning streak, but went 5-14 the rest of the way to finish as the only pitcher on the O's staff with a losing record (15-16) . . . Nine of those final 14 losses were by one run.

After the world series, traveled to Japan with Earl Weaver, Rick Dempsey, and Ken Singleton for a series of major league all-star games.

1978: Thru July 28, Dennis was 7-7 with a 5.13 era . . . From then on, went 9-4 (including 8-1 after Aug. 1) with a 1.72 era and 12 complete games in final 15 starts . . . Pitched 6.2 hitless innings vs. Seattle on Aug. 25 at Baltimore before Bill Stein spoiled it with a single.

1976-77: In his first full season, he was 6-3 in 13 starts and 8-4 with 4 saves in 29 relief appearances . . . Made his major league debut on Sep. 14, '76 vs. Detroit at Baltimore and picked up the win with 5.2 scoreless relief innings and 5 strikeouts, including 1st 3 Tigers faced.

Minors: Dennis was originally signed by Ray Poitevint and Julio Blanco Herrera . . . Was 45-19 (.703) in 3 minor league seasons.

Voted top righthander in the International League in '76, leading the circuit in wins (14), complete games (16), strikeouts (140), and era (2.50) . . . Selected to both the Topps National Association AAA and International League all-star teams.

Amateur Background: He pitched for Nicaragua in amateur world series in both '72 and '73 . . . In '73, he lost to the United States, 1-0 in 10 innings at Managua . . . Played Little League and Babe Ruth baseball.

Personal: Dennis and his wife, the former Luz Marina Garcia, were married Apr. 29, '73 . . . They have three children, Dennis (11/16/73), Erica (9/19/74), and Gilberto (4/3/82) . . . Now makes his home year round in the Baltimore suburb of Randallstown.

Despite an appendicitis which sidelined him for 3 weeks after the all-star break, Tippy enjoyed his finest big league season. He set career highs in saves (21), innings (103.1) and strikeouts (81) and finished up with 5 post-season appearances in which he was 1-0 (the pennant clincher against Chicago) with 2 saves while allowing only one run (and no inherited runs) over a 9 inning span. He also compiled a career best 2.32 era and appeared in 65 games, 2nd only to his 76 of '82.

After June 19, though he was out of action from July 9 thru 30 (did not pitch at all during month of July) recovering from the appendectomy, Tippy went 5-0 with 12 saves and a 1.31 era (9 er, 60.2 ip) in 37 games.

Over the last 2 seasons particularly, he has developed into one of the 2 best relief pitchers in the Orioles' 30 year history (along with Stu Miller). As an Oriole his 83 career saves are 2nd only to Miller's 88 and he already ranks 3rd in appearances with 381 behind Jim Palmer (553) and Dave McNally (412).

1983 SEASON DETAILS

1st Half: Was 5-3 with a 3.17 era (19 er, 54 ip) and 10 saves in 34 1st half games, a performance that earned him a spot on the A.L. all-star team, though he did not see action in the July 6th game at Chicago.

1st Batters/Inherited Runners: Retired 54 of 65 1st batters faced (.831) and allowed only 16 of 58 inherited runners to score (.724 efficiency) . . . The opponents' collective average against him was only .211 (76-for-361), lowest against any O's staff-member.

He stranded 20 straight inherited runners over 17 appearances from April 14 thru June 1, and retired 14 consecutive 1st batters from May 7 thru June 11 (and fanned 5 straight 1st hitters at one point during that stretch).

Consecutive Games: Appeared in 7 straight games from Sep. 7 thru 13, including both ends of 2 doubleheaders, allowed no runs in 9 innings and picked up 3 saves plus 2 "holds" (see "Ratings" below) . . . Twice made 8 straight appearances without being charged with a run (6/30-8/15 and 9/7-17) . . . Earned a win & 3 saves in 4 appearances from May 27 thru June 7 & 3 wins plus a save in 4 outings from Aug. 19 thru 25.

Pickoffs: Picked off 3 Toronto runners in the 10th inning Aug. 24 at Baltimore. With Lenn Sakata catching, he relieved Tim Stoddard with one on and nobody out and picked off inherited runner Barry Bonnell, then walked Dave Collins and picked him off, and finally after giving up a single to Willie Upshaw, nailed him as well. Sakata who homered in the bottom of the inning to win the game for the O's caught only 6 pitches from Tippy. See description of that game ("That's Incredible", page 47).

Prior to his Aug. 24th "hat trick", he hadn't picked off a runner since Aug. 23, '80 when he caught Rickey Henderson leaning at Oakland.

Pennant Surge: During the O's 44-game sprint to the division title (34-10, Aug. 13 thru Sep. 25), Tippy was 4-0 with 10 saves in 23 appearances and had a 1.82 era (34.2 ip, 7 er).

Post-Season: Pitched the last 4 innings of the pennant clincher (game #4 ALCS) at Chicago in relief of Storm Davis and picked up the victory. He became only the 3rd different Orioles hurler to win a pennant (Palmer clinched the first 4 and McGregor did the honors in '79).

He came on with the score tied at 0-0, and though he contended with base-runners in every inning, he escaped each time.

In the 7th even after Jerry Dybzinski's base-running mishap, the Sox had runners on 2nd & 3rd with 2 out when he got Rudy Law on a fly to left. In the 9th there were again runners on 2nd & 3rd with 2 gone when he got Rudy Law again, this time on strikes.

In the 10th, he was protecting a 3-0 lead and with Carlton Fisk on 1st and one out, Tippy got Greg Luzinski on a called 3rd strike and fanned Tom Paciorek to end it.

He saved 2 of the O's 4 wins in the WS (game #3 for Palmer and game #4 for Storm Davis). The only run he allowed (either inherited or his own) was in the 9th inning of game #4 when Ozzie Virgil singled home Bob Dernier to make it a 5-4 game, but then he got Joe Morgan on a liner to Rich Dauer for the final out.

Ratings: Led O's in "Miller-Brown" Rating system with 82 points in 65 appearances with 21 saves, 21 holds and 9 wins against 14 squanders and 3 losses. He led the staff both in points (Sammy Stewart was 2nd with 32) and in points per appearance (1.26 . . . Stewart was 2nd again at 0.56).

The system was initiated 2 years ago and, in essence, rewards reliefers for saves (+ 3), wins (+ 2) and holds (+ 1) while penalizing them for losses (– 2) and squanders (– 1).

A pitcher can be awarded a win and a hold in the same game and can be charged with a loss and a squander in the same appearance, but can accumulate no more than 3 points (positive or negative) in one outing.

R-O-L-A-I-D-S: With a 9-3 record and 21 saves, he accumulated 57 points to win the Orioles' Rolaids Relief Award for the 3rd straight year and for the 4th time overall (won in '77 also).

In the A.L., he ranked 5th behind: (1) Dan Quisenberry-97 . . . (2) Bob Stanley-72 . . . (3) Goose Gossage-65 . . . (4) Ron Davis-62.

By Month (W-L-S): April 0-0-1, 8 g . . . May 2-1-4, 10 g . . . June 3-2-5, 16 g . . . July 0-0-0, 0 g . . . August 3-0-3, 14 g . . . Sep.-Oct. 1-0-8, 17 g.

Miscellaneous: Tippy was the unexpecting beneficiary of both the Orioles' come-from 7 runs-behind victories against the Brewers (June 15 and Sep. 18) . . . He enjoyed the same windfall on Sep. 21, '76 when the Birds rallied from an 0-7 deficit to beat the Yankees.

CAREER SUMMARY

Orioles Only: Since joining the O's on June 15, '76, Tippy is 45-26 (.634) with 83 saves. He has pitched 577.1 innings, yielded 489 hits and 198 earned runs (era 3.09), walked 266 and fanned 445. See "83 Season Summary" above for rankings on O's all time lists.

Saves For: In '83, Tippy saved games for 8 different pitchers: 5-Davis; 4-Flanagan & Boddicker; 3-McGregor; 2-Palmer; 1-D. Martinez, Ramirez & Stewart.

Lifetime, his 83 Orioles saves break down as follows: 13-McGregor; 11-Palmer; 11-D. Martinez; 10-Flanagan; 7-Davis; 6-Steve Stone; 5-Boddicker; 5-Rudy May; 4-Ross Grimsley; 3-Stewart; 2-Dave Ford; 1-Dick Drago, John Flinn, Joe Kerrigan & Dyar Miller, Dave Pagan and Ramirez.

Starts: He has started only 2 games in 425 major league appearances, both losing efforts for the Yankees in '75—to Boston July 27 and to California Aug. 24.

"Sudden Death" Wins: Tippy won 4 games in "sudden death" in '83 . . . He's earned 29 victories lifetime at Memorial Stadium, 17 of them in that dramatic fashion.

Vs. Yankees: Enjoyed another banner year in '83 against the club that signed him originally. In 9 appearances (including all 4 games in N.Y., Sep. 9-10-11), he was 1-0 with 4 saves and allowed only one run (unearned) in 16 innings.

Over the last 2 seasons he has allowed one unearned tally in 18 appearances against them (era 0.00, ip 30.1), and has gone 3-0 with 9 saves in 18 appearances . . . He's played a key role (save or win) in 12 of the Orioles' 17 wins vs. New York in that period.

Lifetime, Tippy, in 52 games against the Yankees, is 9-5 with 11 saves and a 1.92 era (75 ip, 16 er). The wins, saves and appearances all represent career highs vs. one opponent.

Vs. Other Opponents: He is still undefeated against 3 A.L. clubs: Seattle (2-0-5, 19 g), Texas (2-0-5, 27 g), and Toronto (5-0-6, 30 g) . . . The only club he's never beaten (in addition to the Orioles against whom he was 0-0-0) is the California Angels. He's lost 2 to them, but has also saved 9 in 28 appearances.

His lowest career era is 1.20 vs. the Mariners (30 ip, 4 er), and though he has never lost to them, his highest era is 5.05 against the Blue Jays (35.2 ip, 20 er).

In '83, Tippy was 3-0 with one save in 7 appearances against Toronto and 2 of his wins were on Aug. 24 & 25, those 2 highly dramatic "sudden death" victories in Baltimore. He sustained 2 of his 3 losses to the Red Sox in '83.

More detailed stats vs. each opponent, '83 and lifetime, appear on page 28.

Home Runs: Yielded a career high 10 homers in '83, but has still thrown only 34 "gopher" pitches in his A.L. career. In one inning at Cleveland on April 9th, he gave up the first grand slam (to George Vukovich) and the first back-to-back homers (Vukovich and Julio Franco) of his career.

The Tigers have hit the most off him (9), but 3 opponents haven't hit any lifetime: California, Minnesota and Oakland (also Baltimore) . . . Eleven (11) of the 34 have been hit at Baltimore.

Individually, Larry Herndon is the only player to have hit 2 homers against him at Memorial Stadium, but 3 others (Carl Yastrzemski, Cliff Johnson and Lance Parrish) have accounted for 2 each.

Homerless Strings: He had one stretch of 65 straight homerless appearances (123.2 ip) between May 23, '78 and Apr. 19, '80 when the White Sox' Marv Foley broke the string in Baltimore, and another of 55 games without a home run between May 20, '76 and July 26, '77.

By Year: '74-0, '75-2, '76-1, '77-2, '78-4, '79-0, '80-5, '81-4, '82-6, '83-10.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS BY YEAR

1982: Was 2nd in A.L. in appearances with a career high 76 to Seattle rookie Ed Vande Berg, and set a club mark for a lefthander with 16 saves . . . Enjoyed his best season to date after a slow start . . . Was 0-3 with 2 saves and a 7.98 era (14.2 ip, 17 h, 13 er) thru May 8. In 64 appearances thereafter, he was 8-5 with 14 saves and a 2.58 era (80.1 ip, 64 h, 23 er).

Saved both ends of a doubleheader vs. the Yankees on Sep. 14 . . . It was the 1st time in 5 years to the day that feat had been accomplished by an Oriole since Scott McGregor did it at Toronto Sep. 14, '77. Tippy saved another against New York the following day, giving him 3 in a row.

Experienced the best month of his career in July during which he did not allow a run in 16 appearances totaling 19 innings while surrendering only 6 hits plus 3 walks and striking out 22. In that span he was 2-0 with 5 saves and 7 "holds" and was voted A.L. "player of the month".

During the week of July 19-25, was 1-0 with 2 saves while pitching 9 scoreless inning in 6 games to earn a share of A.L. "player of week" honors with Robin Yount.

1981: Was 2-2 with 9 saves in 21 games before the strike, but only 1-1 with 2 saves in 16 2nd half appearances. Prevented 39 of 51 inherited base-runners from scoring (.756) . . . Didn't allow a run in a stretch of 12 games spanning 15.2 innings from Apr. 27 to May 24.

1980: Was 2nd in the bullpen to Tim Stoddard (26 saves) . . . Had a string of 10 straight scoreless appearances from July 23 thru Aug. 23.

1979: Retired 23 straight Oakland batters on July 23rd at Baltimore . . . After walking 1st batter he faced, he pitched 7.2 perfect innings and earned the win on a Pat Kelly slam.

Over 5 straight appearances starting July 23, he yielded only one hit and no walks and retired 36 of 38 batters faced . . . Also set down 18 of 19 hitters in consecutive appearances June 22 & 23, both vs. Detroit, and won both in "sudden death" . . . Did not pitch in ALCS, but did relieve in 3 WS games (#2, 5, 7).

1978: Hampered by tendinitis and finished with highest era of career (4.83). All 3 of his losses were to Yankees . . . Went 26 days between appearances, Sep. 2 to 29.

1977: Led O's relievers in games, saves and era . . . Beat Yankees' Sparky Lyle twice and saved a win for Palmer over Catfish Hunter.

1976: After coming to Baltimore June 15, he was 3-1 with 8 saves and a 2.57 era (42 ip, 12 er).

Yankees: Was originally signed for the Yankees by Sam Suplizio as an un-drafted free agent off the Colorado State (Ft. Collins) campus in '72 . . . One year later, he led the Carolina League in saves (15), went 13-8 and fanned 160 in 105 innings.

Joined Yankees for 1st time in Aug. '74, then almost made the club at the start of '75. However, an injury to Dick Tidrow (rhp) necessitated adding another righthander to the staff instead. Won the James P. Dawson Award as the top rookie in the Yankees' '75 spring camp.

Was recalled from minors July 16, '75 and went on to lead the staff in saves (8) . . . Lyle was 5-7 with only 6 saves that year for N.Y.

Amateur Background: Played football, basketball and baseball at La Junta High School, and was drafted as an outfielder by the Washington Senators after his senior year on a late round in June '69, but chose to attend Colorado State.

Personal: Tippy is of Spanish-Mexican descent, but is a 3rd generation American and speaks little Spanish . . . He and his wife, the former Carol Sarlo, were classmates at La Junta High (graduated '69) . . . They have 2 children: Jacen Anthony (8/2/70) and Courtney Ann (10/10/78).

Tippy owns a home in Towson and now splits his winters between the Baltimore area and Englewood, CO . . . His home town of La Junta honored him Oct. 25 by naming a baseball field in the community "Tippy Martinez" Park on "Tippy Day" . . . They also held a day for him after the '79 World Series . . . He was named the 1983 Colorado "Professional Athlete of the Year."

Scott rebounded from an injury-plagued 1982 to lead the Orioles in wins (18), starts (36), innings pitched (260, career high), and complete games (12) while compiling his lowest earned run average in 7 major league seasons (3.18).

He placed among the league leaders in winning percentage (3rd, .720), era (5th), innings pitched (5th), complete games (5th), victories (6th), and starts (tied for 3rd) . . .

Scott was again one of the top control pitchers in the majors and he excelled during the pennant race, losing only 3 times in a 4-month span from May 28 through September 23 . . . He also pitched well in the post-season, and after a pair of 2-1 defeats, hurled a 5-hit shutout against Philadelphia in the 5th game of the world series to give Baltimore its 1st world title since '70.

Season Summary: Scott was 9-4 with a 3.49 earned run average (48 er/123.2 ip) in 18 starts before the all-star break and 9-3 with a 2.90 era (42 er/136.1 ip) in 18 2nd half appearances.

By Month: April: 3-0, 3.11, 5 g . . . May: 2-3, 5.45, 6 g . . . June: 3-1, 2.55, 6 g . . . July: 5-0, 2.26, 6 g . . . August: 3-1, 2.64, 6 g . . . September-October: 2-2, 3.72, 7 g.

Start: He began the year with a pair of no decisions (10 er/10.2 ip) before pitching complete game victories in each of his last 3 April starts, allowing just one run in each game . . . Was the best April of his career as his prior record in the 1st month was 4-8.

Lost 3 of his next 4 decisions and was 4-3 with a 4.83 era (34 er/63.1 ip) in 10 starts thru May 24.

Finish: Over his next 20 starts from May 28 thru Sep. 3, Scott was 13-2 with a 2.20 era (39 er/159.2 ip) and allowed just 27 walks in that span . . . Had 9 complete games in that period, went 10 innings without a decision in another start, and pitched less than 7 innings only 4 times . . . Allowed 2 or fewer runs in 14 of those 20 appearances.

Started the streak with a 2-hit shutout at Kansas City on May 28 and won his next 3 decisions before a loss at New York on June 22 . . . Went 6-0 in his next 8 starts (2.13 era), the 2nd longest winning streak of his career, until a setback to Cleveland on Aug. 9 . . . Then was 3-0 over his next 5 appearances thru Sep. 3.

Was 1-2 in his final 6 starts with a 4.62 era (19 er/37 ip).

Ironman: Scott was the only Oriole starter not to miss a turn with his 36 starts being one shy of his career high set in '82 . . . In a period from May 17 thru Aug. 6, when both Mike Flanagan and Jim Palmer were sidelined by injuries, he was 11-2 with a 2.28 era (32 er/126.1 ip) in 16 starts.

Honors: He was selected as the lefthanded pitcher on the Associated Press' major league all-star team at the end of the season . . . Finished 6th in the balloting for the BBWAA's A.L. Cy Young Award.

Was also named the A.L.'s "pitcher of the month" for July for his 5-0 record and 2.26 era in 6 starts.

Miscellaneous: He was 14-1 with a 2.56 era (46 er/161.2 ip) in 21 road starts but just 4-6 with a 4.21 mark (46 er/98.1 ip) in 15 appearances at Memorial Stadium . . . Lost at New York on Sep. 9 to snap his streak of 14 consecutive road victories, including his 1st 13 decisions of '83 . . . Had not lost in any enemy ballpark since Aug. 19, '82 at Minnesota . . . Did not win at home after beating Texas on July 30, going 0-2 in last 6 outings.

Allowed a team-high 24 homers and has surrendered 55 "gophers" in the last 2 years . . . Did not throw a wild pitch all season . . . In 7 of his 11 no decisions, gave up 2 or fewer runs.

Post-Season: Scott is 3-3 with a 1.63 earned run average (9 er/49.2 ip) in 6 lifetime post-season starts, including a pair of shutouts . . . He's 1-1, 0.57 (1 er/15.2 ip) in 2 ALCS starts and 2-2, 2.12 (8 er/34 ip) in 4 world series appearances.

1983: He started game 1 of the ALCS at Memorial Stadium and allowed Chicago just 6 hits and 2 runs (one earned) thru 6.2 innings before being relieved by Sammy Stewart trailing 2-0 . . . Scott walked 3 and fanned 2 and was the loser in Lamarr Hoyt's 2-1 victory.

Also was the starter in the world series opener against Philadelphia and suffered a similar fate . . . Had a 1-0 lead thru 5 innings but ended up a 2-1 loser on homers by Joe Morgan in the 6th and Garry Maddox in the 8th . . . In 8 innings of work, allowed just 4 hits with no walks and 6 strikeouts.

Came back in the 5th game at Philadelphia with a masterful 5-hit shutout to win, 5-0, and give the O's the world championship . . . Walked 2 and fanned 5 while becoming the first pitcher to hurl a shutout in the deciding game of the world series since Baltimore's Dave McNally blanked Los Angeles in game 4 of the '66 fall classic . . . Also marked Scott's 2nd shutout in a post-season "clincher" (see below).

1979: He became the 1st pitcher other than Jim Palmer to clinch a pennant for the O's when he shut out California in the 4th game of the ALCS at Anaheim on Oct. 6 . . . Threw a 6-hitter, walked 1, and fanned 4 in the 8-0 win . . . Was aided by a great play by Doug DeCinces, which killed an Angel rally in the 5th.

Won world series game 3 at Pittsburgh, 8-4, allowing 9 hits while going the route . . . Held the Pirates to one run and 4 hits in last 7 innings after shaky start . . . Also drew the starting assignment for the 7th and deciding game . . . Led 1-0 until the 6th when Willie Stargell's 2-run homer gave Pittsburgh the lead en route to a 4-1 victory . . . Scott allowed just 2 runs and 7 hits in 8 innings before departing for a pinch-hitter.

Winning: In the last 5 seasons ('79-'83), Scott has a 78-38 record, a .672 winning percentage that is the highest among major league pitchers in that period . . . New York's Ron Guidry is 2nd at .669.

Is 5th in the majors in victories over that period behind Steve Carlton (93), Jack Morris (84), Joe Niekro (82), and Guidry (81) . . . Has 65 wins in the last 4 years ('80-'83), more than anyone except Carlton (75) and Morris (67).

Is 93-48 (.660) beginning Apr. 30, '78 . . . Prior to that, was just 3-9 in the major leagues . . . Is 4th on the club's all-time list in winning percentage (.627) and 6th in career victories (96).

April is the only month in which he has a lifetime losing record (7-8, after 3-0 in '83). . . In the other months is: May (19-8), June (15-8), July (19-8), August (17-13), September (17-12), October (2-0).

Control: Scott yielded just 1.56 bases on balls per every 9 innings (45 walks/260 innings), the 2nd best ratio among the 46 American League qualifiers to Chicago's Lamarr Hoyt, who had a 1.07 ratio (31 bb/260.2 ip) . . . That duo topped the major leagues as the N.L. leader was San Francisco's Atlee Hammaker at 1.67.

Led the A.L. with a 1.18 average in '79 and his career ratio of 1.88 walks/9 innings is 3rd best in club history (500 innings minimum) behind Dick Hall (1.47) and Robin Roberts (1.81).

In '83, walked more than one batter in just 13 of 36 starts and allowed no bases on balls 11 times . . . Walked only one batter in a span of 2 starts (27 ip) from July 19 thru 30 . . . Over the last 6 years, has issued no more than one walk in 115 of 186 games.

In one month-long stretch in '79, pitched 46.1 consecutive innings without walking a batter from June 29 to July 19 . . . Walked career high 6 batters on Apr. 9, '78 but shutout Toronto, 4-0.

Shutouts: He pitched two shutouts in '83, blanking Kansas City on 2 hits, 1-0, on May 28, and Minnesota on 8 hits, 13-0 on Sep. 3 . . . Has all 16 career shutouts in last 6 years ('78-'83), 6th on the O's all-time list and tied for 3rd among A.L. pitchers in that period (Guidry 18; Mike Caldwell 17; Dave Stieb 16). . . Lost 2 other shutouts in the 9th inning, June 16 at Milwaukee and July 9 vs. Seattle (both no decisions).

Has pitched 4 career shutouts vs. New York (see below), 3 against Minnesota and Toronto, and one each vs. California, Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, Kansas City, and Oakland.

Vs. Opponents: Scott defeated every A.L. club except New York at least once in '83 with 2 wins apiece against California, Cleveland, Kansas City, Minnesota, Seattle, and Toronto.

Boston: In only '83 decision vs. the Red Sox, defeated Bobby Ojeda on June 11 to snap a 5-game losing streak since last triumph on June 28, '80 . . . Is just 3-8 lifetime.

California: After losing to Chris Knapp on Aug. 18, '78, beat the Angels 12 straight times in as many starts before a setback to Steve Renko on July 19, '82 at Baltimore . . . His era in that period was 2.09 (23 er/99 ip) and included the 8-0 shutout in the 4th game of the '79 ALCS.

Since that loss to Knapp, is 9-0 in 9 starts against the Angels at Anaheim Stadium, inc. the ALCS . . . Has more regular season victories against California (13) than any other club.

Milwaukee: Lost 5 of his 1st 6 lifetime decisions against the Brewers but has won 3 straight since last loss on May 10, '80.

New York: Was 0-2 against the Yankees in '83 and is 6-7 lifetime . . . His 1st 5 career victories vs. N.Y. were all shutouts, 3 by 1-0 scores . . . That streak ended with an 8-2 triumph on Sep. 6, '82, although Scott pitched 5.2 scoreless innings in that game before being relieved.

Went the route in 4 of the 5 shutouts, including a 3-0, rain-shortened triumph on Aug. 13, '78 . . . In that game, led 3-0 thru 6 innings but was touched for 5 runs in the top of the 7th . . . However, it started to rain in the bottom of that inning and when the game was called, the score reverted to the last completed inning, giving the O's a 3-0 win . . . The rules have since been changed to prevent a recurrence.

Oakland: Has captured his last 4 decisions vs. the A's since a loss on Aug. 22, '81.

Texas: Was 1-0 against the Rangers and is 5-0 lifetime . . . Prior to 2 starts in '83, had not pitched against the Rangers since July 29, '80.

Toronto: Has defeated the Blue Jays 7 straight times since dropping decision to Tom Underwood on June 26, '80 . . . His career 2.29 era against Toronto is his lowest vs. any opponent.

For full statistics vs. Opponents, see page 28.

Injuries: He has been bothered by arm problems several times in his career . . . Was bothered by tightness and weakness in the muscles of his left shoulder for most of the 2nd half in '82 and pitched just 82 innings after the all-star break . . . Underwent a therapy and exercise program for the shoulder last winter.

In the spring of both '79 and '80, was bothered by inflamed muscles in the left elbow, the result of trying to throw after his arm had become tight from a winter's inactivity . . . Went on therapy and strengthening program after the '80 season that resulted in injury-free '81 start.

1982: Hampered by those 2nd half arm problems (see above) and finished with the highest era of his pro career (4.61) . . . Was just 2-5 with a 6.83 era in his last 13 starts beginning Aug. 1 . . . Set a personal best with 37 starts.

1981: Had the lowest era among the O's starters at 3.26 and tied for 2nd highest victory total among A.L. pitchers (13) . . . Was 5th in the league in shutouts (3) and 6th in winning percentage (.722) . . . Selected to A.L. pitching staff for the All-Star Game at Cleveland but did not pitch.

1980: Became a 20-game winner for the 1st time in his career when he defeated Cleveland's Len Barker (also going for 20th win) on the final day of the season . . . Was 3rd in the league with a .714 winning percentage and went 19-6 after May 21 . . . Did not make 1st regular season start until Apr. 22 because of arm problems.

1979: Recovered from a sore elbow and an 0-2 record over the 1st 2 months to go 13-4 with a 2.94 era starting June 11 . . . After 0-2 starts, never lost 2 in a row again . . . Had the A.L.'s best ratio of men on base to innings pitched, + 15 (175 ip/165 h, 22 bb, 2 hb) . . . Was named A.L. "player of the week", Aug. 27-Sep. 3.

1978: In 1st year as regular starter, started slowly with 0-3 record and 13.50 era thru Apr. 24 . . . Was 15-10 with 2.74 era from then on . . . Retired 1st 20 batters against K.C. on Aug. 20 before Hall McRae doubled with 2 out in the 7th.

1977: He was 2-1 in 5 starts and 1-4 with 4 saves in 24 relief appearances . . . Picked up 1st big league win in starting role against Cleveland on Apr. 20, then waited 4 months and 4 days for next victory, in relief on Aug. 20 vs. Chicago.

Minor Leagues: Scott was the Yankees' 1st pick in the June '72 free agent draft . . . Went to spring training 4 straight years with the Yankees at Fort Lauderdale ('73-'76) but never spent a day on the regular season roster.

Was named the International League's top lefthanded pitcher in '76.

Amateur Background: Scott was a teammate of K.C.'s George Brett (whom he out-hit senior year) at El Segundo High School where he was 51-5 with an 0.29 era (including 18-1 as a senior) in 4 seasons . . . Also played basketball there.

Played Little League, Babe Ruth League, and American Legion baseball . . . His El Segundo team won the Babe Ruth world championship in '69.

Personal: Has attended El Camino Jr. College . . . Hobby: photography . . . Is very active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and coordinates the Orioles' chapel services . . . Is the club's player representative . . . Spent part of the winters in '79 and '81 teaching at Gilman School in Baltimore.

Scott and his wife, the former Cara Bell, were married in Baltimore on Sep. 27, '76 . . . They have 2 children: Eric Scott (11/22/78) and Katherine Noel (10/28/80).

1983 SEASON SUMMARY

Baltimore: Dan did 2 stretches with both the Orioles and Rochester Red Wings. He was first called up May 18 after Mike Flanagan was hurt, returned to Rochester Aug. 7 when Mike was re-activated, then returned to Baltimore Sep. 1st.

Scoreless Innings/Best Effort: Did not allow a run over his final 11.1 innings spanning 4 appearances and starting with his final inning on Sep. 15 vs. Boston.

His best effort of the year was on Sep. 18 . . . Dan came on to relieve Jim Palmer with one out in the 2nd and O's down 6-0 . . . He gave up a hit that produced another run (also charged to Palmer) before getting out of the inning, then pitched 6 scoreless, and left after 8 with the O's ahead by 9-7. Milwaukee tied it up in the 9th off Tim Stoddard and Tippy before the O's won in the 9th (10-9) with Tippy getting the win.

Odds and Ends: Picked up his 1st (and only) big league save on July 11 vs. Oakland on behalf of Dennis Martinez . . . Lost his only decision next time out, July 21 at Oakland.

Yielded only one home run, a grand slam to Detroit's John Wockenfuss at Detroit July 3 . . . Retired 16 of 22 1st batters (.727) and prevented 19 of 27 inherited runners from scoring (.704) . . . Had 8 "holds" and one save balanced against 6 "squanders" and one loss.

Rochester: Appeared in 11 games for Rochester during his 1st tour and 6 in the 2nd . . . Started one game for the Wings, Aug. 16 vs. Pawtucket, but did not have a decision.

PREVIOUS PRO CAREER

1982: Acquired by the St. Louis organization in February, Dan appeared in 57 games (3rd in Amer. Assoc.), all but one in relief, for Louisville . . . Had an outstanding winter for Lara in Venezuelan League where he had a 5-0 record and 1.84 era in 25 games . . . Fanned 34 and walked only 12 in 48 innings and was chosen to league all-star team.

Braves System: Was signed for Atlanta by Bob Turzilli . . . Spent 1st 6 pro seasons with Braves, the 1st 5 as a starter . . . Became a reliefer at Savannah in '81 . . . Was on Atlanta's major league roster in spring of '80 and was a non-roster invitee the previous year.

Pitched 8.2 innings of no-hit baseball against Syracuse in semi-final round of '79 International League playoffs . . . He finally allowed a scratch single and finished with a 1-hit shutout for Richmond . . .

Was 2nd in the I.L. in starts in both '79 (31) and '80 (29) . . . Finished 3rd in the Southern League in wins (13) and shutouts (3) at Savannah in '77.

Amateur Background: Pitched 2 seasons at Seton Hall University in South Orange, N.J. . . . Rick Cerone was his batterymate in '75 . . . In '76, Dan was 6-1 and finished 3rd in nation in strikeouts per inning, primarily as a reliefer . . .

Earned all-metropolitan New York-New Jersey honors.

Was 3-time all-city selection in baseball and football at Canarsie High School in Brooklyn (graduated '73) . . . Was team captain in both sports senior year.

Also participated in Little League, American Legion and Atlantic Coast Baseball League programs.

Personal: Spent winter in Baltimore area and was active in Orioles' speakers program . . . He and his wife, the former Nancy Marie Auld, were married Sep. 10, '78 . . . They have a daughter, Vanessa Lynn (10/11/81).

Eddie batted over .300 (.306), hit more than 30 home runs (career high 33), and drove in better than 100 runs (111) for the 3rd time in the last 4 years . . . Led the Orioles in homers, rbi, slugging (.538, career high) and on-base percentage (.398) while finishing 2nd in batting, runs (115, career high), hits (178), total bases (313), doubles (30), walks (86, career high), game-winning rbi (17), games (156) and at bats (582).

He was among the A.L. leaders in runs (2nd), slugging (3rd), total bases (4th), on-base percentage (4th), home runs (4th), rbi (5th), game-winning rbi (tied for 3rd), hits (tied for 9th), and batting (12th). In addition, he won the A.L. Gold Glove Award at 1st for the 2nd consecutive year.

He finished 2nd to teammate Cal Ripken in the BBWAA's American League "Most Valuable Player" voting, tied Ripken for "Most Valuable Oriole" honors, and was selected the A.L.'s all-star first baseman.

In 7 seasons with Baltimore, Eddie has averaged 28 homers and 99 rbi while hitting at least 22 home runs in each campaign.

Batting: Eddie hit for the 2nd highest average of his career while improving his career mark to .297, 4th in club history . . . Batted .308 (88-for-286) with 13 homers and 48 rbi in 76 1st half games and .304 (90-for-296) with 20 homers and 63 rbi in 80 contests after the all-star break.

Summary: He had another good start, hitting .331 (42-for-127) in his 1st 34 games thru May 17 . . . Batted .272 (40-for-147) in his next 39 contests thru June 30 with his average dropping to .299.

Went on a .365 (42-for-115) tear over his next 31 games with 11 homers and 29 rbi, lifting his batting mark to .319 . . . Hit safely in final 8 games of that period (thru Aug. 5) at .438 (14-for-29), matching his longest streak of the year.

Was sidelined for the next 5 games (one ph appearance) with a strained knee (see below), and on his return, hit just .113 (6-for-53) with 6 rbi over his next 15 games, dropping his average to .294 thru Aug. 25.

Down the Stretch: Eddie once again had a strong finish . . . Starting Aug. 26, the day that Baltimore moved into 1st place for good, he hit .320 (48-for-150) with 9 homers, 32 rbi, and 32 runs scored in his last 37 games . . . His hottest stretch came from Sep. 10 thru 23, when he hit safely in 15 of 16 games at a .421 (24-for-57) clip . . . Overall, hit safely in 31 of final 37 games with 2 or more hits 14 times.

Batted .328 (38-for-116) with 9 homers, 25 rbi, and 23 runs scored in 31 games in September-October . . . See "Great Endings" below.

By Month: April-.316 (24-for-76), 2 hr, 11 rbi, 20 games . . . May-.286 (30-for-105), 4 hr, 21 rbi, 28 g . . . June-.301 (28-for-93), 5 hr, 12 rbi, 25 g . . . July-.337 (33-for-98), 10 hr, 26 rbi, 26 g . . . August-.266 (25-for-94), 3 hr, 16 rbi, 26 g . . . September-.327 (36-for-110), 9 hr, 23 rbi, 29 g . . . October-.333 (2-for-6), 0 hr, 2 rbi, 2 g.

Miscellaneous: Had 55 multiple-hit games, the 5th highest total in the league, including three 4-hit and six 3-hit games . . . Hit safely 108 of 156 games . . . Had three 8-game hitting streaks . . . Batted .341 (45-for-132) with 65 rbi with runners in scoring position . . . Became just the 2nd Oriole to ever score 100 runs in a season twice, matching Frank Robinson's feat.

MVP Vote/Other Honors: Eddie placed 2nd to Ripken in the BBWAA's "mvp" balloting in a close contest . . . Cal received 15 1st place votes, 9 2nds, 3 3rds, and one 4th for 322 points to Eddie's 10 1sts, 11 2nds, 5 3rds, one 4th, and one 7th and 290 points . . . They were the only 2 players to be included on all 28 ballots (2 writers in each A.L. city), and it marked the 1st time that teammates had finished one-two in the A.L. "mvp" voting since Baltimore's Frank Robinson, Brooks Robinson, and Boog Powell captured the top 3 spots in '66 . . . Chicago's Carlton Fisk was 3rd and Boston's Jim Rice 4th in the '83 voting.

It was the 2nd straight year that Eddie had placed 2nd in the balloting as he was runnerup to Milwaukee's Robin Yount (385 to 228) in '82 . . .

By tying Ripken for "most valuable Oriole" honors, Eddie joined Brooks Robinson as the only 4-time winner of the award . . . Became the 1st Oriole to capture that honor in 3 consecutive seasons as he was a unanimous pick in '81 and '82.

Was also named as 1st baseman on A.L. all-star teams selected by The Sporting News and United Press International and the major league all-star squad chosen by Associated Press.

Injuries: Eddie strained his right knee in an attempted pickoff play at 2nd base on Aug. 5 vs. Chicago . . . Was out of the starting lineup for 5 games (O's were 0-5) and was bothered by the problem for about 2 weeks.

Was hit on the left foot by a Milt Wilcox pitch on Sep. 29 and sat out a doubleheader the next night . . . Was used in the designated hitter slot for the last 2 games of the regular season.

Post-Season: He batted a composite .257 (9-for-35) with 3 homers and 6 rbi in 9 post-season contests . . . Started slowly but finished strong in both series.

ALCS: Was 0-for-29 in his last 7 post-season games and 0-for-8 in the '83 ALCS when he blasted a 3-run homer off Richard Dotson in the 1st inning of game #3 at Comiskey Park . . . That set stage for O's easy 11-1 win . . . Scored 4 runs in that game to tie a CS record . . . Went 3-for-5 in game 4.

WS: Had just 2 singles in 16 bats in the 1st 4 games before going 3-for-4 with a pair of homers in the 5th and deciding game . . . Hit a solo homer in the 2nd and a 2-run shot in the 4th, both off Philadelphia starter Charles Hudson . . . Became the 32nd player to hit 2 homers in a world series game and was the only Oriole to hit 2 homers in the series . . . Also led the club in at bats (20) and tied for the top spot in hits (5) and rbi (3).

Home Runs: Eddie hit 30 or more homers for the 3rd time and only Boog Powell (4) and Frank Robinson (3) have matched that performance with Baltimore . . . Hit one grand slam (see below), one homer with 2 men on, 15 homers with one on, and 16 solo shots.

Had circuit clouts in back-to-back games 5 times . . . Went a career high 31 games between homers from Apr. 21 until blast off K.C.'s Larry Gura on May 27 . . . Had 4 homers in 5-game span, May 27 thru 31.

20 or More Homers 7 times: Has hit 20 or more homers in each of his 7 major league campaigns . . . Only Powell (8) has had more 20-homer seasons for the O's . . . Eddie's 7 straight 20-homer seasons rank 2nd in the majors to Mike Schmidt (10 straight).

Career Leaders: Is 3rd on Baltimore's all-time list with 198 behind Powell (303) and Brooks (268) . . . In the span of his 7-year major league career (starting '77), only Schmidt (258), Jim Rice (228), and George Foster (210) have hit more homers . . . With 144 homers in the last 5 seasons ('79 thru '83), Eddie is 3rd behind Schmidt (199) and Gorman Thomas (165).

Among Switch-Hitters: Is one of just 3 switch-hitters in major league history to have multiple 30-homer seasons, joining Mickey Mantle (9) and Reggie Smith (2) . . . Ranks 5th all-time among switchers in homers, trailing Mantle (536), Smith (314), Ken Singleton (240), and Ted Simmons (222).

Multi HR Games/HR from Both Sides: Hit 2 homers in a game twice during the regular season and once in the world series in '83 (see above) . . . Homered twice off Boston's Mike Brown on June 19 at Baltimore and twice off Detroit's Milt Wilcox on Sep. 22 at Tiger Stadium . . . Has now homered twice in a game 10 times, 9 during the regular season.

Has tied club record with 3 homers in a game twice: Aug. 29[2], '79 at Minnesota (2 off Geoff Zahn, 1 off Mike Marshall) and Sep. 14, '80 at Toronto (2 off Jackson Todd, 1 off Mike Barlow) . . . Only other Oriole to accomplish that feat more than once was Powell (3 times).

Has also hit homers both righthanded and lefthanded in the same game 5 times in his career, tied for 3rd all-time behind Mantle (10), Smith (6), and Roy White (5) . . . Accomplished that feat twice in '82, tying Mantle's major league record.

Grand Slams: Hit the 7th grand slam of his major league career off Milwaukee's Pete Ladd on Sep. 18 at Baltimore . . . With that clout, matched Powell for the all-time club lead in that department . . . It was his 5th career slam at Memorial Stadium, tying Lee May for club lifetime high . . . See page 11 for more details.

Runs Batted In: He drove in over 100 runs for the 3rd time in '83, joining Powell at that figure for the most 100-rbi seasons in club history . . . Had a season-high 5 rbi vs. Milwaukee on Sep. 18 . . . Led the club with 65 "key runs produced" (runs that puts the team one down, tied, lead, or two up), 14 of those coming in the 6th inning or later.

Among Leaders: Over the last 6 years has 609 rbi and is 2nd in the majors to Rice (640) during that period . . . In last 5 years ('79-'83) his 514 rbi is 3rd highest . . . His 7-year career total of 697 is 4th in O's history and ranks 4th in majors in that period (starting '77).

Youngest: Was 4th Oriole to lead A.L. in rbi with 78 in '81 . . . Was major's youngest rbi leader (24 yrs., 7 mos.) since '74 and 2nd youngest in A.L. in last 38 years . . . Became youngest Oriole to ever drive in 100 runs with his career best 116 in '80.

Switchers: In '80 Eddie and Ken Singleton (104) became only the 2nd switch-hitting duo to drive in 100 runs apiece in the last 50 years . . . Ted Simmons and Reggie Smith of the '74 Cardinals were the other pair.

GWRBI: Has 77 game-winning rbi since that became an official statistic in '79, the most of any player in the majors over that 5-year span . . . Had 4 gwrbi in a 5-game period, Sep. 14 thru 18.

Switch-Hitting: In '83, Eddie had a higher average and a higher power quotient as a lefthanded batter, that occurring in both cases for the 1st time since '80.

1983: As an rhb, hit .289 (59-for-204) had a .505 slugging percentage, and homered every 17 bats (12 hr) . . . From the left side, batted a career high .315 (119-for-378), had a .556 slugging percentage, also a personal best, and homered every 18 bats (21 hr).

Career: Despite his'83 performance, his lifetime figures for average and slugging are superior from the right side, although his home run frequency is better as a lefthander . . . Had batted a combined .376 (109-for-290) righthanded in '81-'82 . . . His career figures:

Righthanded-.307 (386-for-1258), .513 slugging, 61 hr, 1/20.62 home run frequency.

Lefthanded-.292 (789-for-2700, .504 slugging, 137 hr, 1/19.71 home run frequency.

Natural Righty: Turned to switch-hitting in '75 and '76 while in the minors . . . Cal Ripken and Jim Schaffer were instrumental in assisting him with the switch.

Vs. Opponents: He had his greatest success against Cleveland-.457 (16-for-35), Boston-.392 (20-for-51), and Detroit-.354 (17-for-48), best ever vs. all 3 clubs . . . Had highs of 6 homers and 12 rbi vs. the Tigers . . . Hit .300 vs. 5 clubs.

Owns a .300 lifetime average against 7 clubs, led by Cleveland at .353 . . . Over the past 3 years, has batted .423 (44-for-104) vs. the Indians with 6 homers and 31 rbi in 30 games . . . Although has compiled lowest career average vs. Detroit at .259, has more lifetime homers (22) and rbi (72) against the Tigers than any other team . . . See pages 34-37 for complete statistics vs. opponents.

Has batted .386 (39-fo-101) against Boston in last 2 years but just .183 (15-for-82) vs. Seattle in the same span . . . Had an 18-game hitting streak against Chicago from Aug. 15, '81 thru May 17, '83, hitting .493 (34-for-69) in that span.

Fielding: The A.L.'s Gold Glove recipient at 1st for the 2nd straight season, Eddie finished 2nd to Milwaukee's Cecil Cooper in putouts (1393), total chances (1517), and double plays (136) . . . Was also 4th in assists (114) and percentage (.993, 10 errors) . . . His error total matched his career high, previously reached in '79.

His longest errorless game string was 41 from Apr. 23 thru June 8 . . . Committed 2 errors in a game twice: Apr. 20 vs. Texas and June 9 vs. Milwaukee, the 1st 2-error games of his career . . . Had 16 putouts against New York, June 27.

Career: Has career fielding percentage of .99513 (44 errors in 9037 total chances) in 906 games at 1st base . . . The existing American League record for "highest percentage, 1000 or more games," belongs to the now-retired Jim Spencer (.99489) . . . The N.L. record in that department belongs to Wes Parker (.9957).

Topped A.L. 1st basemen in fielding in both '82 at .9971 (4 e/1370 tc) and '81 at .999 (1 e/991 tc) . . . Had a string of 113 errorless games from Sep. 7, '80 until he erred on Sep. 21, '81 . . . Led league in total chances in '78 and has been 2nd 4 times ('79, '80, '81, '83).

All-Star Games: Was selected to the A.L. all-star team as a reserve for the 3rd consecutive time and 4th overall in '83 . . . Played the final 4 innings at 1st, going 0-for-2 and is now 0-for-5 in 3 all-star games . . . Did not play in '78.

Great Endings: Has always finished strong in his 7 major league seasons, combining for a .335 (277-for-828) average with 49 homers and 178 rbi in 208 games . . . Has hit over .300 during that period each year: '77-.364, '78-.305, '79-.333, '80-.328, '81-.360, '82-.320, '83-.328.

Tied for A.L. "player of the month" award in both Sep. '80 (with Rice) and Sep.'81 (with Willie Wilson) . . . In Sep. 80, batted .342 with 8 homers and 30 rbi, only the 4th time an Oriole player has ever driven in 30 runs in a single month.

Ejections: Was ejected twice in '83: on May 15 by Ken Kaiser at Texas and on July 4 by Mike Reilly at Detroit . . . Has 6 career ejections: 2 in '79 and one each in '81 and '82.

Ironman: Has played in 97.3% (1044 of 1073) of O's games during his career. Played in 444 straight games from Aug. 21, '77 to July 14, '80 (see page 111).

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS BY YEAR

1982: Led the Orioles in batting (career high .316), homers (32), and rbi (110) while setting a club record with 20 gwrbi . . . Had an incredible start, batting .441 with 5 homers and 17 rbi to earn A.L. "player of month" honors for April.

Was hampered in May and early June by tendinitis in his left hand, but rebounded to hit .324 with 25 homers and 84 rbi in his final 107 games starting June 9 . . . Was 3rd in the A.L. in slugging at .549 and 4th in batting.

1981: Led A.L. with 78 rbi and tied 3 others for league honors with 22 homers . . . Tied for major league lead with 2 grand slams and placed among the league leaders in slugging (2nd, .534) and total bases (5th, 202).

Had an outstanding 2nd half, batting .331 (60-for-181) with 14 homers, 52 rbi, and .635 slugging percentage in 50 games after the baseball strike . . . Was unanimous selection as "most valuable Oriole" and finished 5th in A.L. "mvp" voting.

1980: Batted .300 for the 1st time and set personal highs with 100 runs, 186 hits, 32 homers, 116 rbi and 36 doubles . . . Was 5th in A.L. in both hr & rbi and topped O's in both categories . . . Batted .325 with 20 homers and 67 rbi in 80 games after the all-star break . . . Finished 6th in league "mvp" vote and 2nd in "mvo" balloting.

1979: Led club in batting with .29537 average, edging Ken Singleton (.29473) on last day of season . . . Had career high 19-game hitting streak from Apr. 18 thru May 8 . . . Drove in winning run 6 times in games decided in 7th or later.

CS/WS: After striking out in his 1st 2 trips in game one of the ALCS, Eddie reached safely 10 times in his final 15 plate appearances with 5 walks and 5 hits . . . Was series' leading hitter at .417 (5-for-12) and top rbi producer with 4 . . . Hit 3-run homer off California's Mark Clear in game 2.

Continued his success in 1st 2 games of the world series against Pirates, reaching safely 7 times in 8 plate appearances on 4 hits and 3 walks, including a solo homer off Bert Blyleven in game 2 . . . However, over last 5 games, went 0-for-21 with just one walk.

1978: Was easy winner of "most valuable Oriole" award after finishing 2nd to Singleton the year before . . . Was one of 3 in A.L. to play in all his club's games and was 2nd in league to "mvp" Jim Rice in total bases (293 to 406) . . . Led O's in runs, hits, and rbi.

1977: Tied Lee May for the club lead with 27 homers, setting an Orioles' record for a rookie (mark was broken by Cal Ripken, Jr. in '82) . . . Became 4th Oriole to win BBWAA "rookie of the year" award . . . Finished 2nd to Oakland's Mitchell Page for TSN rookie award.

Early Career: Was originally signed by Ray Poitevint and Willie Moore . . . Named to all-star teams in the Appalachian League ('73), Florida State League ('74) and Southern League ('75) while leading his club in homers in each of those years . . . Also led O's minor league system in '76 while splitting the campaign between Charlotte and Rochester.

Amateur Background: Starred in both baseball and basketball at Locke High School in Los Angeles (graduated '73) . . . Played 1st base and pitched (was 7-1 as a senior) and was center on the basketball team.

Five players on his '73 team went on to play pro baseball, including St. Louis shortstop Ozzie Smith and former Minnesota pitcher Darrell Jackson, who served as tri-captains with Eddie.

Also played Little League, Babe Ruth and Connie Mack baseball.

Personal: Eddie is one of 12 children (has 7 sisters and 4 brothers) . . . All 5 of the Murray boys have played pro baseball.

The youngest brother, Richard, played 53 games with San Francisco in '80, batting .216 with 4 homers and 24 rbi . . . Last season the right-handed hitting 1st baseman played with the Giants triple-A club at Phoenix, batting .299 with 19 homers and 82 rbi in 120 games.

Both Venice and Leon (older than Eddie) played for a time in the Giants' system. Charles, who hit 37 homers and drove in 119 runs in the California League in '64, retired after reaching the AAA level in the Houston organization.

Charity: Eddie's contributions in the community earned him the Orioles' nomination for the 1984 Roberto Clemente Award, given annually by Major League Baseball to the player who best exemplifies the game on and off the diamond.

In the past year has been involved in the following charitable activities: United Cerebral Palsy, Sickle Cell Anemia, American Red Cross, United Way, John's Hopkins Children's Center, New Holiness Refuge Church, and the Park Heights Academy.

For the past 4 seasons, he has purchased 50 upper box seats for every Orioles' home game and distributed them to inner-city underprivileged youngsters thru the "Take Me Out to the Ballgame" program administered by the Baltimore Jr. Association of Commerce in cooperation with the City's Department of Human Resources.

During the last 4 years, has also made a number of appearances in the Baltimore schools, working in association with the Department of Education to impress upon youngsters at all grade levels the importance of discipline and staying in school.

Miscellaneous: Splits his winters between Baltimore and Los Angeles . . . Attended California State University in L.A. . . . Single.

Surgery: Joe had some soreness in his left knee late in the season and underwent arthoscopic surgery on Nov. 28 in St. Louis. No serious problem was found and Joe underwent a therapy program over the winter.

Joe served as the Orioles' backup catcher, appearing in a total of 65 games behind the plate with 52 starts . . . His 5 homers marked the 2nd highest total of his career. In 2 seasons with Baltimore, has 11 home runs, after hitting just 15 total in his 5 full National League seasons.

Batting: Joe hit .294 (20-for-68) with one homer and 5 rbi in 26 1st half games and .267 (31-for-117) with 4 homers and 19 rbi in 47 contests after the all-star break . . . His most productive month was September, when he had 3 homers and 9 rbi to go along with a .269 (14-for-52) average.

Batted over .300 in April-.318 (7-for-22), June-.313 (5-for-16), and August-.308 (12-for-39) . . . Longest hitting streak was 7 games, May 9 thru 31.

Hit his 2nd career grand slam (both with Baltimore) on Aug. 8 at Memorial Stadium vs. Cleveland's Rick Sutcliffe . . . Batted .291 (25-for-86) at Memorial Stadium . . . Was 2-for-14 as a pinch-hitter.

Fielding: He had a .980 percentage behind the plate with 5 errors in 244 total chances . . . Committed 2 errors in his 1st 2 games, then erred just once in his next 56 contests thru Sep. 19, including a 38-game errorless string from Apr. 16 thru Aug. 12.

Injuries: He sustained a fractured big toe on his left foot when hit by a Mike Brown (Boston) pitch on June 19 . . . Was placed on the 15-day disabled list at that time with John Stefero being recalled from Charlotte . . . Was activated on July 14 (Stefero optioned to Rochester) . . . Also missed several days when spiked on the left instep by K.C.'s Willie Wilson on Aug. 19' . . . Did not play again until Aug. 23.

Vs. Milwaukee: He continued to have success with Milwaukee, batting .381 (8-for-21) with a homer and 3 rbi against the Brewers . . . In 2 years in the A.L. has a .405 (15-for-37) batting mark vs. that club with 3 homers and 15 rbi . . . Is 6-for-9 off Moose Haas with 2 homers and 5 rbi.

Post-Season: He did not see action in the ALCS vs. Chicago . . . Appeared in games 1 and 4 of the world series . . . Entered both games as a pinch-hitter, then remained defensively . . . Was 0-for-2 with an intentional walk.

1982: He started 59 games after being acquired during the last week of spring training . . . Set major league highs with 6 homers and 35 rbi . . . Hit a pair of extra-inning game-winning homers, including a 10th inning grand slam off Toronto's Joey McLaughlin on Aug. 24.

Reds, '80-'81: Joe was signed as a free agent by Cincinnati on June 13, '80 after refusing an assignment to the minors by Atlanta (with 3 years of major league service he had the option to do so, thereby gaining free agency).

Batted .310 (121-for-390) in 151 games over a season and a half with the Reds . . . Was Cincinnati's regular catcher in '81 and finished in a tie for 2nd on the club in batting at .309 . . . Led all National League catchers in fielding with a .995 percentage (2 e/413 tc) in 81 games.

In '80, hit .312 (48-for-154) in 70 games for the Reds after joining the club in June . . . Batted safely in 24 of the last 27 games he started at a .356 (36-for-101) clip.

Atlanta: He served as Braves' backup catcher for 3½ years ('77 thru June '80), first to Biff Pocoroba and later to Bruce Benedict, batting .247 (135-for-547) in that period.

Set an Atlanta Braves club record with 14 pinch hits (in 39 at bats) in '77, a mark that was broken by Mike Lum and Charlie Spikes in '79 . . . Hit 1st major league home run in pinch hit role off Pittsburgh's Bruce Kison, May 12, '77.

Played in 4 games with Atlanta at end of '75 but had knee surgery after the season and saw action in just 32 games at Richmond in '76 . . . Had also been hampered by knee problem thru most of the '75 season.

Mets Organization: He was originally signed for New York by Charley Frey . . . Made his major league debut with New York in Sep. '72, going 0-for-10 in 4 games . . . Led his league's catchers in putouts at Visalia (California) in '71 and Memphis (Texas) in '72 while in the Mets' chain . . . Was an Appalachian League all-star at Marion in '69.

Amateur Background: Joe earned 1st team all-state honors in baseball at Southwest High School in St. Louis (graduated '69) . . . Was a 2nd team all-state selection in football and turned down a scholarship offer from the University of Missouri to enter professional baseball.

Personal: Hobbies: golf, hunting, and fishing . . . He and his wife, the former Kathy Kinest were married on July 19, '69 and have 3 daughters: Patricia (12/8/69), Kelly (3/8/72), and Becky (3/10/79).

Pitches: Fastball, curve, slider, and change.

Jim was hampered by injuries for most of the season, spending over 3 months on the disabled list . . . Except for the '67-'68 seasons, when he pitched in only 9 major league games total because of back and shoulder problems, his 14 appearances and 76.2 innings pitched in '83 were the lowest figures of his career . . . Compiled the highest era of any of his 18 major league campaigns (4.23).

He was 2-2 with a 3.62 era (13 er/32.1 ip) in 6 games before the all-star break and 3-2 with a 4.67 era (23 er/44.1 ip) in 8 games in the 2nd half . . . Had worked just 8 times all year before making 6 appearances in September.

Pitched 2 scoreless relief innings to win game 3 of the world series, making him the 1st pitcher in major league history to record world series victories in 3 decades (see below).

With a career record of 268-149, is tied for 24th all-time in victories.

Early Season: Jim was bothered by back problems throughout spring training and did not make his 1st regular season start until 12 days into the campaign . . . Was 1-0 and did not allow an earned run (13 ip) in his 1st 2 starts before losing at Oakland on Apr. 26.

Following that start, underwent examination and was found to have extensive stiffness and soreness in the muscles of his lower back and neck . . . Was placed on the 21-day disabled list on May 3 (retroactive to Apr. 30) with a 1-1 record and a 2.16 era (4 er/16.2 ip).

Was reactivated on June 14 but made just 3 appearances (2 starts) with a 1-1 record (9 er/15.2 ip) before returning to the d.l. on July 3 (retroactive to June 30) with tendinitis in the muscles of his right shoulder.

Rehabilitation Assignment: He underwent several weeks of therapy before being sent on "rehabilitation assignment" to the Orioles' class A Hagerstown Suns farm club (Carolina League) on Aug. 7 . . . Made 2 starts for the Suns, defeating Durham on Aug. 7 (5 ip, 7 h, 2 r-er) and Winston Salem on Aug. 12 (8 ip, 6 h, 4 r, 3 er) . . . For his start against Winston-Salem, the Suns drew 8,600, an all-time Hagerstown record.

Return: He was reactivated on Aug. 21 and went 3-2 with a 4.67 era (23 er/44.1 ip) in 8 games (6 starts) the rest of the way . . . Defeated Minnesota on Aug. 27, Boston on Sep. 6, and New York on Sep. 30², allowing just 2 earned runs in 21.1 ip in those 3 starts.

Miscellaneous: He did not pitch a complete game for the 1st time since '65 and snapped a streak of 14 consecutive seasons with 20 or more starts (starting '69) . . . Allowed 9 earned runs in 11.1 innings in 3 relief appearances . . . With retirement of Carl Yastrzemski, has longest term of service with same club of any active player.

Post-Season: Jim has an 8-3 record, has appeared in a total of 18 post-season games (17 pitching appearances; 15 starts) for the O's, and has an aggregate era of 2.61 (36 er/124.1 ip).

1983: Did not pitch in the ALCS vs. Chicago but appeared in game 3 as a pinch-runner . . . It was his 7th ALCS, setting a record for most lifetime Championship Series with one club . . . Overall, only Reggie Jackson has appeared in more ALCS (10) while Joe Morgan, Pete Rose, and Richie Hebner have all appeared in 7 NLCS.

His only world series appearance came in game 3 when he relieved Mike Flanagan in the bottom of the 5th with the O's trailing, 2-0 . . . Worked 2 scoreless innings, allowing 2 hits with a walk and a strikeout . . . Was pinch-hit for in the 7th, when Baltimore scored twice to take a 3-2 lead . . . Sammy Stewart and Tippy Martinez blanked the Phillies the rest of the way . . . It was Jim's 1st world series win since he defeated Pittsburgh in game 2 of the '71 fall classic.

1979: Started game 1 of the ALCS but came out after 9 innings in a 3-3 tie . . . In the WS, was the O's starter in games 2 & 6 . . . Did not figure in the decision in game 2 and was a 4-0 loser to John Candelaria in game 6 (8 ip, 10 h, 4 r).

Pennant Clinchers: Went the route to win the pennant clinching games in each of O's first 4 A.L. championship seasons . . . That string was broken in '79 by Scott McGregor.

In '66, Jim beat the K.C. A's Sep. 22 to wrap up the first A.L. title, then won the 3rd and final game of the ALCS against the Twins in '69 & '70 and the Oakland A's in '71 as the O's swept all 3 series.

Youngest Shutout: Became the youngest ever to pitch a WS shutout when he blanked Sandy Koufax, 6-0, in game 2 in '66 at Dodger Stadium on 4 hits and 6 L.A. errors. At the time Jim was 20 years, 11 months and 21 days old . . . That, incidentally, was Koufax' last game in professional baseball.

'69-'70-'71 WS: He won opening game of '70 series vs. Cincinnati and won game 2 in '71 vs. Pittsburgh . . . Then, he pitched 9 innings in game 6 against the Pirates, and left with score tied 2-2. The O's ultimately won in the 10th to force the series to a 7th game with Dave McNally getting the win in relief.

Jim's only world series loss until '79 was at the hands of the Mets in '69, game 3 to Gary Gentry, 5-0.

ALCS Records: Jim holds total series records for most wins (4, tied with Catfish Hunter), most complete games (5), most strikeouts (46) and most walks (19, tied with Mike Cuellar).

vs. Opponents: Jim has 20 or more lifetime victories against all 11 pre-'77 expansion American League teams (Seattle and Toronto are exceptions), a feat achieved in '82 with career win #20 against Detroit, Oakland, Minnesota and Texas . . . No pitcher in the history of major league baseball owns 20 or more victories against as many teams . . . Tom Seaver has defeated 10 National League clubs 20 times while Steve Carlton and Phil Niekro have accomplished that feat against 9 N.L. teams.

Jim has defeated New York 30 times followed by Cleveland (29), California (25), Chicago (24), Boston, Milwaukee, and Texas (22 each), Detroit, Kansas City, and Minnesota (21 each), and Oakland (20) . . . Has 7 shutouts against both Yankees and Indians.

New York: Recorded his 30th lifetime win against the Yankees on Sep. 30[2] with a 3-2 triumph, his only '83 appearance against them . . . Leads all active pitchers in victories vs. New York and is tied for 8th on the all-time list (Walter Johnson leads with 60 wins over N.Y.) but just 5 wins out of 2nd place . . . Is 16-7 lifetime at Yankee Stadium and 7-3 since that ballpark was renovated (starting '76).

Boston: Was 2-0 with a 0.71 era (1 er/12.2 ip) against the Red Sox, the only club he defeated twice in '83 . . . Prior to that, had not beaten Boston since Sep. 16, '79 . . . Has made more starts (57) and pitched more innings (429) against the Red Sox then any other A.L. club . . . Has also hurled 25 complete games vs. the Carmine Hose and worked 8 or more innings in 34 of 57 starts.

Chicago: Is 0-1 against the White Sox the last 3 years (did not pitch against them in '83) but has won 13 of last 16 decisions versus Chicago starting June 16, '74.

Cleveland: Is 11-1 against the Indians since the start of '77, including 4 straight . . . His 2.09 lifetime era (387.1 ip, 286 h, 90 er) versus the Tribe is the lowest vs. any opponent . . . Career record is 29-11.

Detroit: Despite losing only '83 decision, is 9-2 against the Tigers since a setback on July 31, '76 . . . Is 14-3 beginning '74 and 21-12 lifetime.

Seattle: Has had more trouble with the Mariners than any other club as his 2-3 record and 5.31 era (42.1 ip, 51 h, 25 er) attest . . . Is 0-2 lifetime in 4 appearances at the Kingdome with a 7.62 era (13 ip, 13 h, 11 er) . . . Didn't pitch versus the M's in '78, '79 or '83.

Texas: Is 4-0 against the Rangers since losing on July 20, '80.

For additional information regarding Palmer against other clubs, see pages 48-60.

Lifetime Wins: With a 268-149 record, Jim is tied with Phil Niekro for 24th on the all-time list of winners . . . Despite winning only 5 games, passed James McCormick, Eppa Rixey, and Bob Feller in '83 . . . Is tied for 4th among actives behind: Carlton (300), Fergie Jenkins (284), and Seaver (273).

There are 4 other active pitchers with 200+ wins: Don Sutton (264), Tommy John (248), Nolan Ryan (219), and Jerry Koosman (202).

Over the last 10 years ('74-'83), Jim's 146 wins are tied with Sutton for 4th in the majors . . . Carlton leads with 183 in that period.

He is also tied with Niekro for 6th all-time in victories with one club as all 268 of his wins have come with the Orioles . . . Walter Johnson is the all-time leader in this category (416) . . . Recorded his 250th win at Texas on May 25, '82.

20-Win Seasons: In '78 he became the 1st 8-time 20-game winner in the American League in 43 years since Lefty Grove turned the trick for the 8th (and last) time in '35 . . . Palmer, Grove, and Walter Johnson (a 12-time 20-gamer, for the last time in '25) are the only 3 in the 82-year history of the A.L. to have enjoyed 8 20-win campaigns.

Jim is only the 2nd major leaguer in the last 45 seasons to win 20 that often. Warren Spahn did it 13 times for the Braves, the last in '63.

Palmer is only the 6th among pitchers who worked exclusively in the 20th century and only the 16th in the entire history of major league baseball to notch 20 wins 8 times.

The major league record is 16 by Cy Young (between 1890 and 1909 in both leagues) . . . The N.L. mark is 13, held jointly by Spahn and Christy Mathewson.

Other multi 20-game winners over the last several decades include: Bob Lemon and Fergie Jenkins-7 each; Robin Roberts, Bob Feller, and Steve Carlton-6; Gaylord Perry, Catfish Hunter, and Tom Seaver-5; Luis Tiant-4.

Low ERA: Jim's 2.83 era is 5th on the all-time list (since era became an official stat in '12-NL and '13-AL) among pitchers with 3000 or more innings, and 2nd among actives behind Seaver.

The 5 leaders: (1) Walter Johnson-2.37 . . . (2) Grover C. Alexander-2.56 . . . (3) Seaver-2.73 . . . (4) Whitey Ford-2.74 . . . (5) Palmer-2.83.

Jim's era is the lowest in the A.L. since Johnson retired 56 years ago ('27) . . . Has finished in the A.L.'s "top 5" 10 times in the past 15 seasons (exceptions ('74, '79, '80, '81, '83) and has twice won the era title ('73, '75) . . . Was 3rd at 3.13 in '82.

W-L Percentage: Jim's .643 percentage is tops in the majors today (200 or more decisions minimum) and is 11th among those who have pitched in the 20th century exclusively . . . The leader is Whitey Ford (.690, 236-106) . . . The Yankee's Ron Guidry has a career mark of .705 (122-51) but is 27 decisions short of qualifying.

Has led the league twice in w-l percentage ('69, '82).

Shutouts/Scoreless Innings: Jim is tied with Gaylord Perry for 14th on the all-time list with 53 shutouts (Walter Johnson leads with 113) and is 4th among actives behind Don Sutton and Seaver (56 each) and Carlton (55) . . . Ryan has 52 and Jenkins 49.

Jim's 10 shutouts in '75 are a club record and represent an A.L. high since Dean Chance had 11 in '64.

During an 18-day period in '78 (May 24 thru June 10), Jim pitched 4 shutouts in 5 starts. Three of them were in succession which gave him a piece of the club record along with Jack Fisher ('60), Hal Brown ('61), Milt Pappas ('64) and Tom Phoebus ('67) . . . He also had a string of 30.1 scoreless innings in that span, shy of the club record, 36, held by Hal Brown ('61).

Has now pitched back-to-back shutouts 6 times in his career ('70, '73-2, '75, '77, '82) . . . Hurled just 2 shutouts in last 5 years, both in '82.

Winning Streaks: He has won 11 straight twice, 10 in a row and 9 straight once each and 8 consecutive games twice . . . See listing under career record for complete details.

In one 13 month period, spanning 2 seasons (from Aug. 30, '77 thru Sep. '78), Jim put together 3, 7 game winning streaks, including the last 7 decisions in both '77 & '78.

1-0 Wins: He has a 9-3 record in complete game 1-0 decisions and is 10-5 overall . . . In '78 during the period in which he hurled 4 shutouts in 5 starts (see above), he went the route to win 1-0, 3 times.

Among actives, Bert Blyleven (13), Steve Carlton (12), and Fergie Jenkins (11) are the leaders in 1-0 wins.

No-Hitter/Near Misses: He no-hit Oakland Aug. 13, '69, beating Chuck Dobson, 8-0, only 4 days after coming off a 6 week stretch on the disabled list (2nd start).

In '73 he experienced 2 near misses, both in Baltimore . . . Had a perfect game with one out in the 9th vs. Texas on June 16 (had retired 1st 25 batters) when Ken Suarez singled. Jim ultimately won a 9-1 2-hitter . . . Then, on July 27, a leadoff single in the 8th by Cleveland's George Hendrick was the only hit he allowed.

Jim pitched a no-hitter in the minors, at Aberdeen (Northern League) in '64, his 1st pro season.

Low Hitters: Among his 211 complete games are 59 in which he has limited the opponent to 4 hits or less . . . See details listed below his career record on page 158.

Club Records: See pages 7 -13.

Cy Young: Jim is one of just 4 pitchers to have captured the award as many as 3 times winning in '73, '75, and '76 . . . Steve Carlton is a 4-time recipient and Tom Seaver and Sandy Koufax each won 3 Cy Young Awards . . . The award has been presented since '56 with individual league awards beginning in '67.

He, Koufax and Denny McLain are the only ones to have won the award in 2 straight years (McLain shared his 2nd with Mike Cuellar).

In '75 and '76 Jim was the only pitcher named on all 24 ballots (2 per A.L. city) . . . He polled 108 points in '76 to win handily over Mark Fidrych (51 points). In '75, he totaled 98 points to win over Catfish Hunter (74 points) . . . In '73 he was named on 20 of 24 ballots good for 88 points to beat out Nolan Ryan (52 points).

Jim has finished among the top 3 in Cy Young balloting 6 times: '73-1st, '75-1st, '76-1st, '77-2nd, '78-3rd, '82-2nd.

Other Awards: Was TSN's A.L. "pitcher of the year" in '73, '75 & '76, and has been named to TSN's A.L. all-star team (by vote of fellow A.L. players) as the top righthander a total of 6 times.

He was voted to the A.P. major league all-star team in '75 & '76 and to the A.P. A.L. all-star team in '77 & '78 . . . He won 4 straight Gold Gloves as the top fielding pitcher in the A.L. from '76 thru '79.

Jim is a 2-time winner of the Sports Boosters of Maryland's "most valuable Oriole" award ('72 & '73) and has been runner-up 4 times: In '75 (to Ken Singleton), in '76 (to Lee May) and in '78 & '82 (to Eddie Murray).

He was voted "comeback player of the year" in '75 by TSN and UPI . . . He won the Joe Cronin Award in '76 for significant achievement in the A.L. and finished 2nd in the BBWAA's A.L. "most valuable player" balloting to Reggie Jackson in '73.

All-Star Games: Jim has been named to the A.L. all-star team 6 times ('70, '71, '72, '75, '77, '78) and has started 4 times ('70, '72, '77, '78). In his last 2 starts he didn't fare too well.

In '78 he gave up 3 hits, 3 runs (all earned), 4 walks and fanned 4 in 2.2 innings at San Diego, but didn't give up any home runs and didn't get the loss.

In '77 at Yankee Stadium he yielded 5 hits including 3 homers (Joe Morgan, Greg Luzinski and Steve Garvey) and was the losing pitcher, 7-5.

In 3 previous games ('70, '71, '72) he had pitched a total of 8 scoreless innings while allowing only 3 hits and 2 walks, and striking out 8.

Has not pitched in an all-star game in any of the 3 years that he went on to win the Cy Young . . . He wasn't picked to the squad in '73 and '76 and did not pitch in '75 because of a tender arm, but was on the team.

CAREER SIDELIGHTS

Big League Debut/Early Career: Made his big league debut in relief at Boston Apr. 17, '65, then earned his 1st win on May 16, '65, also in relief, vs. Yankees' Pete Mikkelsen in Baltimore.

Led O's in wins (15) in '66, the Birds 1st pennant winning season.

Pitched his 1st professional game at age 18, on May 1, '64 for the Aberdeen Pheasants (Northern League) at Grand Forks . . . He wasn't the pitcher of record in that game Aberdeen rallied to win 10-4.

One week later, in his 2nd pro start, (May 8, '64) Jim won his 1st game and pitched his 1st shutout, a 3-hitter, also against Grand Forks, in 10 innings.

Major Injuries: Back and shoulder injuries nearly ruined his career in '67-'68. He worked in only 2 games for the O's between June 8, '67 and the start of the '69 season.

During that period, he pitched at Rochester, Elmira and Miami trying to shake the ailments, but it wasn't until a stint in the Puerto Rican winter league after the '68 season that he began to overcome his physical problems.

Since then he has been afflicted with a series of arm, shoulder and back problems, but prior to '83, only 3 times have the injuries been serious enough to put him on the disabled list.

1969: After recovering from his '67-'68 maladies, Jim jumped out to a 9-2 start in '69 before tearing shoulder muscles on June 26 . . . He went on disabled list for 42 days, then, 4 days after being activated, pitched a no-hitter against Oakland.

1974: In his only losing season (prior to '81), he spent nearly 8 weeks (June 20 to Aug. 13) on the disabled list with a sore elbow.

1979: He didn't pitch for 44 days (from July 1 until Aug. 13) and saw action in only 3 games over a 10 week period (from June 3 to Aug. 13) while suffering from tendinitis in the right elbow. During that span, Jim was on the disabled list from July 16 to Aug. 9.

Strikeouts/Walks: He has fanned 10 or more batters 13 times including a career high of 13 strikeouts at Cleveland July 1, '71 . . . He had one 12 strikeout effort in '77 vs. Milwaukee on May 24 at Baltimore and has fanned 11 Twins 3 different times, all at Memorial Stadium ('70-1, '71-2).

He has twice walked 8 batters in a game, both times in 1st appearances of the year ('66 & '70).

Home Runs: In 3930 innings spread over 553 games, Jim has NEVER GIVEN UP A GRAND SLAM HOME RUN . . . Johnny Bench hit one off him while both were in the International League in '67, and Fred Patek once hit one in a spring exhibition game, but never in a regular season (or post-season) game.

He has yielded a total of 301 home runs, but is in no danger of matching Catfish Hunter's A.L. record (374), let alone Robin Roberts' major league mark (502).

Losing Streaks/Seasons: Jim lost 7 in a row in '74 (7 straight starts from Apr. 30 thru June 7) . . . Otherwise, he has never dropped more than 4 consecutive decisions, and he's done that only once (in '78 from June 23 thru July 15).

He has had just 2 losing seasons in 17 years in the majors: 7-12 in '74 and 7-8 in '81.

Long Games: Jim has pitched more than 9 innings 19 times: 10 innings-11 . . . 11 innings-4 . . . 12 innings-4 . . . He has a 5-6 record with 8 no-decisions in those 19 games . . . The last time he went into "overtime" was on Sep. 28, '77 when he went the route to win a 3-2 decision over Detroit in 11 innings.

In Relief: He has relieved 35 times in 553 regular season appearances with a record of 6-3 and 3 saves . . . Relieved 3 times in '83 and on 4 occasions in '82 but prior to that had worked only 7 times total out of the bullpen since his rookie season of '65 when he made 21 appearances.

Has relieved twice in post-season play, in the final game of a losing cause against Oakland in the '73 ALCS and in game 3 of the '83 world series (see above).

Batting: He has hit 3 home runs lifetime: off New York's Jim Bouton in Baltimore May 16, '65; off Dave Morehead in Boston Apr. 13, '66, and off Cleveland's Rich Hand May 27, '70 in Baltimore.

Jim has a lifetime batting average of .174 (85-for-489), but hasn't batted in a regular season game since Sep. 29, '72.

In 3 ALCS (before the dh rule) he went 1-for-14 with 1 rbi and 1 double ('70 vs. Twins) and in 5 world series he is 1-for-21, a single in '70 vs. Cincinnati . . . He did set an offensive record in '71 vs. Pittsburgh by drawing 2 bases loaded walks in the same game (game 2).

Signing and Amateur Background: Jim was signed to a bonus contract with the Orioles by Jim Russo and Jim Wilson . . . He was an outstanding 3-sport athlete at Scottsdale High School (graduated '63) where he earned all-Arizona honors in baseball, basketball and football.

Personal: Jim has been the highly publicized sports representative for Jockey Underwear since the spring of '80 . . . Was selected as the sports recipient of the '83 American Image Award, sponsored by the Male Apparel Industry and the Men's Fashion Association of America.

He has worked actively on behalf of the Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation for the past 13 years, serving most of that time as national sports chairman.

Worked as color man for ABC-TV during '78, '80 & '82 ALCS ('82 with Earl Weaver) and '81 world series . . . Participated in Superstars competition for television in '75, '76, '78, & '79.

Attended Arizona State University and Towson State University . . . Has 2 daughters: Jamie Michelle (11/16/66) and Kelly Christina (6/5/69).

GWRBI: '80-1; '81-Mia.-4, Hag.-0; '82-5; '83-Roch.-3, Char.-3.

1—Selected by Baltimore organization in June '80 free agent draft (second round, regular phase). Signed by Jack Sanford on 6/10/80. Recommended by Dan Cressman.

1983: After making the jump from class A, Al had a great start with Rochester but tailed off badly in June and July . . . Was sent to Charlotte on July 17 and finished strong with the O's . . . Had a cumulative average of .266 (96-for-361) with 5 homers and 50 rbi in 106 games.

Rochester: He batted .382 (13-for-34) in his 1st 10 games and was still at .356 (37-for-104) with 17 rbi in his 1st 31 contests thru May 30 . . . However, from that point on, hit just .164 (19-for-116) in his last 38 games with the Red Wings . . . That included a 4-for-5, 4 rbi performance vs. Syracuse on July 4.

Had 2 or more hits in 10 of 1st 28 games but accomplished that feat just twice in final 41 contests . . . Batted .214 (12-for-56) as a designated hitter and was 1-for-7 in a pinch-hit role . . . Fielded .964 (9 e/250 tc) in 45 games behind the plate.

Charlotte: Al had the highest average (.312) of any Charlotte player with 20 or more at bats . . . Hit safely in 11 of 1st 13 games (.314) and 12 of final 14 contests (.400) . . . Had a grand slam homer vs. Jacksonville on Aug. 6 and 4 hits against Savannah on Aug. 30 . . . Compiled a .974 fielding percentage (4 e/151 tc) in 27 games as a catcher and hit .231 (9-for39) in 10 games as a dh.

1982: Was among the Carolina League leaders in total bases (5th, 225), at bats (6th, 492), hits (6th, 142), rbi (6th, 86), and games (7th, 130) while leading Hagerstown in each of those categories . . . Hit .349 in final 22 games . . . Was North's starting catcher in league all-star game.

ProCareer: In '81, batted just .216 in 91 games with Miami before being assigned to Hagerstown on Aug. 8 . . . Hit .316 in final 21 games with the Suns, including a 6-for-13, 3 rbi effort in Hagerstown's 3-game sweep of Peninsula in league championship series.

At Bluefield in '80, finished 3rd on club in batting (.344), an average that would have placed him 3rd in the Appalachian League but was 19 plate appearances short of qualifying . . . Used mostly as a dh in 1st pro season.

Amateur Background: Graduated from Tampa's Jefferson High School in '80 . . . Was the leading high school hitter in city of Tampa that year with .493 average and set school records for both average and hits (33) . . . Was selected as all-county and all-conference catcher . . . Was one of 12 players in his conference to be drafted by professional teams in the June '80 free agent draft.

Attended Tampa's Hillsborough High School as a sophomore and junior . . . Lettered 2 seasons there as a catcher and designated hitter.

Personal: Of Cuban descent . . . When the Orioles signed Al, they also signed his older brother, Braulio, also a catcher, who was released in '81 . . . Hobbies: fishing and swimming . . . He and his wife, the former Cheryl Tate were married on Nov. 26, '83.

* Led league

1—Selected by Baltimore organization in June '79 free agent draft (5th round, Baltimore's 4th selection, regular phase) . . . Signed by Ray Crone on 6/20/79.

Pitches: Fastball, curve, slider, and change.

THE 1983 SEASON

Allan spent 92 days in 3 separate stints with the Orioles and played an important role as the club's 5th starter in June, July, and August.

Was 3-0 with a 1.55 era (5 er/29 ip) in his 1st 4 major league starts (thru July 17) before going 1-4 with a 4.03 (17 er/38 ip) mark in his final 7 appearances (6 starts) with Baltimore.

Major League Debut: He was recalled from Rochester on June 7 when the O's needed a 5th starter to replace the disabled Jim Palmer . . . Made his big league debut the following day in a starting role against Milwaukee at Memorial Stadium . . . Allowed 2 runs and 2 hits in the top of the 1st, then blanked the Brewers on 3 hits over the next 6 innings, leaving after 7 with the score tied, 2-2 . . . Baltimore scored 5 runs in the 8th to win for Tim Stoddard, 7-3.

Five days later, started again versus the Brewers, this time at Milwaukee, and ran his scoreless inning streak to 10 by pitching shutout baseball over the 1st 4 innings before allowing a run in the 5th . . . Recorded his 1st major league victory with a 3-2 win (5 ip, 5 h, 1 r-er) as Tippy Martinez earned the save.

When Palmer returned from the disabled list on June 14, was returned to Rochester so he could pitch on a regular basis.

Regular Starter: Al returned to the Orioles on July 10 when Palmer went back on the d.l. and was a member of the club's regular 5-man rotation over the next month . . . Won his 1st 2 starts impressively, a 3-1 victory over Oakland on July 12 (8 ip, 6 h, 1 r-er) when Rickey Henderson homered to lead of the 9th, ending his shutout, and an 11-1 triumph against California on July 17 (9 ip, 4 h, 1 r-er), his 1st big league complete game.

Was 1-4 with a 6.46 era (17 er/23.2 ip) in his next 5 starts, including losses in his last 3 games, and went to the bullpen when Palmer returned to duty on Aug. 21. . . Was optioned to Rochester when Baltimore acquired Tito Landrum from St. Louis on Aug. 31 and thus was not eligible for the playoffs.

Returned to the O's on Sep. 3 and pitched just once the rest of the season . . . Started at Boston on Sep. 13², but was forced to leave after 1.1 innings with a pulled muscle in his left rib cage . . . Was sidelined the remainder of the year.

Odds and Ends: Was 2-0 with a 1.33 era (4 er/27 ip) at home but just 2-4, 5.40 (18 er/30 ip) on the road . . . Was 2-0 against California . . . Fanned season high 4 batters at Texas on Aug. 16.

Rochester: Was 3-3 and leading the Red Wings in complete games (3) and strikeouts (42 in 50 ip) at the time of his 1st recall in June . . . Struck out 9 against Syracuse on July 7.

1982: After an impressive spring training with Baltimore, was plagued by control problems at Rochester and led International League with 117 walks . . . Was 2-7 in his last 13 starts.

Was 2-0 with a 2.00 era (4 er/18 ip) in 7 exhibition games with the O's and was one of the club's final cuts.

1981: Was hampered most of the season with tendinitis in his right elbow which had originally developed while pitching in the Puerto Rican League (Caguas) after the '80 campaign . . . Pitched sparingly with 3 different teams.

1980: Tied for the Southern League lead in starts (29) and was 2nd in both wins (16) and strikeouts (166), the top figures in the O's farm system . . . Won 9 straight starts from June 26 thru Aug. 9, including a one-hitter vs. Chattanooga on July 21 . . . Pitched 45 more innings than he allowed hits and fanned 9 in a game 3 times.

Amateur Background: Pitched 4 seasons for Rice University in Houston, TX . . . Holds the all-time Southwest Conference record for career strikeouts (424) and was all-Southwest Conference in '78 and '79 . . . Hurled a no-hitter against SMU in 1st conference start in '76.

Played 4 years at Victoria High School (graduated '75) . . . Named to all-district team last 3 years . . . Also played Little League baseball and pitched in Kansas and Alaska summer leagues.

Was drafted by Philadelphia Phillies out of high school and by Texas Rangers after junior year in college.

Personal: Of Mexican descent . . . Graduated from Rice in June '79 with a Bachelor of Science in Physical Education . . . He and his wife, the former Hilda Marie Fernandez, were married on Sep. 2, '78, and have a daughter, Renee Michelle.

1983 SEASON SUMMARY

Cal was chosen A.L. "MVP" by the Baseball Writers of America (BBWAA) in a close vote over Eddie Murray, The Sporting News' Major League "Player of the Year", and shared "Most Valuable Oriole" (MVO) honors with Murray ... Was 1st ever to win BBWAA "Rookie" and "MVP" awards back-to-back, a distinction eclipsed only by Fred Lynn who won both in '75.

Led majors in hits (211) and doubles (47), both club records; led A.L. in runs (121) and extra base hits (76, 2nd in majors to Expos' Andre Dawson-78); was 2nd in majors by a lash in total bases to Jim Rice (343 to 344); and ranked among A.L. leaders in—gwrbi (3rd, tie with Murray, 17); batting (5th, .318), slugging (5th, .517), rbi (9th, 102) and homers (9th-T, 27).

Became the first Oriole ever to play every inning of every game (see details below under "Ironman").

Topped major league shortstops in assists (534) and led A.L. in total chances (831—Ozzie Smith, St. L., was 1st in majors at 834) and double plays (113).

Appeared in A.L.'s 1st All-Star victory since '71 (played last 4 innings and walked in lone plate appearance), and also played for the winning team in both the ALCS and World Series ... Saved his best for the O's 44 game sprint to the division title (see "Stretch Run" below).

"MVP" Award: Rip polled 15 1sts, 9 2nds, 3 3rds and a 4th for 322 points (system: 1st-14 points, 2nd-9, 3rd-8, 4th-7, etc. to 10th) to shade Murray (290), who had 10 firsts. They were the only players named on all 28 ballots (2 writers from each A.L. city). Carlton Fisk, named on 26, earned 3 1st place votes.

The rest of the top 10: 3-Fisk (209); 4-Rice (150); 5-Cooper (123); 6-Quisenberry (107½); 7-Winfield (85); 8-Whitaker (84); 9-Lance Parrish (66), and 10-Baines (49).

Though Lynn and Rip are the only ones to have won the BBWAA "Rookie" and "MVP" awards so quickly, they are among 13 in the majors who have won both during their careers in the 37 years since the "Rookie" award was initiated in 1947 ("MVP" was started in '31). They are: A.L.—Thurman Munson and Rod Carew; N.L.—Johnny Bench, Orlando Cepeda, Willie Mays, Willie McCovey, Don Newcombe, Frank Robinson, Jackie Robinson, Pete Rose; One in each league—Richie Allen.

"MVO" Award: Cal and Eddie were co-winners of the "MVO" trophy presented annually for the last 30 years by the Sports Boosters of Maryland ... It was the 3rd such tie in club history. Brooks and Frank shared the honor in '71 and Paul Blair and Mike Cuellar were co-winners in '74 ... Five of the 13 voters in '83 (members of the media who cover the club regularly) split their 1st place votes.

Other Awards: In addition to TSN's Major League "Player of the Year" award, he was chosen as the shortstop on the TSN and UPI A.L. All-Star Teams, and to AP's Major League All-Stars. He also won the TSN-Hillerich & Bradsby "Silver Slugger" Trophy as the A.L.'s most offensively productive shortstop ... In addition, was selected A.L. "Player of the Year" by TSN and Baseball America.

Ironman: Was one of 3 major leaguers to play in all of his team's games along with Atlanta's Dale Murphy and the Blue Jays' Alfredo Griffin, but the only one to play every inning.

Though four other O's thru the years have played in every game (Brooks-4 times, Eddie-twice, and Billy Gardner & Bobby Grich-once each), none has played in every inning. The last player to do it in the majors was Oakland's Sal Bando in '69.

Rip has played every inning of every game since taking over at shortstop on July 1, '82 (253 games), and has played in 280 straight games since Floyd Rayford subbed for him at 3rd base in the 2nd game of a doubleheader on May 29, '82.

Batting: His .318 average was the 3rd highest in club history behind: Ken Singleton's .328 in '77 and Bob Nieman's .322 in '56 . . . Cal never went more than 2 straight games without a hit (and did that only 5 times) . . . His only real slump was of 7 games duration during which he was 2-for-26 with no rbi (from July 31 thru Aug. 6).

Reached base by hit or walk in 143 of the 162 games while hitting safely in 126. Had 2 or more hits 61 times (2h-45, 3h-10, 4h-5, 5h-1) to tie Lou Whitaker for 2nd in A.L. behind Wade Boggs' 68.

His 16 game hitting streak (Sep. 6-21) was longest by an Oriole and he also had two 11 game strings plus 3 of 9 games . . . No other Oriole had a streak longer than 9.

Batted .313 (51-for-163) with runners in scoring position . . . Produced 54 "key rbi" (put O's within 1 of a tie, tied, put club ahead, put club ahead by 2 runs) including 33 tying or lead runs; 2nd on the club to Murray's 66 "key rbi" and 36 tying or go-ahead rbi.

Club Records: Set or tied 6 different club game or season records in one game, at Minnesota on Sep. 3rd (that performance included his 2nd career 5 hits game) . . . See "Game Highlights" on page 47 for more details.

Established new Orioles season marks for hits (211 . . . old by Bumbry '80—205), and doubles (47 . . . old by Brooks '61—38) . . . Also set new standards for an O's shortstop in home runs (27 . . . old by Ron Hansen '60—22) and rbi (102 . . . old by Hansen '60—86) . . . Also set a major league record for most at bats, season, without stealing a base (663).

HR/RBI: Led all major league shortstops in homers and rbi and missed by one point of capturing the shortstops' "triple crown" when Alan Trammell out-hit him .319 to .318.

Enjoyed his first two 2-homer games: May 6 vs. Oak. at Bal. and Sep. 3 at Min. . . . Also hit his 2nd career slam off Oakland's Tim Conroy July 13 at Baltimore (his 1st was against the Yankees' Mike Morgan at Baltimore Sep. 14, '82).

His 17 gwrbi (tied for club lead with Murray) was 3rd highest total by an Oriole since rule became official in '79 (Murray had 20 in '82 & Singleton 19 in '80).

Hitting by Month: April-.294 (25-85), 2 hr, 10 rbi, 20 g . . . May-.269 (28-104), 5 hr, 17 rbi, 28 g . . . June-.287 (29-101), 5 hr, 18 rbi, 25 g . . . July-.330 (35-106) 4 hr, 21 rbi, 26 g . . . August-.315 (39-124), 5 hr, 16 rbi, 30 g . . . September-.393 (53-135), 6 hr, 19 rbi, 31 g . . . October-.400 (2-5), 1 rbi.

Stretch Run: During the 44 games from Aug. 13 thru Sep. 25, a period in which the O's went 34-10 to sew up the east, Rip hit .391 (75-for-192) with 14 doubles, 9 homers, 30 rbi and 40 runs scored . . . Was selected as A.L.'s "player of the month" for September when he batted .393 (53-for-135) with 6 homers and 19 rbi in 31 games.

He had also excelled in '82 during the O's final 44 games when they went 33-11 to catch the Brewers on the next to last day of the season. In that stretch he had 11 homers, 31 rbi and a .289 (48-for-166) average.

Vs. Opponents: Highest average—.466 (27-for-58) vs. Milwaukee . . . Most home runs—5 vs. Twins . . . Most rbi—15 vs. Milwaukee (13 games). Was 14-for his last-21 vs. Brewers.

His lowest average was against Cleveland (.216, 11-for-51) . . . Hit homers against every club but Texas and Cleveland.

Lifetime . . . Highest average—.356 (42-for-118) vs. Milwaukee . . . Most homers—7 vs. Twins and most rbi—23 vs. Milwaukee (27 games) and New York (26 games), and 22 vs. Angels (24 games) . . . Lowest average—.211 (19-for-90) vs. Chicago . . . Has .300+ average lifetime vs. 5 opponents (see page 37).

Fielding: See "Season Summary" above . . . Had a .970 percentage (25 errors in 831 chances) to rank 4th, among qualifiers, behind Dent (.979), Trammell (.979) and Yount (.973) . . . Three other shortstops had more errors than Rip, topped by U.L. Washington's 36 miscues.

Started '82 as the O's regular 3rd baseman, and played both short and 3rd after first coming up in Aug. '81.

Committed one error in a span of 30 games from Aug. 16 thru Sep. 16.

ALCS/WS: Batted a combined .273 (9-for-33) in 9 post-season games . . . Drove in the O's only run, in the 9th inning off Lamarr Hoyt, of game #1 ALCS in a 2-1 loss, and had a 7th inning rbi in game #2 of the WS off Larry Andersen (O's won 4-1) . . . Made final putout of WS when he caught Garry Maddox' line drive in 9th inning of game #5.

1982: Became the O's 5th BBWAA "Rookie of the Year" by polling 24 1sts, and 4 2nds for 130 points to beat out the Twins' Kent Hrbek (90 points) who was also named on all 24 ballots . . . Wade Boggs was 3rd.

Previous Orioles winners: Ron Hansen ('60), Curt Blefary ('63), Al Bumbry ('73) and Eddie Murray ('77).

Leader: Led all big league rookies in doubles (32), homers (28) and rbi (93), total bases (284), gwrbi (11, tie with Von Hayes), games (160), at bats (598), and runs (90).

Paced the O's in games, at bats, runs, doubles and triples (5) and was 2nd to Murray in homers, rbi and gwrbi.

Slow Start: After an auspicious start on Opening day when he went 3-for-5 with his 1st big league double and homer (1 on off Dennis Leonard), he plunged into a deep slump (4-for-55). By May 1, after 18 games, he was batting .117 (7-for-60).

Recovery: The next day, May 2, he picked up a pair of scratch hits; was beaned on May 3 by rookie Mike Moore, but missed only one game, then his comeback began in earnest May 6 . . . Batted .281 (151-for-538) from May 2 to the end of the season.

Vs. Yankees: Had 17 rbi in 13 games vs. N.Y. with 4 hr . . . The only other Oriole to have driven in more runs in a single season vs. the Yankees was Brooks (19 in '70, 18 gms) . . . Brooks ('66) and Boog Powell ('69) also had 17 rbi seasons against the Bombers.

Miscellaneous: Missed only 3 games all year . . . Played 44 straight errorless games in 3rd base from Apr. 24 thru June 14 while handling 137 chances . . . Was A.L.'s "player of week" for week ending Aug. 27 (.444, 12-for-27, with 4 hr & 11 rbi in 7 games) . . . Earned 1st major league stolen base the hard way, by stealing home (on front end of double steal with Lenn Sakata) vs. Jon Matlack (Tex.) May 31 at Baltimore . . . Missed only 3 games all year.

Orioles '81: Recalled from Rochester on Aug. 8 just after strike was settled . . . Made big league debut as pinch-runner Aug. 10 . . . Singled off Chicago's Dennis Lamp Aug. 16 for 1st hit . . .

Played in 12 games at short (9 starts) and 6 at 3rd . . . Did not bat and played in only 2 games after Sep. 11.

Winter Ball, '82: Played in Venezuelan League under Ray Miller and was voted Caguas' "mvp" . . . Lead league with 49 rbi, was 3rd in hr (10) and hit .314 . . . Came close to winning "triple crown".

Rochester '81: Despite missing last 3 weeks of season (called up to O's), he was voted I.L.'s "rookie of year" and was named as 3rd baseman on all-league team . . . In survey of I.L. managers and coaches, Rip was picked as the loop's top major league prospect (Von Hayes was 2nd).

Played in 85 games at 3rd and 35 at shortstop (primarily when Bob Bonner was injured).

1980: Was Southern League's all-star 3rd baseman . . . Tied for league lead in games (144) and sac flies (9) and led Charlotte in runs (91), hits (144) and 2bh (28) . . . Hit 25 homers and was one of 2 players to break Charlotte's existing hr record . . . The other was Drungo Hazewood who hit 28 . . . Cal had homered only 8 times in his 1st 2 pro seasons.

Was S.L.'s top fielding 3rd baseman (.933, 28 e in 415 tc) . . . In Puerto Rico that winter he hit .279 with 6 homers and 38 rbi and Caguas won loop title.

1979: Was picked as shortstop on Topps' Class A all-star team . . . Actually played more games at 3rd (58) than short (52) . . . Led FSL in doubles (28).

1978: Signed by the late Dick Bowie . . . Played shortstop mostly that year at Bluefield and led league in putouts . . . Played in Florida Instructional League in both '78 and '79.

Amateur Background: Pitched and played shortstop at Aberdeen (MD) High (graduated '78) . . . Was 7-2 with an 0.70 era as a senior with 100 strikeouts in 60 innings while batting a county best .492 with 29 rbi in 20 games . . . Pitched a 2-hitter and fanned 17 to win '78 Maryland Class A baseball championship.

Also earned 2 letters in soccer . . . Was team captain and both an all-county and all-metropolitan selection.

Played Little League, Babe Ruth and Mickey Mantle League baseball.

Personal: Son of Cal Sr., O's 3rd base coach, giving Baltimore one of the few father-son combinations on the same team in major league history (see Cal Sr.'s biog on page 97) . . . Single, last November's radio reports to the contrary.

Following his signing of a multi-year contract in February, Cal announced that he will purchase 25 tickets for every 1984 Oriole home game for use by underprivileged youngsters and senior citizens in his native Harford County. He has also made significant contributions to the Harford Center, a day care center for retarded citizens, and the School for Performing Arts in Baltimore.

His younger brother, Billy, was the O's 7th round pick in June '82 free agent draft . . . He has played at Bluefield the past 2 seasons.

* Led league • Tied for league lead
1—Signed by Baltimore organization as an undrafted free agent on 2/15/77.

Though he is only 22, Victor has already played 7 pro seasons since the Orioles signed him at the age of 15 . . . He has hit .290 or better in 6 of those 7 years, and over .300 4 times ('78 thru '81).

'83 Season: Has played at Charlotte for all or part of 4 straight seasons ('80 thru '83) . . . Led Southern League in at bats (571) and hits (170, tied with Chattanooga's Ivan Calderon), and led Charlotte in batting, among qualifiers (.298), and runs (80). Set career highs in homers (14), rbi (77), games (140), hits and runs.

Was batting .317 (100-for-315) at the end of June, then tailed off, hitting .273 (70-for-256) over the last 2 months . . . Played 115 games at 2nd base and 25 at 3rd.

Victor appeared in a total of 192 games, excluding spring exhibitions, but including 18 in the Florida Instructional League after the regular season (.277, 18-for-65) and 34 more with Santurce, managed by Ray Miller, in the Puerto Rico Winter League (.293, 27-for-92).

Pro Career: The only year in which he hit below .290 was '82 when he batted a combined .262 (122-for-465) at Charlotte/Rochester . . . Hit a collective .301 for Alexandria/Charlotte/Miami in '80 (114-for-379).

Was signed by Tom Giordano after a recommendation by Luis Rosa . . . Named to Appalachian League all-star team as dh in '78 . . . Missed 8 weeks in '79 with injuries to right knee.

Amateur Background/Personal: Attended Naguabo (P.R.) High School . . . Played Little League and Babe Ruth baseball . . . His father played professional baseball in Puerto Rico . . . Was born in New York City but grew up in Naguabo . . . Married Dec. 17, '83 to the former Elba Aquino-Hernandez.

Gary was a versatile performer, seeing extensive action at all 3 outfield positions while also playing 1st and 3rd base . . . Finished 3rd on the club with 19 home runs and 4th with 64 rbi and produced a .477 slugging percentage (154 total bases).

Once again teamed with John Lowenstein (and assorted others) to give the Orioles one of the most productive left field positions in the majors with a .292 (179-for-612) average, 35 homers, and 131 rbi . . . Over the last 2 seasons, the O's left field position has combined for a .288 (351-for-1220) batting mark with 76 homers and 254 rbi.

Batting: Gary hit .272 (41-for-151) with 9 homers and 33 rbi in 54 1st half games and .250 (43-for-172) with 10 homers and 31 rbi in 61 contests after the all-star break . . . His best stretch was a 19-game span from May 10 thru June 11 when he batted .397 (23-for-58) with 6 homers and 19 rbi, lifting his average from .220 to a season high .323 . . . Was still batting .273 thru Sep. 14 but hit just .147 (5-for-34) in his last 13 games.

Batted .285 (59-for-207) vs. lefthanders and .216 (25-for-116) against righties . . . Tied his career high with 4 hits on June 1 vs. Minnesota.

By Month: April-.276 (8-for-29), 1 hr, 8 rbi, 15 g . . . May-.278 (10-for-36), 3 hr, 9 rbi, 15 g . . . June-.280 (23-for-82), 5 hr, 16 rbi, 22 g . . . July-.226 (14-for-62), 2 hr, 9 rbi, 22 g . . . August-.300 (15-for-50), 5 hr, 9 rbi, 17 g . . . September-.232 (13-for-56), 3 hr, 12 rbi, 22 g . . . October-.125 (1-for-8), 1 rbi, 2 g.

Pinch-Hitting: He hit .211 (8-for-38) with one homer and 6 rbi in 40 appearances as a pinch-hitter . . . Finished 2nd among A.L. subswingers in at bats to Chicago's Jerry Hairston (62) . . . His 38 at bats were the most by an Oriole other than Terry Crowley since Bob Johnson in '64 (46) . . . Hit a 3-run pinch-homer off Chicago's Jerry Koosman on May 17[1].

Miscellaneous: Amassed 44 of his 62 rbi in just 17 games (3 4-rbi games; 4 3-rbi games; 10 2-rbi games) . . . Was bothered by a bruised left instep in September . . . Went 0-for-4 as a designated hitter.

Post-Season: Gary reached base 9 times in 10 plate appearances in the ALCS, going 3-for-4 with 5 walks and a hit by pitch . . . Led the O's in walks and rbi (4) . . . Started games 2 & 4 and appeared defensively in the 3rd game . . . Hit a 2-run homer off Floyd Bannister in the 6th inning of game 2 and drew a bases loaded walk off Dennis Lamp in the 9th inning of game 3.

Was a starter in game 3 of the world series and played defensively in games 1 & 5.

Home Runs: Gary has hit 40 homers in the last 2 seasons after going deep just 13 times in the previous 2 campaigns . . . Hit 9 solo homers, 7 with one man on, 2 with 2 on, and his 3rd career grand slam, off John Henry Johnson on Sep. 13 at Boston . . . All 3 of his major league slams have come on the road . . . Has 18 solo homers in the last 2 seasons.

Homered just once in his 1st 24 games, then exploded for 8 in the next 24 contests . . . Also hit 9 homers in a span of 29 games, July 31 thru Sep. 14 . . . Had home runs in back-to-back games 4 times and hit 2 homers in a game for the 3rd time in his career on June 21 vs. New York, both off Shane Rawley.

Smacked 18 of 19 homers off lefthanders with exception coming against Texas' Odell Jones on July 31.

Vs. Opponents: He batted .550 (11-for-20) against Minnesota and his .359 (55-for-153) lifetime mark vs. the Twins is his high vs. any club . . . At the other extreme, was 1-for-17 (.059) vs. Detroit, giving him a .141 (18-for-128) career average against the Tigers.

Had season highs of 4 homers and 12 rbi against Chicago with 7 homers and 21 rbi vs. the White Sox over the last 2 years . . . Career bests are 13 homers vs. Kansas City and 28 rbi against Chicago . . . See pages 34-37 for full statistics vs. opponents.

Fielding: Started 38 games in left, 19 in right, and 7 in center with a .982 (3 errors in 169 total chances) fielding percentage . . . Finished 2nd on the club with 8 assists . . . Went 75 consecutive games without an error, June 25 thru Sep. 17.

Has a career fielding percentage of .988 (14 e/1136 tc) with 39 assists . . . Led the O's in that department in '79 (10) and '80 (8) and topped all A.L. outfielders in percentage in '80 at 1.000 (205 tc).

Started 6 games at 1st base when Eddie Murray was injured in August and late September . . . Did not commit an error in 62 chances at 1st over 8 total games . . . Played 3rd base for the 1st time in his major league career on Aug. 24 (10th inning) vs. Toronto and again on Sep. 29 vs. Detroit (no chances) . . . Was his 1st appearance at that position since '78 at Rochester . . . Played fulltime at 3rd in his 1st 2 minor league seasons ('73 & '74) and was named to his league's all-star team both years.

Hit by Pitch/Mask: Gary was hit by a team-high 4 pitches in '83, increasing his career total to 35 . . . Was tied for 3rd in the A.L. in that department in '82 (9) and was 2nd in '79 (12) . . . Was hit in the face by Lerin LaGrow (Chi). on Apr. 7, '79 (2nd game of season) and 25 stitches were required to close the wound in upper lip . . . Returned to action 8 days later using a special helmet face-guard which he ultimately discarded at the start of the '81 campaign.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS BY YEAR

1983 SEASON AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Except for his one appearance behind the plate (see below), Lenn played exclusively at 2nd base, making 36 starts . . . Stole a career high 8 bases in 12 attempts and once again, had the knack of producing in the late innings.

Batting: He batted .246 (14-for-57) with one homer and 5 rbi in 25 1st half games and .260 (20-for-77) with 2 homers and 7 rbi in 41 games after the all-star break . . . Had a season high 7-game batting streak from June 11 thru 27, during which he batted .320 (8-for-25) . . . Hit .303 (10-for-33) in 18 games in September-October.

Catching Debut: Lenn was a major factor in the Orioles' dramatic victory over Toronto on Aug. 24 . . . Entered the game defensively at 2nd base in the 8th . . . With Baltimore trailing, 3-1, in the bottom of the 9th, manager Joe Altobelli used Benny Ayala as a pinch-hitter for Joe Nolan, who had hit for Rick Dempsey earlier in the contest . . . With 2 on, Ayala singled to make it 3-2, and Al Bumbry followed with another rbi single, sending the contest into extra innings.

With both of his catchers out of the game, Altobelli turned to Sakata, who had not caught since Little League . . . Cliff Johnson homered and Barry Bonnell singled to open the top of the 10th off Tim Stoddard . . . Tippy Martinez replaced Stoddard and promptly picked Bonnell off 1st . . . He then repeated that feat against Dave Collins, who had walked, and then Willie Upshaw, who had singled, to end the inning . . . Lenn actually caught 6 pitches in that bizarre 10th.

To top it off, Lenn won the game with a 3-run homer off Randy Moffitt in the bottom of the 10th, giving Baltimore a 7-4 victory . . . Starting with that triumph the O's won 23 of their next 27 games en route to the A.L. Eastern title.

Add "Sudden Death Sakata": He also singled off Kansas City's Dan Quisenberry in the bottom of the 9th inning on Aug. 19[1] to give the Birds a 5-4 win . . . In his 4 seasons with the Orioles, has driven in the winning run in "sudden death" at home 4 times, twice in '80 and twice in '83.

Since joining the O's, has knocked in the game-winning run 8 times, 7 of those coming in the 7th inning or later and 5 coming in the 9th or later . . . In addition to his 2 "sudden death" hits in '83, drove in the decisive run in the 11th inning on May 14 at Texas.

Fielding: Lenn had a percentage of .990 (2 errors in 203 total chances) in 60 games at 2nd . . . Did not committ an error in his 1st 40 games (144 tc) before making both miscues on Aug. 23 vs. Toronto . . . Then finished the year with a 19-game errorless streak . . . His career fielding mark at 2nd is .983 (18 e/1070 tc).

For the 1st time since '79, did not play at all at shortstop . . . Saw action at that position in 4 games in '80, 42 in '81, and 56 in '82 . . . Prior to that, had played solely at 2nd since college . . . Career percentage at short is .960 (16 e/405 tc).

Vs. Opponents: He batted .364 (4-for-11) against both Detroit and Texas and has a career best .356 (21-for-59) vs. Minnesota . . . Has batted .367 (18-for-49) in last 3 years against Rangers.

Vs. Chicago: Lenn was 0-for-66 lifetime and 0-for-14 in '83 against the White Sox when he singled off Floyd Bannister in the 7th inning on Aug. 11 at Comiskey Park . . . Also had a single against Dennis Lamp on Aug. 13 and is now 2-for-79 lifetime against the Pale Hose with 3 walks . . . Is 0-for-16 lifetime vs. Chicago at Memorial Stadium.

Did not see action against the White Sox in the ALCS.

World Series: Lenn was used as a pinch-runner and defensive replacement in game 4 at Philadelphia . . . Flied out in only plate appearance.

Miscellaneous: He was ejected by Steve Palermo on Sep. 19 for arguing a caught stealing call on John Shelby . . . Was 0-for-3 as a pinch-hitter.

1982: Started 50 of the O's 1st 72 games at shortstop, but played only at 2nd after Cal Ripken moved from 3rd to short on July 1 . . . Set career highs in most offensive categories, including average (.259), homers (6), and rbi (31) . . . Hit in a career high 8 straight games from Apr. 21 thru May 4 at .435 (10-for-23).

1981: Had appeared in just 31 games with .189 batting average thru Sep. 2 . . . Then played in final 30 games with 28 starts (27 at short) while batting .247 in that period . . . Hit all 5 homers in that span including his 1st career grand slam (Sep. 6 off Oakland's Dave Beard) and a pair of 2-homer games (Sep. 20 vs. Milwaukee and Oct. 1 at Detroit).

Was on disabled list from May 9 thru 28 with badly sprained right ankle.

1980: Trained with the Orioles after off-season trade from Milwaukee, but was assigned to Rochester to start season . . . Was leading the International league in hitting when recalled on May 23 . . . Went 4-for-5 as a pinch-hitter (had never been used in that capacity in majors previously), including a pair of game-winning hits in "sudden death."

Milwaukee: Spent parts of '77, '78, '79 seasons with the Brewers . . . Called up to majors in July '77 when injuries hit Milwaukee infield and started 46 times in 50-game stretch . . . Hit 1st big league homer off Dennis Martinez on July 25 of that year.

Started '78 as regular 2nd baseman vs. lefthanders but was ultimately optioned to Spokane in July . . . Also spent Sep. '79 with the Brewers.

Minors: Signed for Brewers by Dick Bogard . . . Had been drafted previously by San Francisco and San Diego but did not sign . . . Had .286 career average in minors (566-for-1979) . . . Was all-star 2nd baseman (by vote of managers) in PCL in '79 and Eastern League in '75.

Amateur Background: Played one season at Treasure Valley College (Ontario, Oregon) before transferring to Gonzaga University (Spokane) for 2 years . . . Earned all-district and 2nd team junior college all-American honors at 2nd base for Treasure Valley in '72 . . . Was all-district and all-Big Sky Conference 2nd baseman at Gonzaga in '73 & '74 . . . Was 3rd team all-American pick in '74.

Lettered in baseball, basketball, and golf at Kalani High (graduated '71) and was all-state shortstop in senior year . . . Played Babe Ruth and American Legion baseball with legion team winning Hawaii state championship in '70 & '71.

Personal: Of Japanese descent . . . Hobbies: golf and tennis . . . He and his wife, the former Darren Kay Bell, were married Jan. 14, '78 and have one son, Ryan Haruki (3/23/83).

* Led league • Tied for league lead

'83 Season: Led Southern League in doubles (37) and homers (25, tied with Glenn Davis, Columbus Astros) . . . Led Charlotte in rbi (87) and set career highs in virtually every category but batting average . . . Attended his 1st spring training and played his first full pro season.

Was batting .276 (78-for-283) on June 30, then hit at a .296 clip (69-for-233) the rest of the way . . . Reached a late season high of .296 (128-for-432) on August 10 . . . Played 99 games in outfield, 18 at 1b, and 28 as dh.

July was his best month . . . He had 10 homers and 23 rbi in 30 games while batting .319 (36-for-113) . . . During the year he had two 2-homer games, two 4-hit games and drove in 5 runs in one game on May 27.

Over the past 2 seasons (at Hagerstown, Charlotte, and Rochester), he has batted .289 (243-for-840) with 43 homers, 58 doubles, and 146 rbi in 226 games.

His 1st big hit at Charlotte ('83) was a game-winning grand slam in the bottom of the 9th on April 21 to beat Birmingham 9-8 . . . Led O's in hr (7) and rbi (31) while playing 38 games in Florida Instructional League last fall.

PREVIOUS PRO CAREER

In his rookie pro season ('78), Larry led Appalachian League in rbi (48 in 67 games) and was 2nd in homers (11) . . . However, he chose not to return to baseball the following spring while attending college . . . He did finally report to Bluefield for the final 3 games of the season ('79), but remained in college again the following spring ('80).

In June '80, he reported to Bluefield and tore the league apart, leading the league in homers (14) and driving in 47 runs in 37 games . . . That performance earned him a late season promotion to AA Charlotte . . . In October '80 he had bone chips removed from his right elbow.

Larry did not play at all in '81 and did not go to spring training in '82. However, in June he reported to Manager Grady Little at Hagerstown and played in 88 games, hitting 18 home runs and driving in 59.

Amateur Background: Played 3 varsity seasons at Robert E. Lee High (Staunton) and hit 18 homers, 10 of them senior year ('78) when he batted .536 (30-56) with 20 extra base hits . . . Pitched junior year and threw a no-hitter . . . Also struck out 17 in one game . . . Played centerfield exclusively as a senior.

Also won 3 varsity basketball letters . . . Played against Ralph Sampson (Harrisonburg) . . . Was "mvp" in both basketball and baseball in '78 . . . Was twice all-district in basketball.

Played Little League, Babe Ruth, and American Legion baseball. Was "mvp" in state legion tournament in '77.

Has completed 3½ years at Eastern Mennonite College (Harrisonburg) . . . Played varsity basketball there and also served as an assistant baseball coach.

Personal: Majoring in Health & Physical Education at Eastern Mennonite . . . He and his wife, Sharon, were married in January '83 . . . Roomed with Cal Ripken during his brief stay with Charlotte in '80.

Winter Ball: John played this winter for Ray Miller's Santurce club in the Puerto Rican League . . . After a slow start, hit .290 with 7 homers and 32 rbi in 59 games . . . Led league in triples (5) and stolen bases (24 in 27 tries) and was "mvp" in circuit's all-star game.

After enjoying one of the finest spring trainings in Orioles history (see below), John alternated with Al Bumbry in centerfield most of the season . . . Started 59 games, primarily against lefthanded pitching, while leading the club in stolen bases (15 in 17 attempts) and outfield assists (9).

Spring Training: John hit .444 (28-for-63) with 7 doubles, 2 triples, and 2 home runs in 25 exhibition games . . . It was the 2nd highest average ever by an Oriole (35 or more at bats) in the spring and the best since Don Lenhardt batted .462 (24-for-52) in '54 . . . Also led the club in runs (17, most by an Oriole in 10 springs), hits (28), doubles, and triples.

Batting: He had a good start, hitting .387 (24-for-62) in his 1st 22 regular season games thru May 14 . . . Batted just .204 (21-for-103) in his next 36 games to finish the 1st half of the season at .273 (45-for-165) in 58 games.

Went on another spurt, batting .313 (15-for-48) in his 1st 17 games after the all-star break and was at .282 thru Aug. 6 . . . Hit just .214 (24-for-112) in his final 51 contests.

Was 0-for-22 in an 11-game span from Aug. 7 until singling in 2nd at bat on Aug. 19² . . . Went 4-for-5 against California on Apr. 23 and had 3 hits in a game 5 times . . . His longest hitting streak was 7 games, July 21-31.

Switch-Hitting: John hit .255 (52-for-204) with 4 homers and 14 rbi righthanded and .264 (32-for-121) with one homer and 13 rbi from the left side.

His career totals are righthanded-.262 (60-for-229), 5 hr, 15 rbi and lefthanded-.263 (35-for-133), 1 hr, 14 rbi . . . Is a natural righthanded batter and did not become a switch-hitter until '79 at Miami.

By Month: April-.395 (17-for-43), 13 g . . . May-.224 (13-for-58), 22 g . . . June-.226 (14-for-62), 21 g . . . July-.324 (11-for-34), 14 g . . . August-.179 (10-for-56), 25 g . . . September-.270 (17-for-63), 29 g . . . October-.222 (2-for-9), 2 g.

Odds and Ends: He had his 1st career grand slam off Kansas City's Keith Creel on Aug. 29 . . . Had 2 hits (double and single) in the 1st inning on June 9 vs. Milwaukee . . . Batted .259 (7for-27) as a pinch-hitter with 2 rbi . . . Drew bases-loaded walk as a pinch-hitter in bottom of 9th to beat Toronto on June 3.

Hit .283 (54-for-191) with 5 homers and 21 rbi on the road but just .224 (30-for-134) with 6 rbi at home.

Stolen Bases: John's 15 steals in 17 tries was good for a .882 success rate, the best in the American League among players with 10 or more attempts . . . Kansas City's Willie Wilson was 2nd in the league at .881 (59 of 67) while Philadelphia's Joe Morgan led the majors at .900 (18 of 20).

Was 2nd among A.L. rookies in steals to Julio Franco of Cleveland (32) . . . Had the most thefts by an Oriole rookie since Al Bumbry in '73 (23) and was the 1st rookie to top the O's in stolen bases since Don Baylor (24) in '72 . . . Was successful in his 1st 7 tries before being caught on Aug. 2[2] at Cleveland . . . Had a pair of steals at Boston on Sep. 13[2].

Fielding: John had a .981 percentage (4 errors in 213 total chances) in 115 games, all in center . . . Had 3 assists on Sep. 11 at New York, throwing Willie Randolph and Ken Griffey out at the plate while making the 1st relay on a play that nailed Rick Cerone at 2nd . . . That fell one shy of the major league record for outfield assists in a game, a feat that was last accomplished in '31 . . . Of his 9 assists, 5 came against the Yankees and 3 were versus the Royals.

Injury: He was slowed by a bruised left ankle, caused by his own foul ball on July 2 . . . Aggravated the injury on July 12 and did not play again until July 21.

Post-Season: He appeared in the final 3 games of the ALCS with starts in games 2 & 4 . . . Played in all 5 world series contests, starting game 3 . . . Had the game-winning rbi in the 4th game with a pinch-hit sacrifice fly in 6th inning, which snapped a 3-3 tie.

1982: Joined the Orioles on Sep. 1 and made a significant contribution in the Birds' pennant drive . . . Played in 26 of the final 32 games with a .314 (11-for-35) average, including a 4-for-8 performance and a home run in the final 4-game series against Milwaukee.

Dramatic Throw: Was involved in one of the most memorable moments of the pennant race on Sep. 26 at Milwaukee . . . With Baltimore leading 3-2, the Brewers had runners on 1st and 3rd with one out in the bottom of the 8th . . . Cecil Cooper flied out to John, who made a perfect throw to the plate to nail Bob Skube (who had tagged up after the catch) to kill the rally . . . The O's went on to win, 5-2 and cut Milwaukee's lead to 2 games.

Rochester: Was selected as an outfielder on the International League all-star team . . . Led the circuit in at bats (548) and was 4th in hits (153) and total bases (239) . . . Has 13 assists, giving him 92 in his minor league career.

Kluttz Award: Was the '82 recipient of the Clyde Kluttz Memorial Award, given annually to an Oriole organization player who displays great desire, dedication, and loyalty . . . See page 79 for a full explanation and previous winners.

1981: Started the year with Charlotte but was promoted to Rochester in June . . . Led entire O's system in at bats (577), doubles (32), and triples (12) . . . Made major league debut with O's in Sep. and played for Miller's Caguas club in the Puerto Rican League during the winter.

Pro Career: Signed by Lamar North . . . Led the Southern League in at bats (560) and was 2nd in assists (21) in '80 . . . Hit in Charlotte club record 21 straight games that year . . . Hit career low .201 in 1st year as switch-hitter at Miami in '79 . . . Tied for Florida State League lead in assists (22) . . . Topped Appalachian League in assists in both '78 (11) and '77 (12, tie).

Amateur Background: Played baseball and basketball at Lexington's Henry Clay High School (graduated '76) . . . Was a shortstop in high school.

Played one year ('77) at Columbia State Community College in Columbia, TN, batting .358 with 6 homers and 30 rbi . . . Also participated in Little League, Babe Ruth League, and Connie Mack programs.

Personal: John and his wife, the former Triana Dixon, were married on Sep. 27, '80.

1983 SEASON

Summary: Ken rebounded from a down year in '82 . . . He was 2nd in the A.L. in walks with 99 (to Rickey Henderson-103) and 5th in on-base pct. (.395); led all dh's in walks and on base pct., and was runner-up to Greg Luzinski in rbi (85 to 95); was 3rd on the club in hits (140) and rbi (85) and 4th in homers (18).

He served as the club's full-time dh for the 2nd straight year and did not appear at all defensively. He has worn a glove only 4 times in the past 2 years (all in '82), most recently on Sep. 28, '82.

One of the biggest reasons for his turnaround in '83 was his improvement as a righthanded batter. From a career low .177 (26-for-147) with no homers in '82, he jumped up to .262 (45-for-175) with 5 home runs in '83. Ken had worked extensively with weights during the off-season to correct the problem that had originated after a Dec. '77 right elbow operation and was seriously aggravated by inaction during the '81 strike. See "Switch Hitting" below for more details.

By Month: April-.232 (13-for-56), 1 hr, 6 rbi, 16 g . . . May-.329 (25-for-76), 5 hr, 13 rbi, 25 g . . . June-.280 (21-for-75), 3 hr, 13 rbi, 24 g . . . July-.258 (24-for-93), 2 hr, 13 rbi, 26 g . . . August-.295 (31-for-105), 5 hr, 23 rbi, 30 g . . . Sep.-Oct.-.255 (26-for-102), 2 hr, 16 rbi, 30 g.

Stretch Run: During the O's 34-10 surge to the eastern division title (Aug. 13 thru Sep. 25), Ken hit .290 (42-for-145), drove in 28 runs in the 42 games he played and forged a .403 on-base pct. (71-for-176).

Miscellaneous: Batted .328 (41-for-125) with runners in scoring position . . . Was 3rd on the club in "key runs" produced (– 1, tie, lead, + 2) with 35, behind Murray-66 and Ripken-54 . . . Batted .275 (60-for-218) in 68 1st half games, and .277 (80-for-289) in 83 games after the all-star break . . . Reached season highs at .303 (May 7) early and .289 (Sep. 15) late in the season. Led O's on road with .325 average (88-for-271).

1983 AND ORIOLES CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Walks: Led the league and set a club record with 19 intentional walks in '83 . . . Has led the Orioles in walks 8 times in 9 seasons (exception '76 when Bobby Grich set the pace), and has finished 2nd in the league 6 times: NL-'73, AL-'75, '77, '78, '79, '83.

His 848 walks for the Orioles rank him 3rd in club history behind: 1-Boog Powell, 889, and 2-Brooks Robinson, 860. He should set a new standard in '84.

With 1,225 career free passes, he is 21st on the all-time list (G.H. Ruth leads at 2056), and 4th among actives behind: Joe Morgan-1799 (4th all-time), Pete Rose-1410 (15th) and Rusty Staub-1241 (20th) . . . Carl Yastrzemski was 3rd all-time with 1845 when he retired.

Ken has drawn 99 or more walks 6 times in the majors, including 4 times over 100 (3 as an Oriole) . . . His 9 year average in the A.L. is 94 . . . He holds club records for most walks, season for 2 clubs, both the Orioles (118 in '75) and the Expos (123 in '73), a rare distinction shared only (according to our research) by Eddie Stanky and John Mayberry.

On-Base Pct: Ken has a .393 lifetime major league on-base percentage (3193-for-8126), and in 9 A.L. seasons, he has reached safely at a.395 clip (2235-for-5652). His A.L. figure represents an O's record (2nd-Bob Nieman .393, 3rd-Don Buford .385) . . . NOTE: The official formula for determining on-base percentage is: h + bb + hp divided by ab + bb + hp + sf.

His best year from an on-base standpoint was '77 (.438, 285-for-651) when he fell just shy of Nieman's club mark, set in '58 (.442, 211-for-477) . . . Earlier he had a big year at Montreal, '73, with a .425 on-base percentage.

Batting Average: He holds the club record for highest average, season (.328 in '77) . . . Led the club in batting in each of his first 4 Baltimore seasons ('75 thru '78) and just missed the next year ('79) when Murray beat him by .00064 (though both hit .295 officially).

Batting Streaks: Has had 12 batting streaks of 10 or more games during his O's career, but 9 has been his longest in each of the past 3 seasons. His best for the Birds was 17 in '78.

Designated Hitting: Has a .267 average (355-for-1328) as a dh in 374 games after batting .275 (139-for-506) in that capacity a year ago . . . His on-base pct. as a dh was .394 last year and is .373 lifetime.

Home Runs: Homered in back-to-back games 3 times in '83 . . . Gave the O's (and Mike Flanagan) the win in the 1st 1-0 game ever played in Minnesota's 2-year old HHH Metrodome with a 9th inning homer off Frank Viola on Sep. 2nd, then hit his 4th career grand slam the next day, off Len Whitehouse (see page 11 for grand slam details).

Hit 2 home runs in a game on May 13 at Texas (both off Charlie Hough) for the 6th time in his career . . . 1983 was the 5th year in which he has hit 18 or more homers . . . Now ranks 5th on Baltimore's all time home run list (176, 3 behind Frank Robby . . . Boog Powell leads at 303).

Hit 35 home runs in '79, and is one of only 6 players who have hit 30 or more for the O's in 30 Baltimore seasons. The Others: Boog Powell (4 times), Frank Robinson and Murray (3 each), Jim Gentile (twice) and Gus Triandos (once).

Mike Flanagan has been a frequent beneficiary of Ken's home run power over the years . . . Since Mike debuted with the O's on Sep. 5, '75, Ken has hit 164 home runs, 47 of them (29%) in games Flanagan pitched.

Vs. Seattle: Ken has been tuned into Seattle pitching since the Mariners came into the league in '77 . . . Last year he hit .390 (16-for-41) with 2 hr & 11 rbi in 12 games, and lifetime he sports a .343 average (84-for-245) with 22 homers and 70 rbi in 69 games. All 3 of those figures represent career highs vs. one adversary.

At the Kingdome, Ken batted .500 (12-for-24) in '83 with a home run and 10 rbi in 6 games. Lifetime, in 34 games at Seattle, he has driven in 35 runs and hit 12 homers.

Vs. Other Opponents: He has career averages over .300 against 2 other clubs: .326 vs. Boston (132-for-405) and .317 (99-for-312) vs. Minnesota . . . His lowest lifetime average against one opponent is .265 (90-for-339) vs. Chicago and his home run low is 6 against Boston . . . See pages 34-37 for more details on hitting vs. other clubs.

MVO/MVP: Has won annual "Most Valuable Oriole" award 3 times ('75, '77, '79). Only Brooks and Eddie (4 times each) have earned that distinction more often while Frank Robby was also a 3-time winner.

In '79 he was 2nd in the A.L. "mvp" vote (241) behind Don Baylor (347) . . . Baylor, Ken and George Brett were mentioned on all 28 ballots, but Don had 20 1st place votes to Ken's 3 and Brett's 2.

In '77, he was 3rd in the "mvp" race with 200 votes behind: Rod Carew (273) and Al Cowens (217).

Ejections: Has been ejected 3 times in the A.L.: (1) by Russ Goetz on Aug. 27, '75; (2) by emergency umpire Richard Heitzer for throwing helmet Apr. 13, '79, and (3) by Don Denkinger for charging Twins' Paul Hartzell after 2 high & tight pitches Sep. 1, '79.

ALL-STAR AND POST-SEASON

All-Star Games: Ken is the only Oriole to have been elected to the A.L.'s starting team in the last 7 years (since Bobby Grich in '76) . . . He was picked (541,100 votes) in '81, finishing 2nd among all outfielders to Reggie Jackson (631,522) and ahead of Dave Winfield.

Ken played leftfield, hit the A.L.'s only home run (off Tom Seaver) to give the Junior Circuit a 1-0 lead in the 2nd inning, and also chipped in with a single in 3 official trips. He is one of only 3 Orioles to have hit All-Star homers along with Brooks ('67) and Frank ('71).

He had been selected to the A.L. squad twice previously, in '77 & '79 . . . In '77 he was hit by a Rick Reuschel pitch in his only plate appearance at Yankee Stadium, was 0-for-1 as a pinch-hitter at Seattle in '79.

ALCS/WS-'83: Started all 4 ALCS games as the O's dh, but because the designated hitter rule was not in effect for the '83 WS, Ken saw action in only 2 games, both times as a pinch-hitter.

In game #4 at Philadelphia, he was one of a record 4 pinch-hitters used by Joe Altobelli in the decisive 6th inning in which the O's tallied twice to take a 4-3 lead (they ultimately won 5-4) . . . Ken, batting for Rick Dempsey with the bases loaded against John Denny, drew a walk that produced the tying run.

ALCS/WS-'79: Had a combined .364 average (16-for-44) in 10 post-season games . . . Went 3-for-4 with 2 rbi in the ALCS clincher at Anaheim (game #4).

SWITCH-HITTING

Lifetime: In the majors Ken is batting .296 lefthanded (1422-for-4801) with 182 hr & 653 rbi. From the right side he has hit .261 (529-for-2025) with 58 hr & 276 rbi.

In the American League only, his lefthanded average is .301 (1018-for-3377) with 132 hr and 544 rbi . . . Righthanded he is batted .261 (359-for-1375) with 44 hr & 186 rbi . . . His A.L. on-base percentage lefthanded is .410 and righthanded .359.

Righthanded Power Drought: His home run off Shane Rawley in Yankee Stadium on June 27 last year was his first from the right side (against a lefthander) since he went deep against Seattle's Jerry Don Gleaton on Aug. 24, '81 . . . This was the 1st of 5 righthanded homers in '83.

Best Year Righthanded: In '77 Ken hit .377 (59-for-158) from the right and was over .400 until Sep. 11 . . . That year he batted .310 lefthanded . . . The only other season he has hit righthanded was in '70 for the Mets (.328 to .234, 69 games) . . . His best year lefthanded was '78 (.318).

Home Runs: He ranks 3rd on all-time list of switchers with 240 home runs behind: Mickey Mantle-536 and Reggie Smith-314 . . . Ted Simmons is 4th at 222 and Murray 5th at 198.

He is one of only 2 switchers to have enjoyed a 35 home run season ('79). The only other is Mickey Mantle who did it 6 times . . . Ken and Murray are 2 of only 5 switch-hitters to have hit 30 or more, along with Mantle (9), Reggie Smith (2) and Rip Collins (1).

Ken & Eddie Combo: In '80, Ken and Eddie became only the 2nd pair of switchers (on same team) to produce 100 rbi each in a single season . . . The only others were Simmons and Smith with the '74 Cardinals.

Natural Lefty: Though a natural lefthander (he eats and writes lefthanded), Ken batted righthanded until becoming a permanent switch hitter in '65 (late in his amateur career).

1982: Despite his lowest average in 8 Baltimore seasons (.251) batted .342 (41-for-120) with men in scoring position . . . Appeared in 148 games as a dh . . . From the end of the '81 strike thru '82, hit only .241 (177-for-733) in 206 games.

1981: Enjoyed a fabulous April (see below) and still led the league in batting thru May 24 at .383 (49-for-128) and was among leaders in homers (9) and rbi (31) in just 36 games. He batted only .221 (52-for-235) over his final 67 games from that point with 4 homers & 18 rbi . . . After the strike was settled he hit only .209 (36-for-172) in 50 games.

April: Ken homered in his 1st at bat of the year (opening day vs. K.C.) and went on to hit .472 (25-for-53) in April with 7 hr & 14 rbi in 15 games. It was the highest average ever by an Oriole in the opening month and the highest in the majors since '73 . . . His on base percentage for the month was .517 (30-for-58) and his slugging percentage .981 (52 bases in 53 at bats) . . . Not surprisingly he was the A.L.'s "player of the month".

10-for-10: During that April spree, Ken set a club standard with 10 straight hits over a 2½ game span, all in Baltimore (Apr. 26-28) . . . His final hit in that stretch was a home run off Chicago's Richard Dotson who then got him on a gidp next trip.

Included among the 10 hits were 4 doubles and 2 homers plus 6 rbi . . . The previous club record was 8 straight hits, held jointly by Brooks Robinson (twice), Bob "Rocky" Johnson and Don Baylor.

1980: Led majors in gwrbi (19), batted over .300 for the 4th time (3rd with O's), drove in 100 runs for the 2nd straight year and had a career high 177 hits.

1979: Enjoyed his most productive A.L. season with career highs in homers (35) and rbi (111), finished 2nd to Don Baylor in "mvp" vote (see "mvo/mvp" above); was 2nd to Darrell Porter in walks (109 to 122) . . . Lost club batting title to Murray on last day of season.

1978: Though slowed by effects of a Dec. 10, '77 operation for removal of bone chips and transplantation of the ulnar nerve in right elbow, Ken led O's in hitting for 4th straight time and was 2nd in the league in both walks (97) and on-base percentage (.409).

1977: Set club record with .328 average, surpassing Nieman's '56 mark of .322. Was 3rd in A.L. behind Carew and the late Lyman Bostock in batting, and was 2nd in both on-base percentage (.438) and walks (107) while tying Lee May for the club lead in rbi (99) . . . Won his 2nd "mvo" award.

1976: Was hitting only .185 (28-for-151) on June 2 thru 42 games, then batted .312 (123-for-393) the rest of the way, hitting safely in 91 of his last 112 games. Beat out Reggie Jackson as the O's top hitter (.278 to .277) on last day of season but was 2nd to Bobby Grich in both on-base percentage and walks.

1975: Won the "mvo" award by a slim margin over Jim Palmer . . . Set club record with 118 walks (one behind league leader John Mayberry) and led the A.L. in plate appearances (714) . . . Batted primarily in the leadoff position.

National League: Ken was Mets' 1st pick in January '67 free agent draft (signed by Clarence "Bubber" Jonnard) . . . Made big league debut with Mets in June '70 after being recalled from Tidewater where he was leading International League in batting (.388).

Had his 1st 2 big league hits in his 3rd game (at Montreal) including his 1st career homer (off Expos' Bill Stoneman) on June 26, '70.

His 1st outstanding season in majors was in '73 at Montreal, a full year after he'd been traded by the Mets in the Rusty Staub deal . . . That year he set several Montreal club records (100 runs, 103 rbi, 123 walks) and hit .300 . . . Played in every game that year and led majors in outfield assists (20).

Amateur Background: Ken was a baseball and basketball standout at Mt. Vernon High School in New York . . . Went to Hofstra (Hempstead, L.I.) on a basketball scholarship, but also played baseball there (1 year) . . . Averaged 18 points as a freshman in basketball.

Hit 36 home runs in 3 seasons in semi-pro Bronx Federation League where he started at the age of 15 and played against Rod Carew.

Roberto Clemente Award: He was the '82 recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award which is presented annually by Major League Baseball to the player who best exemplifies the game, both on and off the field. That selection is made by a panel of media representatives and baseball executives . . . Ken was the 2nd Oriole to be so honored. Brooks Robinson won in '72.

He was also awarded the prestigious "Jimmie Swartz Medallion" in '82 for his extensive community service in the Baltimore area.

He has served as honorary chairman of the Maryland Association of Sickle Cell Services and for United Cerebral Palsy of Central Maryland, and is actively involved on behalf of several other charities. For the past 4 years he has purchased a block of tickets for Orioles Sunday home games and has distributed them to needy senior citizens.

Japan: Accompanied Earl Weaver, Rick Dempsey, Dennis Martinez, trainer Ralph Salvon and club physician Dr. Leonard Wallenstein to Japan in the fall of '78 for a series of games between A.L. and N.L. all-star teams.

Personal: Born in New York City, but moved out to Stamford, CT when he was 8 . . . One year later the family moved to Mt. Vernon.

His brother, Fred (5 years younger) was a hurler at Penn State and is now a track coach at White Plains New York High . . . His father, Joseph, worked for the U.S. Postal Service for many years in Manhattan. Now retired, he and Ken's mother have moved to the Baltimore area . . . His uncle Harvey (Buddy) Singleton was once a tackle for the Toronto Argonauts.

Ken met his wife, the former Colette Saint-Jacques of Vercheres, Quebec while she was working at the Forum in Montreal . . . They were married Jan. 5, '74 and have 2 sons: Matthew Kenneth (11/24/76) and Justin Charles (4/10/79).

After spending two winters in southern California, the Singletons sold their house there in '79 and returned to Baltimore where they purchased a home in Timonium, in Baltimore County . . . Ken has spent several off-seasons working at WBAL-TV in Baltimore.

Baltimore Memorial Stadium was built for $6 million on 28¾ acres of city owned property and financed by two city bond issues.

Over the years, there have been some changes made. In '54, the distance from home plate to the fence in dead center was 450'. That has been whittled down gradually to its present 405'.

The Orioles dugout was originally on the first base side, but when some 2,600 field boxes were installed in front of the original boxes in '61 (prior to that there was an 8' wall between the front row of the boxes and the field, and Baltimore led the world in foul territory), new dugouts had to be constructed and the home team moved over to third base.

In 1964 additional upper deck sections were added, increasing the capacity by another 2,600 seats. In 1970 (mid-season) the new scoreboard was installed. In recent years the old splintery wooden benches (without backs) have been completely replaced by chairs and non-wooden benches with back rests, and a 35th row has been added to the upper deck.

In 1980, six new towers, housing a new ticket window and additional ticket office space, storage areas and rest rooms, were completed in the latest Memorial Stadium renovations.

1983 SEASON SUMMARY

Baltimore: John served 2 tours of duty with the O's . . . He was first called up from Charlotte June 22 to replace Joe Nolan (broken toe) . . . When Nolan recovered, he was optioned to Rochester, then returned to Baltimore Sep. 1.

While he was with the O's, John made 3 big contributions to the cause. His first was a 2-run game-tying double in the 9th inning at Yankee Stadium June 30 off Goose Gossage. Unfortunately, the O's eventually lost in 12. They were his first big league rbi.

Then, on back-to-back nights in Baltimore, Sep. 18 and 19 vs. the Brewers, he delivered "sudden death" game-winning singles. On the 18th he connected with 1 out in the 9th off Pete Ladd to score Glenn Gulliver with the winning run (O's trailed at one time 0-7 in that game) . . . On the 19th, as a pinch-hitter he singled home the tie-breaker with 2 outs in the 11th off Tom Tellmann.

Charlotte: Was among league leaders in hr (16) and rbi (34) when he first came up to Baltimore . . . Batted .391 (27-for-69) over 19 games from May 23 thru June 12 with 8 hr & 14 rbi and raised his average from .265 to .313 . . . Hit 7 hrs in a stretch of 11 games (May 31 thru June 11) . . . Made 12 errors behind the plate . . . Played one game in the outfield.

Rochester: Hit home runs in each of his first 2 games at Rochester then did not find the range again in his last 34 games . . .

1982: Trained with O's for first time in Miami . . . Three of his 1st 6 hrs were grand slams, all at Charlotte . . .

1981: Ranked among Carolina League leaders in homers (25, 4th), rbi (82, 5th) and batting (.287, 8th) . . . Escaped serious injury on Apr. 14 when club bus overturned and he was thrown thru window . . . Caught in 93 games and played one each at 3b and in of.

Led Carolina League's Northern Division to a 9-3 win over south with 2 hrs & 4 rbi to earn mvp honors at Durham.

'79 & '80: Signed by the late Dick Bowie after an original recommendation by Jim Gilbert . . . Was primarily a 3rd baseman as an amateur, and played in 49 games at 2nd base in 1st pro season at Bluefield in '79 (caught just 5 games).

Heeding Bowie's advice and with instruction from Lance Nichols, he became a fulltime catcher (81 g) at Miami in '80.

Led Bluefield in homers (8) and rbi (42) in '79 . . . Played at Indios in Columbian Winter League Sep. '80.

Amateur Background: Played at Motlow State C.C. (Tullahoma, TN) in '78, majoring in business & management. Earned all-conference, all-region and all-Tennessee J.C. honors.

Lettered 4 times in baseball and once in football at Baltimore's Mt. St. Joseph's High School (graduated '77) . . . Participated in Little League and Babe Ruth programs in Brooklyn, MD . . . Also played semi-pro ball in Baltimore for AAABA Mike's in '77 & '78 and for Johnny's in '79.

Played on Baltimore major league semi-pro all-star team against the Korean National College All-Stars at Memorial Stadium on June 25, '79 and hit a home run . . . He was signed by the O's the next day.

Personal: Hobbies are fishing, sports cars and horseback riding . . . Single.

THE 1983 SEASON AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Used almost exclusively in relief (one start) for the 1st time in his career, Sammy set a club record and finished 2nd among American League relievers with 140.1 innings pitched. Overall, he established career highs for appearances (58), innings pitched (144.1), saves (7), and strikeouts (95). He was outstanding over the final 2½ months, winning an O's season best 7 straight games in one span, and did not allow a run in 5 post-season outings.

Season Summary: Sammy was 2-2 with a 4.30 earned run average (75.1 ip, 77 h, 36 er) in 27 games (1 start) before the all-star break and 7-2 with a 2.87 era (69 ip, 61 h, 22 er) in 31 2nd half contests. Appeared as a pinch-runner on Aug. 12 vs. Chicago.

Was especially effective down the stretch . . . Over his last 27 games beginning July 20, compiled a 7-1 mark with a 2.39 era (17 er/64 ip) . . . After losing to Oakland on July 9, won his next 7 decisions before a setback at Detroit on Sep. 22, his final decision of the year . . . That was a personal career best and an Orioles season high.

Relief: Sammy was 9-3 with a 3.46 era (140.1 ip, 130 h, 54 er) in 57 appearances out of the bullpen . . . Was scored upon in 19 of 1st 24 appearances, then allowed a run in just 15 of his final 33 outings.

Retired 35 of 57 1st batters while allowing 55 inherited runners to score . . . In the Rolaids Relief competition, finished with 29 points (two points for each win and save minus one point for each loss), 2nd on the club to Tippy Martinez (57) . . . Finished 21 games.

Saves For: Saved 2 games for Mike Flanagan and one each for Mike Boddicker, Storm Davis, Dennis Martinez, Scott McGregor, and Allan Ramirez.

Strong Finishes: For the past 4 seasons, Sammy has been a more effective reliever in the 2nd half . . . In that period ('80-'83), is 8-10 with a 3.51 era (74 er/190 ip) and 9 saves in 63 games before the all-star break and 18-7 with a 2.48 era (60 er/218 ip) and 13 saves in 77 contests in the 2nd half.

His career relief totals are a 31-22 record and a 3.14 era (501.1 ip, 431 h, 175 er) in 167 appearances.

Innings Pitched/Long Stints: His 140.1 relief innings in '83 was the 2nd highest total in the league to Boston's Bob Stanley (145.1) and broke the club record of 119, set by Stu Miller in '65.

Worked 3 or more innings 26 times with a season high of 7.1 frames vs. Boston on June 17 . . . Has now pitched 7 or more relief innings 8 times in his career with the longest being an 8.1 inning performance at Detroit on Sep. 28, '81.

Starts: Sammy made only one start in '83, a career low . . . Lost to Toronto and Dave Stieb, 6-0, on May 21 at Exhibition Stadium, allowing 8 hits and 4 runs in 4 innings.

Pitched only once in relief in his last 3 minor league seasons ('76, '77, '78) but in 5 full big league campaigns ('79-'83) has made just 22 starts in 189 appearances ('79-3; '80-3; '81-3; '82-12; '83-1) . . . Did start twice when made major league debut in Sep. '78.

Is 8-12 in 24 career starts with a 4.63 era (142 ip, 145 h, 73 er) and 4 complete games.

Vs. Opponents: He was 2-0 against both Chicago and Texas and has won 3 straight against the White Sox in the last 2 seasons after dropping 4 in a row to that club.

Has career highs for wins (6), decisions (11), games (21), and innings (79) against Detroit . . . Is 3-0 lifetime vs. Boston, California, and Minnesota . . . See page 28 for complete statistics vs. opponents.

Post-Season: Sammy did not allow a run in 9.1 innings and struck out 8 in 5 post-season appearances.

In the ALCS, appeared in games 1 (0.1 ip) and 3, when he blanked the White Sox on 1 hit over the final 4 innings to save an 11-1 win for Mike Flanagan.

Pitched in games 1 (0.2 ip), 3 (2 ip), and 4 (2.1 ip) of the world series.

In his only '79 post-season outing, hurled 2.2 scoreless innings in game 4 of the world series at Pittsburgh.

Pickoffs: In his 5 plus seasons in the majors, Sammy has picked 13 runners off base (one scored as caught stealing), 9 of those coming at 2nd base . . . Less than half the runners attempting to steal against him (30 of 58) have been successful.

1982: He set a career high with 10 victories despite being disabled from June 22 thru July 15 with knee problems . . . During that time underwent an extensive therapy program designed to cure his aching knees, which were a result of both tiny bone chips and the fact that Sammy's right leg was a half inch shorter than his left.

Also made 2 starts on "rehabilitation assignment" at Hagerstown (class A) in early July.

Was 3-5 with a 5.40 era in career high 12 starts and 7-4 with a 3.09 era in 26 relief appearances . . . Used primarily in relief during the 2nd half.

1981: Sammy had the lowest earned run average in the American League for actual number of innings pitched but lost the era title at season's end in a disputed decision (see "Earned Run Average Dispute" below) . . . Was 4-5 with 4 saves and a 1.58 era in 26 relief outings and 0-3 with a 6.89 era in 3 starts.

Earned Run Average Dispute: Despite allowing 5 runs in 1.2 innings in his last game of the year (Oct. 2 vs. N.Y.), it appeared that Sammy had won the A.L. era title in a close race with Oakland's Steve McCatty.

Stewart allowed 29 earned runs in 112.1 innings for a 2.32351 era to edge McCatty, who surrendered 48 runs in 185.2 innings for a 2.32670 era.

However, official playing rule 10.22 called for earned run averages to be figured after rounding off the number of innings pitched to the nearest full inning. When this was done, McCatty had the lower era 2.32258 (rounded up to 186 innings) to Stewart's 2.33036 (rounded down to 112 innings). After a review of the situation, the Official Scoring Rules Committee declared McCatty the winner with Stewart placing 2nd. The rule was changed at the '81 annual baseball meetings to determine era on actual innings pitched, effective with the '82 season.

Had Sammy won the title, he would have been the 1st A.L. era leader with a losing record (4-8) in 58 years.

1980: Was 5-5 with 3 saves and 3.46 era in 30 relief appearances and 1-2 with 3.80 era in 3 starts . . . Finished strong with a 4-0 mark, 3 saves, and a 1.83 era in his last 12 outings (all in relief).

1979: Also pitched mostly in long relief but also started 3 games (once every 6 weeks between Apr. 21 and July 21) and won them all.

1978: Was recalled from Rochester on Sep. 1 with Dave Ford and Tim Stoddard to help the O's thru a stretch of 5 games in 3 days against Chicago . . . Beat the White Sox in 1st start (see below) and lost a start to Detroit 4 weeks later in only other appearance.

Record Breaker: Made his debut the day he reported (Sep. 1) and set a big league record (in the 2nd game of a dh) by striking out 7 straight batters in his 1st game. Sammy went 5.1 innings and struck out a total of 9 and was the winning pitcher.

Minors: Won 7 of his last 9 decisions and led Rochester in wins (13), era (3.80), and strikeouts (111) in '78 . . . Started the '77 season with the Wings after making the jump from class A Miami, but was sent down to Class AA Charlotte in June after 0-5 start.

Pitched a 7 inning no-hitter for Miami against the Winter Haven Red Sox on July 20, '76, winning 1-0 . . . That year led the Florida State League in walks (86) but was tops among the Miami starters in era (2.42) and innings (182).

Signing: Was drafted by the K.C. Royals while in junior college, but did not sign . . . After not being picked in the June '75 draft, attended a major league tryout camp in Asheville where was signed for the O's by Rip Tudor.

Amateur Background: Played baseball and basketball for 2 years at Montreat-Anderson J.C. (Montreat, N.C.) . . . Had the lowest era (0.36) in the nation among J.C. pitchers in '74 . . . Was a shortstop and designated hitter when not pitching, batted .378, and was the "mvp" in the conference that year.

Played in the Shenandoah Valley Summer Baseball League, while in college . . . As a basketball player, averaged 15.4 points in 2 seasons at Montreat-Anderson.

Lettered four years in baseball, basketball, and football at Charles D. Owen High School . . .

Played Little League, Babe Ruth, and American Legion baseball . . . His legion team won the N.C. state championship in'72.

Personal: Owns a home in Baltimore . . . Hobbies: golf, hunting, and fishing.

Sammy and his wife, the former Peggy Jean Logan, were married on Jan. 22, '77, and are the parents of 2 children: Colin Timothy (8/1/79) and Alicia Lynn (6/25/82).

1—Selected by Baltimore organization in June '79 free agent draft (26th round, Baltimore's 25th selection, regular phase). Signed by Jack Sanford on 6/9/79.

Pitches: Fastball, curve, slider, and change.

THE 1983 SEASON

Bill spent 51 days in 2 separate stints with Baltimore but his most memorable appearance came in his major league debut, when he stopped the Western Division leading Chicago White Sox on 2 runs thru the 1st 6 innings and helped the O's snap a 7-game losing streak (see below).

Baltimore: He had no record and a 5.19 era (8.2 ip, 12 h, 5 er) in 2 starts and was 1-1 with a 1.38 era (13 ip, 11 h, 2 er) in 5 relief appearances.

Major League Debut: With the Orioles' starting rotation depleted because of injuries and doubleheaders, Bill's contract was purchased from Rochester on Aug. 13 . . . Made his 1st big league appearance that night at Chicago, starting in place of the injured Storm Davis (stiffness in right forearm) . . . Allowed just 2 runs and 7 hits over the 1st 7 innings and left with the score tied, 2-2 . . . Baltimore scored 3 times in the final 2 innings to win for Sammy Stewart, 5-2, as the Birds ended a season-high 7-game losing streak.

Did not pitch again before returning to Rochester on Aug. 21.

Second Stint: He was recalled again by the O's on Sep. 1 and pitched 6 times in the last month . . . Started at Detroit on Sep. 21[2], but did not figure in the decision (2.2 ip, 5 h, 3 r-er) . . . Recorded 1st major league win on Sep. 13[2] at Boston, allowing just one run in 5.1 innings of relief . . . Did not allow an earned run in final 3 appearances (6 ip) and finished all 3 games . . . Pitched 3 hitless innings vs. New York on Sep. 30[1] . . . Surrendered just one homer in his 21.2 innings of work.

Rochester: He sustained a broken right hand during the off-season and missed the 1st month of the regular season . . . Was reactivated on May 6 and was 1-1 in 6 relief appearances for Rochester before joining the regular rotation on May 30 . . . In that 1st start, defeated Richmond, 8-1, with 7-hit complete game shutout.

Won his 1st 3 and 5 of his 1st 6 starts . . . Despite spending time with O's, led the Red Wings in wins (9) and was 2nd in innings pitched (118.1) and complete games (3, tied) . . . Was 8-5 with a 4.55 era (49 er/97 ip) in 17 starts.

1982: He was used in both relief and as a starter for Rochester, the 1st time he had started since '79 . . . Led the International League pitchers in fielding with a 1.000 percentage (0 e/32 tc) . . . Was on Baltimore's major league roster during spring training.

Pro Career: Was Charlotte's top reliefer in'81 with a team low 2.02 era and 10 saves . . . Missed over 3 weeks in June with tendinitis in his right shoulder.

Pitched that winter for Ray Miller at Caguas in the Puerto Rican League and was 5-1 with 2 saves when he caught his thumb in a car door in mid-December . . . Was sent home for the rest of the winter to allow thumb to heal.

Started the '80 season at Miami and was promoted to Charlotte in June . . . Pitched at Indios in the Columbian League that winter and won the era title at 1.29, hurling a league record 39 consecutive scoreless innings in one span.

Amateur Background: Pitched at Stetson University (DeLand, FL) in '78 and '79 and at St. John's River C.C. (Palatka, FL) in '76 and '77 . . . Played 4 years each of baseball and football at Palatka South High School (graduated '75) . . . Was team captain and "mvp" as senior when Palatka won state baseball title.

Also participated in Little League, Babe Ruth League, American Legion, and Cape Cod League programs.

Personal: Is a member of the followship of Christian Athletes . . . Graduated from Stetson in '79 with a degree in physical education . . . Hobbies: fishing and reading.

Spent the winter in Baltimore and was a member of the Orioles' highly successful basketball team . . . Single.

1—Selected by Baltimore organization in June '78 free agent draft (seventh round Baltimore's tenth selection, secondary phase) . . . Signed on 6/8/78.

Pitches: Fastball, curve, slider, and change.

THE 1983 SEASON

After an outstanding spring training, Don made the Orioles' 25-man roster at the start of the season . . . Pitched in just 11 games before being optioned to Rochester on June 7 and spent the rest of the year there.

Spring Training: Don was 2-1 with a 1.33 era (3 er/20.1 ip) in 10 Grapefruit League appearances (1 start) . . . Did not allow an earned run in his 1st 15.1 innings of work over 8 appearances.

Baltimore: He pitched mostly in long relief for the O's . . . Did not work for the 1st 10 days of the regular season before suffering his 1st major league loss at Chicago on Apr. 14 . . . Was also the loser on Apr. 22 at California . . . His longest stint was a 4.2 inning performance vs. Cleveland on Apr. 20.

Best effort came on May 9 against Seattle, when he allowed just one unearned run and one hit with 4 strikeouts in 4 innings . . . Allowed at least one earned run in 9 of his 11 appearances . . . Surrendered only one home run in 26.2 innings pitched . . . Finished 3 games.

Rochester: Don struggled most of the year with the Red Wings . . . Was 2nd on the club in starts (18), tied for 2nd in complete games (3) and 3rd in innings pitched (110.2) . . . Lost his 1st 4 and 9 of his 1st 11 decisions thru Aug. 3 . . . Won back-to-back starts vs. Pawtucket (Aug. 9) and Richmond (Aug. 14), allowing just 3 earned runs in 15 innings, but then dropped his last 3 outings . . . Was 2-0 with a 0.64 era (1 er/14 ip) in 2 starts against Pawtucket.

1982: Led Rochester in wins (12), starts (25), complete games (6), and innings pitched (163) . . . Pitched a 7-inning one-hit shutout against Charleston on May 23[2] and a 2-hit 10-inning shutout vs. Pawtucket on Aug. 21 . . . Was 5-0 over final 6 starts.

Was recalled by the Orioles on Sep. 12 and picked up a win in 1st major league appearance, hurling 1.2 scoreless relief innings vs. New York on Sep. 15.

Pro Career: Tied for 3rd in the Southern League in wins (13) and complete games (11) at Charlotte in '81 . . . Went 10-2 over 2 month stretch from June 19 thru Aug. 20 . . . THE 1983 SEASON

Mike was with the Orioles for a total of 59 days, spending time with the big club in June and July, when Dan Ford was injured, and again in September.

Baltimore: He was recalled on June 24 when Ford went on the disabled list with a strained knee and batted .214 (6-for-28) in 15 games over the next 4 weeks . . . Started 5 games in right and 2 in left . . . Singled off George Frazier on June 30 at New York for 1st major league hit . . . Was 2-for-3 vs. Oakland on July 13 and had game-winning 2-run triple on July 15 against California . . . Returned to Rochester on July 20 when Ford was reactivated.

Rejoined the O's on Sep. 1 and was 0-for-8 in 10 games the rest of the way . . . Fielded .929 (2 e/25 tc) with both of the errors coming in the same game, Sep. 29 vs. Detroit . . . Was 0-for-5 as a pinch-hitter and 0-for-3 in a dh role.

Rochester: Despite his stint with Baltimore, Mike led the Red Wings in rbi (66), tied for the club lead in stolen bases (18), and was 2nd in triples (8) and homers (14) . . . Batted .262 (64-for-244) with 8 homers and 46 rbi in 65 games before his 1st recall and .326 (42-for-129) with 6 homers and 20 rbi in 37 games during his 2nd stint with Rochester.

Hit .490 (25-for-51) in 14 game span, Aug. 7 thru 22 . . . Also batted safely in 14 straight games from May 24 thru June 4 at .309 (17-for-55) clip . . . Had a pair of 2-homer games, May 17 vs. Syracuse and Aug. 15[7] against Pawtucket . . . Was 4-for-4 vs. Pawtucket on Aug. 14.

Batted .348 (55-for-158) at Rochester but just .237 (51-for-215) on the road . . . Fielded .971 (6 e/208 tc).

Winter Ball: He played for Ray Miller's Santurce club in the Puerto Rican League this winter and hit .322 (57-for-177) with 12 homers and 36 rbi in 50 games . . . Hit a pair of homers in semi-final playoff series, which Santurce lost to Ponce, 4 games to 3.

1982: Tied for 2nd in the International League with 137 games played, was 3rd in triples (11), and 4th in walks (82) . . . Hit a career high 16 homers . . . Topped the I.L. with 140 strikeouts.

Joined the Orioles on Sep. 11 and made major league debut as pinch-runner on Sep. 14[1] vs. New York.

Pro Career: In '81 hit a composite .331 (170-for-513) with 15 homers, 79 rbi, and 40 stolen bases in 139 games with 3 clubs . . . Was leading the Florida State League in batting at .345 when promoted from Miami to Charlotte on June 17 . . . Was selected to F.I.L. all-star outfield at end of season despite spending only 2 months in the league.

In '80, had the highest average among the regulars at Miami at .267 and led the Florida State League with 17 assists . . . Became a switch-hitter in the Florida Instructional League that fall and was selected as the club's "hardest workers."

Amateur Background: Played 1 season at St. Mary's College (Moraga, CA) . . . Transferred to Chabot Junior College in Haywood, CA in Sep. '79 and played fall baseball there.

Lettered in baseball and basketball at Hayward High School (graduated '78) . . . Was all-league in baseball 3 seasons and team captain senior year . . . Was drafted by the Cleveland Indians out of high school but did not sign.

Also participated in Little League, Babe Ruth League, American Legion and Connie Mack baseball programs.

TRAINERS

RALPH SALVON is in his 17th year as Orioles' head trainer, 2nd in seniority among A.L. trainers behind Milwaukee's Freddy Frederico. A baseball trainer since graduating from Gus Mauch's Trainers' School in '52, Ralph joined Baltimore in '66 as an assistant to Eddie Weidner. When Eddie retired in '68 after 52 years with the ballclub, Ralph replaced him. The Fitchburg, MA native previously trained in the Orioles, St. Louis Browns, Kansas City A's, and Houston Astros farm systems.

RICHIE BANCELLS joins the Orioles this year as assistant trainer. He had served as trainer and traveling secretary at the O's AAA Rochester affiliate for the past 4 seasons. A Key West, FL native and a graduate of Biscayne College, Richie joined the Baltimore organization in '77, serving as assistant trainer for Miami (Florida State League) in '77 and head trainer at Bluefield (Appalachian League) in '78-'79.

BIRDS' FIRST GAME IN BALTIMORE IN '54

The modern American League Orioles made their Baltimore debut in Memorial Stadium on April 15, 1954 before a crowd of 46,354 including Vice President Richard M. Nixon who threw out the first ball. Behind the seven hit pitching of Bob Turley who fanned nine, the Orioles of Jimmy Dykes defeated Paul Richards' White Sox, 3-1, in Baltimore's first American league game in 52 years. Chico Carrasquel, the Chicago shortstop, was the first to bat in the new stadium and singled off Turley.

Clint Courtney won the distinction of hitting the first home run in the brand new stadium (built on the site of the previous municipally owned ballpark used by the International League O's). It was a bases empty blast off Virgil Trucks who also yielded a solo homer to Vern Stephens in the fourth and was the losing pitcher.

The Birds' starting lineup in that game was: Bobby Young, 2b; Eddie Waitkus, 1b; Gil Coan, cf; Vic Wertz, rf; Sam Mele, lf; Stephens, 3b; Billy Hunter, ss; Courtney, c and Turley, p.

Many have forgotten that the O's opened that first season on the road, at Detroit, where Don Larsen lost to Steve Gromek, 3-0, on April 13 (the Birds' first game ever) . . . The next day at Tiger Stadium (Apr. 14) Duane Pillette gave the O's their first victory, a 3-2 decision over Ray Herbert.
